HEALTH CENTER NEWS

Blood Drive on Campus April 6, from 10:00 - 4:00 p.m. Blood takes a complicated journey from the donor's arm to its recipients.

1. Oxygen carrying Red Blood Cells may go to an elderly person with a fractured hip;
2. Platelets (cell fragments involved in blood vessel repair) may go to a leukemia patient;
3. Anti-Hemophilia factor may go to one of the more than 250 hemophiliacs in this state;
4. Plasma may go to a burn victim or person with a bleeding disorder.

Human Blood is a commodity in short supply. The Blood Bank does everything it can to get maximum mileage out of every pint donated. Please HELP! Sign the appointment time available at the Receptionist's Desk in the Administration Building.

Hey Seniors! Just a short reminder. Our Senior Trip, a 4 hour cruise around the Puget Sound, is Saturday, April 9th. The cost is $18.00 (spouses are welcome). The deadline for the money to be in is March 4th, but has been extended so hurry and get your money in to the cashier. You don't want to miss this great time of fun, food, and fellowship!!!

ALL SCHOOL PRAYER MEETING: Join with your fellow students every Wednesday morning at 6:30 a.m. in the chapel for a time of ministry and blessing as we gather to worship our Lord and intercede on behalf of others.

Pool your money for a graduation celebration party for eight! A $20.00 contribution to the Scholarship Fund for Need Students will win you a cake and the fixin's. Sign up at the Receptionist's Desk before April 1st.

Hey! You have always wanted to be a DJ! Why not join us at KCNC? We need DJ's. Talk to Greg Taylor or Cory Dalton -- we'll train you. Thanks.

"OUR TOWN" IS COMING!!

The NC Drama Club will present a production of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" on April 14, 15 and 16. "Our Town" tells the story of people who live and die in a small town in New Hampshire in the early 1900's. The Drama Club is inviting students, their parents, the faculty and staff, and people from the community to attend and enjoy this American drama classic. Please encourage the following students as they prepare for the April 9th dress rehearsal: Jerry Earl, Debbie Lamm, Daren Strong, Doug Gentry, Pam Fowler, Elisa True, Dutch Petersen, Tanda Greenwood, Jim Hackney, Michael Hassler, Ralph Kern, Lisa Hathaway, Joe Ferrazzi, Dave Strepka, Sean Carpenter, and others. We need your prayers and support for a successful show.

SILVER PLATTERS FOR N.C.:

Speech Team Wins First Place!

Joshua Banda won first place in Extemporaneous Speaking at the Whitman College Forensics Tournament on March 6 in Walla Walla. Twenty-three colleges and universities competed in the final tournament for the year. Banda, an NC student from Nigeria, was awarded a sixteen inch silver plate for placing first in the finals. His extemp topic dealt with Israel and the Palestinians and he had 30 minutes to prepare his speech. Yohan Fernando also gained recognition for the college by winning a finalist award in impromptu speaking and second place in informative. His second place informative speech was on Sri Lanka. This year Yohan has won a total of eight trophies for the school. Other students who competed at Walla Walla include: Bill Burnett, Geri Butz, Keiko Ikeda, Amy Matsuda, Gina Butz and Kaylyn Moore. Students interested in joining the speech team should contact Professor Gary Gillespie.

KEYS - FOUND - IN THE LIBRARY!!! Please come to the library to claim if you think they might be yours. They were found within the last month.

ATTENTION: Writers and Would-be Writers

Need some extra money? Here's your chance to earn $1000 or more. NCR Corporation is offering prizes ranging from $1000 to $50,000 in its 1988 Stakeholder Essay Competition. Any college student is eligible to enter. If you are interested and would be willing to write an essay on creating values for both profit-earning and non-profit organizations, please see Mrs. Margorie Stewart this week for details. The contest ends March 31, 1988.

Students who plan to return to NC next fall are requested to come into the Registrar's Office April 5th through April 8th to sign up for a registration number for fall registration. Tuesday, April 5th, will be reserved for those planning to graduate next year, all others are requested to sign up Wednesday through Friday. If you don't plan to attend NC next fall, for whatever reason - graduation, etc., please come into the Registrar's Office to fill out a termination notice and to give us your summer address. Thanks!
