

STUDENT BULLETIN

February 21, 1974

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Tact is the art of building a fire under people without making their blood boil.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES:

Three or four people are needed to help in Beginner Children Church at Redmond Assembly. If interested, contact Linda Boyer in P-511.

The Red Cross is looking for students to help them register persons eligible for the supplementary Social Security payments. This could involve use of telephones or cars. For the latter, mileage is paid at ten cents per mile. An orientation meeting will be held March 1. If interested, contact Doug Bridges or Miss Williams.

SERVICEMEN'S MIG:

How does an evening at a coffee house sound to you? Saturday, February 23, the Servicemen's MIG begins its outreach at Fort Lewis. We will be meeting in Perks lounge and plan to leave at 5:00 p.m. and participate in a ministry at a coffee house on the base. We will be returning about 11:30. This is a great opportunity for you to participate. Participation is not limited only to Servicemen MIG members. Help make this new venture a big success.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL: February 15 Schedule, make up Monday, February 25!!!

In games played Tuesday, February 19, the 600 even team beat the 100 odd team by a score of 88 to 55 while the 200 floor was beating the 500 odd team by a score of 59 to 26. In the 8:00 o'clock games, the 600 odd team beat the off campus team by a score of 55 to 47 and the 400 odd won by a forfeit over 100 even.

KING'S GARDEN NEEDS HELP!

If you are available, volunteers are needed on Thursday or Friday, February 28 and March 1 to assist King's Garden in observing their 25th anniversary. Students are needed for ushering, serving and counseling. If you can help, sign the list in the Administration Building. The hours are 3:30 and 5:30, both days.

NLCAA BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT:

The northwest region basketball tournament will be held in Portland on Thursday, February 28 at Concordia Gym and Saturday, March 2 at the Multnomah gym. There will be four teams involved, with Columbia Christian playing Northwest College at 7:00 p.m. Thursday and Multnomah School of the Bible playing Concordia at 9:00. Winners will play winners on Saturday night and losers play losers on Saturday night. Losers at 7:00 and winners at 9:00. The champion will travel the following week to Mt. Vernon, Ohio for the National championship. Tickets for both games may be purchased in the Administration Building. Students sell at $1.50 for both games and Adults $3.50 for both games. Tickets will be sold at the door both nights individually with students paying $1 and adults $2 per night. All proceeds help the winning team go to the Nationals.

KCNC NEWS:

KCNC will be broadcasting the NLCAA regional tournament from Portland next weekend. They will broadcast from Concordia at 7:00 Thursday night and from Multnomah Saturday night. Come to the SUB and listen to the games on KCNC, 660 on your dial or listen in your room.

Also, KCNC has an opening for a person to be in charge of publicity. The responsibilities include changing our bulletin board, making posters, and other publicity related to KCNC activities. We supply all materials. If you are interested, Contact Ted Hochstatter, B-218 or Denise Kiser, P-604.

Listen to KCNC each evening at 9:00 for a message from God as presented by one of your fellow students. This is another ministry service opportunity of KCNC radio, 660 on the A. M. dial.
