Editorial

This magazine comes to you in a new dress. Up to this time the mechanical part of the publication has been the product of the office force—sort of a “home-spun” affair. But because of the rapid growth of our Institute and the natural increase in news items, it has become necessary to “lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes.” This can best be done by resorting to the printing press.

As the editorial staff of this issue, the first number of Volume II, we come to you with hearts full of gratitude to God for the blessings of the past and the promises of the future.

The purpose of this periodical is to discriminate Institute news and to bring to our readers helpful messages from the Word of God. We hope also, from time to time, to publish reports from the field. The District and the Institute are each a part of the other and their interests are mutual.

We covet the prayers of God's people everywhere that the magazine may fill its place and prove a blessing to all into whose hands it may fall.

—J. H.

Greetings

C. C. BEATTY, Dean

Representing the faculty, it has become my happy privilege to extend greetings to the friends throughout the District, who have so faithfully supported N. B. I. with their prayers and gifts.

C. C. BEATTY, Dean

The marvelous progress we have made here is largely due to the splendid cooperation of our many friends, and our hearts are full of gratitude to them.

I have had some part in the early life of other Bible schools, but never have I seen anything to equal the rapid and healthy development being made by this school. Surely the Lord has put His seal upon this enterprise and I predict for it a great future.

We have some of the finest young men and young women in the country enrolled with us, and I am sure the cause of Christ is going to be enriched by their ministry.

DELAYED REGISTRATIONS

Provision has been made to take care of students who come late.

A number of prospective students have been hindered from getting here on time, and this arrangement has been made to provide for them, as well as others who may wish to avail themselves of the opportunity.

N. B. I. Progress

HENRY H. NESS, Principal

It is with hearts filled with praise and thanksgiving to our God that we watch the marvelous progress and growth of the Northwest Bible Institute.

HENRY H. NESS, Principal

We are thoroughly convinced that this is God's will and God's program for this District. The school opened again this year with an outpouring of the Spirit upon us the very first day, and thus far we have experienced from time to time, glorious seasons of refreshing from God. Already there have been many times we have not been able to conduct classes because of His marvelous presence. Students coming from far and near have been filled and refilled with the Holy Ghost right in the classroom. We do thank God for the spiritual progress in the school, as well as the material. We now have an enrollment of 128 students, which is a splendid increase over last year's attendance. All of our last year's students are back except a few, who because of circumstances beyond their control, find it impossible to attend this year.

We are coveting the prayers of the saints everywhere in behalf of N. B. I., that by the help of God, we shall make this the kind of a Bible Institute that will be a credit to the Kingdom of God.

New Faculty Member

We are happy to welcome Rev. P. S. Jones, pastor of the Fremont Pentecostal Tabernacle in Seattle, into our happy N. B. I. family. He is occupying the place on the faculty left vacant by Rev. T. A. Sandall, who is now serving in the office of District Superintendent for the Northwest District Council.

We very much regret Brother Sandall's leaving us — we shall never forget the times of blessing which we experienced during our Personal Evangelism class last year as he ministered to us. However, Brother Jones is proving himself to be a most competent successor, and we are thanking God for sending him to N. B. I. The second year class is privileged to study Typology under Brother Jones — while the first year students receive their Personal Evangelism instruction from him.

May God continue to make Brother Jones' affiliations with the school of mutual blessing and benefit.

WITH OUR DISTRICT SUPT. ON THE FIELD

REV. T. A. SANDALL, Dist. Supt.

Ting-a-ling, ting-a-ling, the phone rang, and an energetic student of the Northwest Bible Institute asked, "Brother Sandall, will you write for our magazine a report of your Bible Conferences in Oregon?" So we will endeavor to tell a few of the most salient points of the trip, and the meetings.

T. A. SANDALL

Monday, October eighth, Mrs. Sandall, my daughter, Nora, and I drove from Seattle to Tillamook, Oregon, where the first three-day meeting was scheduled to be held. The beautiful fall weather which we enjoyed for the whole month was in evidence from the start, and we could not help but praise the Lord for His goodness unto the children of men.

The pastors, workers, and saints of the Tillamook Section, cooperating with the local pastor, Brother A. J. Herren, had made preparations both spiritually and materially, for the meeting before we arrived. From the opening service to the close of the meeting, the presence of the Lord was manifested in a very precious way, and a real interest was evidenced in the Bible studies and deeper teachings of the Word.

From Tillamook we journeyed via winding, but beautiful roads to Salem, arriving in time to go to Turner to minister on Saturday night. We were with Pastor Charles G. Westin on Sunday morning in his assembly, and Pastor A. R. Dollarhide in Corvallis in the evening, enjoying the privilege of ministering in these live-fire assemblies.

On Monday we were away again for the coast of Southern Oregon, bound for Myrtle Point, in the Coos Bay Section. Pastor and Mrs. James L. Gibson were looking for us, and other ministers were arriving, and an air of anticipation was in evidence. A goodly number of ministers and saints were present at the opening service. The presence of the Lord was much marked, and we found ourselves in one of those impromptu healing services, into which the Spirit of the Lord leads us at times. Several received a definite touch in their bodies, and the glory was so sensed and felt that lunch time arrived and passed without being noticed. Surely these are days of heaven on earth!

Ashland, nestled in the foothills of the Siskiyou Mountains, was where we spent Sunday, with our old friend, Pastor Donald Fee. We had two good services, the morning service being marked with a rather remarkable altar service, the first call being to grandmothers. It did our hearts good to see the long row of kneeling "Mothers in Israel" dedicating their lives anew for service for the Master, in the effort to reach souls before it is too late.

Closing in Medford Thursday night, we drove to Cottage Grove for Friday night to minister in the assembly where Brother and Sister Alwood Foster have done such a good work, and we did enjoy ministering to a full church of seemingly hungry folk. On our way there we stopped for dinner at Canyonville, to visit a while with Brother and Sister Shaffer, and to see the home of their Christian High School. A really noble effort has been put forth by this consecrated couple to help in the high school education of some of our Pentecostal boys and girls.

Saturday found us in Lebanon to spend three days with Pastor Ferris A. Dodd in a joint Bible Conference and dedication of his new church, which is a testimony to real labor and sacrifice, being built as the Lord supplied the means. When it was dedicated on the Monday night, it was free from debt, except for a few dollars. This is surely commendable for the Pastor and his faithful people.

Our schedule was very crowded here, for we closed in Lebanon on Tuesday night, and the Portland Bible Conference opened on Wednesday morning, but we couldn't get there until noon. In the afternoon we found a goodly number of ministers gathered in from the surrounding assemblies, and the same sweet, melting spirit was manifested that had been so noticeable during all the meetings.

We have taken quite a little space already, and it would be impossible to tell all of the good things that took place, but we feel we must mention the hunger for the Word and plan of God, which was so noticeable among both the ministers and saints, and also the ready response to the altar calls for a deeper consecration and closer walk with the Lord, and we feel sure that the whole work of the Lord in this section of the District will be strengthened by these meetings.

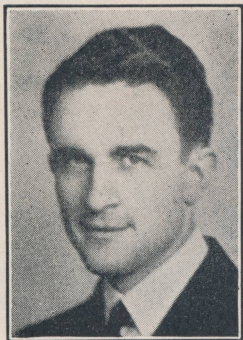

While these meetings were primarily of the teaching order, yet quite a number of people claimed salvation, and not a few backsliders made a new start for God, the remarkable thing being the way in which they stepped out for God without ever being spoken to, except by the Spirit. We also evidenced a ready response from many young people, who lined the altars at different times and seemed to be really desirous of a closer walk with the Lord, and we have a feeling that if the Lord tarries, many of them will find their way to N. B. I.

We feel that meetings of this nature are profitable in many ways, and we were more than happy to meet with sixty of our Northwest District ministers during these days, as well as representatives of over forty assemblies in this section of the District. We might mention that we will, D. V., be in Spokane, November 5-7; Walla Walla, November 12-14; Yakima, November 19-21; Firth, Idaho, November 27-29; and Payette, Idaho, December 3-5, having three-day Bible Conferences in each place, and if the reader of this magazine of N. B. I. should be near to any of these places, we would be more than delighted to have you attend.

Our Purpose

CHARLES E. BUTTERFIELD

There are two definite aims and purposes in the policy of N. B. I., namely, to develop spirituality and practicability in the individual lives of the students.

CHAS. E. BUTTERFIELD

Perhaps the most important is the spiritual development and relationship to God. But not to be overlooked, and that which we esteem to be very important, is development of the students in his practical relationship to man. We have accepted these precious young people from the far-flung corners of the District into the school, that we might train them how to reach men for God. Knowing that we are living in a world of solemn realities where men are baffled by sin, sickness and trouble, and desperately in need of help—knowing also that “What the world needs is Jesus,” and that the preaching of His Gospel will bring infinite blessing to those who will believe—it is our desire and purpose to send these students into the field with a burden for lost souls and well equipped to present Christ to all men.

It is altogether too easy to become idealistic, to sit dreamily upon the tombstones of dead theory, or to pore fancifully about in the realms of speculation. We are fortifying ourselves against these dangers by ever keeping before the students the practical side of the Gospel. Not only in the classroom where they are instructed by teachers of practical experience, but outside the classroom where they meet the various conditions and experiences of life, are they taught to be practical.

Knowing God and knowing men—a practical Gospel for a practical world—this, our object which we seek to inculcate into the hearts of the students at N. B. I., is an object of no mere human philanthropy, but one which is divine and will result in sending forth faithful representatives of Him who “went about doing good.” We therefore, consecrate our lives to promote to the utmost the good which He lived and died to do—“To seek and to save that which is lost.”

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

I am happy to be a member of the Northwest Bible Institute faculty and to be associated with this fine group of young people whose sincere desire is to perfect themselves in active, Christian work.

I feel that NOW is the accepted time to put all on the altar and say, “Lord, though opportunities in worldly ambitions come from every hand, I am Thine to be used and spent in Thy service.”

It is, indeed, a joy to work with a student body that is building for the greatest cause in this life or in the life to come.

Studying In The Spirit

P. S. JONES

It is blessed to know that in the midst of student activities it is possible for the Holy Ghost still to have His way in the demonstration of His glory and power. It is very easy to drop down from the highest planes of God's intentions and dwell in the lowlands of human experience. It is a beautiful thing to be in a school for Bible study where first things are first, and everything else is related to the preeminence of first things in order of sequence. How much we speak of the need for spiritual understanding, but how seldom we pursue the royal way to knowledge. We know, for we are told in the Bible, that the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life, and behold the battle fields of the ages, with the slain thereon, killed by the letter of the Word. One sees at once the great need for constant attention to the call of life, and the need of the Holy Ghost, else the clamorings of the flesh and the carnal mind will drown out the sweet call of the Spirit and the melody of Heaven. God wants to quicken the Word, and make it a Living Oracle, and, hallelujah, it is glorious when the Spirit and the Word are mingled together in one grand harmony. Our souls then rejoice in the power of a Truth that grips the heart and gives life to the triune nature of man.

It is a matter for rejoicing that the N. B. I. student body is led into the pathways of spiritual interpretation, and are instructed to be ready for God's outpouring at any time. When the limitations of natural discernment cease, then the Truth is made real in a powerful demonstration to the soul. How dry is the study when the life quickening ceases, but how wonderful when the written Word grips the soul, and the whole body tingles with the manifestation of the power thereof. Thank God for the intended perfect agreement between the Spirit and the Word. Therein lies the safety path for all those who want to walk the fields of the righteous, and dwell beside the still waters. The Word without the Spirit is a will-o'-the-wisp, elusive, mysterious, that leads men and women into forbidden pathways because of their own ignorance; but the Spirit and the Word move together in marvelous order, and the soul that follows on, dwells in heavenly places, to feast upon the Eternal Truth of the living God.

“Eternal Light, Eternal Light,
How pure the soul must be;
When placed within its searching sight,
It shrinks not, but with calm delight,
Can live, and look on Thee.
“O, how can I, whose native sphere
Is dark, whose mind is dim;
Before the Ineffable appear,
And on my naked spirit bear,
That uncreated beam.

Both faculty and students need the Holy Ghost. Hallelujah! He is with us. It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing. Amen!

Opening Service Of N. B. I.

"We will rejoice in Thy salvation, and in the Name of our God we will set up our banners." Psalms 20:5.

Such were the words on our lips and the determination in our hearts as we entered the church where many of the brethren and friends interested in our school had assembled for the formal opening of the Northwest Bible Institute.

Bible School, to which we had looked forward with such great anticipation, had re-opened, bringing with it a real determination in the student body to "set up our banners in the Name of our God."

Rev. Lewis of Anacortes led the congregation in a few inspiring songs, and our principal, Rev. Henry H. Ness, took charge of the remainder of the service. Special numbers were given by members of the student body, after which District Superintendent, Rev. T. A. Sandall, spoke to us on "Redeeming the Time." Our hearts were greatly touched as we were moved by the Holy Spirit and realized the need of redeeming the time in these last evil days.

Other speakers were Rev. C. E. Butterfield of Everett, Rev. Frank Gray of Tacoma, and Rev. P. S. Jones of Seattle.

Dr. Hoover's Lectures

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth." II Tim. 2:15.

This is the study Scripture adopted by Brother Hoover during his lectures to the student body.

During the course of the lectures, Brother Hoover has brought current events that have bearing on Scriptural Truths, followed by Doctrinal studies. The main portion of the studies is devoted to prophecy. The students have been greatly aided by these studies and have been stirred to a greater desire to press the battle as the end of time is approaching.

Accompanying Dr. Hoover is his song leader, Brother Hiram Brooks, who has ministered to us during chapel service and has entered into our school life and work, proving a blessing to each one of the students.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

RUTH MORRIS

"The Lord hath done great things for us whereof we are glad." Psalm 126:3.

This scripture has again proven to be a "living reality" in our family life at N. B. I. We are praising our God for the wonderful way He has been in our midst, since the opening of this school year, and are anticipating great things ahead.

In the English Department we are hard at work endeavoring to master the rudiments of grammar and composition.

We have a very fine group of young people who are diligently studying to prepare themselves for the work to which they feel the Lord has called them. We believe the Lord will open up large avenues of service for these consecrated young men and women.

Reception For Students

Often we have heard the young people of Hollywood Temple sing that beautiful chorus, "Make Me a Blessing." Their hearts are moved by the Spirit of God with a desire to serve the Master better as they prayerfully and earnestly finish that chorus, "Make me a blessing to someone today."

Surely these fine young people were a blessing to the students of N. B. I. on Friday evening, October 11th, when they so royally received us by giving a reception in "our honor."

At six o'clock the bell rang. This meant that we were to assemble in the first year class room of the school. At the door each student was stopped and asked to give the month of his birth and, after doing so, was given a colored tag which signified the month in which he or she was born. There were twelve different colors. Everyone having the same colored tag was to sit in his respective group. It was interesting to note the ones whose birthdays were in the same month. After some choruses were sung, Dr. J. N. Hoover asked God's blessing on our gathering. The Lord was with us, and our fellowship was made sweet because of the presence of Him whom we all love and worship.

We were given a generous serving of delicious fresh salmon salad, olives, potato chips, sandwiches, cake, ice cream, and the choice of coffee or cocoa.

As a student body we deeply appreciate the kindness of our dear Hollywood Temple friends.

JOINT EVENING SERVICE

Following the reception, we met in the auditorium for a joint service with the young people of the church. The presence of the Lord was felt from the very beginning. Brother Lee Baunsgard, president of the Young People's Organization was in charge of the service. Special numbers were rendered by both the young people of the church and the Bible students.

Sister Margaret Knutsson, a member of the second year class, brought an inspiring message, and as the meeting progressed, we welcomed a mighty visitation of the Holy Spirit. Oh, how our hearts overflowed with joy! God so beautifully melted us together, making us one in spirit, one in heart, and one in purpose. We could say as the Psalmist said, "Oh, magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together." As a climax to this wonderful meeting, the Lord graciously baptized one young man of the Lutheran Denomination with the Holy Spirit. Praise the Lord!

We have felt God's blessing upon our school from the very beginning of the term, and as we draw closer to Him, we pray that the coming months at N. B. I. will become even richer and more precious because of His presence.

SECOND FRIDAY AFTERNOON

The second Friday afternoon another fine program was given, and our Sister Helen Remley from Moorehead, Minnesota, gave the message. Our hearts were greatly blessed as Miss Remley spoke from Psalms 42:7.

PIONEER STUDENTS OF 1934

Prayer Groups

(I Thess. 5:17)

God's precious Word admonishes us to be constant, persistent, and overcoming in prayer. The students of the Northwest Bible Institute have found that prayer is an indispensable part in our Christian experience.

Prayer promotes our spiritual growth, brings power into our work, and avails for the conversion of others. With these important things in mind, we have organized two prayer groups for this year.

The students have been divided into two groups for the study of music. While Group One convenes for music, Group Two meets to pray for the needs of the District, the faculty, and the students. Then again while Group Two has music, Group One meets to pray.

Many blessed times have been experienced in prayer meetings of this nature. Students have received healing for their bodies and some have received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, as they have interceded for the needs of others.

The leaders of these groups are:

Group One

Edward Goldsby,
Chairman
Myrtle Hanson
Elzena Richter
Leona Owen

Group Two

Riley Kaufman,
Chairman
Mary Carnes
Lillian Mader
Leonard Philp

Friends having burdens upon their hearts may feel free to send in prayer requests, and we will take them to the Lord in prayer, believing for the answer. "And all things, whatsoever ye ask in prayer, believing ye shall receive."

COMMITTEES

Several committees have been appointed by our Principal and Dean for the purpose of systematically doing business for the King here in Bible School.

MUSIC COMMITTEE

A Music Committee assumes the responsibility of arranging musical numbers for various services conducted by the students. This committee also searches for hidden talent among the students, and assists in developing talent when it is discovered. We are much pleased with the N. B. I. male quartet which has recently been formed. God has blessed the singing of the Quartet, and we praise Him for His blessing upon these students. Leonard Philp sings first tenor; Riley Kaufman, second tenor; Maurice Peterson, first bass; and Paul Gray, second base.

The members of the Music Committee include: Margaret Knutsson, Chairman; Ruth Remley, Ella Riedlinger, Ruth Taylor, Grace Erickson.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON LUNCH COMMITTEE

This committee oversees the activities of the afternoon. Sister Verna Bohnstedt acts as chairman and is assisted by Sister Ruth Peterson and Sister Gladys Buck. They always succeed in making the afternoon a most enjoyable one, and especially so for the dishwashers and waitresses whom this committee appoints to assist with the kitchen duties. The members of this committee are to be commended for their work—much credit is due them for the pleasant times we enjoy together on this big day of the week.

N. B. I. Missionary Society

Officers for the N. B. I. Missionary Society have been selected and the various groups have been formed. This activity creates a great deal of interest in the school. The organization purposes to make this a successful year in working for missions, at home and abroad.

Each student is privileged to join the band representing the country in which he is interested. The bands meet every Friday afternoon, at which time the respective fields are discussed, and prayer requests concerning the field are brought before God. The students correspond with missionaries on the field. Letters, papers, and other materials, which keep us in touch with the fields, are being received from time to time.

We can not all go to the foreign fields as missionaries, but we can all have a share in laboring in prayer for those who ARE called to this great work.

The officers of the Missionary Society are as follows:

President Maynard Oss
Vice President William Kirschke
Secretary Paul Williscroft
Treasurer Irene Langdon

Group leaders are as follows:

China Olaf Brukett
Latin America Charles Slaughter
Africa George Buck
India Sophia Potratz
Russia Helen Bession
Home Missions Harry Pennington

Because Seattle is a seaport, it is the privilege of the students of N. B. I. to contact many missionaries, both as they leave for their fields and as they return on furlough.

This is a stimulus for missionary activities in the school, and at the same time, gives the students a personal interest in the missionaries and their respective fields.

Up to the present our Missionary Society is divided into six distinctive missionary bands, representing as many different fields.

The accompanying picture shows a missionary "farewell" scene.

Dormitory

By PAUL GRAY

A few weeks ago the place we now call home was an empty house void of everything movable. Then the principal secured this place, which is next to the school, and we had on our hands the task of converting it into a men's dormitory.

At first we were afraid we would not have enough students to fill the house, but they came in one by one, until at the present time we have twenty lodging there.

Tables, chairs, beds, springs, and mattresses were brought in by the friends of the school, and some of the good sisters from Hollywood Temple furnished curtains, which add considerably to the attractiveness of the rooms.

As you will probably realize, food is the biggest problem in a dormitory, especially when twenty hungry men get their feet under the table, but the Lord, who is abundantly able to supply all our needs, has been graciously helping us along this line.

Not only with temporal things has the Lord blessed us, but we enjoy sweet fellowship with each other as we feel the presence of God hovering over us.

One of the students, with the aid of an assistant, regularly prepares the meals, while various groups alternate in performing the other duties of the household. Three of the students have been appointed as a committee which has charge of the dormitory affairs. The members of this committee are Olaf Brukett, chairman; Paul Gray, secretary-treasurer; and Emerald Kinsey.

We know the Lord has had his hand on the dormitory ever since we were able to secure the house. We can truthfully say, "Hitherto has the Lord been with us."

NOTE—A general letter was sent out by the Bible School Committee to the Pastors of the District, suggesting that if possible a shipment of food be sent to the boy's dormitory. The response has been most generous and there is a shout in the camp whenever a shipment has arrived. This has been a tremendous help as many of the young men's financial supplies are very, very meager. Let us remember the scripture, "Be not weary in well doing." We still can use more. Amen!

Aside from the donations thus received, we are glad to report that many splendid gifts have come from local people. Among them was a load of coal from Mr. W. T. Anderson of Madison Park Fuel Co.

TRACT DEPARTMENT

A Tract Committee has charge of the ordering and distributing of Gospel tracts. The committee is doing splendid work in supplying tracts as demands for them arise. Brother Bergman Lee is Superintendent of the Tract Department, Brother Wallace Soderberg acts as Assistant Superintendent, and Sister Velma Spencer is Secretary. A number of students are members of this department and assume definite duties in the stamping and distribution of tracts.

Showers Of Blessing

By WILLIAM E. KIRSCHKE

In these last days, it has pleased God to call into His service the youth of our land. As an evidence of this call, He is pouring out the Holy Spirit, fulfilling the prophecy of Joel 2:28, "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy."

Our earnest desire is that God will raise up some more Moodys, Sundays, and Finneys, who, as flames of fire for God, will herald the Gospel message throughout the world. May God fill us with Holy Ghost fire, efficient knowledge and spiritual power, and zeal and passion for the souls of men. As students of the Northwest Bible Institute, we are seeking God continuously that His plan and purpose may be worked out in our lives.

A high-light in the school activities outside of school hours is the family altar that the boys in the dormitory have erected on which to offer their praise offerings and requests of prayer.

After breakfast on the morning of October 30th, the young men students in their new home, conducted a Scripture chain reading which was followed by comments on the Word and an uplifting season of prayer. Thank God for a vision which causes us to get under a burden for a revival! During that prayer hour the Spirit of God began to move upon us—our hearts were melted, tears of compassion began to flow, and, oh, what a time! It seemed as though someone had touched the throne of grace for victory, which lasted through out the entire day.

In chapel testimony meeting, a key note of victory sounded throughout the student body. When the first year Dispensations Class convened, a spirit of prayer was still upon the students. Then for two whole periods God took charge. One student was baptized in the Holy Ghost. Praise God!

The second year students were invited to join us, and they responded joyfully. Dew drops from heaven continued to fall, thus encouraging us to press onward to greater victories in Him.

We are trusting that God will have an army of Soldiers of the Cross who will set things in motion as we engage in the fields of self-sacrificing service for Him.

Friday Afternoons

Friday! How eagerly we await the day. After classes are dismissed at 12:30 o'clock, we all gather downstairs to partake of a delicious hot dinner, which is prepared by Mrs. Christiansen, our matron, and Miss Evelyn Johnson. A time of fellowship is enjoyed by all the students. Orchestra practice, committee meetings, and other activities are then attended. At three o'clock we gather in the auditorium for the students' afternoon service, after which the missionary bands meet in their respective rooms. During the remainder of the afternoon the prayer room is always filled with students who are waiting before the Lord in prayer and preparation for the various evening services. At 6:30 o'clock we again gather downstairs, to enjoy an evening meal.

Several afternoons of this kind are now history. We cherish memories of God's blessings upon our Friday activities at N. B. I. Especially do we recall the first Friday afternoon of this school term. After a delightful program, Sister Verna Bohnstedt brought a short message from the Word. Just as the closing prayer was being offered, God placed His stamp of approval upon the service by pouring upon us the cup of blessing. What a scene! Some were weeping, while others were rejoicing in the Spirit. We said like Peter, "Lord, it is good to be here!"

APPRECIATION

Brother Ness, our principal, calls a young lady to halt as she hurriedly passes through the auditorium where the N. B. I. family (students and faculty) are seated for the Friday noon meal. "Allow me to introduce to you," Brother Ness says, addressing the student body, "Miss Evelyn Johnson, a student at the University of Washington, who supervises the preparation of the delicious meals which we enjoy here on Friday. She is putting into practice the knowledge she receives from her Dietetics Course in the University."

The students wish to express appreciation to Evelyn for her kind interest in the activities of our school, and especially for her assistance in the kitchen on Fridays. Evelyn's cheerful disposition adds to the already pleasant atmosphere of N. B. I., and we are always made happy by her presence.

Student Council

There is a beautiful spirit of cooperation and harmony prevalent among the students of N. B. I. to which the Student Council is a decided contribution. Each member of the Council acts in the capacity of "Big Brother" or "Big Sister" over a group of students assigned by the faculty.

The members of the Council are:

Olaf Brukett, Chairman of Men's Department; Bergman Lee, Paul Gray, Maurice Peterson and Harry Pennington.

Margaret Knutsson is Chairman of the Women's Department; other members of this department are Lillian Mader, Verna Bohnstedt, Janet Hansen, and Clara Hanson.

"Scatter Night"

Friday is "scatter" night. The student body is divided into groups, which conduct services in various churches and missions in and about Seattle. The students hold regular services at the Scandinavian Pentecostal Church, the Ballard Gospel Tabernacle, the Hillman City Tabernacle, the Zion Mission, The Lighthouse Mission in Renton, and the Phil-earth, spreading the glorious Gospel of Jesus Christ.

pino Mission in downtown Seattle. Arrangements are being made for other student groups to go elsewhere for meeting on Friday evenings.

We trust, if the Lord should tarry, that many of the N. B. I. students shall be "scattered" to the four corners of the

Zion Mission

One of the many doors open to the students for practical work in Seattle is the Zion Mission, a slum work under the supervision of Brother Fred Hansen. This mission has been pronounced by many outstanding religious leaders to be one of the finest in the country.

The students, together with the young people of Fremont Tabernacle on Friday evening, and together with the Hollywood Temple young people on Saturday evening, conduct evangelistic services in this mission.

The service is always preceded by a rousing street meeting which attracts the attention of large crowds of men on the street, and thus enables us to invite them into the mission to hear the Gospel story.

Special musical numbers, convincing testimonies, and Gospel messages in sermon and song are given by the young people. We rejoice to see hard-hearted men weep their way through to salvation and receive that peace and joy which only Jesus can give.

Hillman City Services

ARTHUR TOWNSEND

The shadows of approaching night were deepening as we departed from N. B. I. for Hillman City, a suburb of Seattle, to conduct a Gospel service. The neon signs cut a path of light through the darkness as we traveled across the city. This night scene brought to mind a wonderful illustration—how the shadows of our lives were illuminated by the Divine love of God 'til darkness lifted her wings like the night birds to silently steal away, leaving a blaze of God's glory upon our souls forever more. Praise the Lord!

We were welcomed cordially when we arrived at our destination. We felt at home then and there! Brother Wallace Johnson was in charge of the service, opening with a season of prayer. The Lord was with us in a very precious way while Brother Elson Honey led the song service, followed by a time of testimony and praise unto the Lord. The presence of the Lord was felt in a wonderful time of rejoicing. The people gave God the glory, and our souls sensed the heavenly dew of victory.

To climax the evening Brother George Johnstone preached the Word. Our souls ascended heavenward on the wings of Truth to feel the gentle heavenly breezes. The presence of the Lord left sweet fragrance of myrrh and frankincense as from the hand of the Man with the seamless robe. Then reaching the zenith of the evening service, the congregation bowed at the altar for a season of prayer and praise. While journeying homeward, we rejoiced in the Lord for this wonderful time of fellowship. Truly, we deem it a joy to be in the service of the King. Thus ended our visit to Hillman City, but we know there are other seasons of rejoicing ahead as we labor for our Master.

Service At Bethany Baptist Church

"Where Jesus is, 'tis Heaven there." This was the truth realized by a group of N. B. I. students in charge of the service in the Bethany Baptist Church of Ballard, Sunday evening, October 20th.

The Spirit of the Lord was present in a sweet way throughout the entire evening. Brother Maynard Oss was in charge of the service, and special vocal solos were given by Sister Ruth Taylor and Brother Eugene Born. After a beautiful and practical talk on consecration by Sister Verna Bohnstedt, all gathered around the altar for a time of establishing and renewing consecrations to God.

It was a blessing and privilege to have been there, and we rejoiced in the fellowship of our dear Baptist friends.

Ballard Gospel Tabernacle

Sunday evening, October 20, the N. B. I. Quartet was privileged to conduct a service with Pastor Lester Carlson in the Ballard Gospel Tabernacle.

We are happy to report that the Lord was present with power, and hearts were touched as the Gospel went forth in song, in testimony, and in the ministry of His precious Word.

Musical numbers included vocal and saxophone solos and a quartet number. A message was brought from the Word by Brother Maurice Petersen. The consecration service which followed was an encouragement to our hearts, and we departed, filled with the joy of the Lord, happy to be in His service.

School Atmosphere

PAUL WILLISCROFT

Not long ago I rode on the Gospel Bus for the first time. It was filled with students who were on their way to conduct a service in a Seattle mission. If my count was correct—it was rather hard to count, for we were quite crowded—there were forty-four altogether. But being crowded does not matter much, for we are always happy to be on a mission for the Lord. Someone started a chorus, and everyone joined in. Until we reached our destination, the choruses continued. The eyes of several were closed as we all worshipped God in song. As we journeyed homeward from the meeting, familiar choruses were again sung, and audible praises unto the Lord ascended from the lips of various students. At times the songs were nearly drowned out by praises. Though this was my first trip of this kind with N. B. I. students, I soon learned that this spiritual atmosphere always prevails when the students are passengers in the Gospel Bus.

Then again, just at the beginning of a class the instructor was called out of the room for a few minutes. A chorus was started, and there followed praises unto God until the instructor returned and took up class work.

The students love to linger in the prayer room, for there they meet with God and talk to Him about the unsaved souls with whom they come in contact, and the numerous needs that present themselves from time to time.

It is really a privilege to be in such a large group of young people who love the Lord with all their hearts. God is always near and dear to everyone. It is just extremely good to be able to study God's Word in such an excellent spiritual atmosphere.

A Street Meeting

"Go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in."—Luke 14:23.

On Wednesday afternoon, October 9, a group of men students were planning to visit the hospital. When we were gathered together and about to go, the news came that we would not be permitted to have the service. We wanted to do something for the Lord that afternoon, and although this one door was closed to us, we found another—the slum district of Seattle, where we went to conduct a street service.

As the songs and choruses were being sung, a large crowd gathered, and it seemed as though the presence of the Lord settled down upon those men in a special way. Their hearts were touched by the Spirit of God as the young men gave their testimonies under the anointing of the Holy Spirit. A young man for whom the students had been praying was among the listeners. At one time he had been a minister of the Gospel, but now was backslidden. This afternoon he again yielded his heart to God. Several others in the crowd were brought under deep conviction.

Radio Program

October 20th, 1935

Come with us into the reception room of the studios of station KJR, Seattle, and we will hear the Sunday afternoon broadcast sponsored weekly by the Hollywood Temple with the aid of the students of the Northwest Bible Institute.

As we listen to the theme song coming forth from the radio in the corner of the room, we may see the soloist and organist through the window to our left. Now the Pastor is giving greetings to his listeners, and we can see four young men arranging themselves before the microphone. Yes, this is the first radio appearance of the N. B. I. male quartet which is now singing "Jesus the Light of the World." Oh, that men in every corner of this universe would get this message into their sin-darkened hearts!

Next on the program we hear a vocal duet entitled "All is Dark." How true it is, that all is dark until the light of Christ Jesus is shed on our lives, and we find ourselves new creatures in the light of the glorious Gospel.

Oh, listen to that beautiful music! A violin trio—we can nearly hear the words, "When Jesus Speaks Peace to My Soul," as the young ladies play it on their instruments. The Pastor is now encouraging all to listen in to the Gospel radio services throughout the day. Many souls have been touched directly by the Word as they have received it into their homes through the radio, when there was perhaps no other way whereby they might have been reached.

Now we hear a message in song by the N. B. I. ladies trio—"Transformed"—Amen! A complete transformation is wrought in the life of every one who will believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

To climax this program, the Pastor again steps before the microphone and gives an appeal from the Word to his unseen audience—presenting Jesus as the Redeemer of all mankind and urging all to accept Him as a personal Saviour. Thus, another broadcast comes to a close as prayer is offered by the speaker, and the theme song is sung by the soloist.

The students are much interested in this phase of Gospel service and desire the prayers of God's people that these radio programs may be blessed to the multitudes out in "radio land." Don't forget to tune in every Sunday afternoon at 1:30 to station KJR.

SPECIAL LECTURES

During the past few weeks the students of the Institute have had the privilege of listening to special lectures by Pastor O. A. Kuhn of the Fairmont Congregational Church of Seattle, Miss Maurine Bennett, former faculty member of Southern California Bible School, Pastor C. E. Butterfield, of the Bethany Temple of Everett, Pastor P. S. Jones, of the Fremont Pentecostal Tabernacle of Seattle, Rev. Abraham Vereide of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Dr. John H. Craven, and Mrs. James E. Smith.

Mercer Island

Perhaps one of the most interesting and encouraging places of service which the Northwest Bible Institute students have found is the Boys' Corrective School situated on Mercer Island. This secluded island is surrounded by the waters of Lake Washington, and its beauty adds much to the pleasantness of the frequent visits made to the island by the interested young people of our school and of the Hollywood Temple.

To appeal to those sprightly, vivacious young boys, a group of well-consecrated, keen, lively young people is needed. Just such a group leaves the Bible Institute in a bus provided for that purpose, which later transfers them to a small boat. The bus trip to the dock along the winding Washington Boulevard is an exceptionally beautiful one, but our thoughts are not allowed to become so absorbed with surrounding beauty that we lose sight of the seriousness of our mission. Instead, prayerful choruses and songs are sung from sincere young hearts as the need for Divine Leadership is realized. In this way our hearts become better prepared for the anticipated service with which the Lord has entrusted us.

After the students are transferred from the bus to the small boat which transports them across the water to the island, the time is well-spent in a prayer meeting. Yes, right in that little boat everyone gets down on his knees and everyone prays.

"Nothing is too hard for Jesus
No man can work like Him."

Approaching the school buildings and dormitories we notice a great number of boys between the ages of eight and eighteen. Some appear happy, others dejected. Not all of these boys are here for corrective purposes, but many of them have no home and are cared for in this institution.

There is good interest among the boys as the service proceeds. Several of the boys that are saved give their testimonies, but the lives of these boys before the others at the school are the best testimonies. At the first meeting the students attended this school year, one of the older boys, convinced that salvation is real by the life of one of the boys who was serving Christ, gave his heart to the Lord. Now he testifies, reads his Bible, and prays. The boys heartily sing the songs and choruses and are ever ready with the Golden Texts in their Sunday School lessons. The number of hands that are raised for prayer is surprising. We are especially glad when some sweet youngster requests prayer for his unsaved parents. How our hearts go out to them, and how thankful we are for the privilege of praying with them and for them.

We are not alone in being touched by these heart cries, for Jesus, too, is looking down into the hearts of those who are sincere. As they learn to trust in Him, of course, He will pour out His blessing upon their young lives.

We know of a surety that it is GOOD to be in the service of the King!

The Call Of The Cross

The call of the Cross is sounding forth,
The Lord of the harvest stands,
And o'er the fields of golden grain
Beckons with nail pierced hands.
Look! He is pointing o'er fields so white,
The time to reap is here;
"Who will work in My harvest field?"
The call comes soft and clear.

Over the walls of jasper,
Angels with harps of gold
Born on wings of the morning
The Story of Love unfold—
"Those hands outstretched were pierced and riven,
His side was stained with blood;
While sin of all the nations
Swept o'er Him like a flood."

But now He calls for reapers
As evening shadows fall:
"I need you in My harvest field,
Yield to Me your all.
Give to Me your time, your life,
The days are speeding by;
Soon the reaping will be over;
Too late, too late will be the cry."

He has called us, we have answered,
"Here am I, O Lord, send me
To the untold millions dying
In the homeland and o'er the sea."
We are willing, we have yielded,
We will go if we but die—
Just a group of Bible students
Now enrolled at N. B. I.

Not of self, or we will fail;
In Jesus we will trust;
"Till all the world has heard His Name,
"Till kingdoms fall to dust.
Bear His banner of salvation,
Proclaim it near and far;
Speed the message of His coming,
Jesus, the bright Morning Star.

So with pencils ever scratching
Days are passing swiftly by;
Times of learning, hours of study,
Now a shout, and now a sigh.
But we're pressing ever onward
With our faces to the sky—
Just a group of Bible students
Now enrolled at N. B. I.
