Roger H. Butz, M.D.

Graduated from Northwestern University Medical School in 1962. Five years of postgraduate Medical education included training in internal medicine and gastroenterology. Prior to coming to the Seattle area in 1972, he served as Chief of Medical Service at a Veterans Administration Hospital.

During the past three years, Dr. Butz has worked primarily as medical director for a large corporation. He has also been medical director of an alcoholism treatment center in a local hospital, providing consultation, patient care and teaching. This follows the considerable exposure to alcoholism which was integral to his particular sub-specialty and his experience in a public hospital. He is a visiting lecturer in the Alcoholism Nursing Program at the University of Washington.

Dr. Butz has also studied at the Moody Bible Institute and the Multnomah School of the Bible. He is committed to the infallibility of God's Word and its efficacy in speaking to social, moral, ethical and spiritual problems. He is serving on the Board of the Snohomish Assembly of God Church. Church.
