When we were freshman he told us "Truth is one," and we were puzzled and perplexed in trying to grasp this concept of God and in trying to understand how it applied to psychology. As time passed our concepts of God increased through his teaching. As more time passed we learned to know his personality ... mellow ... personable ... perfect father type ... consistent ... persevering. We were shocked when he knew our name, when he came up to us and said with a warm smile, "Hi, Suzie Q, how are you today?" Inside our hearts we glowed because he thought we were valuable enough to know us and not just teach us. Thank you, Orville Clark, for what you represent to the student body of Northwest College ... a dedicated professor ... a Christ-like man of God.

*In the beginning,
God*

*Think back adrift away
remember a special day friends with smiling faces thoughts of favorite places*

Think back and see a friend who stayed beside you to the end a person who always listened whose smile always glistened

Think back and let yourself go to the good times you used to know they'll always be around us while memories surround us

*Give ear to my words, O Lord;
consider my meditation.
Hearken unto the voice
of my cry,
my King, and my God:
for unto thee will I pray.
My voice shalt thou hear
in the morning, O Lord;
in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee
and will look up.
Psalms 5*

makes us individual.
So no matter where you are or what you're doing . . .

Games - baseball, soccer, volleyball, horseshoes, tug-a-war . . . food - hotdogs, fried chicken, chips, brownies, pop, and ice cream were some of the ingredients in 1978's All-School Picnic. Other important factors included hundreds of screaming, laughing students and a fun-loving staff all coming together on a beautiful drizzly day at Green Lake Park to participate in a day of enthusiastic frivolity.

SPRING BANQUET

Time for flowers, formals and fun at the 1978 Spring Banquet, April 22nd. As the couples gather together with the sweet spirit of the Lord, Bob and Joy Cull sing songs of inspiration. Dinner and dessert to fill the hungries and the messages from students and staff to fill our minds with God's goodness. Truly a time to count your blessings (and hold them, too).

LAY COUNCIL

The Lay Council of Northwest College is an association of Christian people—business, professional, skilled, and agricultural who are interested in helping young people as they train and prepare for the ministry.

The Lay Council sponsors an annual meeting at Northwest College. This one and one-half day event includes inspirational and worship sessions, recreational activities and tours, informative and business sessions and an annual banquet.

A vital part of the activities is the Ladies' Auxiliary. They shop, talk, fellowship, and do especially for the young lady students. This fellowship is rich and rewarding.

A major activity of the Lay Council is the annual funding project—usually the launching of a major funding drive of the campus development.

FOR EVERY ECCLESIASTES 3:1

This years Fashion Show, sponsored by the AWS, was held on the evening of October 10th. It was a lovely presentation with many members of the student body participating.

Linda Barnard and Cheryl Mayfield were the Masters of Ceremonies and special music was provided by Radiant Love. (Ramona Griffin, Kathy Rice, Kim Uhles, Jo Wilson, and Cindy Wood.) Special recognition and honor was given to Mrs. Flisram for her outstanding service to the college.

In keeping with the theme, there was a wide variety of clothes modeled which included sports wear, casual dress, coats, evening clothes, and wedding attire.

Compliments are in order to all who participated - you did a great job!

HARVEST TIME SOCIAL '78

Everyone reverted back to their childhood days and came as everything from big babies to mature Boy Scouts to capture the theme of "Kids" for the Harvest Time Social 1978. Features included various game booths, Roadrunner cartoons, relay races, special drama presentations by ACTS and special music by the Christian Sons. One of the main attractions was the Squirrt Gun Booth in which students had the opportunity to take revenge upon various members of the Faculty and Administration.

OPERATION TURKEY

The apostle Paul said in I Corinthians, "To be all things to all men," so some members of the Student Body did just that. They became TURKEYS. Not literal turkeys, of course, but close enough.

Just as a turkey gives of itself for our Thanksgiving, a group of students gave up their Thanksgiving vacations to minister a three different home mission churches. They witnessed, prayed, played, sheet-rocked, paneled, painted, and accomplished many other needed tasks. They ministered to the Pastors, their hosts, the congregations, and planted many seeds through witnessing. Participating in Operation Turkey was a practical way of applying all the truths they have learned at N.C.

When some of the students were asked what the experience meant to them, there were several replies.

Here are a few of them:

Ken Porter replied, "The fruit that we saw, and the fruit that I know we will see makes all of our labor for the Lord worth every minute."

Joni Middleton expressed, "For me, Operation Turkey was a time of deep commitment to God. I realized how I must recommit my entire life and ministry into His hands and care."

Bruce Davis responded, "Operation Turkey was a fun time and a work time. It was a step in my Christian faith seeing God working in the lives of people around me."

Serving others is what Operation Turkey is all about. All participant's lives were enriched as they gave of themselves to help a neighbor... "it proved to be one of the most meaningful experiences of my life." commented Jan Dahlberg.

WORLD OUTREACH MINISTRIES

Campus

Kelly MacDonald and Joni Middleton, leaders of N.C.'s campus MIG, work to gether in bringing the students to a greater awareness of our ministry to each other, within the body of Christ.

Kid's

Gary Wilson, leader of the Kid's M.I.G., along with other students from Northwest take part of their afternoon every week to spend time with children, teach them through songs about Jesus, and just show them love and care.

Community Service

Roger Trinkle is the leader of N.C.'s Community Service M.I.G. Tutoring children, being a father to fatherless boys, outings on picnics and barbecues are just a few of this ministries functions.

Evangelism

Friday evenings are spent in sharing Christ and personal testimonies with the students of the University of Washington or those who frequent Seattle Center. Many are won to Christ yearly through this type of evangelism. With Dave Larsen as a dedicated M.I.G. leader.

Gospel Teams

Gospel Teams are headed by Fred Haack. These teams travel on weekends to churches far and near telling of Christ through music and preaching ministries.

Missions

Praying for the needs of missionaries in outreaches on foreign fields and in the United States is the primary function of the Missions MIG. Through Randy Martin's leadership N.C. students are made aware of these needs.

Publicity

The leader of this MIG is Linda Ogle. The artists of this group use their talents all over campus. They decorate bulletin boards and draw posters for WOM and the MIG's.

Servicemen's

Traveling regularly to Fort Lewis the students at NC receive a special blessing in ministering to the Servicemen. John Young is the leader of the MIG.

Youth

YOUTH MIG

"We go to Echo Glen Children's Center once a week to work with the kids. Echo Glen is a juvenile delinquent center. The kids range in ages from 8 to 18 years old. We work on a one to one basis in areas such as swimming, skiing, volleyball, arts and crafts. Our MIG leader is Mark Tscheulin. God is really blessing us as we learn to work with both the staff and the kids.

ACTS

Left to right-Linda Barnard, John Weaver, Cheryl Cline, Brad Coats, Marsha Brumbach, Kelly McDonald and Karen Self have found upcoming and growing ministry in presenting Jesus through acting. The skits that are on ACTS' roster all deal with the Christian and certain circumstances in his life, which ACTS feels very important.

ACTS travels from Northwest College to local churches, Christian and secular schools, youth retreats and hope someday to give dramatic presentations at Seattle Center and the University of Washington.

SOCCER

The Eagles had a long season of hard work, but through it all they established the importance of staying together. The good times as well as the bad were shared in the spirit of Christian fellowship. That spirit was well shown by their outstanding sportsmanship both on the field and off.

“The Eagles were a young team this year, most of the players not having played at all prior to the season. They took their defeats and bruises as a good learning experience in preparation for the next season. With a year’s experience under their belts, the Eagles have great expectations for a more rewarding and successful future.”

REACHING ARMS

Reaching arms—in silence do you speak to me?
In seasons cold and warm, What do you see?
At dawn when the world is still you reach up to God
As the stars fade in submission to the rising sun.

And even when the sun has risen high,
I still can see you reaching to the sky;
Your secret has been sought by all mankind; deep withing the heart of every soul;
And we who walk these College paths, would well be wise to counsel

For how we long to share your goal—
To reach to Him who makes us whole;
May we immovable like you stand,
And humbly reach to God and man.

A tear - a gift from God;
A single tear trickling down my cheek-
A gentle drop of salty, sensitive water;
What is meant by this teardrop?
A tear can tell you I feel pain;
A tear can tell you I am fearful;
But this tear is a unique tear -
This is not one of hurt or suffering -
This tear can tell you I feel love.

Pamela Backman

PETER

I promised I'd never deny you;
But three times I heard the cock crow;
The words you had spoken were so very true-
My soul's understanding still had to grow.

Looking upon your burden-torn flesh,
The anguish I felt was torn open wide;
I was entangled in a guilty mesh,
With Satan's knife twisting and turning inside.

But once, just once, our eyes did meet,
While on the cross you hung;
The forgiveness from your heart did greet
The faltering song of you I had sung.

Now you are risen in full victory;
Never can failure tempt or torture again;
For strong as a rock beaten by the sea
Is my faith in you to the ultimate end.

LOVE

LOVE is the living key
The link between God and me
LOVE is what we all need
LOVE helps us to proceed

LOVE is caring for each other
Your father, mother, sister and brother
LOVE is the way we live
LOVE is what we freely give

GOD'S LOVE is a precious thing
GOD'S LOVE makes my heart ring
LOVE is what binds us together
LOVE continues no matter what the weather

LOVE is what gives me life
LOVE takes away the sorrow of strife
LOVE cheers and cares for you
LOVE helps you make it through

TO COMPREHEND

If we, to any great extent,
 Could comprehend God's caring,
We'd not be plagued by loneliness,
 And deep and dark despairing;

If we, to any great extent,
 Could comprehend God's loving,
Love's joy would overflow and we
 Would much more love be giving;

If we, to any great extent
 God's wisdom could employ,
We'd have effective instrument
 Fool's thinking to destroy;

If we, to any great extent,
 God's knowledge could attain,
Well educated we could be
 And the Way of Life explain;

If we, to any great extent,
 God's mercy could extend,
We'd show so much compassion
 That many strifes would end;

If we, to any great extent,
 Could comprehend God's power,
We'd never quake at Satan's,
 Nor have one anxious hour;

If we, to any great extent,
 Could comprehend God's plan
We'd squelch so much confusion
 That stalks the common man;

God makes these things available—
 On Him we can depend
To provide the Revelation
 That we need to comprehend.

On Thursday, February 8, our 1979 Homecoming began with an All-School Pep Rally in the gymnasium. The fun included class skits, cheerleader routines, Salt and Light Company, and much more.

In chapel on Friday, Feb. 9, the highlight of the Homecoming festivities took place when we "Crowned our Queen."

The annual Homecoming game was scheduled the following day, Saturday, Feb. 10. During halftime the 1979 Homecoming Court was introduced to all those present. Special thanks to Mike Beresford who has made Homecoming successful for the last three years.

N.C. EAGLES

The Eagles completed their longest season ever with an overall won-loss record of 10-23. Finishing strong in the last two weeks, the Eagles entered the N.L.C.A.A. Tournament in Portland, playing Sheldon Jackson the first game to qualify for the tournament. The Eagles won 68-56. They then played the top seated team in the N.L.C.A.A. Northwest Christian College of Eugene, OR., winning the big game 64 to 61. The Eagles lost in the semi-finals to Multnomah School of the Bible by a score of 62 to 66. In the final game Northwest defeated Judson Baptist of Portland for 3rd place in the N.W. Regional Tournament by a score of 73 to 65. Tom Hanks was voted to the All-tournament team on Saturday night. We really congratulate the team on all their hard work. We appreciate such super Coaches too! They all deserve every compliment for a tremendous season!!

KCNC 660 AM is owned and operated by the students of Northwest College. Its purpose is to train students in methods of mass media ministry and to edify the student body. This year we have tried to place an emphasis on ministry and professionalism.

KCNC is closely linked with the radio production class and mainly run by the members of the radio workshop class. KCNC is a carrier current station, which means that the signal travels by coaxial cable to the bottom of each dorm where a 4,000 milliwatt river of raw power is boosted through the electrical systems. This years officers were:

- Dan French - Faculty Advisor
- Mike Tatham - Station Manager
- Jed Williams - Program Director
- Mary Aspenleider - Business Manager
- Dan Martian - News Director

This section of our yearbook is set aside for special people. In recognition of these people, we would like to quote our favorite writer.

God often sends us unexpected treasures. Because they are not expected we do not recognize their value and we'll lay them aside or take them for granted. We may consider this treasure as an object not worthy of our name and hide it where it will not be seen. However, in this treasure there may be a certain quality of texture, softness, brightness or shape that will attract an occasional glance. We become familiar with these qualities and soon the treasure becomes our treasure. When company visits we will remove our treasure from its hiding place and speak of its qualities. When it is passed by without comment we will bring it to attention and praise its worth. The recognition of a treasure, or a gift, or a friend which God gives us will always, then be in our heart. And so it is with every gift God gives if we will only learn to recognize and accept.

We feel the significance of the words above are praising the gifts God gave us. We have experienced the strength, patience and peace of christian love, through it all. The gifts we speak of are: Mr. Phil Gustafson, for being our photo advisor and for the use of his excellent color photographs, Mr. Jack Dorwart, for being our Yearbook advisor, Mr. Jim Palm, local representative, Vernon Gillespie, photo editor, Shirley Brown, business editor, Lori Killingbeck, David Wessler, Debbie Crites, Velma Redelfs, Anne Butterfield, Linda Barnard, James Chase, Karen Tandberg, Sue Kellogg, Marty Colvill, Laurie Halone, Stanley Fells, Ken Porter, Catina Mayfield, Elaine Hughes, Karen Mills, Cheryl Mayfield, Michael Langford, Jo Wilson, Cheryl Maxey, Peggy Scherer, Karen Marcus, Jill Price, Lynn Baer, Leanne Kallstrom, Bruce Hill, Ken Mulkie, Sue Palmer, Randy Ross, Brenda Skidmore, Laura Coll, Paul Isacson, Shirley Lee, Laurie Carlisle, Gary Wilson. THANK YOU!
