ALL-SCHOOL PICNIC - 14TH

PENNIES FOR PROGRESS

"For who hath despised the day of small things."

During the Pneumatology class on Wednesday the vision of a college campus caught fire and developed rapidly into an enthusiastic flame among the students.

Dan Gerla placed a few pennies on a book, passed the book to Bob Ridout who in turn passed it to Carl Douglas. From there on it went around the classroom until $26.00 had been collected.

Students gave hilariously.

At the close of the third period Carl put the money into a jar and canvassed the rest of the school. Faculty members and students were spontaneous in their giving and by 12:30 PM, $71.45 had been received.

The following morning in chapel, Carl broke in just before the service began and told the Student body of the wonderful things that were happening. Round after-round of enthusiastic applause greeted his report.

By the grace of God, "Collected Coins equal a College Campus," and at the end of the day $51.00 had been added, bringing the total in two days to $138.00!!

God's promise in Zech. 4:9 is that as our hands have laid the foundation of this house, even so shall our hands finish it. And all the glory and the praise will go to our God.

ALL-SCHOOL PICNIC

The sounds of challenge and battle are in the air! Heads together, class spirit boiling--everyone anticipates the all-school picnic!

From the opening prayer in chapel on Friday, May 14, through the turbulence of class competition in softball, the rousing message of the special vesper service speaker, a big day has been prayerfully planned.

SENIORS SNEAK

After meeting at the early hour of 7:45 the Seniors motored to the North country to spend a beautiful day at Cranberry Lake in the Deception Pass State Park. Prior to their arrival at the lake the class journeyed up Mount Erie to view the land. Mount Erie is 1400 feet elevation and gives a view of the entire N.W. Puget (Cont. on Page 2, Col. 2)

MISSIONARY BALLOTS CAST

Don Strong the newly elected Missionary Society has certainly pruned himself to be a leader in the school. His spiritual life is an inspiration to his fellow students. Don was president of his class his freshman year. This year he is the leader of the Latin American Band and an assistant team leader. Last summer, Don was assistant pastor at Sedro-Woolley.

John Crowder, who is to be the Vice-President of the Missionary Council spent one summer with the Willis Shank missionary boat in Alaska and along the western coast of Canada.

Barbara Jewell has been Secretary of the African Band and is active on various committees and gospel teams. Barbara's main desire is "that NBC will go forward for Christ in missionary zeal and vision."

Descending from the mountain top, they arrived at Cranberry Lake in time to have lunch. The afternoon was spent playing volleyball, hiking, rowing, "swimming", beachcombing, and meditating. A game of "work-up" was played prior to dinner time, according to NW rules.

As for the hiking, and volleyball ask the group about the fun, but for the rowing and the "swimming" ask Bud "Robinson Crusoe" Actipis, John Butterfield, Lester Cleveland, Eugene Ross, and Paul Callahan.

A cake baking contest sponsored by the class was won by Kan de Vamp's baker, Byron Wood.

The male food committee prepared a delicious meal of fried chicken, vegetables, punch, coffee, potato salad, cake and ice cream. The chicken was prepared beforehand by Cheri Mercer, Dona Callahan, and Jan Butterfield.

It was a wonderful climax to four years of classroom experiences. Brother DeSpain spoke after a class prophecy was read.

SCRIPTURAL INTERPRETATION

"Like people, like priest"
Hosea 4:9

A grave responsibility rests upon any leader of a group of people. He is exposed to all the temptations as any one else yet he must "fight the good fight of faith" just like others. He does not cease to be a man when he becomes a leader and must "rule his own house well" in order to rule the "houses" of others.

In most cases the people tend to follow their leader and if he fails the people will also falter. Yet the obligations that rest upon the leader, rest equally heavy on their shoulders too. Both are responsible for the results in God's sight.

If any band or group of people progress, it is only because the leader and his group are alike. The standards for both are the same and the battles are to be fought together. Every disappointment is to be equally shared as well as the victories that are won. "And there shall be like people, like priests: and I will punish them for their ways and reward them their doings."

MOTHER'S DAY ARRIVALS

On Mother's Day, May 9, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leid was blessed with the arrival of a bouncing, 7 pound, 9 ounce baby boy, Christopher Jay. Special congratulations from the COURIER STAFF are extended, as Kay is a faithful Staff member.

Congratulations also go to Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hockstatter, first quarter students, on the Mother's Day arrival of a seven pound son.

CONSTITUTIONAL CORNER

"Joan, do you know when the elections for the COURIER and KARISMA officers are taking place?"

"They don't have elections for those officers."

"How do we get them then?"

"Like this, Mary. Have you read the school constitution?"

"No-o-o."

"It's stated in there. One week after the Missionary Society elections the Student Council appoints the editors and the other officers for the publications."

"What are the 'other' offices?"

"There's the Assistant editor, Business manager, circulation manager, and art editor."

"Who do you think will be next year's editors?"

"Well, often it is this year's assistant editors, but you never can tell."

"I hope they will be as good as this year's editors."

"So do I, Mary."

EVERY LITTLE BIT HELPS

As a result of the fines collected from tardy choir members, the choir will have a "Taco" party the evening of May 12, at the McLaughlin home.

A STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE

On Friday night, April 23, the main auditorium of the school was hardly recognizable. Eight large piles of clothing loomed up in various places and almost forty students, loafing and joking, sorted the clothing which will be sent to Europe, Alaska, the Orient and some to the Islands of the Sea. An even more interesting sight appeared after the sorting was over. A number of fellows and girls took up needle and thread and began to mend tears, and holes, and to sew on buttons. At 9:30 the last stitch was taken, the clothes were all packed in boxes, and almost everyone adjourned to the lower auditorium for chili, crackers, and kool-aid.

Before the clothing was mended it had been cleaned or washed by the Sunshine laundry at the very low fee of five cents per pound. Our thanks goes to them for their generous donation.

Bruce Mercer would like to express once again his appreciation to all those who came out and gave a helping hand in every part of this clothing drive.

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN LEAVES

After digging his way out of 1,000 books in the library Cecil Wingard has decided to travel Southward to Oklahoma where he will attend Phillips University for three years to obtain a Bachelor of Divinity degree.

While in Seattle Cecil had a young people's group at Evangel Tabernacle. To provide interest for them he used many types of visual aids, picnics, parties, and programs for special occasions.

Cecil also showed films in the church services, assisting Brother Tappero.

COURIER OUTING

Saturday, April 24, was a time of relaxation and fun for the hard-working Courier Staff. After a beautiful drive through Deception Pass to Bowman's Bay, lunch was eaten and an ambitious bunch of reporters and typists began a hike to the Arrowhead Point.

It was a lovely day, Spring was in the air and time was spent lying in the sun and playing along the beach. The editor even had the nerve to go down the slide---and it's still standing!!

The highlight of the day was a "Hot Tamale" supper served with a tossed salad and garlic bread.

DABS OF PINK AND BLUE

Congratulations are in order to John and Shirley Heck on the arrival of a daughter, Jean Marie born on April 21st.

Congratulations are also extended to Mr. and Mrs. Milton Evalt who were recently blessed with a daughter, Susan Louise, on April 23rd.

The Richard Hamiltons are proud of their new son, Jimmy Laverne, born May 5.
