ORGAN DRIVE

It's easy to pay for something you have bought if you are really enjoying the use of it. Students at N.B.C. are giving freely and willingly to the organ drive for most certainly they are enjoying the music of the new Wurllitzer.

When asked what he thought about the new organ, Jerry Grothaus, Student Body Vice President, said, "I appreciate the worshipful spirit that the new organ brings to our Chapel services." All the students agree with you, Jerry!

Al Jacobs, speaking for the freshman class states, "The organ stirs and elevates the soul of man when used for the glory of God.

He who is the Bread of Life began His ministry hungoring.

He who is the Water of Life ended His ministry thirsting.

He was weary, and yet He is our rest.

He paid tribute, and yet He is the King.

He was called a devil, yet cast out devils.

He prayed, yet He hears our prayers.

He wept, but He dries our tears.

He was sold for thirty pieces of silver, yet redeemed the world.

He was led as a lamb to the slaughter, but is the good shepherd.

He died and gave His life, and by dying destroyed death.

The Assemblies of God now has 7,320 affiliated and cooperative churches in the U. S.

Membership of the Assemblies of God has risen to 400,047 an increase of 65 per cent in the past ten years.

CHURCHES TODAY

LeRoy Ebanks, a student from Kingston, Jamaica, is among those enjoying the new Wurlitzer organ.

He started playing the piano at the age of eleven and began organ studies when he was fifteen.

On one occasion, LeRoy stopped in at the Kingston College. While looking at the organ, a priest came by and asked if he liked to play it. After an audition, LeRoy was signed to play for chapel services. He played for the college for five years. This assignment included the playing of both hymns and Psalms. He says, "It is hard to play Psalms."

Mr. Ebanks also conducted three radio programs, using a piano purchased by the Youth For Christ organization.

He has proved God to be faithful in providing for him to come to N.B. ? Everything seemed to be going just right until the immigration authorities told him he would have to raise a $500 bond as proof that he intended to attend NBC. But, through prayer, & that
