

STUDENT BULLETIN

November 1964

A panel composed of student wives and Mrs. John Lackey on "The Minister's Wife" TONIGHT AT 9:30 p.m. Perks Lounge. All lady students and lady faculty-staff members invited.

* * *

There will be an annual meeting in the A.S.B. office for ALL staff members Tuesday at 7:30. Mr. Palm, yearbook representative, will be there to show us cover designs.

* * *

Information concerning school teaching among the Indians (including Alaska) is available. Will those who desire such information please indicate your interest to Dean Pecota. Copies will be secured for you. You must let him know by a written note no later than Wednesday, November 4.

* * *

On Thursday, November 5, at 9:30 p.m. in F-1 there will be a meeting of all the Gospel teams and those who are interested in this type of Christian service. This is very important. We are setting the meeting late so that all may be able to attend.

* * *

This Friday, November 6, is Alumni Day on the campus. So if you see more people than you usually do with less hair and more girth, you will know who they are. We welcome the Alums to the campus. Let's make them feel at ease and at home. Chapel will be at 11:00 and therefore the classes will be shortened as during Spiritual Emphasis Week. You will be happy to know that Dr. Henry H. Ness, the founder and former president of the College, will be the speaker in chapel.

* * *

Because of the special service on Friday, the Missionary Council will be in charge of the Wednesday chapel hour.

* * *

The Associated Student Body and the Missionary Society will be showing the film, "Shadow of the Boomerang", Friday, November 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel. All are invited to attend.

* * *

Most of you are acquainted with the work of Teen Challenge. Some of you may be interested in this type of summer work. See Brother Pecota for application forms.

STUDENT BULLETIN

The devotional service held every Monday evening in the lounge of Perks Hall will commence at 8:30 p.m. instead of 9:30.
NOTE THIS TIME CHANGE PLEASE.

* * *

Fellows: There will be a dorm meeting this Wednesday at 9:30 p.m. All are expected to attend.

* * *

Roll will be taken in mission bands this Friday. It will be assumed that the band you attend is the band you belong to.

* * *

All notices posted on the college bulletin boards must be cleared through the office of the Dean of Students. Notices not cleared will be removed.

* * *

There are cars coming onto the campus which have not been registered. All cars must register with the office of the Dean of Students. Some tickets were issued last Friday--mostly for no stickers. You'd better get them on, for you don't know where or when DBP will strike again.

* * *

It hardly seems possible, but in five weeks the quarter will be over. This means that you have the next two weeks to talk with Bro. Crowder concerning your finances. Please note that the catalog states, "No final examinations may be taken until a satisfactory arrangement has been made with the business office." Applications for financial aid must be made at least three weeks before the end of the quarter.

Student Bulletin

Students are to meet in their respective mission bands this Friday. Roll will be taken and it will be assumed that the band you attend is the band to which you belong.

* * *

There will be a ladies volleyball tournament this Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the gymnasium. Young ladies from Northwest College will compete with two other local Bible colleges. Everyone--faculty and students--are invited.

* * *

It hardly seems possible, but in five weeks the quarter will be over. This means that you have the next two weeks to talk with Brother Crowder concerning your finances. Please note that the catalog states, "No final examinations may be taken until a satisfactory arrangement has been made with the business office." Applications for financial aid must be made at least three weeks before the end of the quarter.

* * *

YOU may have just the pictures needed to make the "Karisma" a better yearbook. Please help by turning yours in to Linda Williams or Wil Metcalf as soon as possible. Pictures will be returned if identified on the back.

* * *

Said the sign in an optometrist's office window: If you can't see what you want you'd better come in. Dr. Frank C. Lambert of Kirkland offers special consideration to all students and faculty of the College.

* * *

If students have friends or know of young people interested in the type of education offered at Northwest, we would be glad to send them catalogs and other literature. Students might inform their interested friends that they can enter college at the beginning of the winter quarter, which will commence on January 4 for new students. They should, however, submit applications for admission as soon as possible, preparatory to enrollment in January.

* * *

Anita Benskin has misplaced a pair of black framed glasses. The last time she used them was in the Faculty Building. If anyone finds them please contact Anita or Mrs. Davis

STUDENT BULLETIN

Registration packets for winter quarter classes MUST be turned in by this Wednesday, November 25. If they are turned in AFTER that date a $5 late registration fee will be charged. Seeing one's adviser does not constitute registration. The forms must be filled out, signed and turned in, in order to constitute a registration.

Remember that Wednesday, November 25, and Monday, November 30, are double cut days.

* * *

THANKSGIVING DINNER--turkey with all the trimmings--will be served in the cafeteria on Tuesday evening.

* * *

The library will close at 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 25, and will not be open during the Thanksgiving Vacation.

* * *

Wanted: A ride to Twin Falls, Idaho, for Thanksgiving Recess. Contact Helen Phillips or Dean Pecota.

* * *

Please do not move the pianos from one room to another in the Education Building.

* * *

On Wednesday evening, December 2, at 9:00 p.m. there will be a meeting of those who signed up for the visitation program. The place of meeting will be F-1.

* * *

In the bookstore is posted a sign-up sheet for those who might be interested in purchasing a recent book titled Roman Catholicism. It is recommended by Dean Pecota. It is being sold for $3.00, half the list price. There are other books listed there, but they are of primary interest to advanced theological students.

* * *

Students should remember that any financial aid applications must be secured this week. The catalog states, "No final examinations may be taken until a satisfactory arrangement has been made with the business office."
