Next year's student leaders for SAB, Mosaic, Campus Ministries, and Residence Life were chosen and announced over spring break. Read on to see who received each position and a brief description for each.

SAB

SAB Director: Taylor Johnston

According to Larissa Lilly, the "student Director will help in leading the team by creating an atmosphere of learning, working and fun. She will help lead meetings, delegate tasks, follow up and make sure an event is really to put on!"

SAB Special Events Student Coordinator: Anna Bizik

SAB Student Graphic Designer: Devyn Glenn

SAB Special Events Student Coordinator: Reid Jarrell

SAB Photographer and Event Coordinator: Brandon Jones

SAB Performance Events Student Coordinator: Shelbie Knowles

SAB Videographer: David Neuman

SAB Spirit and Traditions Student Coordinator: Hannah Polyak

"We have four student event coordinators who will help with the behind-the-scenes details of most of our events on campus. One really exciting part is that we actually added an additional Special Events Coordinator so that our team can put on more passive programs, assist with the programming of intramurals and other special events," Lilly said.

"We have one intramural sports student coordinator who will oversee our intramural sports on campus, including football, basketball and other random sports. Finally, we have a creative team including a graphic designer, photographer and videographer!"

There have been changes to several of the positions this year.

"After much consideration we did take away our adventure recreation coordinator – the student position who would oversee hikes, backpacking trips, etc. We did not feel like this was a part of our program that was being well utilized or successful. We also took away our social media director – recognizing this position's responsibilities can be divided up between multiple other positions." Lilly explained.

Mosaic

Student Director: Natasha Vederoff

Student Coordinators: Qhawelenkosi (Blessing), Ciara dela Cuesta, Alexis Savary, Gillian Broughton, and Joseph Gomez De La Mora.

Led by the director, the student coordinators work to plan events and increase cultural awareness on campus. "These students have a heart to see diversity on campus flourish," Multicultural Director Blake Small said in an email. "We are excited to expand the student's multicultural experiences off campus. We believe that external experiences are necessary to the development, application and transformation of our cultural humility."

These experiences are planned to be outreach, service and/or educationally focused.
