

CHRISTIAN SERVICE BULLETIN

No. 4 April 30, 1970

The Spring Quarter is progressing at a fast pace. Several pastors have contacted the College concerning enlisting the ministries of our students for summer openings. If you are interested in any of the following openings please contact the Dean of Students Office or sign up with the Receptionist in the Administration Building as indicated.

YOUTH DIRECTOR -- HELP WANTED

Youth Director: Pastor Leo Barrens informs us of an opening at the Lake Stevens Assembly for a single student or married couple who will be returning this fall to work as youth director and in the Sunday School. Some remuneration is available. Pastor Barrens will be on campus May 7, 10:30-1:30 for interviews. If you are interested please make an appointment to see him through the receptionist at the Administration Bldg.

Teens for Christ: A position is available to work as director of the Teens for Christ (a youth program similar to YFC) this summer in Deer Park, Wash. There would be no remuneration but assistance is available for finding work this summer in the area.

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES and POSITIONS FOR GRADUATES

Summer Day Camp Program: The Salvation Army has a position open for Day Camp Director for their summer Day Camp program to meet the needs of middle and low income children in the South Snohomish County. Remuneration is available.

Youth Minister: The Kearns Assembly of God in Kearns, Utah, has an opening for a graduate couple to assist in the youth and music ministry of the church as well as the other evangelism outreaches.

Intern Pastor: Kenneth Lindgren, pastor of the Payette, Idaho A/G is interested in an intern couple for the summer months.

Christian Ed. Workers: Two N.C. students or a married couple are needed at the Faith Temple church in Seattle to assist this summer in the children's church. The pastor there is Rev. Dennis Finch.
