Redefining "leadership," the 2004-2005 ASB worked hard to ensure NU student voices were heard. Through the establishment of small groups and student forums, a new level of connection with students and faculty on campus was made.

all things New. Northwest University

Following the Northwest College Board of Directors decision to change the name of the institution to Northwest University, administration and staff have been working diligently to complete the transition. The new name will be fully implemented on January 1, 2005.

Northwest collected input from the public in the process. A task force led interaction with all constituencies including faculty, staff, students, alumni, and donors. A broad-reaching survey presented several potential names to the public; the name Northwest University was the leading choice of all categories.

A transition to Northwest University follows along the line of the institution's maturation over the years from Northwest Bible Institute, to Northwest Bible College, to Northwest College, and now to Northwest University.

Northwest has experienced significant enrollment growth over the past five years. Total enrollment has increased by over 35% to over 1,200 students.

The Academic Program has grown with significant additions including Psychology, Communication, English, Environmental Science, History, and Nursing; last fall the University launched Children's Ministry and Intercultural Studies majors.

“THEREFORE, IF ANYONE IS IN CHRIST, HE IS A NEW CREATION; THE OLD HAS GONE, THE NEW HAS COME!” 2 COR. 5:17

In May, 2003, Northwest conferred degrees on the first graduates to receive the Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology. The first Master of Business Administration graduates will receive their degrees in May, 2005.

Since 1934, Northwest College has successfully prepared students for service and leadership. Over 1,200 students study in over 50 academic programs including nursing, teacher education, business, psychology, biblical literature, and church ministries. Students are challenged, and then equipped, to “Carry the Call.” With their hearts... to develop compassion and character. With their heads... to discover the joy of rigorous study and mental discipline. And with their hands... to actively engage the world around them.

all SCHOOL treasure Hunt

Vancouver B.C. to Vancouver, Wa

"The treasure hunt was all about trying something totally different that hasn't been done before. It was all about getting people together. At every stop you had to switch cars. It was a little bit thinking outside of the box, so it's not the same old thing. It was a way to get to know people."

"The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; because there is not effort without error and shortcomings...who at the worst, if he fails, at least he fails while daring greatly. So that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.

PURSUIT

"BEING MUSICALLY EXCELLENT AND TO, IN A WAY THAT ISN'T DISTRACTING, BRING PEOPLE TO THE CROSS, IS THE BIGGEST THING FOR ME. PSALM 33:3 SAYS, 'PLAY SKILLFULLY AND SING A NEW SONG UNTO THE LORD.' THAT'S MY DRIVE FOR WORSHIP. SO WHEN I'M LEADING, WRITING AND WHATEVER, THERE IS A LEVEL OF EXCELLENCE THAT GOD WANTS, NOT TO IMPRESS FRIENDS, BUT FOR THE SAKE OF GIVING GOD YOUR ALL."

-KYLE FRANK, ON LEADING WORSHIP DURING PURSUIT

"Real people, seeking a real God"

"I can go to Pursuit and I always know God's going to be there. I don't have to worry about being on the same level as everyone else because people are just real. I don't have to worry about people thinking I'm a Christian cliché. I can be myself."
 Matt White

"When I first came to Northwest, Pursuit really said a lot of the spiritual atmosphere of the school - just seeing how many people were there. Just seeing college kids that were hungry for God."
 Sarah Emerson

"Honestly, leading worship at Pursuit is the easiest place to lead worship. NC students love Jesus, know how to express themselves to the Lord, and spur on others by true worship. Praising Him is my favorite thing ever, getting to lead is a privilege."
 Jonette Hagebusch

“BEING A PART OF ANGEL TREE WAS AN EXPERIENCE TO REMEMBER SIMPLY BECAUSE PEOPLE WERE WORKING TOGETHER TO SELFLESSLY HELP FAMILIES IN NEED. IT WAS INCREDIBLE TO WATCH EVERYTHING FALL INTO PLACE AS MANY JOINED TO SERVE FOR CHRIST.”

“DURING THE CHRISTMAS SEASON, PSI CHI MEMBERS PLANNED PROJECT ANGEL TREE, A MINISTRY OF PRISON FELLOWSHIP. THE MEMBERS RECRUITED OTHER STUDENTS TO PURCHASE GIFTS FOR CHILDREN OF PRISON INMATES. THROUGH A SCHOOL-WIDE OUTREACH, NORTHWEST UNIVERSITY GAVE OVER 55 GIFTS TO MORE THAN 15 CHILDREN IN THE GREATER SEATTLE AREA WHO WOULD NOT HAVE OTHERWISE RECEIVED THE LOVE OF JESUS DURING THE HOLIDAY SEASON.

“ALONG WITH HUNDREDS OF OTHERS IN THE COMMUNITY, PSI CHI MEMBERS PERSONALLY WRAPPED AND DELIVERED THE GIFTS TO THE VARIOUS FAMILIES OF PRISONERS. PSI CHI ALSO COLLECTED $250 TO DONATE TO THE ANGEL TREE ORGANIZATION FOR BIBLES, COLORING BOOKS, AND OTHER OUTREACH MATERIALS. PROJECT ANGEL TREE WAS A TREMENDOUS SUCCESS, DEMONSTRATING THE COMMUNITY WIDE IMPACT OF ACTIVE PSI CHI MEMBERS.”

.GOOD NEIGHBOR DAY.

Northwest University students, led by fellow student Peter Christensen, have stepped up to the challenge of reaching out to the elderly in our area. On different Good Neighbor Day events, volunteers spend their Saturday mornings and afternoons helping around the house and yard for different aged citizens. Often those receiving help have blessed students with lunch or homemade goodies like cookies.

“We simply minister to senior citizens by doing yard work and house cleaning.” Peter Christensen

.LIGHTHOUSE.

Neil Allender and about five other students make up Northwest's Lighthouse Ministry. They spend a lot of time each year bonding with Seattle's homeless residents and providing much needed friendships. Allender says that their main goal is to form consistent friendships with a handful of people downtown and to continually be there throughout the year. “There is a social need and they have no faithful friends.” (Courtesy of Reporter Heather Danielson: The Talon)

THINGS ARE CHANGING IN

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

FAREWELL TO CHRISTIAN

CHRISTIAN LINDBECK

The position became open when Christian Lindbeck, a Northwest University alum who had filled this position for two years, felt that the Lord was opening doors for him to return to graduate school and pursue his Th.D. Christian, his wife Jen, and their two boys, Josiah and Samuel, moved to New England at the end of December. He returned to Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in January to earn his Master of Divinity Degree. He will then be prepared to enter the Th.D. program at Boston University.

"Although I was certainly sad when Christian alerted me of his intentions several weeks ago, this came as no surprise," stated Dr. Argue. "I have observed, and benefited from, his gifts of teaching and preaching. I have no doubt that this next step of preparation will launch an even more significant teaching and preaching ministry. Christian has served Northwest well as our chief student development officer, and for this we are grateful."

The process of filling the vacancy created by Christian's announcement involved extensive prayers and interviews, with members of the Board, Faculty, and Administration serving as advisors.

"As the process unfolded, it became more and more apparent to me that the best solution for all concerned might be an interim solution," noted Dr. Argue. "In the light of a mid-year transition, as well as the work that we are doing in shared governance and reshaping of the University's leadership structures, I began to believe a two-step process might best suit our circumstances."

In conversations with Kari Brodin, the President discovered what he termed "a perfect fit" for these circumstances.

In additional comments, the President stated, "I believe Kari's gifts, preparation and calling are well suited for this opportunity. Her experience in Student Development, success in the classroom, leadership of the recent Self Study, academic preparation, and demonstrated love of our students all indicate that she will serve Northwest well in this new responsibility."

WELCOME TO

KARI BRODIN

On November 16th, 2004, Dr. Argue announced Dr. Kari Brodin as the next Student Development Vice President, replacing Christian Lindbeck.

"I am energized by the opportunity to serve the students of Northwest University in this capacity. Christian and his predecessors have served with great distinction, and he leaves a wonderful legacy and trajectory for continued advances in all areas associated with student development. The professional personnel providing leadership in student life are gifted, capable people and I know that I am blessed to join a first-class team. I hope with God's help to further the vision we all share for the Northwest community to be continually giving fresh, timely, and wholistic expression to the Christian (not Lindbeck in this context) worldview in all its dimensions"

NU Remembers

Esther Pecota, a vital member of the Northwest College family for many years, passed away around 11:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 18.

Her husband, Dan, who taught at Northwest for 37 years, died in 1997.

Esther ran the college bookstore for 25 years, but filled an even larger role on campus. According to a dedication in the 1995 yearbook, "she also served as an unofficial counselor, Mom-away-from-home, supporter, encourager, and sounding board for hundreds of students."

Esther and Dan had a profound impact on the lives of both students and colleagues at Northwest College.

They are survived by two sons, Steve and James. Steve is married to Karen, and they have two children, Kathryn and Kevin. Steve and Karen are long-time missionaries to Germany. Last year Steve served Northwest as Missionary in Residence. James is married to Renee, and they have one son, Nathaniel. James is on staff at Brooklake Community Church in Federal Way, Wash.

Both of Esther and Dan's sons attended Northwest, as did all of their grandchildren. Nathaniel and Kathryn are current students.

In recent years, Esther was an encouraging presence on campus and often attended chapel. She also attended faculty prayer meetings on Tuesday mornings.

"Esther was a great lady who prayed for all of us on a regular basis," said Dr. LeRoy Johnson, Northwest College professor and longtime colleague. "She will be remembered fondly by many."
