

Alumni Anniversary
Scholarship Celebration

 NORTHWEST COLLEGE

Since my youth, O God,
You have taught me, and to this day
I declare Your marvelous deeds.

PSALM 71:17

"Both Inga and I value our Northwest College education, which served me well as a member of the I.B.M. Management Team, San Jose, CA, and Inga as Administrative Assistant to an I.B.M Director."

Jerry and Inga Grothaus ('56)
I.B.M. Corporation Retirees

"Northwest College offered me an opportunity to learn more about myself as a learner, instilled in me a desire to seek God from every aspect of life, inspired me to share God's Word, and prepared me for a career as a professional educator."

Mary Jo Keller ('94)
4th/5th Multi-age Science/Technology Teacher
Issaquah School District

"We have our own musical production ministry called 'Lights UP Ministries'. We currently tour the U.S. with Brent's Broadway-style musical, From My Rags to His Riches. The professors at Northwest are as good as it gets: relevant, personable, anointed and truly experts in their subjects."

Brent ('92) and Tami ('91) Grosvenor
Lights UP Ministries

"Foundations are essential for success in life and ministry. I will always be grateful for the basic foundational components that God planted in my life as a student at Northwest College."

Duane Dorsing ('63)

Assemblies of God Foreign Missionary to Korea

"I often reflect upon my years at NC, and am grateful to the Lord for the experience. It built disciplines, developed life-long relationships, and offered positive role models (specifically Dr. Dan and Coach Kinney). NC was a positive experience and I consider it an important step in not only my life but the life of any young man or woman."

Bill G. Bates ('75)

Pastor, Centralia First Assembly of God

"As the years roll by in ministry, Joann and I have learned to appreciate our years at Northwest College more and more. Whatever successes we have enjoyed in ministry can be attributed in part to the fine education we received at Northwest. Northwest College deserves our ongoing support as do its students."

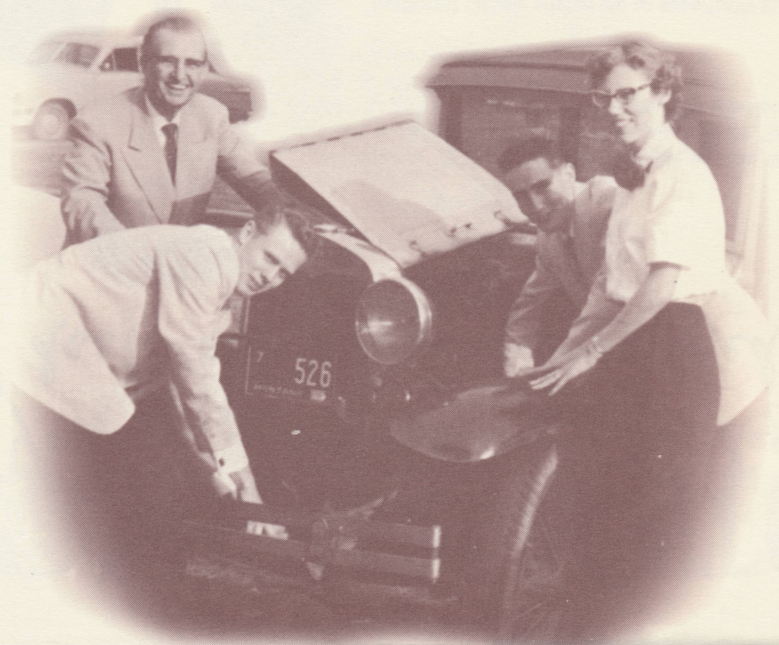

Al and Joann Baunsgard ('58)

Pastors of Hillcrest Assembly of God, Bremerton, WA

"NC cultivated my desire to be used by God in whatever arena He would open up; and to believe the Word, preach the Word, and live the Word in power and love."

Robert Angerman ('81)

Senior Pastor at Plainview Methodist Church

This Year Honor Your College Graduation

Here's how you can celebrate your college years:

Count the number of years since your class graduated and send a dollar for each year to celebrate your anniversary.

If you didn't graduate, you can still celebrate with your friends. Simply consider the year you would have graduated as your anniversary year.

Below is a simple mathematical formula to help you calculate your giving amount:

$$X_{(\text{CURRENT YEAR})} - Y_{(\text{GRADUATION YEAR})} = $Z_{(\text{GIFT AMOUNT})}$$

Example: If 1998 is the current year, subtract your graduation year (e.g.: 1956) and celebrate your college graduation by investing in the lives of current NC students with a gift of $42.00.
