THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Take heart again; put your dismal fears away. One day, who knows? even these hardships will be grand things to look back on.

--Vergil

EARLY EXAMINATIONS:

A number of students have made requests for early exams or changes in their exam schedules in order to persue personal plans during the spring interim. We feel it is important to treat students on an equal basis and we, therefore, urge that such requests not be submitted except in cases of clear emergency or in the case of schedule conflicts or to contingencies which can be recognized as being of professional necessity. Personal convenience or transportation arrangements cannot be considered as valid grounds for requesting a change of schedule.

HOME MISSIONS SPEAKER:

The Rev. Curtis Ringness, Secretary of Home Missions for the Assemblies of God will be on campus today. He will conduct an informal workshop on Home Missions following the chapel service. He will also be available for conferences on a private interview basis in the early afternoon. Any student interested in meeting with him is invited to sign up in the Administration Building. He will have the following schedule:

Speak in Chapel	9:20 a.m.
Workshop following Chapel	10:20 a.m. (3rd period)
*Conferences	1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

*Sign up with Mrs. Baunsgard in the Administration Building.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN'S STUDENTS:

This week's meeting will feature our Dorm Chaplain, Margaret Rueck and our floor chaplains, presenting songs and devotion. You'll not want to miss this time of inspiration! Remember, 9:45 in the lounge.
