Professor Randolph honored for 16 years of service

Professor Bill Randolph is: (more than one answer may be used)

- a. honest
- b. quick-witted
- c. hard working
- d. willing listener
- e. known for easy tests

If you have marked all of the above (except for possibly answer e!) you have answered correctly.

This Godly man has greatly influenced the lives of many students at Northwest College with his strong character and understanding heart. He is always willing to listen and give instruction out of his own personal experience. His open involvement with the students has earned him great respect

Professor Randolph first came to Northwest College in the fall of 1958 as a freshman. For the next three years, music was his emphasis. Then his plans changed, and he transferred to Cascade College in Portland to pursue his teaching degree. He completed his M.A. in Education in the early seventies.

After teaching public school for three years, Professor Randolph realized a dream come true — coming back to NC as a teacher. He moved here to Kirkland with his wife Jackie, son Jeff (4) and daughter Teresa (1).

Next to teaching, Professor Randolph loves farming; so every summer he goes back to his in-law's farm in Eastern Washington for several weeks and works in the harvest.

In an isolated part of a garden, a single rose bush stands, its dark and naked branches contrasting sharply against the stark background of winter white. Brown and seemingly dead, it shudders in an icy wind, pitifully stretching its frail arms upward. So also is the soul without the Saviour. Cold and lifeless, it is beaten upon by the chilly wind of disappointment . . .

The very world around it exists only as a frozen void. However, just as the branches of the rose reach, so the soul reaches, groping desperately for something — any small reason to hope. With the season's passing, the sun emerges, warm and glorious upon the garden. Rain comes, pouring out its sweet nourishment on the earth...

The branches of the rose bush become tinted with the green of health, and new leaves begin to grow out from them. This is like the heart which has newly found Christ. New life surges through it, changing its entire aspect with meaning and purpose. It drinks lustily from the living water of the Saviour and basks in the warmth of His unconditional love. But with growth, there always comes pain . . .

Into the life of every rose bush comes thorns. Protruding from its branches like vicious claws, their only semblance of beauty is the glistening raindrops clinging tenaciously to their tips. Thorns appear in the Christian life as well; for with overwhelming victory, there often is first great adversity. Unexplainable tragedy, trying circumstances, and unforeseen difficulties emerge like spikes that pierce the very soul . . .

Our wonderful Creator, however, did not intend to leave the rose with only a fruit of thorns. As time passes, buds begin to form upon the rose branches. Like tiny fists, they push outward, deepening in color from green to scarlet. Uncurling gradually, they savour each moment the Master has designated to them. In the end, they open, revealing a fragile and luminous flower vibrant with color and beauty . . .

The Christian walk is indeed very much like this rose. For God has more than thorns in store for His own. As he works in our lives, He creates first a tiny bud, then carefully nurtures it to a brilliant flower. Then, just as the rose, in the light of that final blossom, even the thorns become a thing of beauty.

Rev. Linfield Crowder, Missionary-Evangelist, was the night speaker for Spring Quarter's Spiritual Emphasis Week Heritage series. Rev.

Crowder, a graduate of Northwest College, has been the Spiritual Emphasis Week speaker five times as well as a frequent chapel guest. After pastoring for four years, he has been in the Evangelistic work for the past 27 years, preaching in all 50 states and many foreign countries around the world.

"The Therapeutic Value of Speaking in Tongues," was Rev. Crowder's theme for the week, a comforting and encouraging series on inner-healing.

The Heritage series focused on the many facets of ministry that have been produced through Northwest College's fifty years. The morning chapel speakers included: Rev. Ben Birkeland (pastor), Rev. Ernie Francis (educator), Rev. Frank Cole (Dist. Superintendent and Administrator), and Rev. Charles Butterfield (missionary).

“Rising To New Heights” — an appropriate theme for the days when high school students came to Northwest hoping that they would receive direction in God’s will for their lives. The 961 students came from all over the western United States to see the campus and experience “college life.” A full list of activities was planned, starting with a typical evening meal in the cafeteria. Then the visitors moved to the chapel where they got a view of what life at Northwest College is all about. It is a place of growth and spiritual renewal. At the chapel service they were treated to entertainment by the summer ministry teams. The final highlight was the traditional basketball game between the varsity team and the alumni.

The most important factor of all, however, was the glimpse the students got of what a spiritually enriching experience life at Northwest College can be

All School Picnic

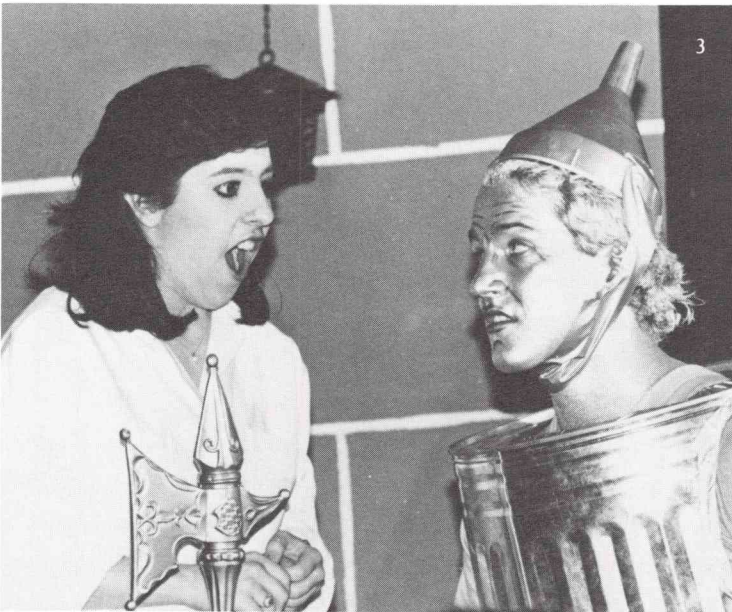

A chill in the air and a cloudy sky set the scene for the annual all-school picnic at Marymoor Park, but the weather warmed up and not a drop of rain fell. The morning was highlighted by class softball games in which Mel Steinmeyer and the sophomore class really showed their stuff, but they were topped by a senior class team built around infielders Monty Hipp, Ky Griffen, Tim Johnson, Steve Long, and a great display of base running by Brian Funk. The seniors were victorious against all opponents including the faculty.

President Hurst made his first appearance in the 501 Levis given to him by the 300 floor guys. It was such a casual day that Ricardo didn't even bring forks or spoons for lunch, so we ate scoops of baked beans and potato salad with pieces of styrofoam cups.

1 "We have come into His house to worship him." 2 "Really guys, I'm serious." 3 "Home cooking, Here I come." 4 "I can't wait to come back for real." 5 "My back, I'm stuck!" 6 "This is how you do it, guys." 7 "We be bad, Andrew?" 8 "Are you watching, girls?" 9 Is that Dean Tex behind the camera?

The 1984 all-school play was a triumphant, record breaking success. As in the words of one student, "This is the best play N C has ever put together." Under the direction of Clinton Byrd and Rick Krause, the N C drama troop presented a show-stopping rendition of "The Missionary of Oz," written by Mr. Byrd. The message, "Go and make disciples of all nations" (Matt 28:19), came through as Dorothy (Lisa Etulain), the Scarecrow (Randy Skolrud), the Tinman (Rick Krause), and the Lion (Tracy Shipman) succeeded in fulfilling God's command by their witness of Christ to Evillene (Sandy Peck), her slaves (Stacy Wells, Cregg Ramich, Susan Harland and Tim Shelp), her guard (John

"Missionary Of Oz"

Swartzfager), and Adaperle (Sarah McLennan). These evangelists carried out their mission as given to them by the Great Missionary of Oz (Tom Trude) and God. The evil characters were saved, the audience challenged, and the community impacted. Bravo! (And no one broke a leg.)

Other brilliant cast members were two munchkins (Linnae Onsager and Dareld Chittim), who added something in their own small way, the beautiful Glinda (Lisa Lovelace), good old Aunt Em (Charity Neighbor), and the scatter brained Gatekeeper (Keith Knutson).

ered. Your handsome prince will be here any minute, honest!" 6 "No Lisa, that's not a lollypop!" 7 "Well, I hope this is the edge that cuts wood!" 8 "That's nice Tracy, but do you know 'Jesus loves me?'"

1 "Look at this test Darrell, his answer for 1st Pres. of the U.S. is D.V. Graduation 1984

"And we pray this in order that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and may please Him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of the Lord, being strengthened with all power according to His glorious might . . ." There is little more precious than seeing the fruits of one's labors. Not only were the fruits of the students' hard labors recognized that day of graduation, but also the fruits of NC's 50 shining years of commitment and a devotion to educating young people in God's Word. This memorable event took place Sunday, May 27, 1984, at 3:00 p.m. in a crowded gym.

The commencement address was delivered by Dr. Donald Argue, President of North Central Bible College, before 171 graduates. Of the 171, 66 received the A.A. degree, 103 received the B.A. degree, and two received the Th.B. degree. An honorary degree was presented by President D.V. Hurst to the Rev. Fulton W. Buntain. Then President Hurst presented the degrees. The Alma Mater was sung and Rev. William Aho led the benediction. Ceremonies were ended, but each student was looking at a new beginning and a bright future in service for our Lord.

What a night it was! The banquet hall at the Red Lion was packed with 982 paid guests. A number were not able to secure tickets. For that we were indeed sorry.

Denny Davis, Alumni President and Emcee for the evening, was in his best form. Missionary evangelist, Eugene Ness (son of the first president), "capstoned" the evening in grand style.

To complement the evening a multi-media visual with voices and pictures from the past and the present was put together by Les Welk, Al Baunsgard, Henry Portin, Phil Gustafson and photographer, Jim McKim.

The pictorial and narrative review left everyone deeply moved and more appreciative of what God has done these fifty years at NC. A final thought about the fifty years is found on the Ebenezer Stone in front of Butterfield Chapel, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us!"

New Student Welcome

For all new students, the first week of school could have been classified as hectic and frustrating; but the A.S.B. Officers had a fun weekend planned to help them relax and get acquainted. Activities included a traditional mattress toss, bingo, and an animal share game.

Then the new students were entertained by the drama group, ACTS, and by Celebration of Praise, who led the students in meditation on God's love. Brad Kelly gave a message, challenging them to stretch their faith in God. Donuts and hot chocolate were served to warm them up.

Saturday was filled with rain and laughter as they all headed to Marymore Park, where some watched and some played such games as Bat-Spin, tug-a-part, pass-cup-water, water fights, and don't-stop-talking. The Senior class topped it off by serving watermelon, ice cream, and Kool-aid.

1-4 Bonfire 5 "Shoot her again, she's still kicking." 6 "Steady now, Don't spill it." 7 "This is more fun than a waterbed." 8 Gossip circles are fascinating. 9 "Don't worry Jenny, there will be other guys." 10 "When we all pull together . . ."

Spiritual Emphasis Week Fall of 1984 was a new hope and a new beginning for many. Dave Roever gave freely from his heart what God had placed there.

He spoke from his experience; he shared both the joy and suffering he had known in his walk with God.

He talked of the horror of war and how he hurt inside, facing a world a PK is never trained for. He told of not only his body but his whole world being blown apart and how God had rebuilt both him and his world. He shared how others dug wells in the dryness of his soul and fanned the dying flame of his spirit which brought to him a new hope and a new beginning. He allowed the Holy Spirit to flow through him to dig wells and fan the flames in others.

Many who heard him were touched. It showed in the love that flowed from the students toward others, especially Dave. It remains in the lives of many in whom wells were dug and flames fanned, in whom a new life and a new beginning started with Dave sharing from his heart.

Fall Chapel Guests

1 Dave Roever showed us "We've got the power!" 2 "A Tonka-Toy! I've always wanted a Tonka-Toy!" 3 "Are you still going to love God first when tragedy has left its effect?" 4 "You have the power in the name of Jesus!" 5 "Jesus played tic-tac-toe in the dust." 6 Solvei Larson. 7

On Friday, November 10, the gym was transformed into Fairy Land. Little Red Riding Hood, the Wizard of Oz, and others appeared, along with Mondale and Ferraro. A prize was given to Keith Jackson and Jeff Cridlebaugh for the best costumes in their impersonation of Mondale and Ferraro. As always, the Gong show made a hit with the judges and fellow students. And, of course, no

Harvest Time Social would be complete without dunking the professors in the dunk tank.

Debbie Walker helped the Sophomore class by selling pop, pizza, and hot dogs in the Sophomore booth. The Freshmen sold tickets for pies, and the Seniors offered skones for sale. Brad Kelly, Sophomore Class President, helped by Phil Yarnell, Vice President, and Steve Schuller, Sec., was in charge of Harvest Time Social this year. A great job was done by all.

A creative production, unsurpassed in sparkling performance, originality, and true excellence in every sense of the word . . . the 1984 AWS Fall Fashion show. The entertainment was held Thursday, November 15, at 7:30 p.m., and included a color demonstration by color consultant, Tina Carpenter.

AWS Fashion Show

Eight categories of fashion were displayed. The first two categories were Vogue and G.Q. Through style and a touch of flare, wardrobes for "today's men and women" were sophisticatedly modeled. The next two categories were Western and Thrifty. Western outfits that would please only a Texan and inexpensive clothes for the financially-tight were shown. Campus Life portrayed fashions which could only be at NC. The Sport category brought out colorful outfits of style, variety, and action. Who better to display active sports wear than Ricardo Quintana?

The last two categories, the Bridal and Formals, were the show grabbers. Young men and women clad in stunning formal attire paraded across the stage. However, all eyes were on the Bridal gowns. A beautiful array of ladies, equally matched in eloquent wedding gowns, brought deserving applause. There was not a more proper way to end a truly excellent fashion show. A special thanks to the AWS officers, the clothing stores which contributed, and to all who were involved.

Quack! 5 Another one bites the dust. 6 Where's my receiver? 7 Off-Campus Team: Andrew Caple, Rick Griffith, Russ Perron, Dan Fozzard, Steve Schuller, Keith Jackson, Mike Hall, Dennis Leggett, Mike Unverzagt, Steve Long, Ross Johnson, Dean Jackson, Mark Hedman. 8 "Pluck that Duck!"

Cheerleaders

"SP-IR-IT! You've got the spirit, so lets hear it!" So goes the favorite chant of this year's cheerleading squad. It's more than just the spirit of rooting for the basketball team; it's also the desire to let the Spirit of the Lord shine in support of the school. Together Kim D' Angelo, Tracy Nelson, Kristine Addison, and Kim Wilson promote NC pride. The squad says their everyday practice and sacrifice is definitely worthwhile in supporting the basketball team and Northwest College itself. Being able to stand behind those who are devoted to Christ makes the cheering even more satisfying.

Intramural Football

The 1984 Intramural Flag Football season was a smashing success. The jarring impact of brothers in Christ meeting headfirst in this time of fellowship left many lasting memories (and bruises). These will not be lost soon by the participants.

The Ducks (Gray 500), Masada (Beatty 200), Off-Campus, and Firs didn't pass up the opportunity for a shot at a moment of glory when they made it into the playoffs. It was Off-campus, though, who had a flag raising season as they came out victors in this annual gridiron conflict.

This year the Lady Eagles had plenty of fun, endless hours of singing, late night laughter, and a lot of "bubblin' over."

Weekly devotions were from II Peter 1:3-11, with guest speakers sharing about the specific topics of faith, goodness, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, and love.

The fans were very enthusiastic and supportive, which the volleyball team appreciated. The fans' cheers led the team to a second place standing in the league. A highlight of the season was being the only team to beat the league champions in our final home match.

With almost everyone returning next year, they will be even better because they will have had one year together as a TEAM!

1 Back Row: Kari Brodin, Rachel Elenbaas, Melony Lienhart, Edith Nielsen, Rena Balzer, Dawn Kvernenes, Kristi Brodin - Coach. Front: Heidi Stokes, Kandi Kallappa, Tina Dower, Priscilla Sykes, Cheri Schoenrock, Kris Henderson, Lori Hoffman. 2 It just seems to hang there. 3 Priscilla sets for the pounce. 4 Tina serves 'em up. 5 Cheri dinks it over. 6 Tina sets it up. 7 Going up for the block. 8 Kandi sets for defense. 9 Strategy time. 10 Rena spikes it over.

The season started this year with muted expectations. With the loss of some of last year's stars and the infusion of a number of new players, no one was quite sure what was going to happen.

Under the leadership of senior captain, Kevin (Java) Hall, and the instruction of player coach, Andrew (Lad) Caple, anticipation began to rise with the advent of the season.

Though the final record was on the losing side, a good time was had by all, not the least of which were the van trips to Canada. It seems the most fun was had by Yong (Magic) Yi as he guided the ball around dumbfounded defenders toward the goal. Tony and Andrew were both selected league allstars and tournament allstars for their stellar performances.

Goalkeeping chores were divided between Randy Gould and Mel Steinmeyer. Defense was the strong point of the team, anchored by Kevin Hall at sweeper and Yoshi Tochika at center fullback.

The traditional rivalries between Multnomah and Trinity Western were the highlights of the season. It's hoped that there will be more highlights in the year ahead as the soccer program's existence was in some doubt at season's end.

The evening's special guests (judges) were Doc. and Mrs. Pecota, Dean Diana, and Mrs. Randolph. The awards were presented after Christmas carols around the bonfire. And the winners were ... Winter Spiritual Emphasis

Energetic, intelligent, talented, creative — yes, even mischievous — these words can all be used to describe our Winter Spiritual Emphasis Week speaker, Rev. Randy Hurst. But most important he modeled for us a person committed to God and His ways in the life of an individual.

NC students probably will not forget the stories President Hurst told on his nephew that week, but neither will we forget the

Knowing God's will, discerning His guidance, and applying them in our everyday lives was emphasized consistently throughout the week.

Sniffing the aromas from a variety of exotic foreign foods was a new experience for many NC students as representatives of countries such as Sri Lanka, Fiji, Japan, and Norway tantalized our tastebuds with gourmet offerings ranging from curry and nroti to gooey-ducks and seaweed.

After ministering to our bodies, the emphasis turned towards edification. ACTS performed a drama, and Miguel Perry led the foreign students with MK's in singing "Hallelujah" in their native tongues.

Henry Thomas led in worship as the Holy Spirit flowed through the Pavilion, preparing our hearts for the message on servanthood delivered by Randy Hurst. The evening wrapped up a powerful winter Spiritual Emphasis Week.

WOM Food Fair

"Mom on the floor!" "Dad on the floor!" Such cries resounded in the dorms one weekend this year as parents from all over the Northwest converged on the campus of Northwest College for parent's weekend. Sons and daughters visited with their parents as Mom and

Parent's Weekend

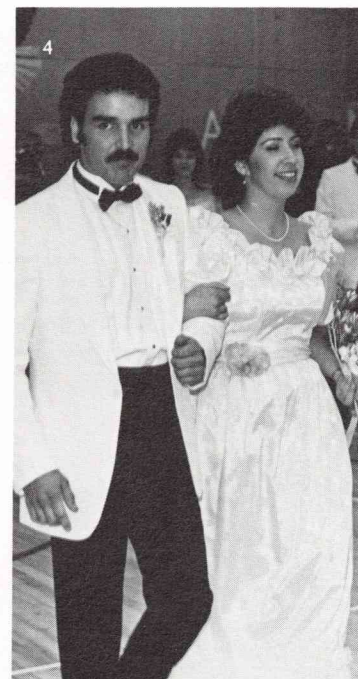

Dad got a taste of what living at NC is all about. Parents attended Homecoming chapel, their student's classes, and exciting Eagle basketball games. Hopefully, parents and students alike went away from this weekend with a deeper relationship with one another, our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the ways He is developing the students at NC.

Homecoming

1 John Carr shows his mom around campus. 2 Queen Mary Beth and her mother listen intently to President Hurst. 3 Professor Hobson goes for the gold during the parent/faculty volleyball game. 4 Exaltation: Sheri Gillaspie, Paul Melidona, Linda Brooks, and Russ Dickhoff sing for the Parent's Weekend Brunch. 5 President Hurst speaks to the students and their parents during the morning brunch. 6. "Reflection of Light." 7 Crown of Radiating Light. 8 Professor Orville Clark and his wife Jean host the 1985 Homecoming Court.

A "Reflection of Light" is just what our 1985 Homecoming court was.

Senior Mike Teixeira opened up our Homecoming chapel by walking down a "cloud softened" staircase singing "Reflection of Light." This was written by Russ Dickhoff and accompanied vocally and instrumentally by Gary Cox, Russ Dickhoff, Shari Gillaspie, Steve Opbroek and Brett Sutton.

Our 1985 Host and Hostess, Professor and Mrs. Orville Clark, introduced to us the 1985 court. Throughout the introduction, we discovered many interesting tidbits of information about our fellow students.

During the interviews, the seniors were surprised to hear the voices of their absent but proud parents offering their congratulations and praise to their sons and daughters. A few happy tears were the response from the seniors.

Linda Brooks concluded the ceremonies, singing Sandi Patti's hit, "Shine Down."

Homecoming

That evening during halftime at the men's basketball game we were treated to another presentation of the court in a little different style — "a la car." Entertaining us was the ACTS group, Rick Krause, Julie Dickhoff, Randy Skolrud, and Sarah McClennan, who dramatized "A Day in the Life of a Homecoming Queen." And finally came the car containing last year's King and Queen, Doug Clark and Karen Stocker. Professor and Mrs. Clark did a great job of creating anticipation before they made the big announcement: "Our 1985 Homecoming Queen and King are Mary Beth Young and Ricardo Quintana."

Both the men's and women's basketball teams were victorious which created a jovial spirit among the students of NC. Following the games, a reception was held in the cafeteria for faculty, students and parents to honor the court and celebrate the day's activities.

1 "Picture perfect." 2 Linda Brooks, "Shine Down." 3 Bearing gifts we travel so far. 4 "I know that I am excited." 5 Former Queen, Karen Stocker, crowns this year's queen, Mary Beth Young. 6 MBY, you're a beautiful queen! 7 The 1985 Homecoming Court: Terri Mort, Matt Kallappa, Greg Wingard, Lisa Dye, Darreld Chittim, Lori Hoffman, Paul Melidona, Barb Borchers, Erin Danies, Henry Thomas, Ricardo Quintana, Mary Beth Young, Mrs. Clark, Professor Orville Clark. 8 "She wanted to be a nurse until she saw her brother kill a bug."

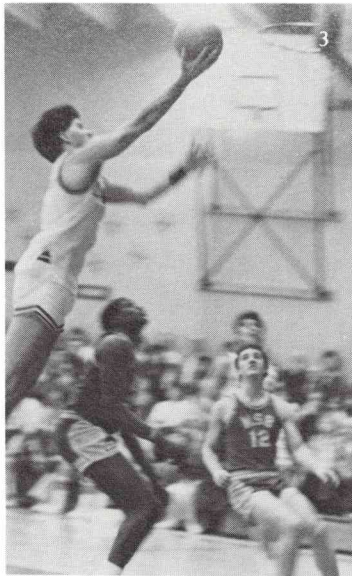

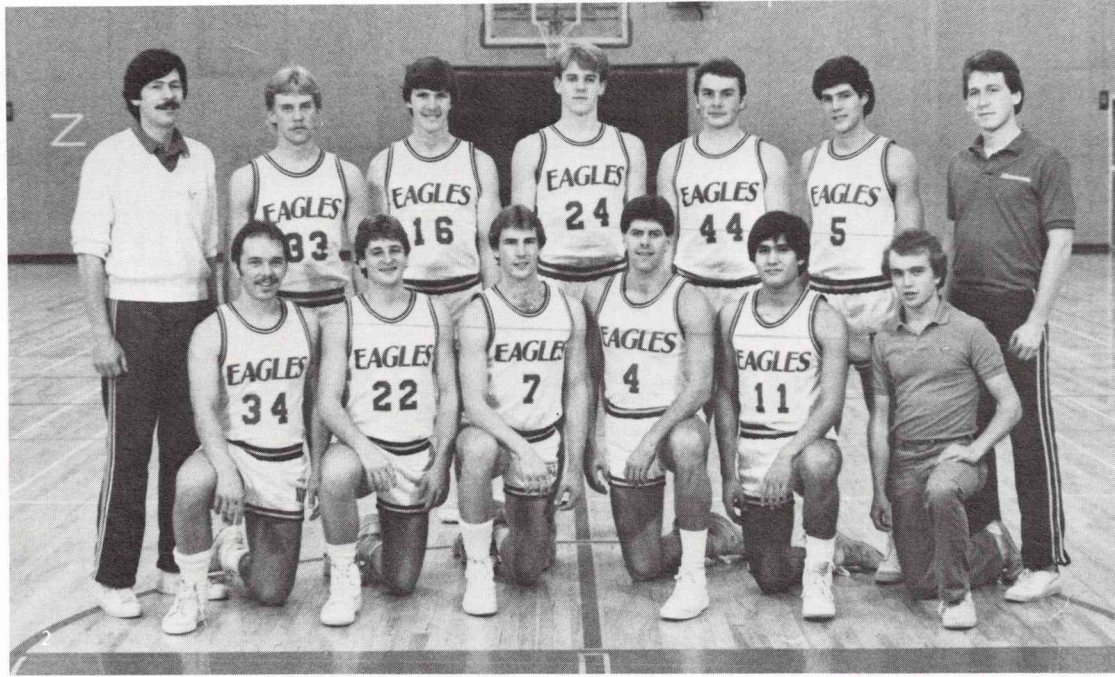

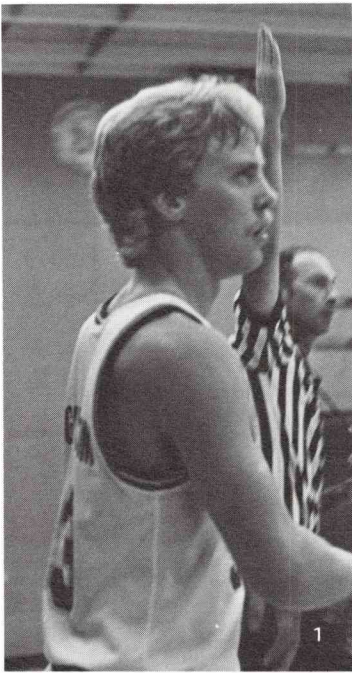

Women's Basketball

The women's basketball was looking good at the start of the season. They won their first two league games to start the year right. The only returning starter, Tina Dower, was co-captain with freshman Kandi Kallappa. Three transfer students, Traci Birkett, Rena Bolzer, and Edith Nielson, helped to keep the Lady Eagles on their toes. Coach Kristi Brodin said that this year's team had "more experience, more depth, and more talent than ever before." The team had good spirit and the players were interested in sharing the Lord with the teams they played.

1 "Miss Tracy for two as trailer Kallappa looks on. 2 Tami Holtz, Edith Nielsen, Coach Kristi Brodin, Rachel Ellenbaas, Angie Kavanaugh, Rena Bolzer, Dawn Kvernenes, Lori Bitterman, Kandi Kallappa, Tina Dower, Tracy Birkett 3 A basket for Bitterman 4 "Hey guys . . . you're surrounded!" 5 Dawn at the line. 6 Holtz, Dower, Kallappa, Balzer, and Kvernenes call a huddle. 7 Birkett flying through the air with the greatest of ease. 8 "Psst, Camera at 12 o'clock. 9 "Holtz" to "Bitterman" on the play. 10 "Come home Tina, Come home!" 11 Mary-Lou for two.

After losing five key seniors, the Eagles basketball team seemed headed for a rebuilding year.

But behind the outstanding coaching of John Brown and the solid team spirit initiated by co-captains Don "Rass" Rassmussen and

Men's Basketball

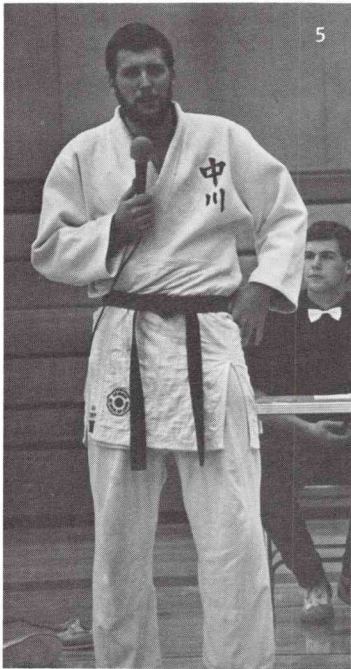

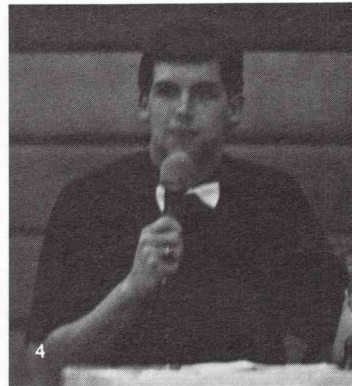

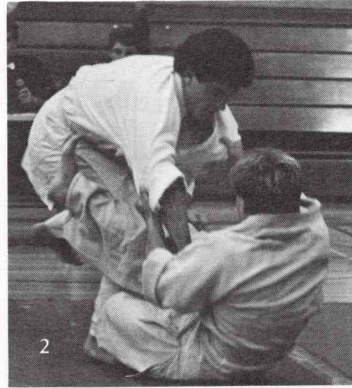

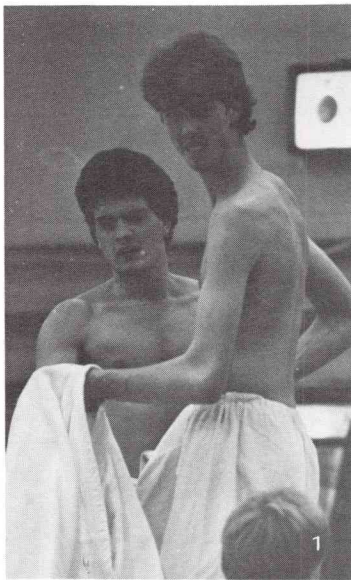

Kevin "Samp" Sample was a determination and persistence that the Eagles developed into league power.

A stifling defense and hustle from the bench was consistent throughout the season. With the support of explosive offense talent from Rick "Wils" Wilson, Matt "Chief" Kallappa and Jim "Cobes" Coburn, the Eagles soared over their rivals on their way to becoming a championship caliber team.

1 "The look of a determined champion." 2 Coach John Brown, Brent Fagerstrom, Derrick Urganhart, Rick Wilson, Lance Bursch, Kevin Sample, Assistant Coach Ben Tolesen, Don Van Curler, Mark Whitney, Hugh Bursch, Don Rasmussen, Matt Kallappa, Manager Rick Parsons. 3 "Don floats to the hoop." 4 "Eagle spirit soars," 5 Cobes hussles to the bucket." 6 "Automatic Rass" 7 Hugh skies for the jumper." 8 "Wills hits the turn-around." 9 "Rick" battles for position." 10 "Samp fights for two."

“Ippon-Sokomade!” To the casual spectator, it was obvious that PE 135 was an intricate integration of beginning Japanese and fundamentals of body slamming. To the class, it was a cautious effort to learn self defense. The class was instructed by Dean Jackson who has his second degree black belt in

Self-Defense

Judo. He was assisted by his brother Keith. Dean's objective was to help the students gain a healthy perspective of self-defense and to arouse interest in Judo as a sport. Proper falling, a technique taken for granted by many, as well as ground wrestling, several key throws and counters are practical skills that everyone learned in the class. The final exam took the form of a tournament where students were given a chance to demonstrate what they learned.

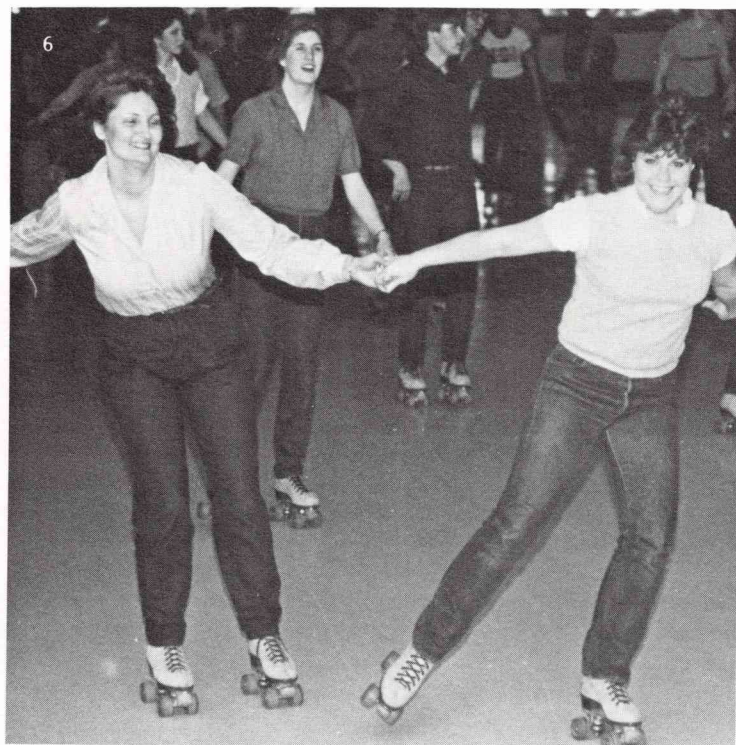

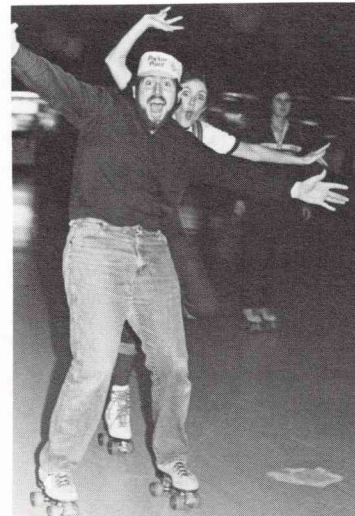

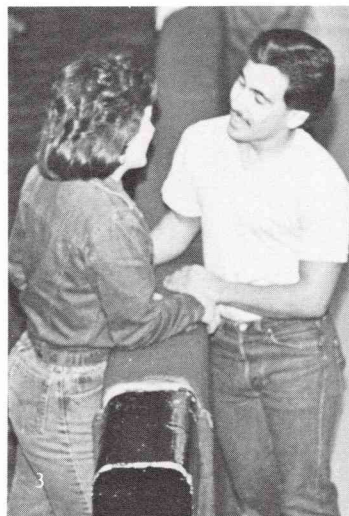

Intramural Basketball

Intramural Basketball saw a high participation from the men and even one brave woman to make it a good competitive season. In all, eight teams played with the M and M's and Rebounds-R-Us leading at the end of the season. However, the Fivesixers, The Team, The Rockets, The Ghetto Blasters, The Brombies, and the Bronze Team were there to fill out the rest of the season's roster. Though at times the games seemed to degenerate to "rat ball," all of the students who participated enjoyed the fast paced action. Dale Larson expressed everyone's feelings about the season with the colorful, original words, "It was great!"

1 Dennis Cox: "No, I think it's ketchup from the hot dog." 2 Picking up a friend who's down. 3 1 . . . 2 . . . 3 . . . Dip. 4 Keith Jackson: "I just don't feel dressed for this occasion." 5 Dean Jackson: "Sensei gives instruction." 6 Men's Aerobic Tryouts. 7 "How could he miss a lay-in?" 8 "Uhh, is this the right basket?" 9 Hugh Bursh misses another call. 10 "Slam-dancing" during intramurals?" 11 "I think I lost my contact right around here."

1 "How much do you think they will give me on a trade-in?" 2 "Smile, you're on candid camera!" 3 "I wish they all could be California girls." 4 Bruce and Mandy "Pick me, Pick me!" 5 "Now, Let's get rolling." 6 Dean Diana and Ellen Cox: "Life in the fast lane."

All School Skate

Sponsored by the Associated Student Body, the All School Skate once each quarter brought students, faculty members, and staff together at the Bellevue Skate King. Good Christian music played by disc jockeys, Dwayne French and Alan Bulger, the Bellevue Skate King set the atmosphere for fun and fellowship. The evening provided everyone a chance to further friendships and make new acquaintances.

“Thorns of Beauty” signals two measurements of success. One is prominence. The other has little about it that bespeaks glamour. It may entail obscurity, hard work, and even pain and sorrow. God does not base His rewards on what the eye sees — but on one thing, and one thing alone, and that is faithfulness.

Faithfulness means that we use the gifts and skills God has given us for the calling which He has put upon our lives. The outcome is always redemptive, and in some way it will touch the lives of other people.

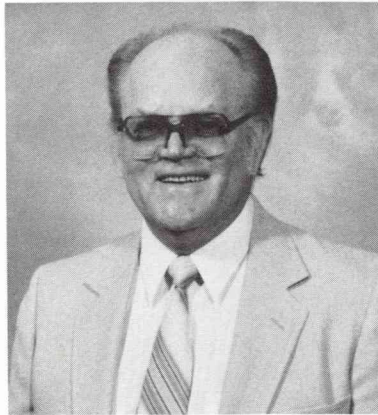

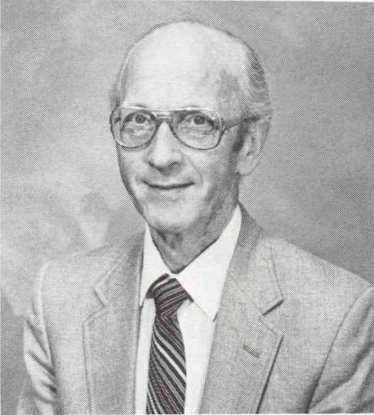

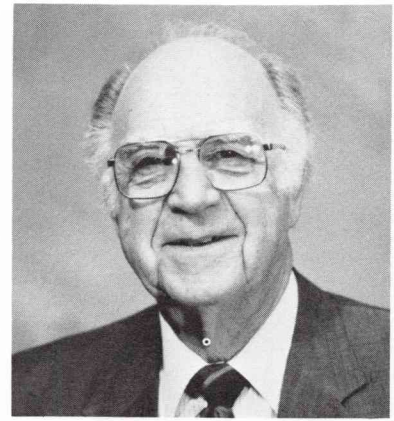

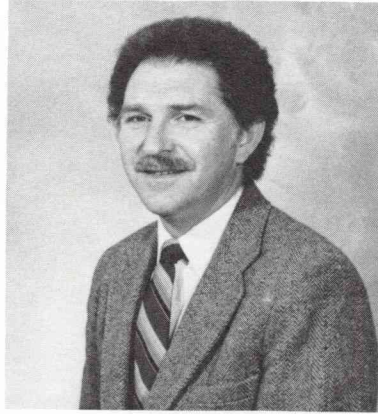

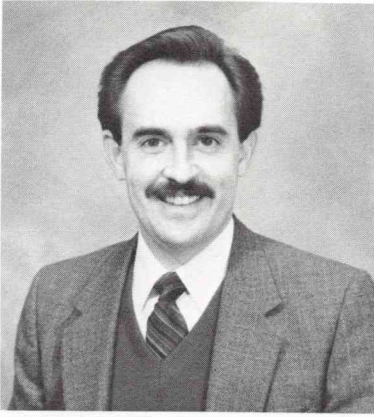

Northwest College may never be known for producing great politicians or public figures, but may it be known in the annals of heaven for producing great soul winners! “And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.” (Dan. 12:3). May I encourage you to let God use you in this holy calling. The Great Commission is still our mission at N.C.

Mick Jelsma: A 1983 graduate of NC with a degree in Pastoral Ministries, he served this year as the Dean of Men. Inspired by his wife, Terrie (Dean of Student's Sec.) he worked hard to see spiritual growth in the student body.

Vickie Pettis: In her position as Resident Counselor Vickie wanted to "help students find their full identity in Christ." This was her fourth year as RC and she loves the contact Ben Tolson: Can truly relate to the students because he has spent 3 years as a student of NC himself. He and his wife Elaine desired to see students seek after and realize the call of God on their lives.

Steve Taylor: Has been RC for two years. His two main interests are missions and his wife Alice. (Ass't. to the registrar.) Steve wanted nothing more than to see growth and a powerful move of God in each student's life.

NC Bookstore And Snack Shack

The NC Bookstore is the place to browse or buy educational tools and books for classes or for personal enjoyment. The main emphasis of the Bookstore is to help build personal reference libraries. All customers are assisted by the friendly warm staff, managed by Esther Pecota and so ably assisted by Jackie Randolph and student workers, Karen Keyser and Ed Bechtold. It is the place with the "happy atmosphere."

The Snack Shack also serves the students. It is a great place to meet with friends, study, and grab a quick, delicious bite to eat.

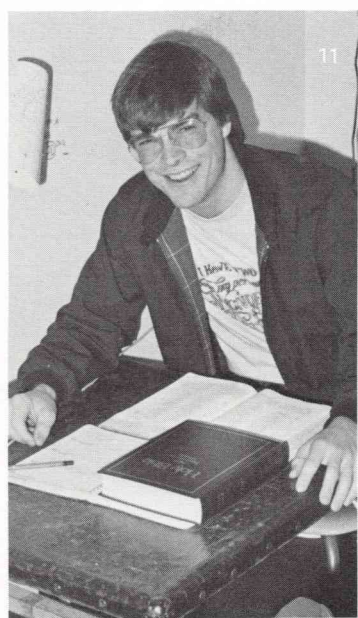

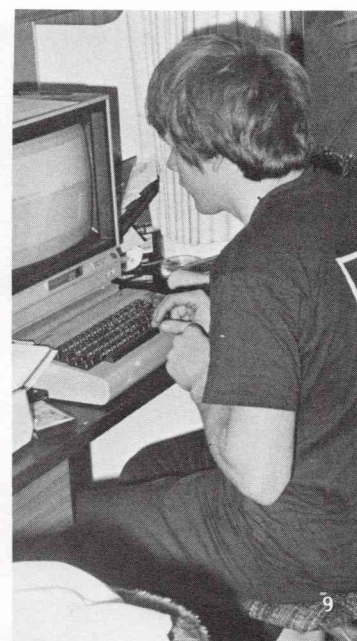

The computer age came to D.V. Hurst Library in 1984.

Now, not only can NC students use reference and study materials from the NC Library, but the school has gained access to materials from 3,500 other libraries across the nation. Through joining the O.L.C. (On Line Computer), the library increased its volume by about 3 million pieces of reference materials and has sped the cataloging of the great influx of books which has flooded the library in the past several years. The librarian, Miss Petty, is excited for the future with the continued use of this computer system.

"LET THE SPIRIT FLOW, LET HIM GO." This has been our whole emphasis this year. Our goal was to see every student venture into new areas of spiritual growth and experience. One vital experience is the work of the ministry. God moved among the lives of the students, and we know that He will continue to do so in the coming years. We want to see the students be a ministering force both now and in the future. We, the ASB Leaders, want to thank God, the Faculty, and the students for a successful year.

WOM is made up of caring, dedicated, loving, supporting people. It is you the student body. Without all of this, the WOM program would not be able to be a part of this college. It is your finances that support our foreign and home missions projects, and through these finances you participate in ministry opportunities. WOM has basically two types of outreach. One is here at home through each of the ministry interest groups (MIGS). The other is away from home. In this outreach we bring missionaries to speak to the students in weekly chapel services, and we support them and their missionary projects through love offerings from student giving.

In WOM we have tried to bring awareness to each student of the importance of missions at home and abroad. We believe that the whole world is God's "mission field."

WOM is a part of this college because of your participation. That makes us what we are today - dedicated leaders who are willing to serve for the glory of God.

Evangelism MIG

The Lord has commanded us all to go. We need to find out where He wants us — then “Go”.

The Evangelism MIG was one way that students let their light shine in a dark world. The first-hand experience of witnessing to people prepared students to be personal soul-winners and helped teach them how to change their world for Christ.

6 “Have you come to the place in your spiritual life . . .” 7 “Excuse me, can anyone tell me if this ferry stops in Hawaii?” 8 “Come let us worship.” 9 MIG Leader: John Marvin.

Missions MIG

To promote involvement the Missions MIG has written letters to various missionaries and set up discussion times with each other, with foreign students, and with the missionary kids and leaders on campus and in the area.

We have made it our goal to do our part by preparing now for our future in missions and encouraging those following us to do likewise. Thus, we have tried to consistently maintain a daily time of private prayer for missions, as well as meeting an hour every other week for a corporate time of prayer and sharing.

This was an exciting year for the Youth MIG under the guidance of Brad Kelly. The main goal of the MIG was to witness to youth. This was done through many different activities such as the Youth Rally, Jail Ministries, Echo Glen Ministries and witnessing on 2nd and Pike in downtown Seattle. The

Youth MIG

MIG also encouraged its members to be involved in local church youth groups. For success in a witnessing ministry of this type, developing relationships was vital, and the key to relationships was consistency in effort and participation.

Campus MIG

The goal of Campus MIG was to encourage an attitude of prayer and unity here on campus. Campus MIG worked toward this through floor chaplains, prayer floor chaplains, prayer warriors, fellowship families and singspirations. A new activity for Campus MIG this year was the coordination of professor visitation in the dorms. The floors were assigned professors who participated by coming to the floor for informal visits with the students.

The vision of Campus MIG was to see God change the world through young men and women who are unified in prayer and the spirit.

Gospel Team MIG

NC students have had a great opportunity for ministry because of the tremendous responses from area churches, prisons, Christian schools, and other organizations. Through the Gospel Team MIG students gained inner wealth and experience by ministering and sharing Jesus Christ through singing, dramatics, and testimonies.

The leader of Gospel Team MIG, Cregg Ramich, says "the groups did a fantastic job ministering and representing Jesus Christ and NC." This MIG is a great opportunity for students to apply what they are learning in classes and to get experience for future ministries.

Publicity MIG

Who? What? Where? When? If an NC student had any of these questions concerning an on-campus event, they were more likely answered with promotion by the publicity MIG. This MIG under the direction of Randy Gould, was responsible for advertising WOM and on-campus events. It did this through the media of signs, posters, bulletin boards, and any other creative communication device that could be conceived. The work done by this MIG was an intregal part of the scenes, and it was an intregal part of the active social life of the student body.

Drama Club

Over the past few years, Drama has become an increasing force in Christian Ministry. Because of this the Drama Club has emerged as a growing and exciting opportunity at NC under the direction of Rick Krause, Dareld Chittim, and Sarah McClennon. Drama Club provides workshops, plays, and traveling A.C.T.S. teams, as well as other drama experiences for the students. Their goal is to provide theatre involvement to as many people as possible so they can take it into their churches and use drama in their ministries.

1 A.C.T.S. TEAM: Julie Dickhoff, Sarah McClennen, Rick Krause, Cregg Ramich, Dareld Chittim, Randy Skolrud. 2 "Bow your head and close your eyes, and you will get a big surprize." 3 "I'm gonna get me some Kibbles 'n Bits." 4 Cregg, "I'm sorry you guys ... really I am."

A.C.T.S.

A.C.T.S. Drama team has been a powerful ministry from Northwest College in the past, and this year was no exception. A.C.T.S. stands for Announcing Christ Through Skits, and that's exactly what they do. They have portrayed the Gospel of Jesus Christ through drama and song. They have seen many lives changed through this ministry and were very thankful. They continually pray for God's blessing on the future of this ministry and that people will come to see Jesus like those who have in the past.

AWS Officers

The goals for Associated Women Students this year, according to president Lisa Dye, were to "bring a balance between all school functions" and to "help everyone get to know each other." The Associated Women Students held a meeting at the beginning of each quarter to welcome new women students and to remind returning students of school policies. Some of this year's activities included the Fashion Show, Open Dorms, Heart-O-Gram sales, and a mini-seminar on relationships. This year was also a learning experience for both the officers and the adviser, Dean Diana.

AMS Officers

Can you say, "Reorganization"? ... Good, I knew you could. That was the key word for the Associated Men Students during the 1984-85 school year. Yet, even with its main effort directed toward reorganization, the AMS was still active and productive in its goal to provide fellowship and a source of unity for the men students of NC. Under the leadership of President Allan Fox, Vice-President Kelvin McCormick, and Secretary/Treasurer Steve Allen, the AMS sponsored many events such as a Seahawks night and a dunking booth at the Harvest Time Social. Both were a big success.

The Married Student Association of NC, living both in the Firs and off-campus, came alive this school year like never before.

Kevin Kane decided to get things going. Being the president of MSA he did just that. His sole desire was to develop a unity among Married Students and bring a spark into their routine lives of work and study. Things began to happen: Gym nights, progressive dinners, Marriage Counseling taught by Rich and Jean Ortell, and even a Winter Retreat at Buckcreek Camp. Kevin mentioned the latter as one of the real highlights with Dr. and Mrs. Pecota speaking each night and Mr. and Mrs. Randolph providing the meals.

Sure, married students may lead a different life than others, but, one thing we all hold in common: we are all awaiting the day of the Marriage with the Lamb where everyone will be united with the Lord forever.

Forensics

The 1984-85 school year has been the best on record at NC for our forensics team. Everyone who competed on this year's team has at one point come home with a trophy. In fact, at the University of Puget Sound every student was a winner! Bruce Ford, Sarah McLennon, Valerie

Jenkins, Pam Pulley, Eric Thompson, Rich Tetley and Mandy Scott made this a record year by winning more trophies than were won in the last three years put together. The squads only championship division competitor and chief trophy hunter, Mandy Scott, qualified, the second year in a row, for the National Individual Events

Tournament and is a candidate for the Nations Most Outstanding Speaker award. Mandy has already distinguished herself as one of the top competitors on the west coast. Mandy graduates this year, but with so many winners returning, NC's forensic future looks bright.

The theme for this year's annual, "Thorns of Beauty," set the attitude of the 1984-85 Karisma staff. There were many "thorns" in the production of Karisma, but each of those thorns only proved to make the outcome richer. The Editor, Kevin Reich; Assistant Editor, Rhonda Fournier; Photography

Editor, Chuck Kinman; and Business Manager, Kristi Young, with the help of all the writers, typists, layout people, and photographers, worked to make this year's annual a special memory for everyone.

The entire staff wanted Karisma to be a reminder of all the fun times we had but also a reminder of how, just like the rose unfolds in the light, each student's life unfolded in Christ.

1 Assistant Editor-Rhonda Fournier and Editor-Kevin Reich: "It seemed like we only saw each other in passing . . . I love you, 'Mr. C!'" 2 Karisma Officers: Chuck Kinman, Kristi Young, Rhonda Fournier, Kevin Reich 3 Chuck Kinman-Photo Editor, Karen, Amber and Niles: "A family about the business of life." 4 Kristi Young-Business Manager: "I like AN-I-MALS!" 5 Karisma Advisors: Mrs. Stewart-Head Advisor; Mr. Gustafson-Photo Advisor; Skip Bennett-

“Lord, I want to be ...
 Closer ... Closer to Thee
 ...” This was the prayer &
 theme of the King’s Choralons this year as they sang in churches throughout the NW District. Sharing the message of Jesus Christ in song, their desire was to allow God to work through them by drawing people closer to Himself. And God was faithful! Many people

King’s Choralons

responded and were drawn closer to Christ!

Assisting Doc. Swaffield in the organization of the choir were its officers:
 President, Russell
 Dickhoff, Vice-President, Brett Sutton, and Secretary/Treasurer, Linda

Brooks. The Choralons also ministered throughout Oregon and Southern Washington on their tour over Spring Break as well as at District Council in Everett.

1 John Marvin: "Doc, if Brad sings with the girls one more time, he's outa here!!" 2 Doc Swaffield introduces the 1984-85 King's Choralons. 3 Leslie Taitel and Katie Solan, members of the King's Choralons Orchestra. 4 Choralons caught in a not-so-intense rehearsal. 5 The 1985 King's Choralons - Alan Bulger, E. Joanne Hursch, Julie Dickhoff, Russ Dickhoff, Gary Cox, Bert Brezicha, Shari Gillaspie, Karen Hendrix, Michael Teixeira, Kelli Pace, Leah Greer, Allan Fox, Brett Sutton, Connie Griffith, Mike McCullough, Rick

Fleming, Linda Brooks, Leslie Taitel, Kim Pace, Henry Thomas, Naomi Greissman, Joey Gallegos, John Marvin, Brad Monton, Rhonda, Stoller, Keith Markham, Vicki Fuller, Patti Covey, Paul Melidona, Eric True, Diana Middleton, Glen Johnson, David Nitschke, Leihua VanSchoiack, Doc Swaffield. 6 Linda Brooks: "I'd rather have Jesus." 7 Russ Dickhoff invites the congregation to worship along with the King's Choralons. 8 Doc Swaffield: "O.K. group, let's take it from the top AGAIN!"

"I will praise you, O Lord, among the nations; I will sing of you among the peoples." (Psalms 108:3) As Maranatha Sounds went forth and ministered in churches far and wide, the glorification of the Lord Jesus Christ was a continuous desire in their

Maranatha Sounds

hearts and a prayer on their lips. All the long hours of rehearsal and practice were worthwhile to know that God's word went forth to change and heal lives. Yet, even as Maranatha Sounds

ministered, each member was ministered unto. The love, fellowship, and friendship that was shared will never be forgotten by any member of the "family" of Maranatha Sounds.

1 Christine Hawken at her best. 2 Maranatha Sounds ministering at Sequim. 3 Mark Brown sings "Oh, The Glory of His Presence." 4 Maranatha Sounds - Mark Brown, Melany Lienhart, Wendy Whitaker, Phil Yarnell, Mary Beth Young, Brian Davis, Chris Hawken, Rick Wilson, John Brewer, Don Lauer, Dolores Schulz, Angie Bowdre, Debbie White, Cal

White, Deanna Trygg, Craig Tallman. 5 John, Angie, Deanna and Craig: " . . . He goes beyond my highest hopes and fondest dreams . . ." 6 Rick Wilson ministers around the altars. 7 Bass player Wendy Whitaker and pianist Debbie White provide the back up for Maranatha Sounds. 8 Phil Yarnell keeps the beat.

1 Priority: Tom Clifton, Mike Texiera, Steve OpBroek, Brett Sutton, Kelly Pace, Kim Pace. 2 Exaltation: Russ Dickhoff, Linda Brooks, Shari Gillaspie, Paul Melidona. 3 Dwayne French, Karen Keyser, Ricardo Quintana. 4 Four-given: Darryl Johnson, Marilyn White, Allan Fox, Karen Hendrix. 5 ACTS: Dareld Chittim, Rick Krause, Sarah McClennan, Julie Dickhoff, Randy Skolrud, Mark Brown.

Summer Ministry Teams

From Colorado's majestic Rockies to the splendor of Alaskan Wilderness, from southern Oregon to eastern Montana, the ministry of NC's summer teams span the Pacific Northwest and beyond, touching hearts and lives for the Kingdom of God. Two singing teams, a drama team, and two teams involved in other facets of ministry, including counseling, preaching, athletic directing, cleaning, etc., represent the variety of ministries Northwest College provides during the summer.

What does ministry on an NC team consist of? Singing, cleaning sinks, throwing frisbees, listening to broken hearts, fixing broken engines, taking cold showers, weeping at the altar, dumb dumb donna, leading someone to Christ, traveling 30 hours without stop, Announcing Christ Through Skits, running out of deodorant, being moved with compassion, leading in worship, doing the dishes, loaning shampoo, changing lives, crawling in bed at 2:00 a.m., getting up at 5:00 a.m., lots and lots of laughing, lots of crying, repentant hearts, calls to the ministry, counseling, athletic directing, toilet cleaning, leading devotions, making friends, changing the tire, where's the jack?

where's the beef? where's Skip?!! ... and the list goes on ... Perhaps the people who are changed the most are those ministering in the teams. A renewed commitment to ministry is established, a burden for the hurts of young people is kindled, and a vivid sense of the dynamics and power of the Spirit is made fresh and anew in their hearts and lives.

God: You are worthy of all Praise and Glory! Thanks for all of your Love and Patience. I Love You!

Dad & Mom: I Love You! You're the best parents anyone could ever have. Thanks for all the "sermons" especially Number 1193.

Rhonda Fournier: Without you I couldn't of done it! Thanks for putting up with me and helping me be a better person. I Love You!! I hope to spend the rest of our lives saying "Thank You". Remember you're the best . . .

Chuck Kinman: Thanks for your dedication . . . your professional "art" . . . "ALL" your advice . . . and for sharing your "creative" lunches — Karen, Amber, Niles, Thanks!!!

Kristi Young: It was your "A-N-I-M-A-L" magnetism that kept us going. Thanks!

Mrs. Stewart: Thanks for your listening ear and all of your prayers and support.

Mr. Gustafson: Thanks for all of your advice; you're a great mediator.

"Skip" Bennett: Thanks for "making" time when we needed it.

Dean Tex: Thanks for your encouragement!

Tim Knapp: Thanks for being willing to work with us on our budget. Your listening ear was greatly appreciated.

Peggy Robinett: Thanks for your care, concern and "understanding", You are WONDERFUL!

Dee Swanstrom: Thanks for all of your time and help. And for "protecting" Rhonda from all the "monsters" in the SUB. P.S. Keep Chasing . . .

Debbie "Fournier" Taylor: Thanks for taking my theme "Thorns of Beauty" and creating a story that helps us apply it to our lives.

Jeff "Spud" Richards: Thanks for being a "brave" photographer . . . "Excuse me Ma'am can we take a picture of your roses."

Debbie Robinson: I knew from the start you had good potential . . . Good luck as Editor next year!

Dennis Cox: Thanks for all of your help! Are you sure you want to be photography editor next year?

Dennis Leggett: Thanks for loving us enough to give honest advice and supporting us in our decision.

Dean Ming: Thanks for your wisdom . . . and for helping me realize why I am here at Northwest College.

Dean Diana: Thanks for "Kissing this Frog" and giving me hope.

Harvey Walls: Thanks for sharing your artistic abilities with us.

Allan Fox: Thanks for all of your "special" entertainment.

Heather Guerra: Thanks for your Willingness to help.

Whitehead: Thanks for getting me into this mess — at least it turned out beautiful in many "ways". Love Ya!

Debi Walker: Thanks for the laughs . . . crazy captions . . . silly pictures, and the "gaceful fall" at the typewriter.

Colleen Sorenson: Thanks for your devotion and for the breeze that follows you everywhere. And don't worry I would never say anything behind your back.
