The Missionary Council is sponsoring a BANQUET to be held January 12, 1962, 7:30 p.m., at the Redmond Methodist Church. The theme of the banquet is Oriental Missions. Rev. Glenn Horst, a former missionary to the Orient, will be the speaker. See Bill Finke for tickets, which sell for $2.00. All students, faculty and staff members are invited to attend.

All accounts are due and payable before final exams. Those whose accounts are in arrears will have their names on a list given to each professor and will not be allowed to take final exams. This includes tuition, cafeteria, library fines, room, board, bookstore and all other accounts.

There will be no chapel services during final exams except at the conclusion of the exams, at which time there will be a final chapel and communion service for all students.

The Christmas recess officially commences after the communion service on Friday, December 15 and ends with the commencement of class instruction on Wednesday, January 3, for students now in school. The new quarter officially commences on Tuesday, January 2, for new students who have not been on campus thus far this year, on which day they will take freshman exams and register in preparation for classes which commence on Wednesday.

The Student Union Building will be open during Christmas vacation for the use of campus residence students ONLY and that for the purpose of meals. Young men may visit with their lady friends in the lounge of the ladies' residence between the hours of 6:30 and 10:30 p.m. except during church time on Sundays. The ladies' residence will close at 11:30 each night.

All students having registered for the winter quarter are expected to check in on Tuesday no later than midnight. Those traveling long distances should make ample provision for bad road conditions, breakdowns, etc., by allowing extra traveling time.

YES--You can check out library books for Christmas vacation any time this week! If you've been wanting to read a missionary book, or Christian biography, or some Christian fiction, vacation will be a good time. Or you can get a head start on next quarter, if you're ambitious.

The Seattle Times' series of articles on "Speaking in Tongues" is posted on the library bulletin board.

Some students still owe library fines. Please remember that these must be paid before you can get your grades.

The Educational Department in Springfield is currently conducting a survey among candidates for graduation in an effort to assist ministerial students and vocational volunteers in placement following their graduation from the college. It will be appreciated if the questionnaires which were distributed will be returned to the Registrar on or before Friday, December 15.

The next bulletin will be distributed January 5, 1962. Have a MERRY Christmas and a safe and enjoyable vacation.
