Philippians 3:14

Dr. Francis Thee

In 1963, while Francis Thee was working on his doctorate in Chicago, he was asked to come to Northwest Bible College.

Dr. Thee was raised in a small town in Missouri. Along with three brothers, he grew up on a farm, and years later while in college, he returned each summer to help in the harvesting of the crops.

In his senior year in college Dr. Thee ranked highest in his class, receiving the honor of validictorian. He completed his Bachelor of Arts degree at Central Bible College and at Wheaton College. On Aug. 29, 1981 Dr. Thee was the recipient of the Ph.D degree from the University of Chicago.

Some of his main interests are hiking, camping and writing; however, as is true with many scholars Dr. Thee is most interested in reading and is always seeking to gain more knowledge to pass on to others.

Other opportunities have come his way, but his great love for Northwest College has kept him here for 18 years.

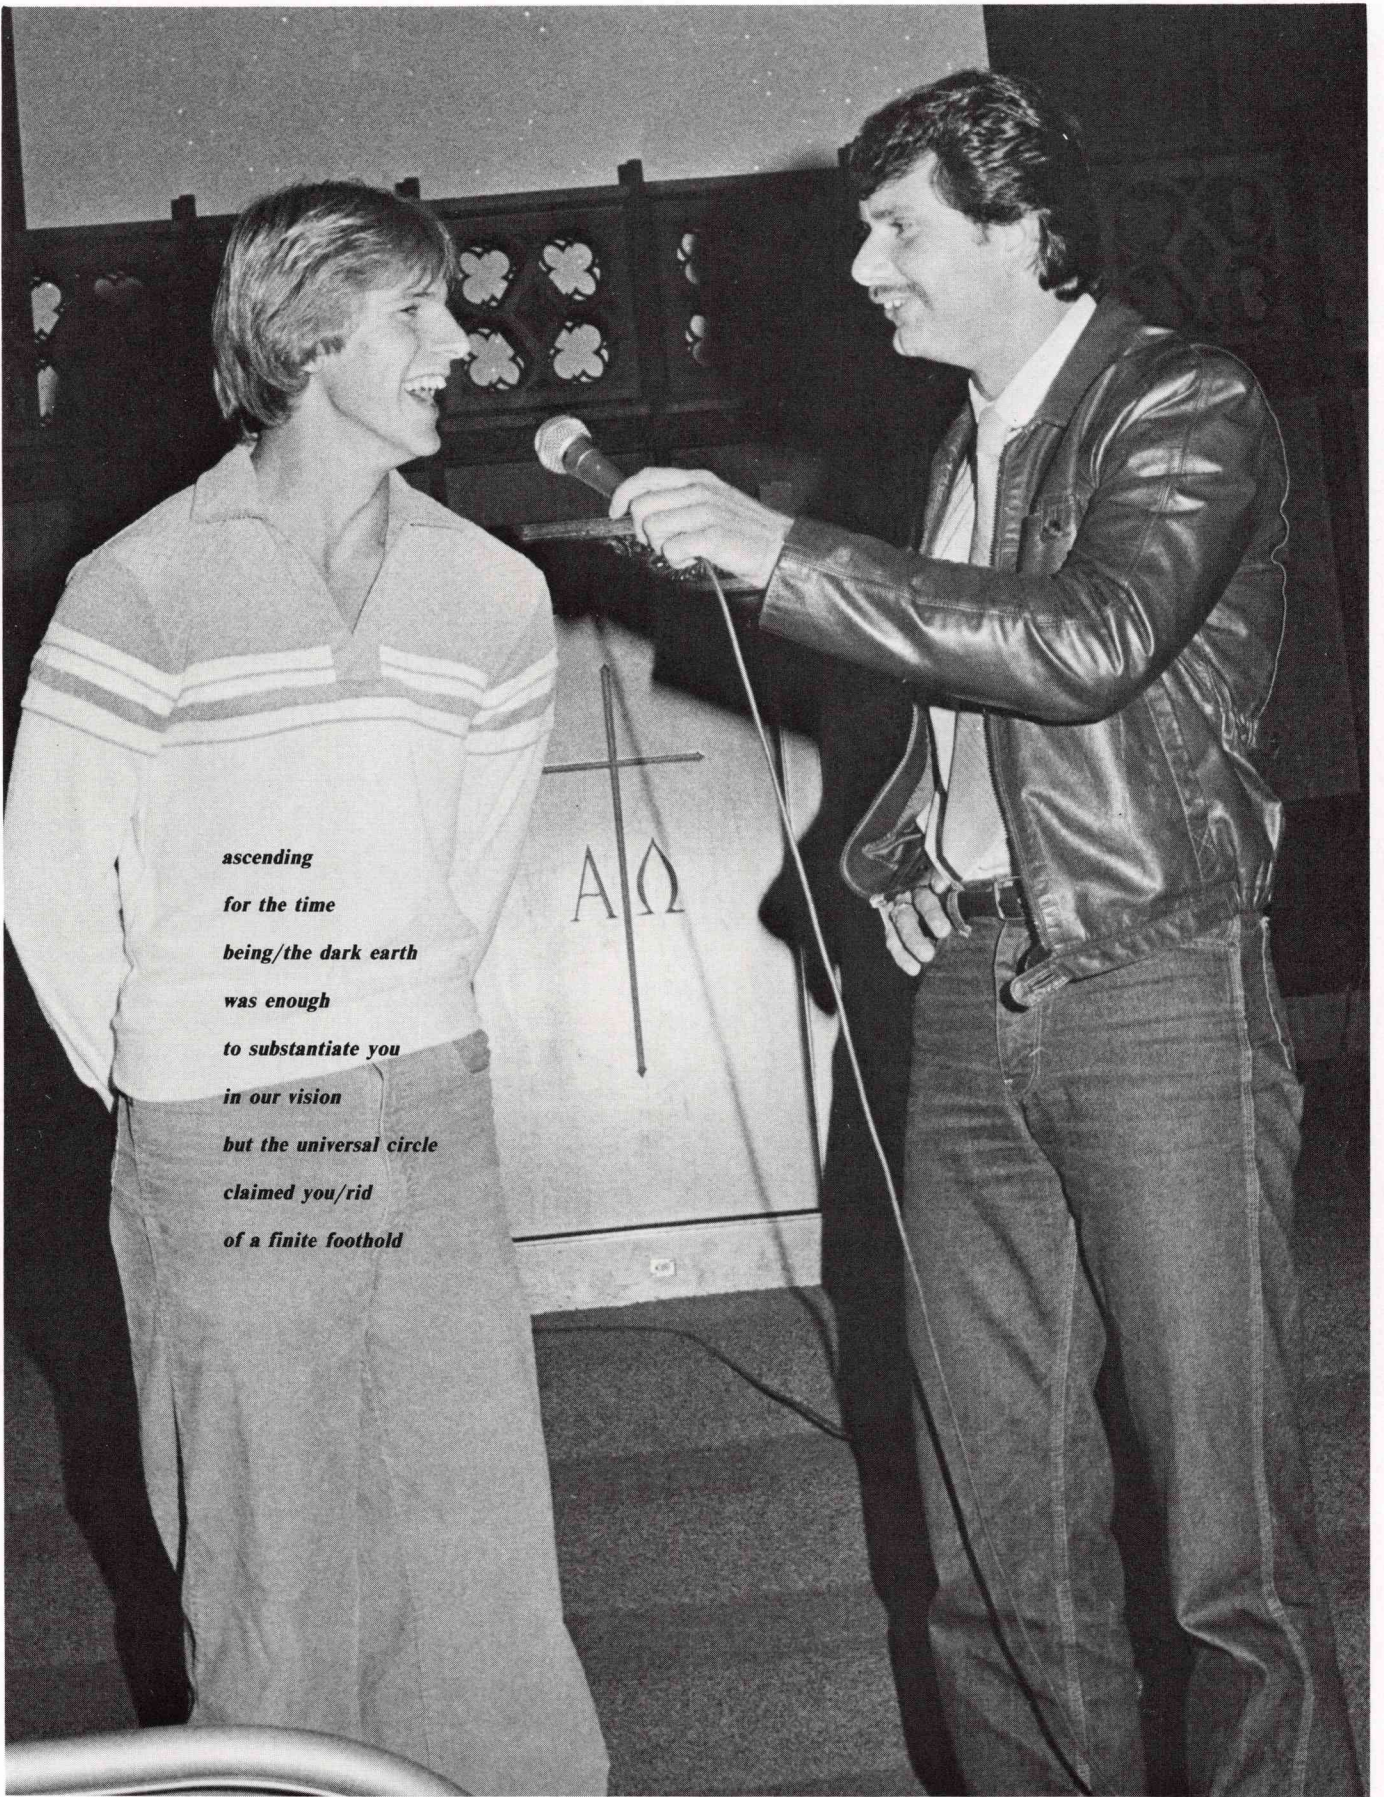

First Memory
It shadows me;
and sometimes when I pause
to push the world aside, my hands retain the mold
of that first memory.

Then I feel its bold breath within my nose,
odorless; on my lips,
tasteless; on my tongue
wordless . . .

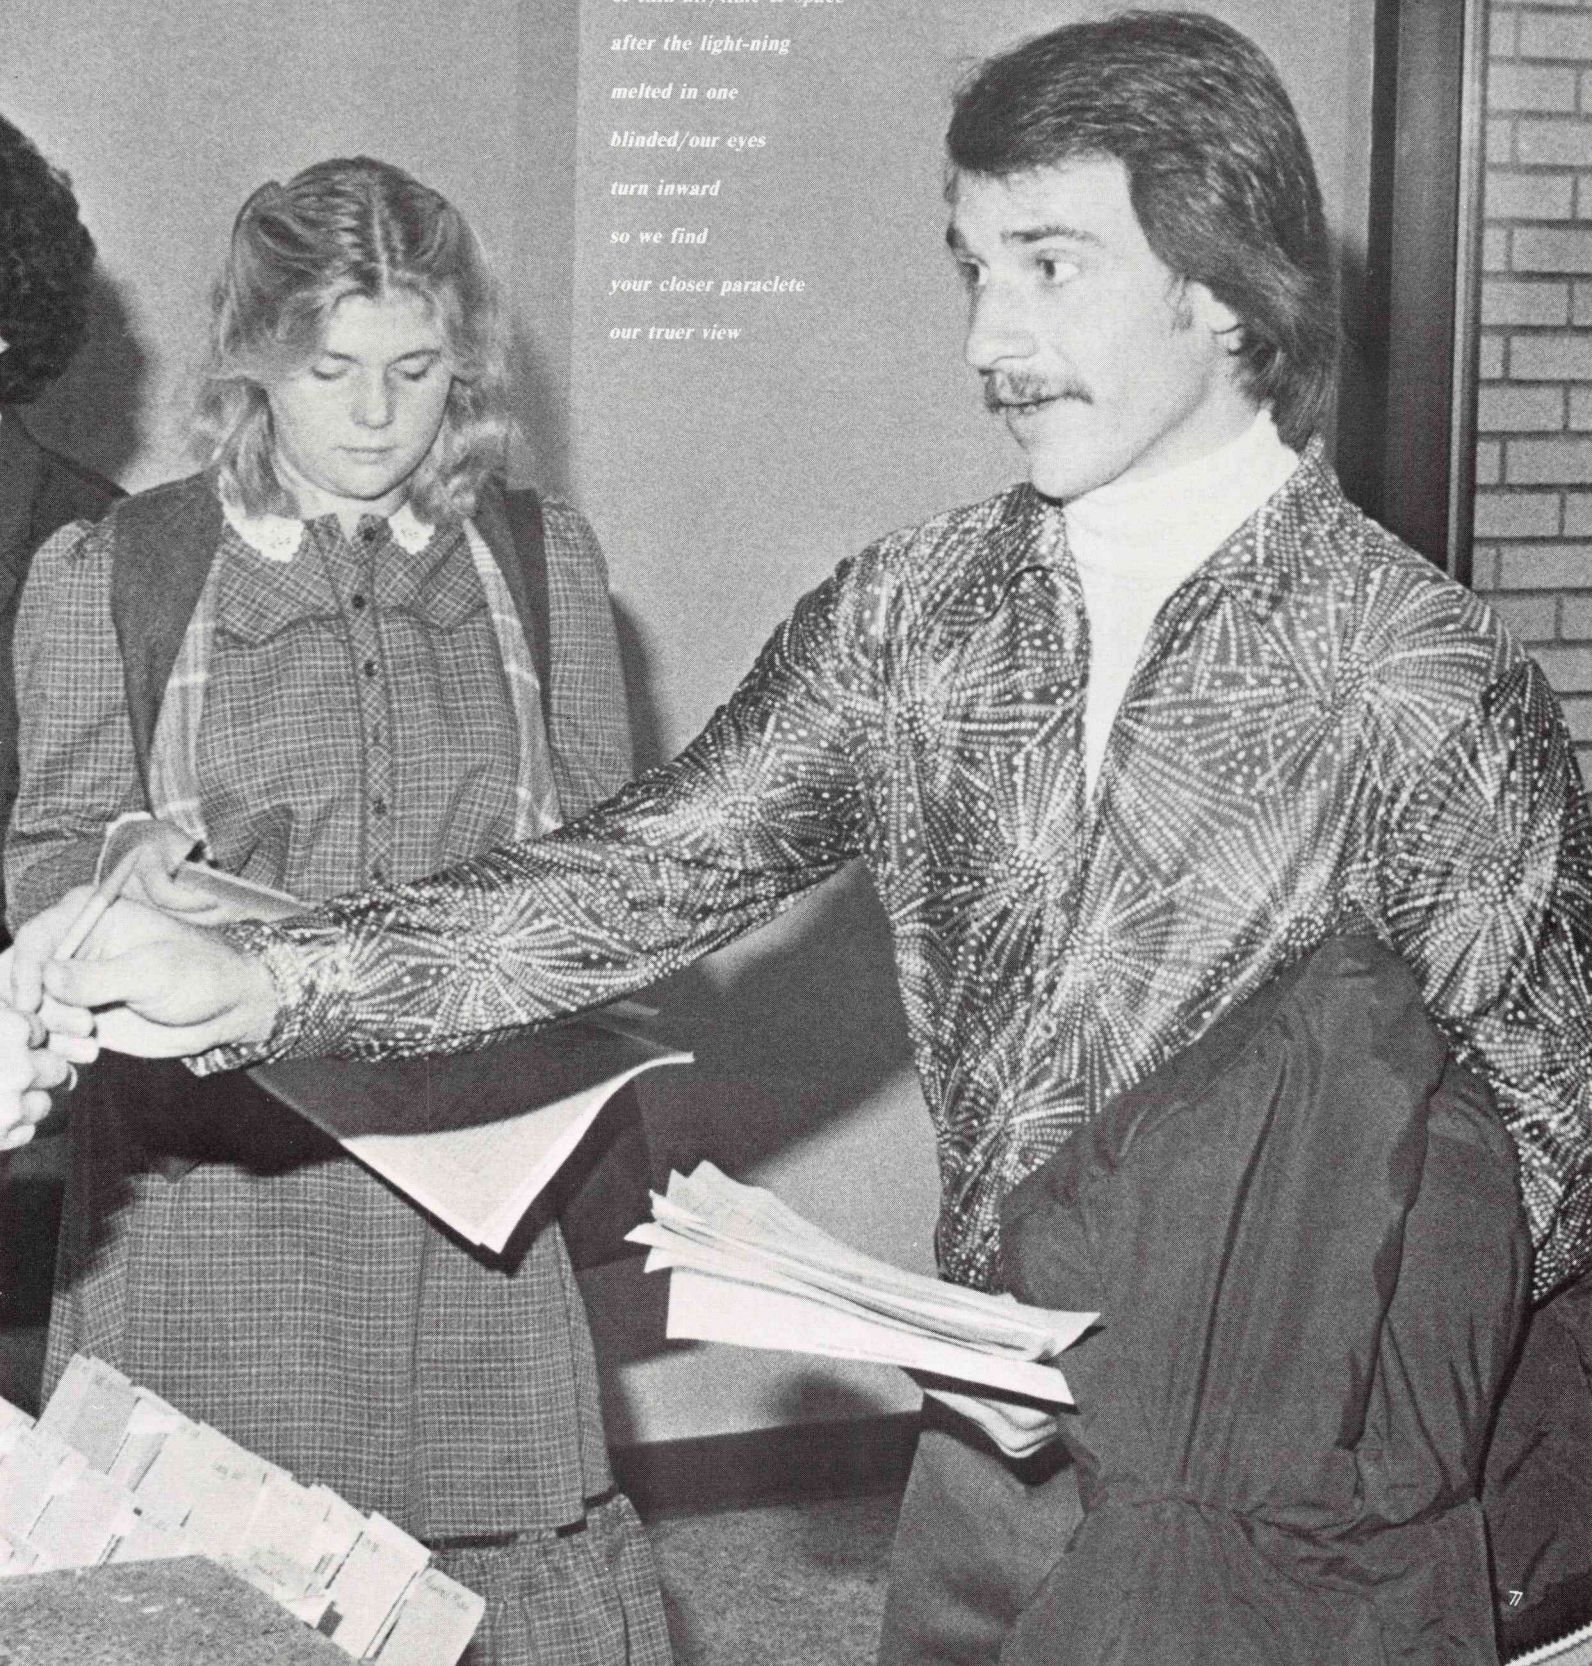

*Quiet memory,
like an ear of corn,
silk lifting — green and purple —
silent toward the sun, newborn!*

*ascending
for the time being/the dark earth was enough to substantiate you in our vision
but the universal circle claimed you/rid of a finite foothold*

*you lifted scattered your feathers in light faceted the invisibilities of thin air/time & space
after the light-ning melted in one blinded/our eyes turn inward
so we find your closer paraclete
our truer view*

This spring shower makes the sound of spilling grain each drop a seed . . .

to be ground into flour and baked into bread.

It is the body of the Lord

Man cannot name himself ...

Man cannot name himself ...

Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, handling accurately the word of truth.

*Empty of heart we wait amid the snow,
The feline snow that crouches by the lake,
Empty of heart, except for icy fear Reflected from unfathomable deeps . . .*

*The gray sea and the long black land;
And the startled little waves that leap
In fiery ringlets from their sleep . . .*

*After the hours of restless struggling through the waves of fears, wounded, stroking against gravity, treading water, stroking,
I choose to let go, to float numbed, to trust myself to the words sung across the lake: Lay down your life, to trust my body to the drifting wood — in weariness my bed, my frame, the crux of all matters,
to which he was joined by force but willingly, laid on it to be what I have been to gain my pain (himself to drown in it).*

*Thus
am I bouyed, and resting there cruciform, new knowledge laps me like a wave: I am the cross — coarse grained and pocked with holes of nails — to which he joins himself (already joined to his deep baptism) that he may join me to his strong escape, his rising from the darkness of this icy lake.*

A Winner respects those who are superior to him and tries to learn something from them; a Loser resents those who are superior and rationalizes their achievements.

A Winner explains; a Loser explains away.

A Winner says, "Let's find a way"; a Loser says, "There is no way."

A Winner goes through a problem; a Loser tries to go around it.

A Winner says, "There should be a better way to do it"; a Loser says, "That's the way it's always been done here."

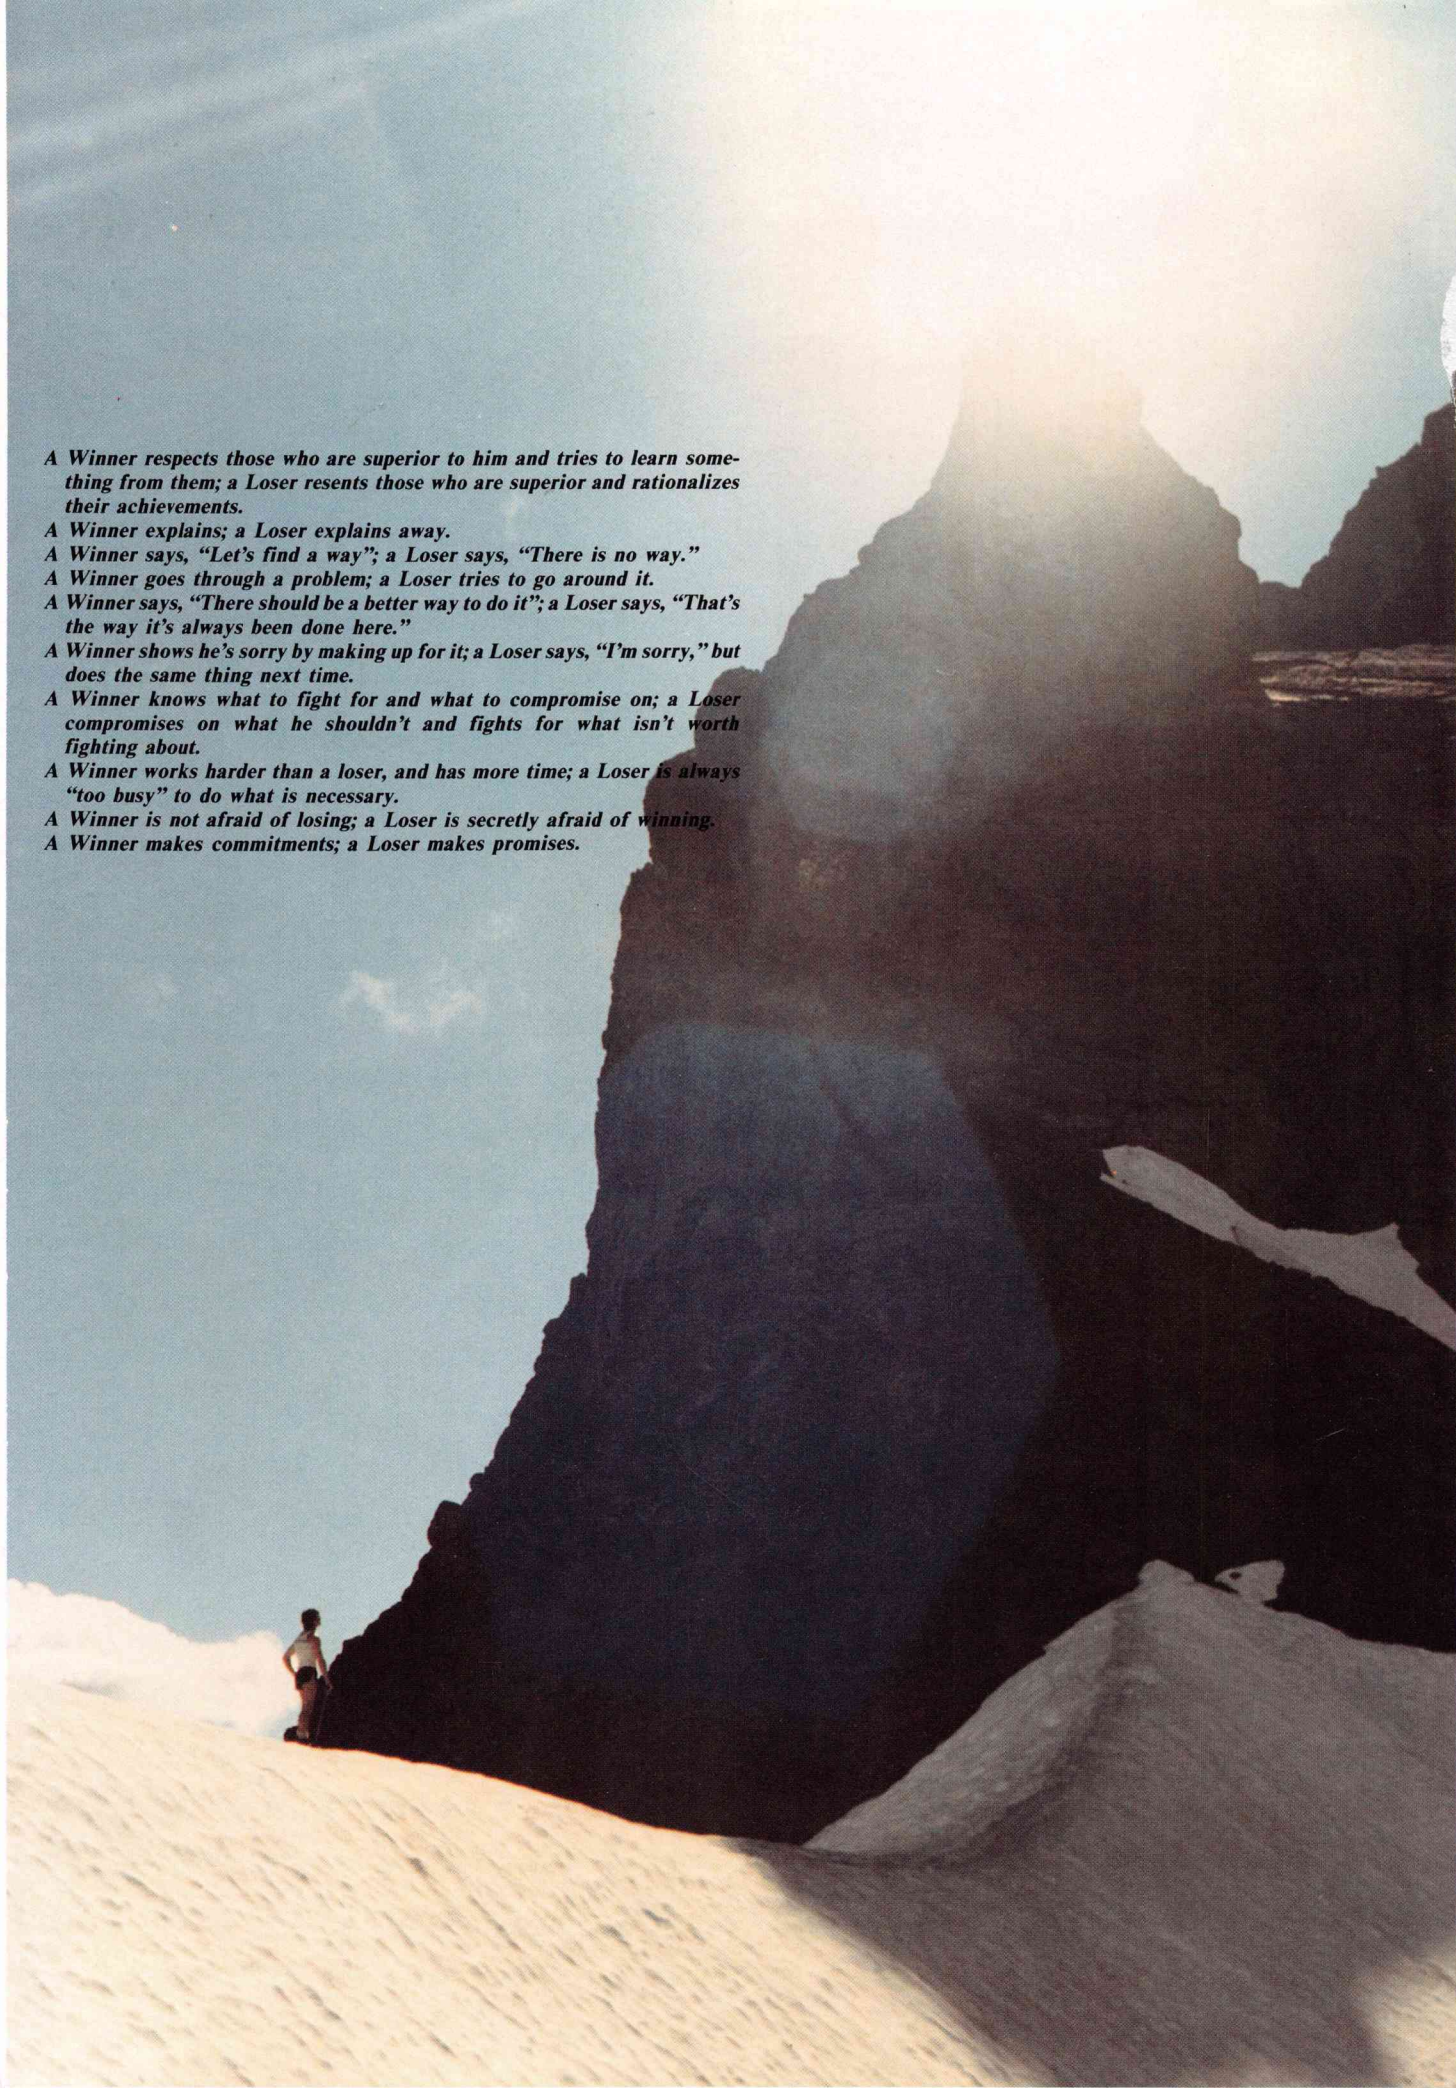

A Winner shows he's sorry by making up for it; a Loser says, "I'm sorry," but does the same thing next time.

A Winner knows what to fight for and what to compromise on; a Loser compromises on what he shouldn't and fights for what isn't worth fighting about.

A Winner works harder than a loser, and has more time; a Loser is always "too busy" to do what is necessary.

A Winner is not afraid of losing; a Loser is secretly afraid of winning.

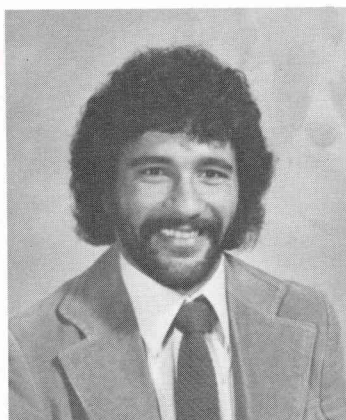

A Winner makes commitments; a Loser makes promises.

*Samples and sorts not for themselves alone, but for their atmosphere,
To grace the bush I love-to sing with the birds,
A warble for joy of lilac-time, returning in reminiscence.*

Spiritual

Dr. Ward M. Tanneberg is currently the senior pastor of Valley Christian Center, Dublin, California.

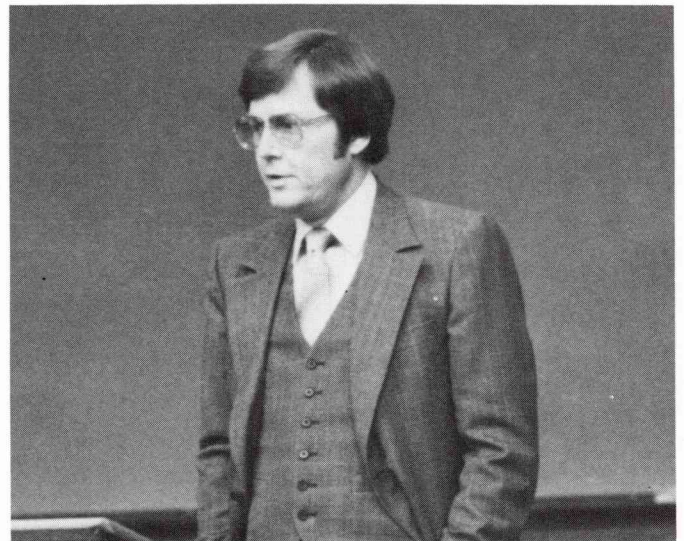

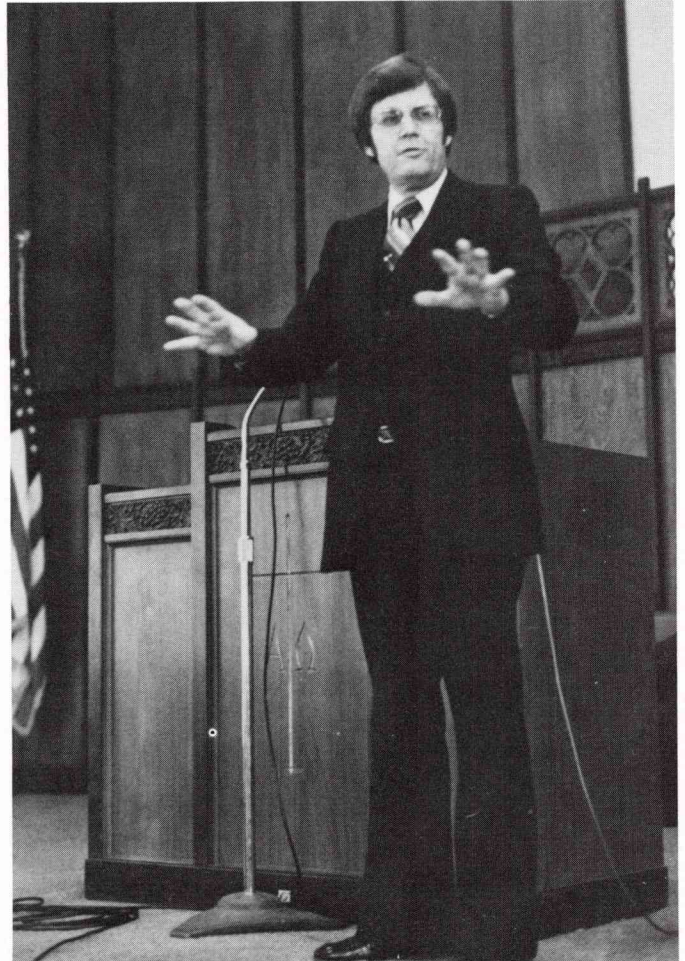

He was a pastor in the Northwest District for several years. He served in district leadership as District C.A. President, and was the Public Relations Director at Northwest College for several years. In 1971 he and his family moved from the Northwest District to assume responsibilities as pastor of the fledgling Church. Forty-seven members constituted the congregation. Seven months later, only seventeen members remained. During the first two years of ministry the overwhelming problems resulted in a seemingly hopeless situation, according to Pastor Tanneberg.

Since that time, however, the congregation has grown to more than 550 active adult members with an average Sunday attendance of more than 1,000.

The greatest portion of that amount is "new growth" and not biological or transfer growth from other local churches. In addition, more than 350 adult VCC members plus their children have been transferred out of the area during the same time period to other communities and churches due to the highly mobile flux of the area's population. It has become one of the largest non-Roman Catholic churches in its geographic region.

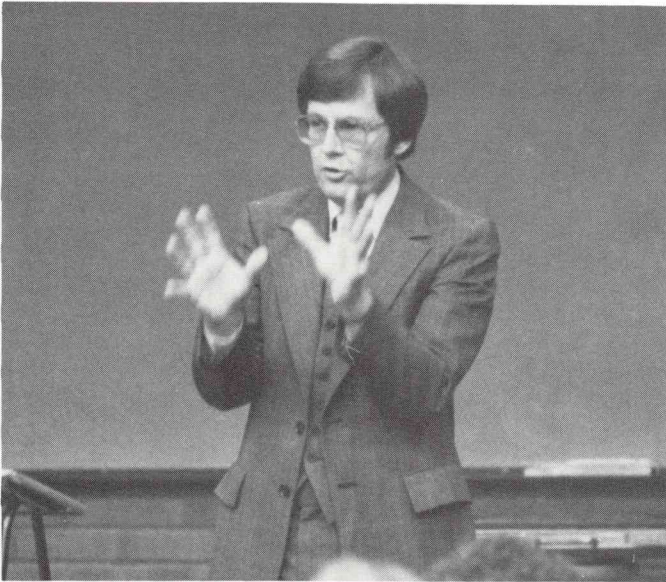

Valley Christian Center also sponsors a Christian Day School with more than 600 students enrolled. This year, Valley Counseling services will open its doors to the area.

Dr. and Mrs. Tanneberg both speak extensively in christian marriage conferences, on college campuses, and in pastors and pastor's wives conferences. Dr. Tanneberg serves as a guest professor at the California Graduate School of Theology, located in Glendale, California, and hosts a local weekly television program, The Pastor's Study.

Campus Day

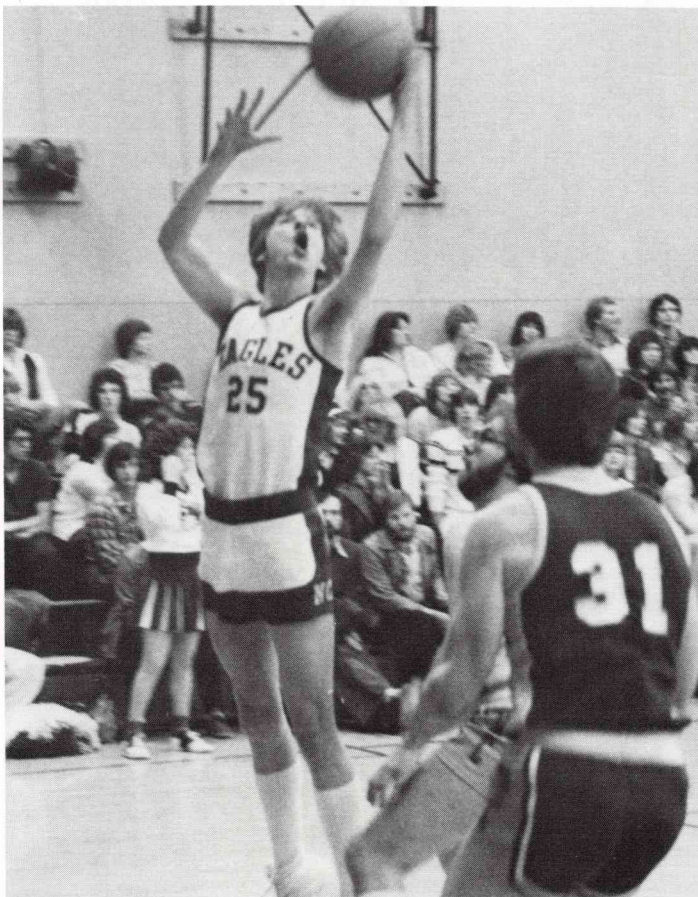

Can a single event change the course of multitudes? Campus Day at Northwest College is one of those events — a gala event for the undecided. The thought of the day in a “real” college draws interested high schoolers from all over the Northwest.

These young people are seeking the college atmosphere that best fits their ideas. They are looking for the intellectual challenges, social outlets, and, not least, spiritual nourishment.

Registration lines, forms to be filled out, classrooms crowded with visitors, and entertainment by student groups provide the atmosphere these young people are seeking and the course of his or her life is changed for many as they decide to enroll in Northwest College when finished with high school.

Spring Banquet

The 1981 Spring Banquet was a great success as a host of Northwest College students, decked out in formal attire, gathered together for a night of fellowship and celebration.

Highlighting that memorable night was the special ministry in music by popular Christian artist, Scott Wesley Brown. His ministry touched the hearts of many as the entire banquet hall was filled with the sound of praises to our Lord and God.

Other memorable happenings of the night were skits put on by "The Northwesterners" as well as a hilarious skit based on "Fantasy Island" done by Steve Brown and Scott Bohl (Tattoo). And Last (but not least) the exciting and ever-growing 1981 wedding engagement announcement list!

All in all, the 1981 Northwest College Spring Banquet was definitely a night to remember.

Spring Picnic

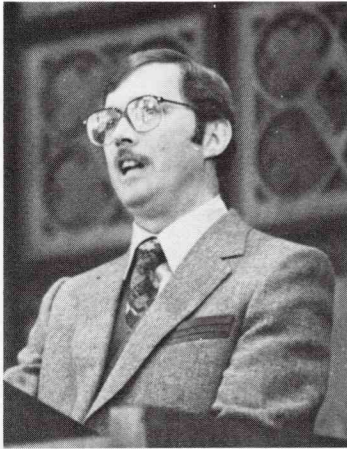

Springtime at Northwest College is an exciting time. The flowers grow; the trees bud; the squirrels awake from their long winter nap. M.R.S. degrees are confirmed, and the weather turns from cold and rainy to warm and rainy.

Springtime also holds some memorable events. One of these is the All School Picnic. This year's picnic was highlighted by the brisk weather and the unforgettable softball tournament. Students agree the softball game is "great fun" even if your team does get "creamed." Other activities included the sailing of Frisbees and the grueling game of football. All in all the All School Picnic was a day of fun, fellowship, and feasting.

Graduation

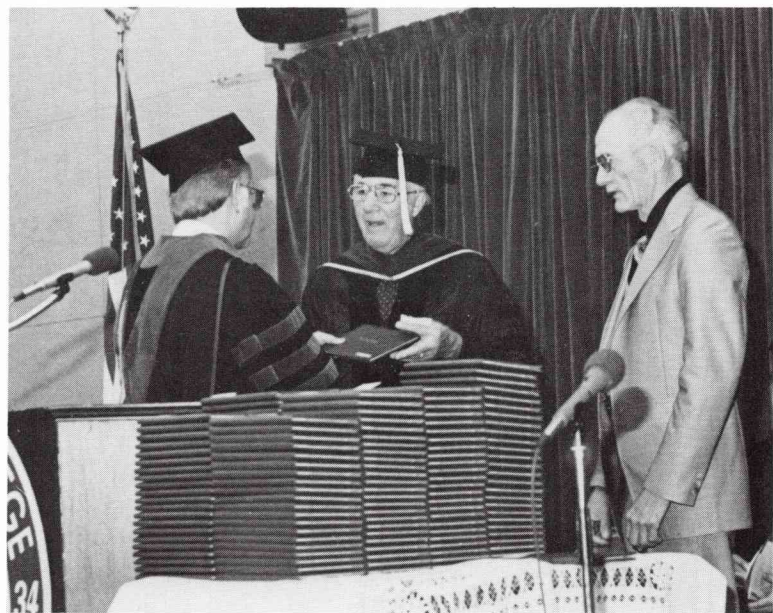

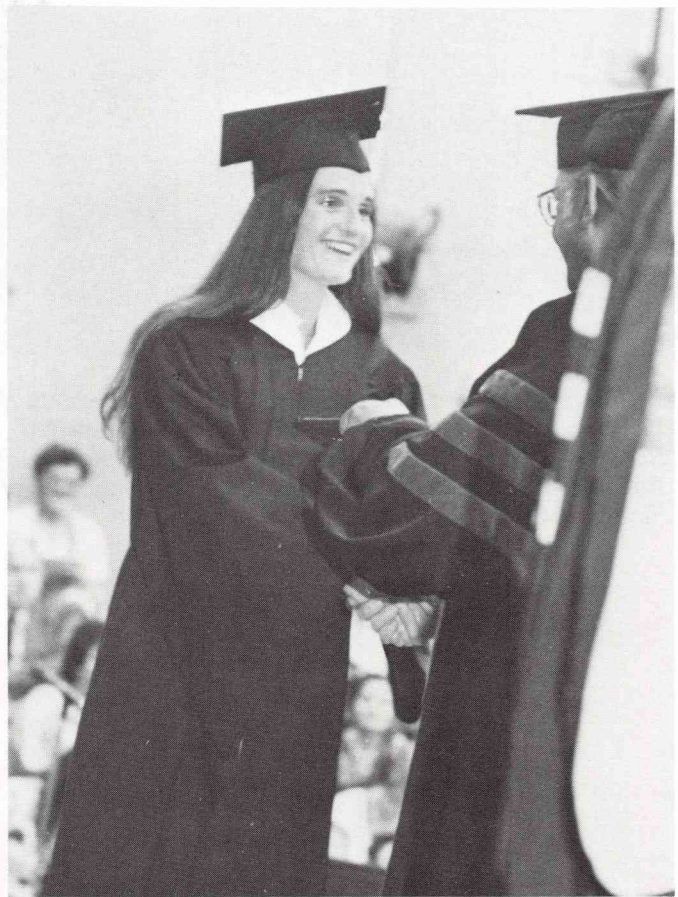

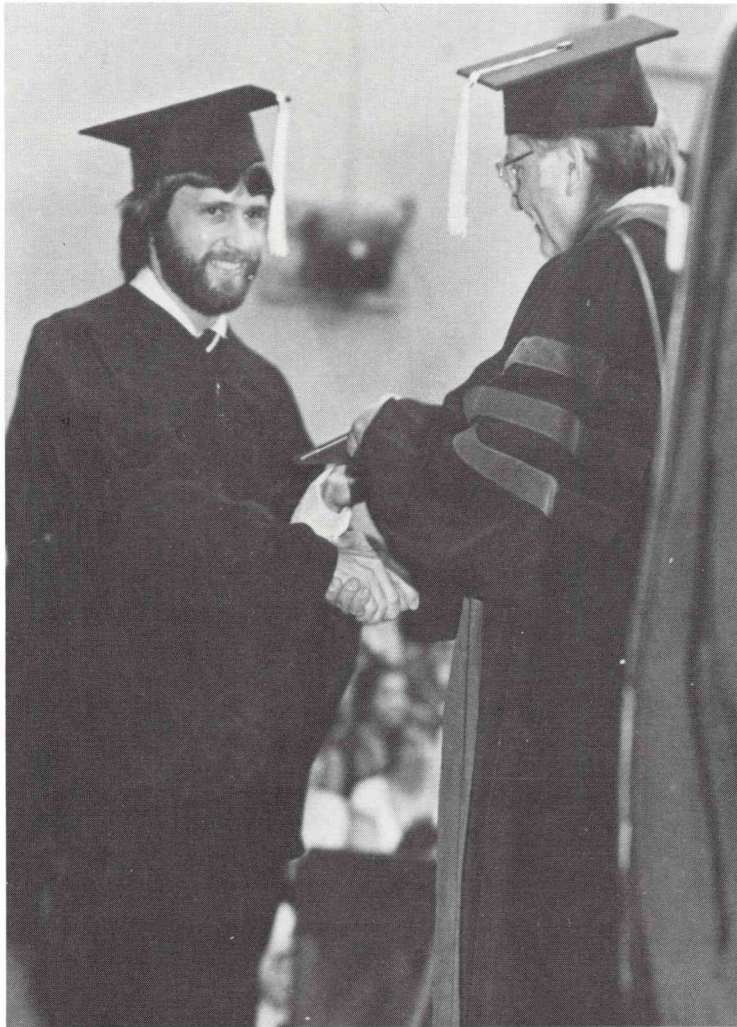

Under nearly perfect weather conditions the cross-country procession led by a color guard of the Christian and National flags, Northwest College's 45th graduating Class of 195 graduates formed a solid human phalanx from Butterfield Chapel "atop the Hill" to the Northwest pavilion. It was the largest graduating Class in the College's 47 year history.

Special guest speaker for the occasion was Far East Field Director for the Foreign Missions Division of the Assemblies of God, the Reverend Wesley R. Hurst. He was awarded an honorary doctorate by his brother, our own College President, Dr. D.V. Hurst.

Among the over 1,000 persons gathered in the Pavilion for the exercises were family members from Sweden, Holland, and Hong Kong.

As the College approaches its 50 year Anniversary its graduation roster now approaches 3,000 graduates.

What makes Winners?

Planning to win . . . discipline . . . practice . . . perseverance . . . tenacity . . . training . . . hope . . . confidence . . . work . . . sweat . . . tears . . . unity . . . breaks . . .
trying again . . . rules . . . keeping faith!

What makes a Christian Winner?

Now that's different! The christian winner first is won by Christ and then wins Him. He then finds he is in Christ.
As the Apostle said, " . . . that I may win Christ, and be found in Him . . . " And again he said, we are, " . . .
accepted in the beloved . . . " What a world that one word "in" creates! In Him! In Him is no defeat. In Him is no condemnation. In Him is no fear. In Him is Victory! Here and now! And eternally!

The Christian Winner then wins through Christ! As the Apostle said, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." It recalls Jesus' line, "I am the Vine . . . Without (cut off from) me ye can do nothing." Again the Apostle said, " . . . I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith of the Son of God . . . " He was saying, "It's not my life; it's His life! It's not my faith; it's His faith. He is in me and living His victorious life through me . . . I am what I am by His Grace!"

Sincerely in Christ

New Student

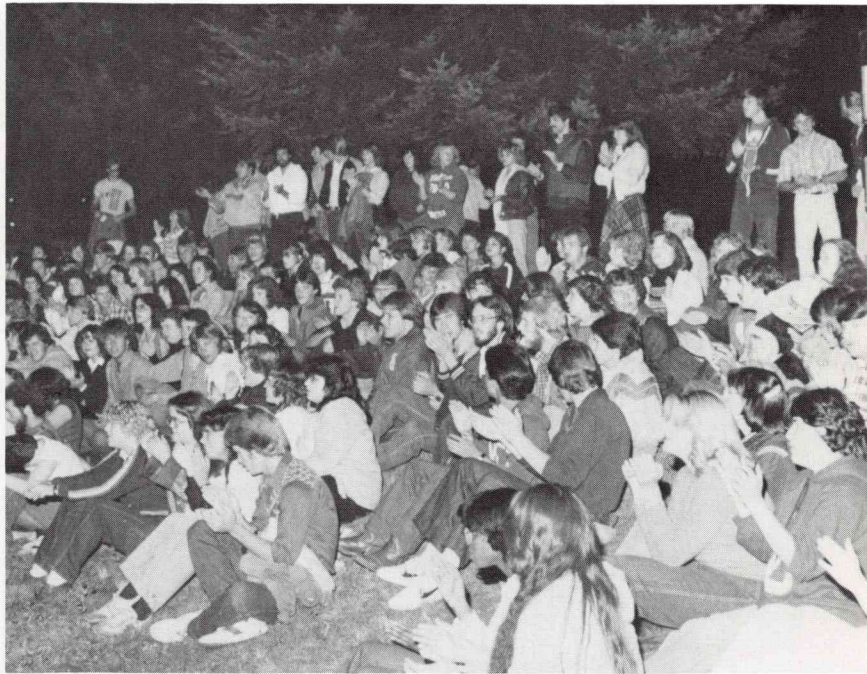

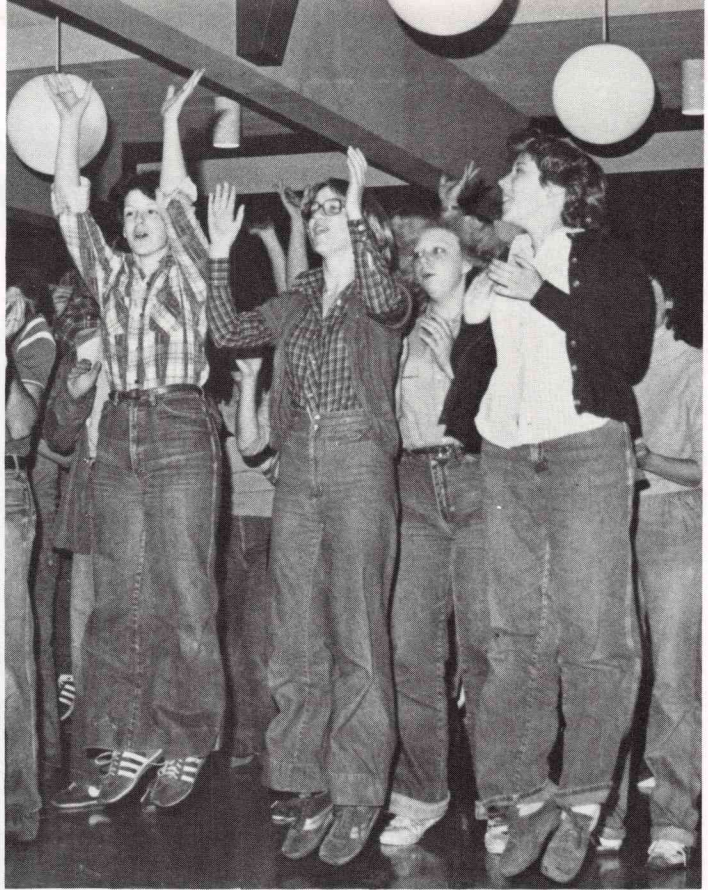

ASB hosted a bonfire at the campus football field to officially welcome the new students. In his speech, ASB President Don Griffin encouraged the upperclassmen to foster unity on the campus as well as build up school spirit. Doughnuts and hot chocolates warmed up fellowship and new friendships between upperclassmen and new students.

As part of the welcome package, the Friday night party at the cafeteria initially introduced the Freshmen to campus life. Mattress toss, animal farm, and name bingo were played as part of the fun-time. A skit presented by the ACTS drama club helped Freshmen to meditate on God's purpose in the lives of NC students.

After the college survival course, the Freshmen were given an afternoon to relax at Marymoore Park. The picnic not only gave the new students a time to ponder why they are at NC, but also a time of togetherness and acquaintance before homesickness sets in.

Welcome

Spiritual

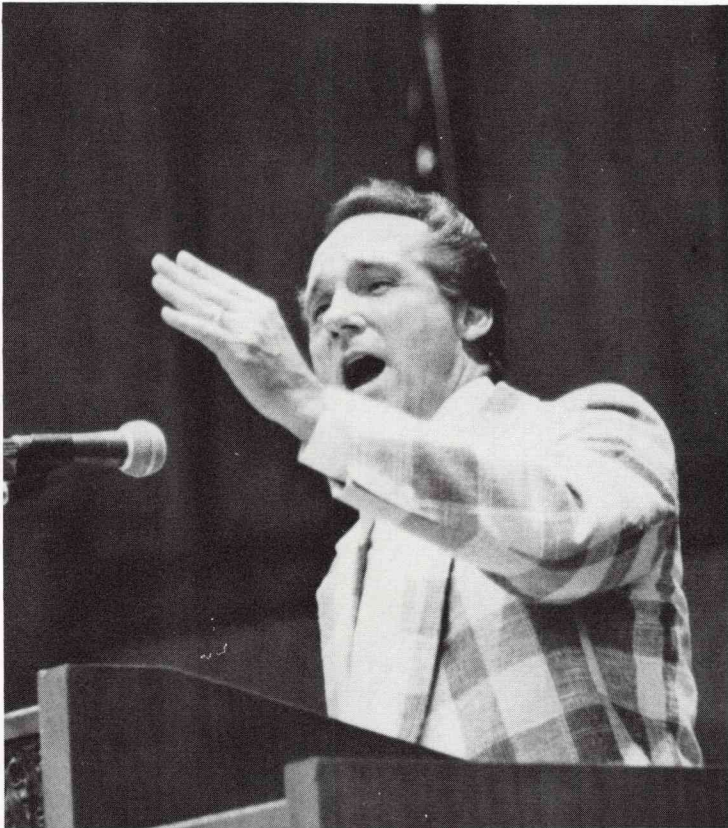

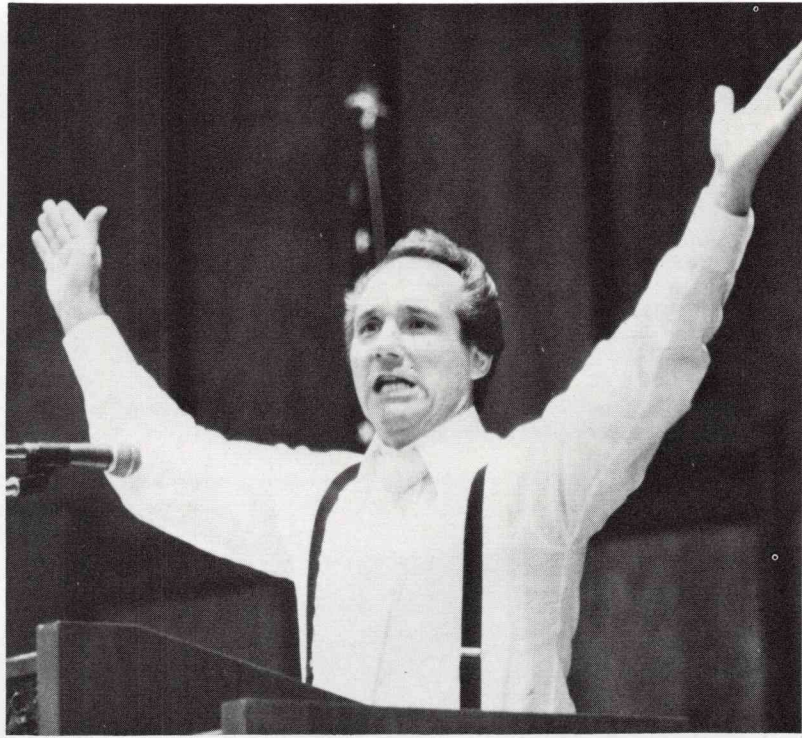

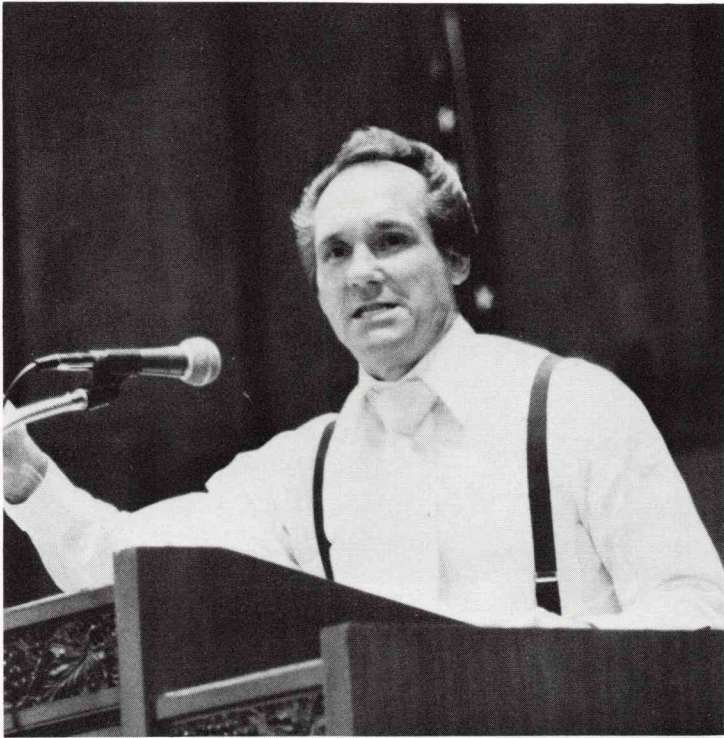

The Fall Spiritual Emphasis week will be looked back on as a time of worship, searching, commitment, and vision. Rev. John McDuff, speaker for the week, was a member of the singing McDuff Brothers. He now pastors a church in Pasadena, Texas.

Brother McDuff shared many things — the necessity of a good prayer life, getting a second touch, revisiting the upper room, and desiring a double portion of the same faith and power our pentecostal pioneers had. We grew to love this man that came and ministered to us. Our lives were changed and we drew closer to our Lord Jesus Christ.

FASHION

October 20th spotlighted the annual AWS Fashion Show with fashions being modeled in ten major categories: tropical, casual, robes, old-fashioned, sportswear, fashion 2000, winter coats, rags to riches, formal, semi-formal, and bridal.

The tropical category produced outfits from Fiji and other foreign countries. Velour, along with Oriental robes, populated the scene in the robe division for both girls and guys.

The old-fashion division brought back memories with a dazzling knicker outfit and the old Northwest College Uniform. School spirit was further highlighted with the modeling of the 1980 cheerling outfit, and the basketball uniform.

Setting the scene with piped-in fog, Fashion 2000 was in a world of its own. Winter wonderland was the scene for the next category. Winter coats ranged from dressy, to casual.

In the rags-to-riches department, students modeled outfits that were either homemade or inexpensively purchased.

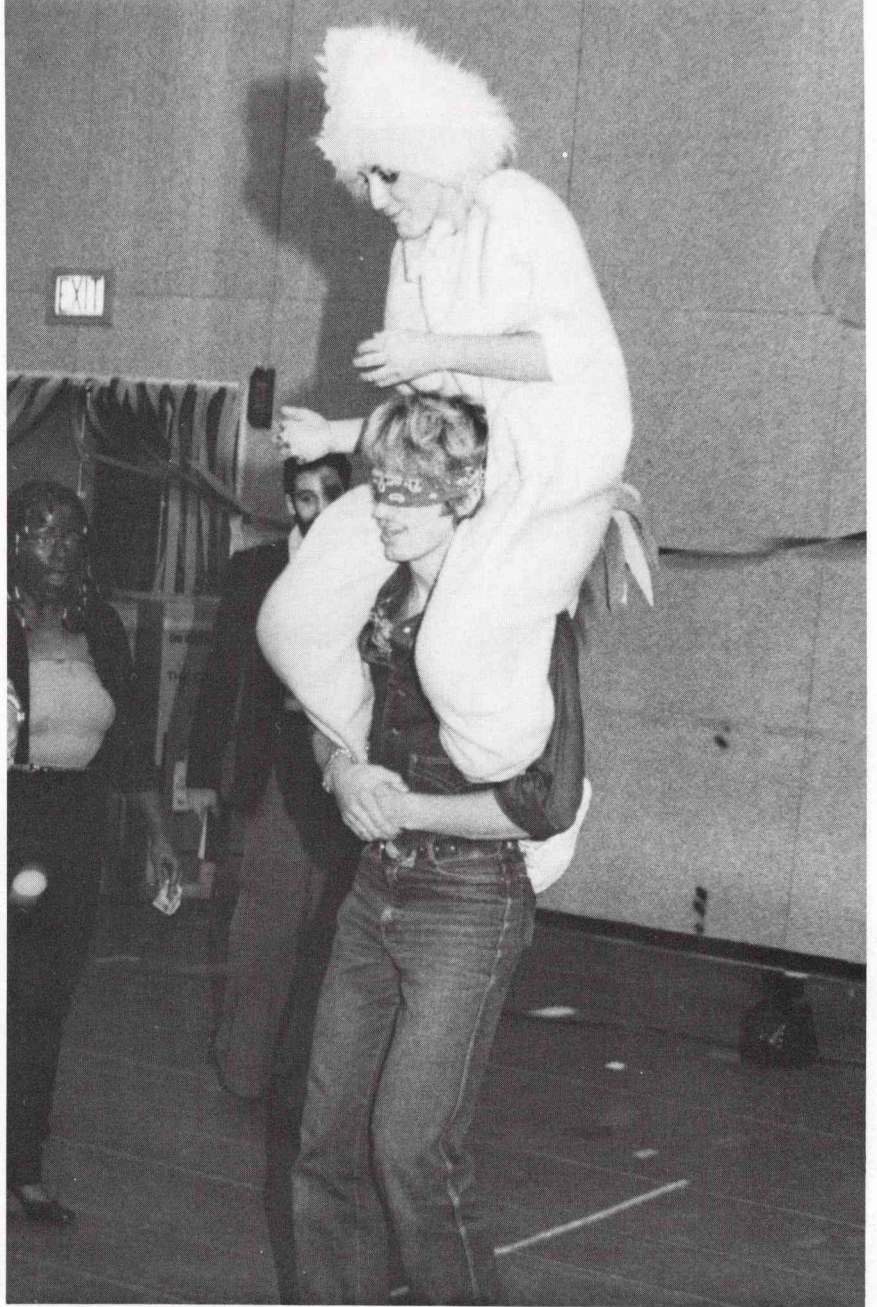

Class officers paired off in the bridal division wearing tuxedos and weddinggowns.

SHOW

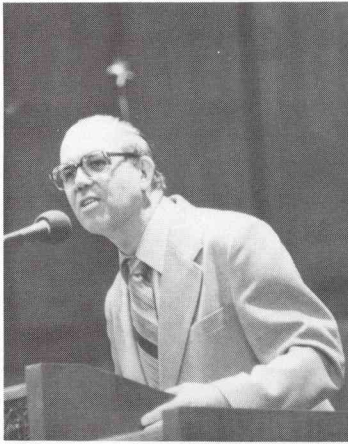

This year's Harvesttime Social, "The Unreal People," opened with a mock wedding of Luke and Laura from the TV soap opera, General Hospital. After a week of midterm exams and a wild stormy weekend without electricity, students dressed up to create a fantasyland in the gym. They portrayed Robin-hood and Marion, a gang of pirates, cowboys, dwarfs, gypsies, the Crest toothpaste gang, Scarlet O'Hara, Batman and Robin, Princess Leah of Star-war and Anthony and Cleopatra. Some wore measks, feathers and furs to look like Mickey Mouse, Bugs Bunny, an easter egg, a sunflower, a birdwoman, and an apeman. The Freshamn, Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes set up concession booths and the crowd was invited to pop balloons, do the cake walk, eat cotton candy and to use a water spray gun to wash off the whipped cream on Doc Swaffield's nose. The Muppets' combo, the ventriloquist talk show of Barbara and David, the musical numbers and the humorous skits all made for a delightful evening.

Spiritual

Emphasis (Winter)

Spiritual Emphasis Week is a new beginning for many — a time of prayerful meditation upon the Lord and realizing our part in the body of Christ. Exposure, through the speaker's perceptions, to the needs of a confused world, plus the anointing of the Holy Spirit gives direction. Minds are made more aware of the cry for help from a lost nation. Hearts are touched with the burdens. Souls are challenged to act. Upon hearing the call, commitments and the dedication to serve result.

Winter Quarter's emphasis is on missions; therefore, we had Rev. Morris Plotts, missionary to Kenya, as our speaker. A dynamic and dedicated individual with a burden for his people of Africa. A man pastoring in Lake Charles, Louisiana, who at the age of 50, was called by God to start a ministry overseas. It was some 26 years ago he left for Africa where he is known today as "Bwana Tembo" or "Lord Elephant."

Rev. Plotts started off his week of ministry with a message concerning the spiritually straying masses while we live among the spiritually overfed. The Jonah and the whale story was brought to us in living color. He questioned, "Have we heard the voice of the Lord speak, yet we hide?" He encouraged us to trust totally in God to supply the strength and the provisions needed for the field we are called to. He revealed so many accounts of how own ordeals, from a mud-sunk car in the wilds of Africa to entering a demon possessed village alone. God worked through it all. He described the joy of reaching cannibals with Jesus. He illustrated the hunger for God as one woman walked 60 miles for "a book from God." Overall, we were given a living picture of true jungle life with its snakes, as well as the beautiful opportunities God has for those adventurous and obedient souls.

Another year has passed by, and hopefully we students have taken the necessary steps toward fulfilling our goals here at Northwest College.

When I started school here, I was undecided concerning what God had in store for my life; but as the months and years passed, doors opened so I could achieve not only personal goals, but more important, the goals the Lord had set for my life.

I would like to set before you a challenge. Whatever you do in life do it to the best of your abilities and never stop reaching for the ultimate goal.

Now you have a key.

As a college graduate you can open a lot of doors that are forever closed to most of your generation: graduate studies, preferred employment opportunities, social and business associations. You even have special avenues of Christian service available. We are proud of you. Go. Use your key well. Our prayers follow you.
