

NORTHWEST STUDENT BULLETIN
March 23, 1962

The Missions Seminar will be holding its first meeting of the Spring Quarter tonight in the Bunn Memorial Chapel at 7:30. Rev. Morton, a recent member of the Foreign Missions Board in Springfield, Missouri, will be discussing a few of the basic qualities that the Board desires of missionary applicants.

* * *

Campus Day is on Friday, March 30. We solicit the cooperation of the students in the following:

1. Please do not park in the Student Union Building area on that day.
2. Please try to eat during periods 4 and 5 and as early in the evening as possible. Please do not linger over your meal.
3. Please sit to the front of the classroom--where possible. Visitors will be coming and going.
4. Please exercise discretion in the use of the musical instruments and game equipment in the Student Union Building.

* * *

The All-School Banquet will be held on April 6, two weeks from today. It will be held at the University Christian Church, Seattle, at 7:45 p.m., and Rev. Dennis Bennett will be the speaker.

Tickets may be picked up in the A.S.B. office beginning next Wednesday. No person will be admitted to the banquet without a ticket, so don't forget to pick them up.

* * *

The following list of books are missing from the library. If you have any of them or know of their whereabouts please return them to the library.

SOCIOLOGY: Forster, Arnold, and Epstein, B.R., The Trouble-Makers.

Lasker, Bruno, Asia on the Move.

Smith, T. Lynn, The Sociology of Rural Life.

Glass, Ruth, London's Newcomers.

N.T. INTRODUCTION: Josephus, Works.

ACTS: Alexander, Commentary on the Acts of the Apostles.

Erdman, Acts.

Ironside, Lectures on the Book of Acts.

Macaulay, The Acts of the Apostles.

JOHN: Dods, The Gospel of St. John.

Erdman, The Gospel of John.

Godet, John.

MacGregor, The Gospel of John.

These books were not on the reserve shelves when the other books were taken off reserve. They are not checked out to students or faculty, and are not in the stacks unless they are some distance out of place.