IN THE LIBRARY . . .

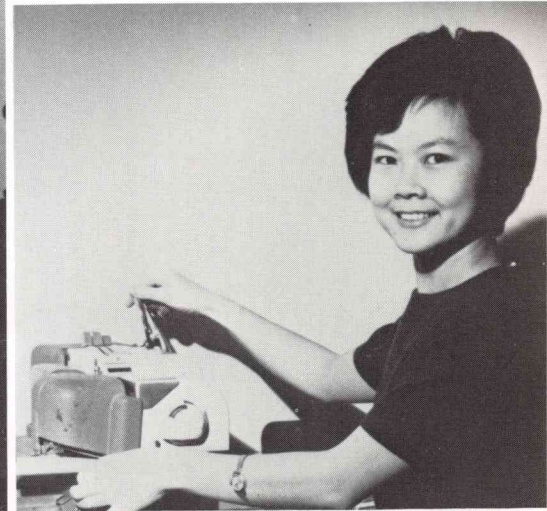

Whether for research, study, or pleasure-reading, students find the library a vital part of campus life. Many hours are spent seeking the stored knowledge hidden in its numerous volumes. A challenge is thus offered: to seek out this knowledge and activate it in our thinking.

THE DAILY CALL TO CHAPEL

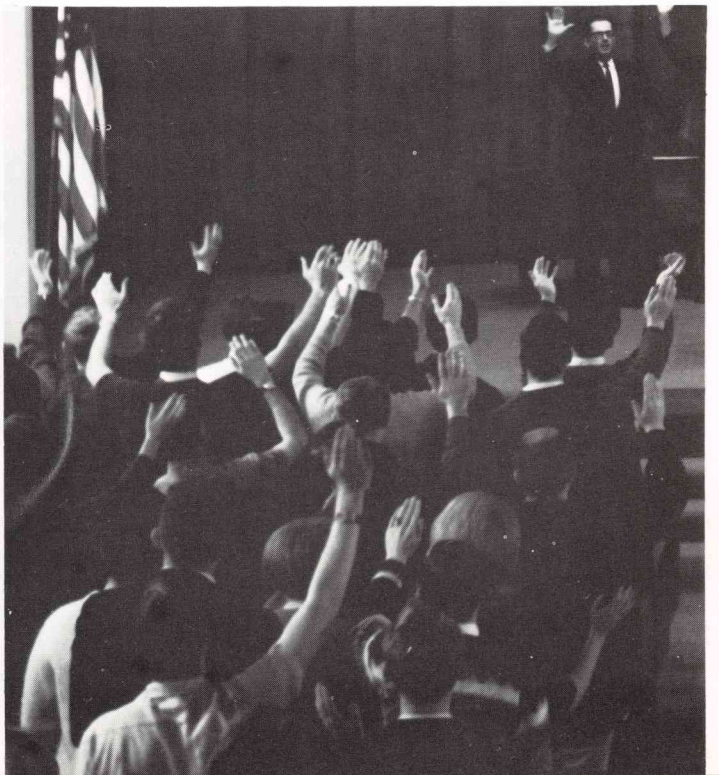

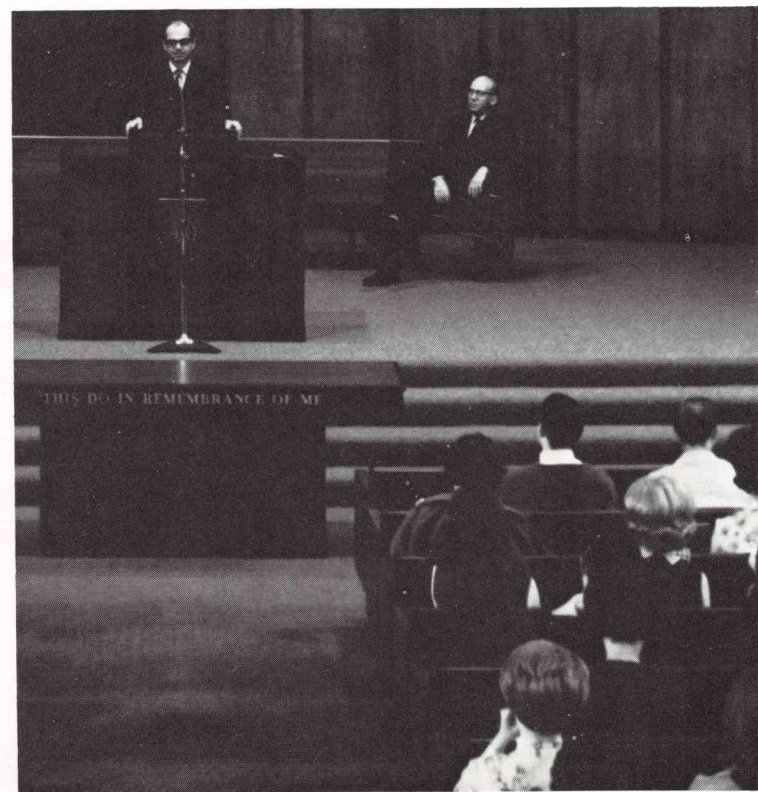

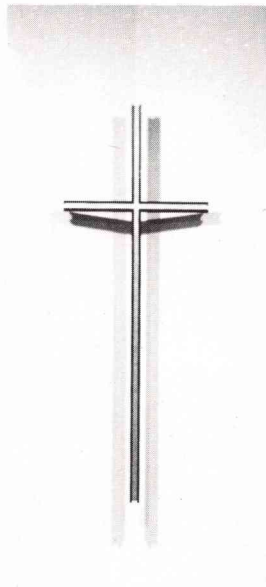

At the heart of campus life is our attractive new chapel. The daily chapel services supply a refreshing respite from the routine of classroom work. Spiritual victories here change lives and mold Christian young people into Christ-likeness. Moments spent waiting before God in His chapel will be remembered as the crown of campus life.

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS WEEKS

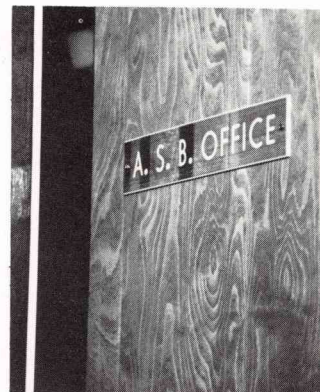

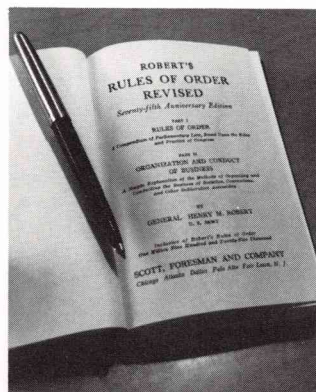

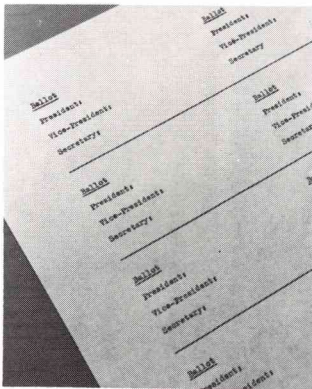

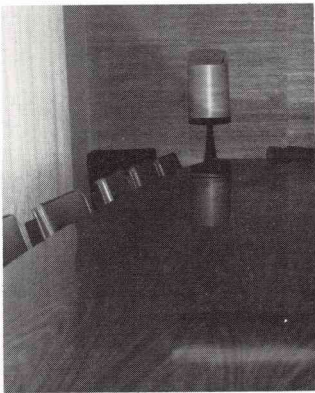

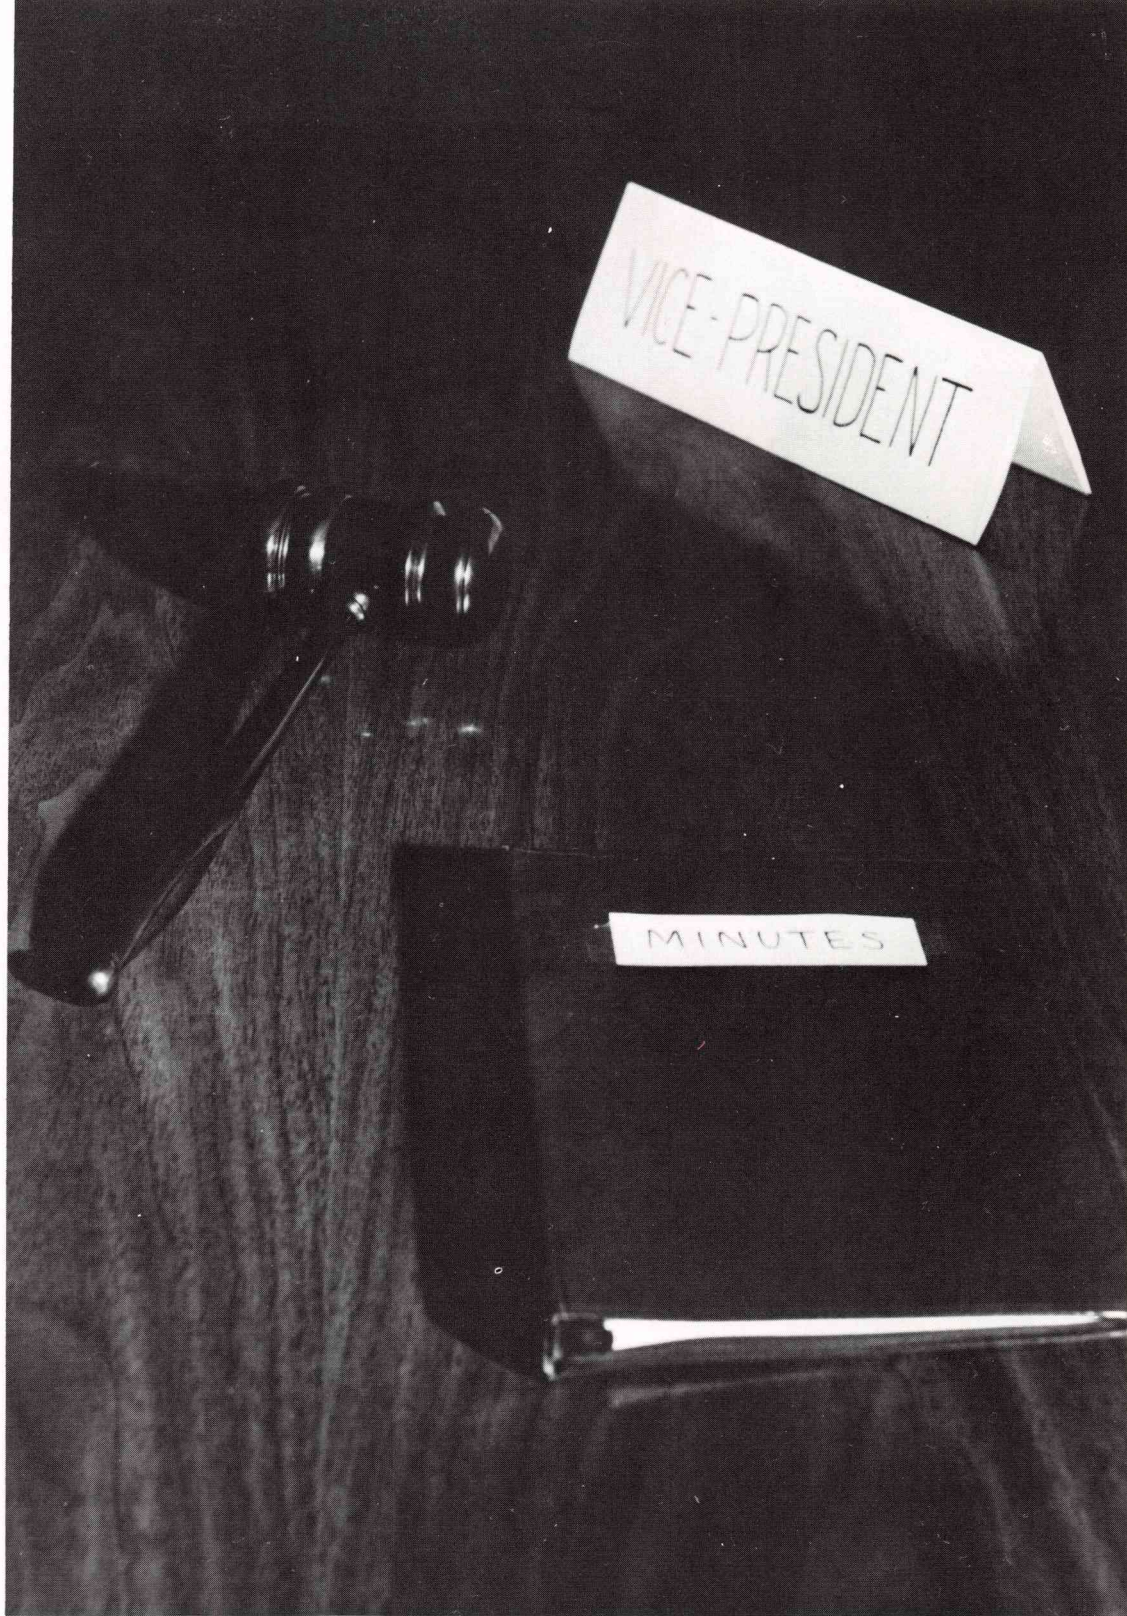

ORGAN

ZATIONS

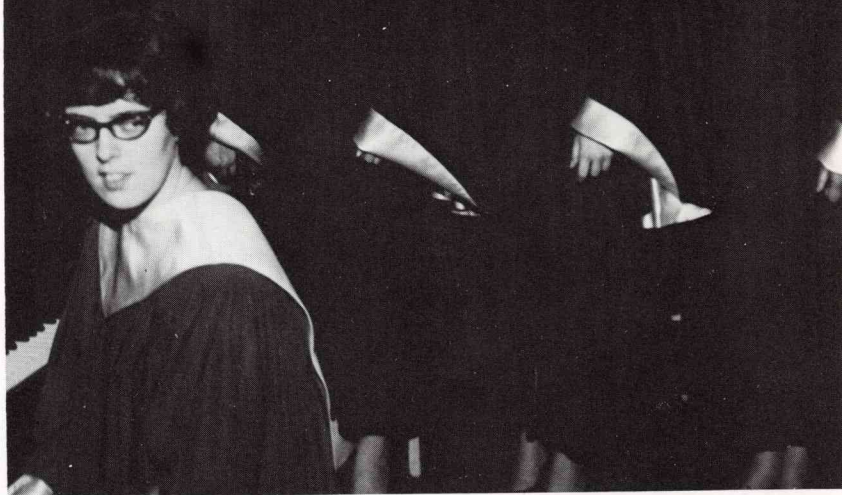

THE CONCERT CHOIR

Representing the Gospel of Christ and Northwest College, the Concert Choir travels throughout the Pacific Northwest bringing spiritual blessings to many hearts. A unique feature of their ministry is a "Sermon in Song" arranged and directed by Miss Dorothy Amundsen. Their traditional two week spring tour presents the members with an opportunity to sing the Gospel, and to demonstrate their faith in Christ.

THE NOR'WESTONES

The vocal and instrumental ministries of a select group of talented N.C. students have been combined this year to form the Nor'westones. Under the direction of Mr. Larry Pember they travel throughout the Northwest, blending their God-given abilities into music which brings glory and honor to Christ.

THE COLLEGE CHOIR

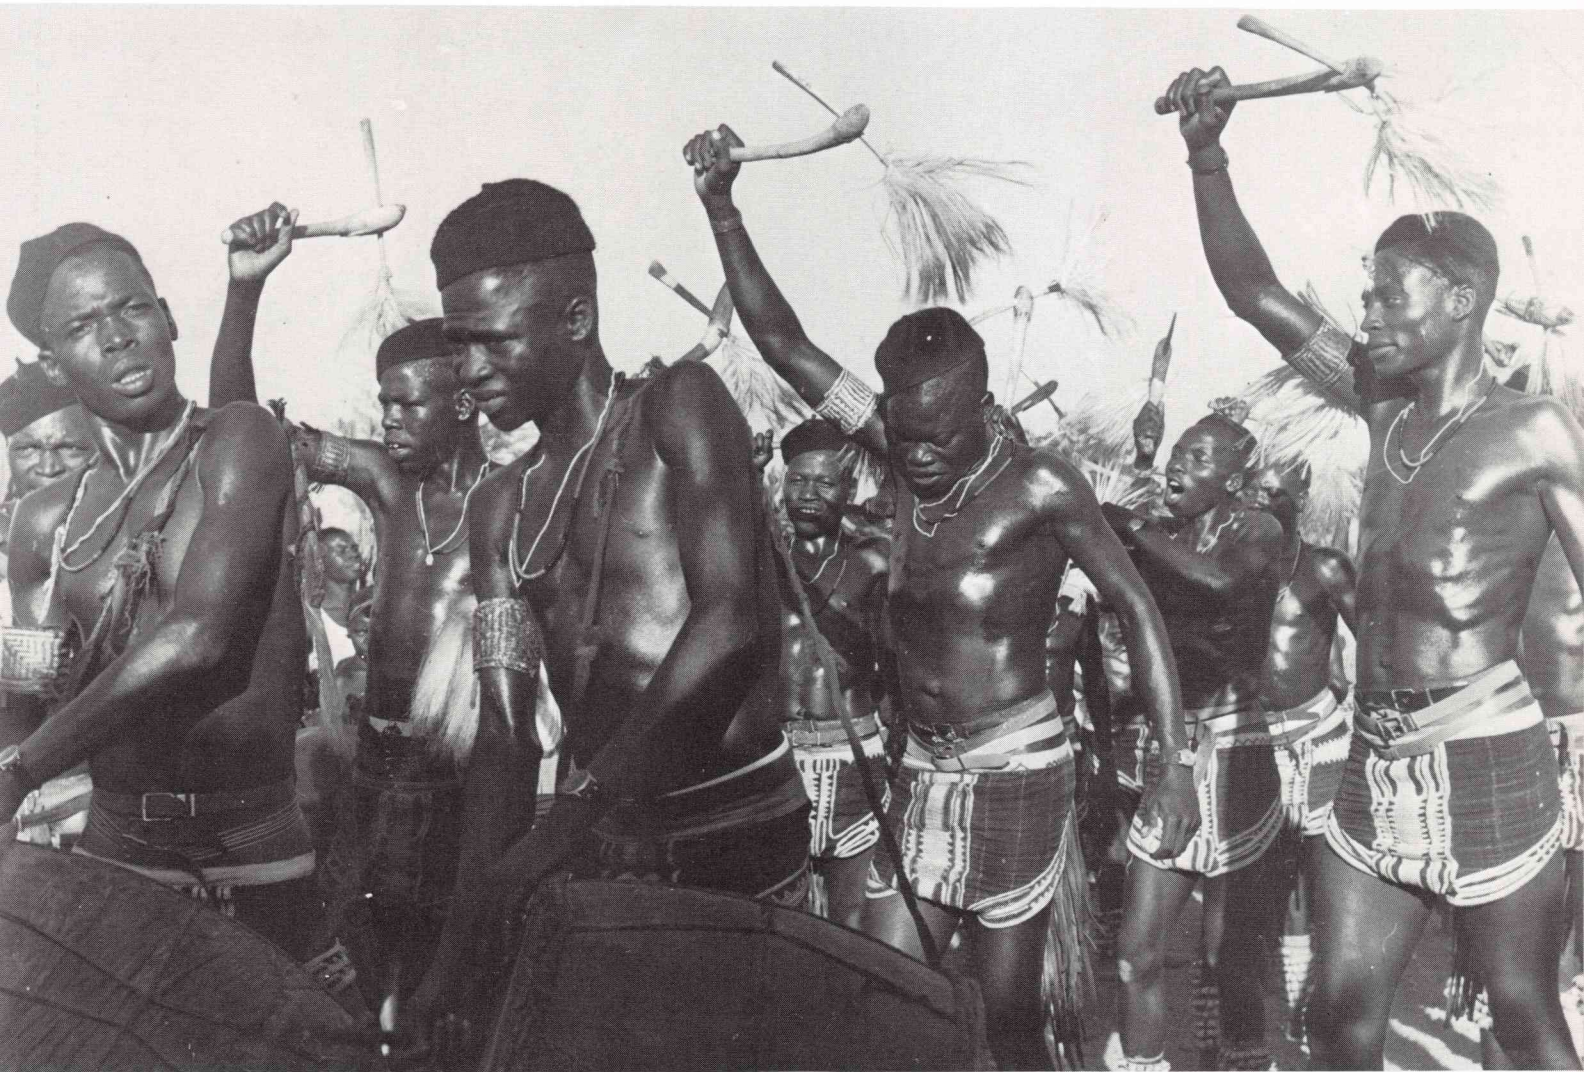

Opportunity to sing for the Lord is extended to all N.C. students through the College Choir. Directed by Mr. Larry Pember the choir ministers in various local churches. Its major activities include a Christmas and spring concert, attended by students and members of the community.

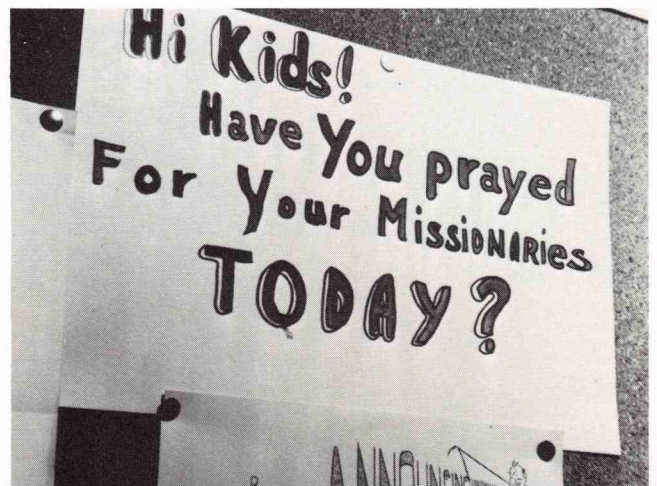

THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY

By prayer and financial support the Missionary Society has a world-wide outreach. Each Friday students gain awareness of missionary needs either in the separate prayer bands, or by hearing visiting missionaries in the chapel. The Society thus provides the students with a good opportunity to participate in world evangelism.

“Our desire as a prayer band is to help carry the load of those who are endeavoring to share Christ with the people of Africa. In the past, we have given financially to help put Bibles in the public schools of Ghana and to aid in building schools in Nigeria and Togo. We also emphasize holding our missionaries up in prayer.”

"Jesus said, Go tell the nations.' (Mark 16:15) We as members of the South American Prayer Band want to do our best in assisting the establishment of National churches and Bible schools. God helping us, 'WE WANT TO DO WHAT WE CAN, WITH WHAT WE HAVE, WHILE WE HAVE TIME!'"

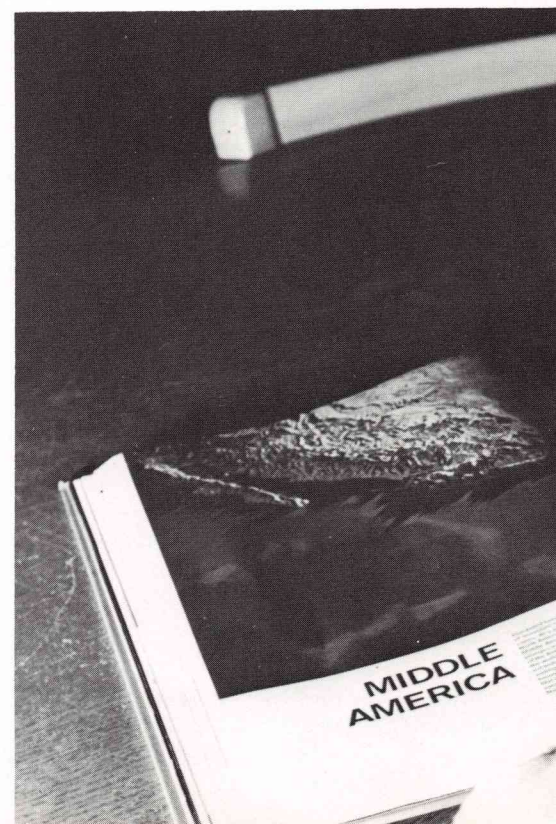

"Our prayer band is dedicated to the propagation of the Gospel in the Far East, India, and the Islands of the Sea. It is our aim to facilitate involvement of the band in establishing the Church of Jesus Christ in this area by prayer and financial help, as well as by personal commitment to the cause of Christ."

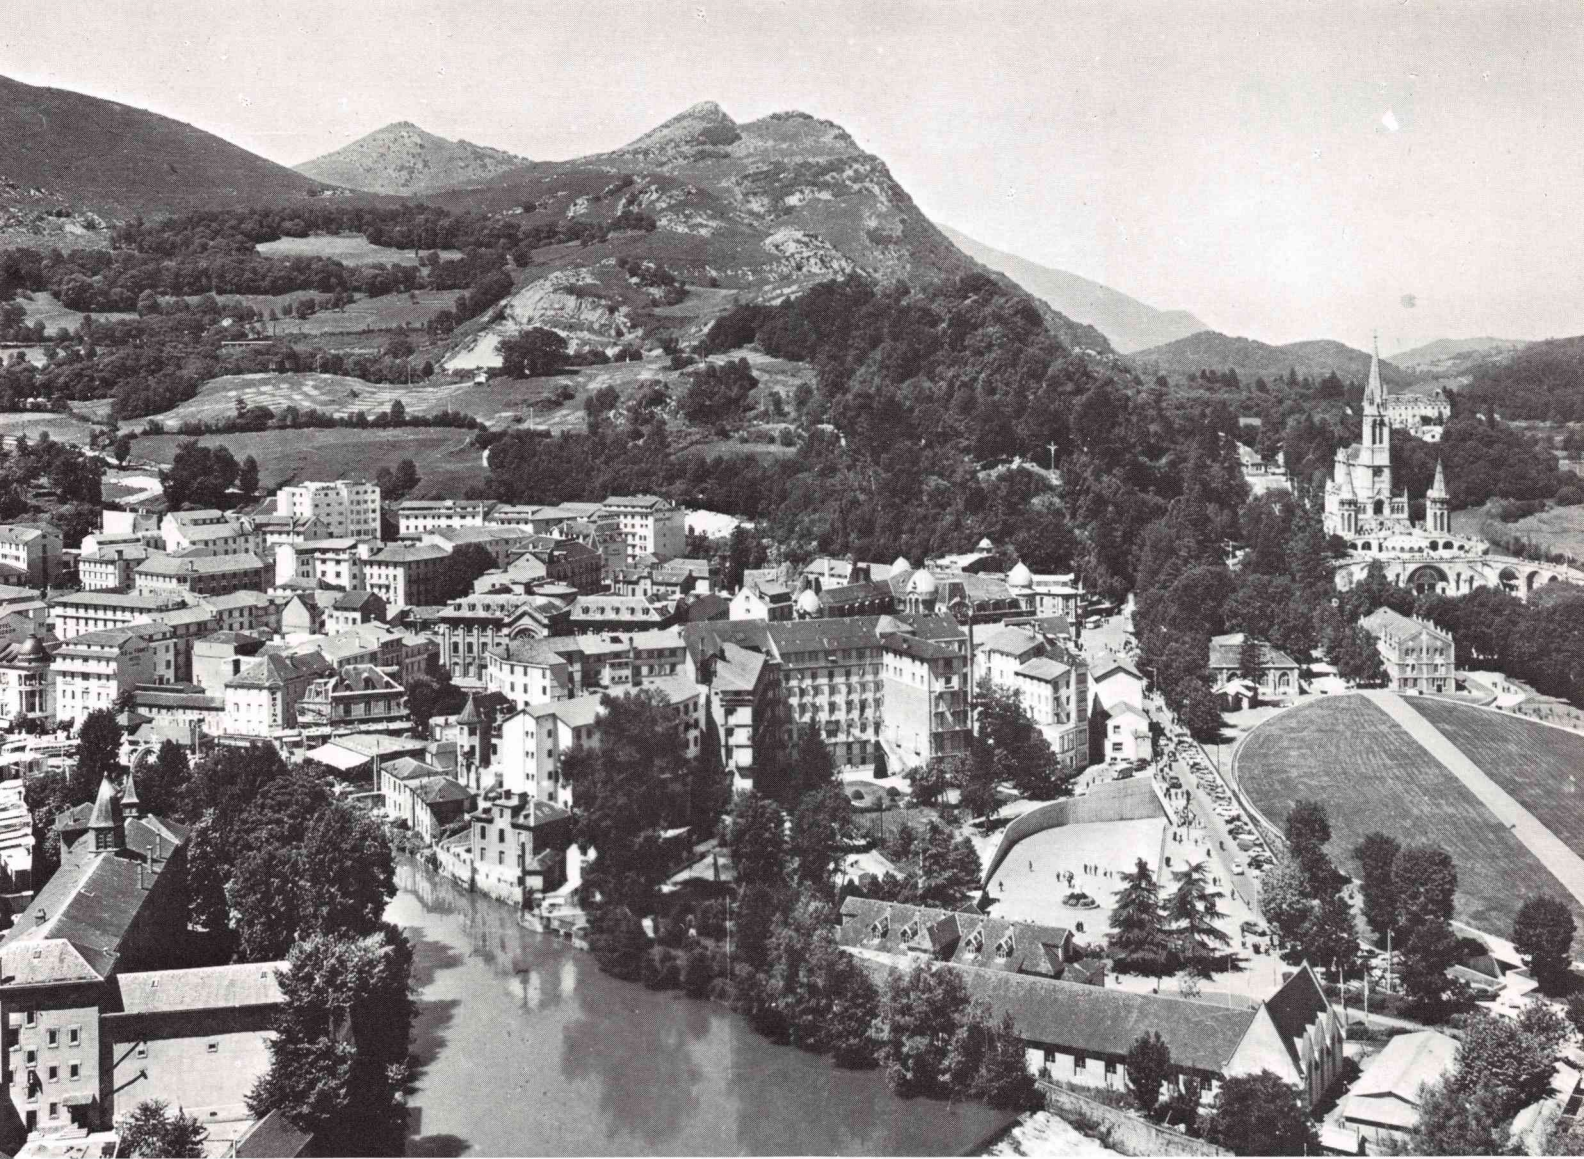

"The Homeland Prayer Band has the opportunity to help combat the needs found right here at home. In addition to prayer and financial aid, we strive to involve ourselves in practical service by ministering to the spiritual needs of servicemen, Indians, teenagers, prisoners, and many others."

"As our name implies, the purpose and objective of the Mexico-Central America Prayer Band is to pray for our missionaries in this area. In addition to aiding them financially, we learn of their needs through correspondence, and then join with them in prayer for the answer. In this way we endeavor to become personally involved with missions."

“Our European-Near East Prayer Band represents a spiritually neglected continent which is on the verge of turning to atheism. An urgent need for laborers has been presented, and we have prayed much for this area. Also, we help to provide for the needs of our missionaries, through such projects as financial help for a new Bible school in the Netherlands.”

KNCC . . .

Doug Garman makes a repair.

Bill Foster, Station Manager

D. J.'s Hershel Lester and Les Hagen prepare for a broadcast.

Music in the air—KNCC is born! One of the most promising innovations of the school year was the construction of a campus-limited radio station. Although it has been plagued by shortages and failure of equipment, KNCC provides a spiritual impetus to Northwest students by broadcasting sacred music and weekly Revivaltime tapes.

THE ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

Vigorous new leadership in the ASB produced several changes in campus life and was a major factor in many improvements throughout the school year. The sincere dedication of the ASB officers and Student Council in both spiritual and secular matters of student life, helped to create and maintain the academic, spiritual, and extra-curricular unity so vital on a Christ-centered campus.

Recognizing that many facets of Northwest College were changing, KARISMA editor Dan Secrist and his staff probed various new formats in attempting to keep pace with this transition and to portray it in a realistic manner. The resulting format incorporated many of the best qualities of those examined.

A spiritual highlight for all women is the Wednesday evening devotional in the lounge of Perks Hall. Here, members of the faculty and administration speak on different aspects of Christian living. The AWS also promotes daily prayer and Bible study on each floor of the dormitory.

All married students wives have the opportunity to belong to the Co-Weds. Pastors and missionaries wives often speak in the monthly meetings to help prepare them for the ministry. As an annual event in the spring, they sponsor a tea for the engaged girls of N. C.

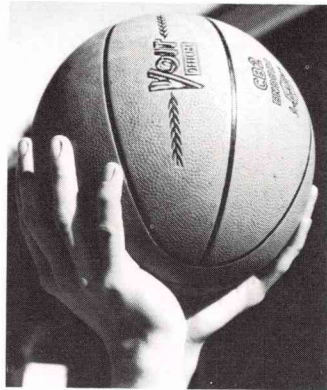

In its first year of existence, the Men's Dorm Council aided the spiritual, academic, and extra-curricular unity among the men on campus. The primary goal of the Council is spiritual growth in the lives of the individual men students. Weekly all-dorm devotionals are held, and the men are also encouraged to participate in prayer groups meeting nightly. The Council also sponsors intramural competition between the floors and handles all disciplinary problems in the dormitory.

The Women's Auxiliary performs an often unseen but very helpful ministry among the students of Northwest College. Their activities include providing refreshments for various receptions and furnishing staple foods for married students. But perhaps their most important ministry is the spiritual support given to the school through daily prayer.

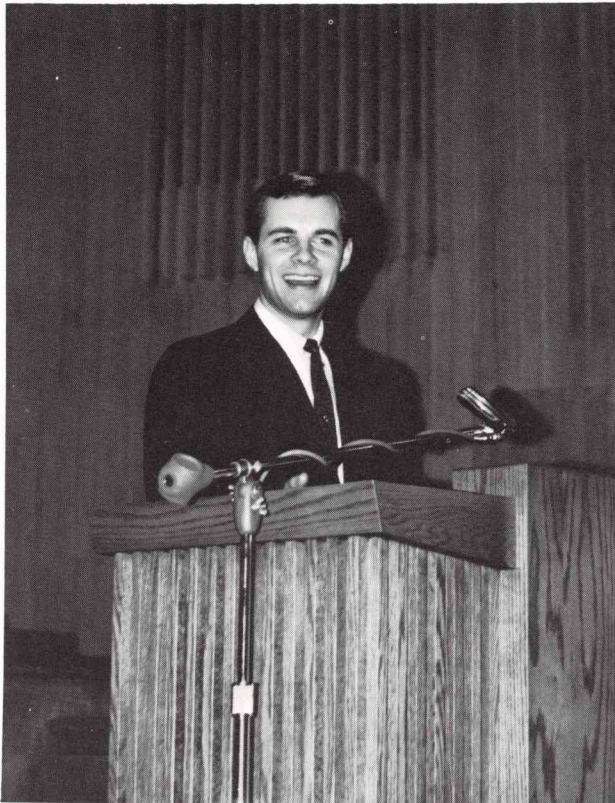

A

ACTIVITIES

MINISTERING TO OTHERS . . .

Gospel teams apply classroom theory in ministering to many nearby churches, a spiritual blessing to the participants as well as to the churches. Other outreach activities include opportunities such as working at Teen Challenge in Seattle, teaching Sunday School in a local church, song leading, preaching, conducting a Bible club, or witnessing from house to house with a group of young people.

THE WEEK-END ACTIVITIES . . .

The week-end—for some it is a time of work, for others it is for recreation and relaxation. Some go home, others study, and some just sleep. Organized school activities often take up a part of the week-end with such outlets as singspirations, game nights, and socials. During winter quarter, basketball games occupy many of the week-ends. And nearly every week-end, gospel teams venture forth to minister and present the message of our Saviour's love.

THE N. C. EAGLES...

Coach Alex Hunter led the Northwest College Eagles into their first season of intercollegiate basketball this year as they played against the teams of the Willamette Christian Conference. Although the final tally was six games won and eight lost, the Eagles played many close and exciting games against tough opposition.

you...our future

The General Council of the Assemblies of God is very much interested in you. And understandably so. You are the future of our Pentecostal heritage on earth. Our prayerful concern is that you will continue to respond to the Lord in your God-called vocation, ministering Christ in a way which is spiritually satisfying for you and glorifying to God. We are counting on you for leadership of God's kingdom in the church, the home, and at work. We know you will not fail.

The lives of two young Christians met
With tragic fate—it seems so yet.
But as we in our minds restore
The thoughts of those who've gone before,
We cannot ask or question why
In youthful life that some must die.
For who is man that he should know
Why God this path of life would show?

Some men may think "He loveth not"
While others say "He careth not."
But God for man this plan designed,
And so these deaths he also timed
That man would bow on humbled knee
And pray "O Lord, we worship Thee."
So each remember once again
These lives of Bob and Carolyn.

—Les Hagen

Robert Canen was born on March 27, 1948, and lived in Glasgow, Montana. Though declared legally blind, he had an earnest desire to study in preparation for a ministry of preaching or teaching. All who knew Bob recognized him as a Christian of outstanding character. We remember him for his expressed joy in being able to attend Northwest College.

Carolyn Quimby was born on April 2, 1948 in New Haven, Connecticut, and lived in Salem, Oregon. Her desire was to be a missionary to some foreign land. But she was already God's missionary to her family, friends, and to all those whom she met. Her term of service was completed upon arriving at college, for she was called home to receive her reward.

In a crash of a private plane on Sunday afternoon, October 2, 1966, at the conclusion of their first week of college, Bob and Carolyn made the transition from this earthly life to an eternal life of joy and peace with God. They were attending the church of the pilot that day, hoping to get a college Sunday School class organized. Certainly, there would be no better time to be ushered into God's presence than while joyfully living in the center of God's will.

THIS LIFE IS BUT A BRIDGE—TRANSITIONAL.
LET NO MAN BUILD UPON IT,
FOR IT IS BUT THE MEANS
BY WHICH WE ATTAIN THE IMAGE OF CHRIST.
