Karisma 1978

... Let Us Press On To Maturity

Dedication:

LeRoy Johnson

Many times recognition goes to those people who are up front. We tend to take for granted those who work selflessly in the background. We at Karisma, would like to recognize one such man. It is therefore, with great pleasure that we dedicate the 1978 Karisma to Professor LeRoy Johnson.

A native of Minnesota, Mr. Johnson attended North Central Bible College, in Minneapolis, for one year. He then entered St. Cloud State College where he earned his B.S. degree and later his Masters degree in history.

After teaching public school for six years, the Lord moved Mr. Johnson to Northwest College in the fall of 1967, as professor of history. He has served faithfully in this capacity for the past eleven years. Aside from his academic interests, Mr. Johnson is very interested in sports. He has been the assistant basketball coach since his arrival at N.C. We must make mention, of course, that Mr. Johnson is an avid Minnesota Vikings fan! As those in his World Civ classes can attest, his favorite period in modern history is the Minnesota Viking Dynasty .

Thank you Mr. Johnson for your years of service and ministry to the college. We, the student body, appreciate you, and pray that God may richly bless you as you continue your ministry at N.C.

Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance.
And let endurance have its perfect result, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

And He gave some as apostles,
and some as prophets,
and some as evangelists,
and some as pastors and teachers,

for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ;

until we all attain to the unity of the faith,
and of the knowledge of the Son of God,
to a mature man,
to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fulness of Christ.

As a result,
we are no longer to be children tossed here and there by waves, and carried about by every wind of doctrine,
by the trickery of men,
by craftiness in deceitful scheming;

but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into him, who is the head, even Christ,

from whom the whole body, being fitted and held together by that which every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.

And we proclaim Him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, that we may present every man complete in Christ.

For this reason,
I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name, that He would grant you, according to the riches

of His glory,
to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner man;

so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith;
and that you,
being rooted and grounded in love,
may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled up to all the fulness of God.

He sent from on high, He took me;
He drew me out of many waters.

He delivered me from my strong enemy,
And from those who hated me,
for they were too mighty for me.

They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
But the Lord was my stay.

He brought me forth also into a broad place;
He rescued me, because He delighted in me.

And in Him you have been made complete,
And He is the head over all rule and authority.

As for Man, his days are like grass;
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.

O God, Thou art my God;
I shall seek Thee earnestly;
My soul thirsts for Thee,
my flesh yearns for Thee,
In a dry and weary land where there is no water.
Thus I have beheld Thee
in the sanctuary,
To see Thy power and Thy glory.

Academics

God created each of us with amazing academic potential — to remember, to reason, to imagine, to learn. Development of this potential is part of presenting ourselves “a living sacrifice” to God.

A student at Northwest College has aids in developing his potential in a natural and harmonious way — instruction by teachers whose own lives are developing in God, a curriculum with Christ at both center and circumference, challenging programs of study preparatory to Christian service, a library selected with the Christian student’s needs in mind.

If the N.C. student has planned his academic progress wisely, he will enter upon a life of service to God with a knowledge of life’s principles — whether learned in a Biblical literature class, a science lab, or from a history lecture. He will have a sense of values — seeking out the good in a world of unrestrained evil, finding the beautiful in a world made ugly by greedy commerce, recognizing the truth in a world which legitimizes lying propaganda. He will know many facts and possess a variety of skills. But he will also know that he has only begun to know. He will go on and on “increasing in wisdom.”

God made man a whole being—physically, intellectually, socially and spiritually. He provided man with a body that was sound, a mind that was keen and strong, human relationships that were satisfying and good, and a spirit that was alive and creative. But best of all, He provided man with full communion with Himself!

Satan, the enemy of God, and man spoiled all that!

Redemption is designed of God to restore man physically with healing, wise self-discipline, restraint and use of body as well as, ultimately, a new body; intellectually with truth and the freedom of mind it brings; socially with human relationships based on love and trust, and spiritually with a new life in God.

In Christ man is accepted of God, is restored to a place of fellowship and communion and is given opportunity for fulfillment. Man cannot be a truly whole person until he is made “complete in Christ.” But in this transaction “old things pass away; and all things become new.” In Christ the new creation has opportunity for true “wholeness.”

Northwest College purposes to be an instrument in the hands of God to lead students towards God’s ideal of wholeness—a whole person fulfilled and, himself, an instrument used of God in bringing others to that same divine ideal.

Spiritual Life

Because of the nature of things, the primary reason for being of any College is academic. Many Colleges disclaim any right to influence or guide in moral or spiritual concerns. That is probably as it should be. For without an objective norm, spiritual considerations have no fixed point of reference.

It is not so at Northwest College. With a firm faith in the infallible revelation of God in Christ and the Word, Northwest College seeks to seize upon the opportunity for guiding the spiritual growth of its students. The college considers it a high privilege to help nurture that part of man which relates him to God in a special way. It seeks to maintain that perspective in all its policies and programs.

There are various ways such nurturing is done. The daily chapel services are central. Guest ministers from a variety of backgrounds and with a variety of ministries speak to the student body. From time to time Administrators and Faculty minister as well. Each quarter, the College sponsors a "Spiritual Emphasis Week," during which special attention is given to spiritual matters. The students themselves participate extensively in Chapel services and in student-sponsored times of prayer and fasting and of ministry. The spiritual activities take place among the students as a whole and in smaller groups. Most classes are begun with prayer, as are extra-curricular activities. These all reflect a commitment to spiritual priorities that pervades campus life at Northwest College.

Spring Spiritual Emphasis

Dennis and Rita Bennett

Dennis and Rita Bennett, Authors of The Holy Spirit and You, were the guest speakers for the 1977 Spring Spiritual Emphasis Week.

Father Bennett, pastor of St. Mark's Episcopale Church in Seattle, gave us new insight regarding the working of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

A Week With Linfield Crowder

Rev. Linfield Crowder, a 1953 graduate of Northwest College, spoke on the theme of God's love, and the human response to it during Fall Spiritual Emphasis Week. A missionary evangelist, and third time Spiritual Emphasis Speaker, Rev. Crowder challenged us again to respond in obedience to the call and will of God. The impact of his message was measured not only by the large attendance in both the morning and evening services, nor by the attentiveness of those present, but by the genuine response in prayer as students dedicated themselves to the service of God.

“Lord, Use Me Now”

It's not my preaching; it's my legs!

Reverend Alipate Mateyawa Cakau, General Superintendent of Fiji, was the speaker for Spiritual Emphasis Week winter quarter. Acts 9:6 was the basis of his theme, Lord use me now in any capacity whether it is to be a missionary or a housewife.

He was a real inspiration to the student body.

Operation Turkey

Each year, over Thanksgiving weekend, Northwest College sends out groups of students to various home mission churches in the college district. This year, due to bad weather, only two groups were able to participate in Operation Turkey. One group traveled to La Pusch, Washington while the other went to Snoqualmie, Washington. Both groups were greatly appreciated by the respective churches.

Socials

In the second chapter of the Gospel of St. Luke, we observe the scriptural testimony of Jesus, the whole man. Christ had so ordered His person and priorities that He found no difficulty in doing His Father's business, teaching in the temple and, submitting to His parents. So complete was Jesus Christ in disposition and deportment that "He increased in favor with God and with man." When the parents of Jesus looked for Him they assumed he would be in "the company of kinfolk and acquaintances." Northwest College seeks to give opportunities and provide the encouragement for students to cultivate personal responsibility in christian and campus conduct; and, since the philosophy and purpose of Northwest includes this motivation to love God and neighbor, learning and maturity will result in student growth mentally, spiritually, and socially. This spirit of christian faith is enhanced and maintained as a necessary expression relevant to the harmony of life. The New Testament, in the term "koinonia," reveals that the divine always results in a transformation in the whole of life, establishing fellowship with God and man. The major objective at Northwest College is to so unite the spiritual, mental and social aspects of the whole person so that each student will "increase in wisdom and stature, in favor with God and man!"

It appears that something is going on here. There was giggling coming from the girl's dorm and guffawing from the boys into the small hours of the night. There were up to six bodies trussed in sleeping bags in the rooms that were built for two. There is a banner flying high that tugs as its securing ropes as it struggles to be free.

It reads-WELCOME TO NORTHWEST COLLEGE. And there stands a faded Coco Cola booth, it wasn't there yesterday.

Words have it that the cafeteria floor is groaning under the weight of the new comers. Perhaps those in line feel like groaning over their extra-ordinarily long wait too. The class rooms are crammed to the doors. Clusters of nervous teenagers, conspicuous in their awkwardness wait for smartly dressed guides to take them to goodness knows where. Information packets are distributed.

The chapel is fairly humming with the singing of the Choralons and other groups but its too crowded to even get in let alone find a seat. The Bald Eagles and the Eagles are going to contes the day in a basketball match, the gym awaits them. Seems there is to be a concert tonight. It feels like a festival.

There are buses and cars in the crowded parking lots, some identify themselves as church property, and some are from our of state. Sure appears that there is something going on here.

Did I overhear the words-CAMPUS DAY '77?

A balmy velvet evening
Warm out of season,
Handpicked for the occasion.
It was a formal affair-Formal but fun.
Corsages embellished gracious gowns that really didn't need embellishing.
Suits, buttonaires, tuxedos and tails transformed jeaned students into those who lived in an age gone by.
Photographs,
An ivy covered gilded entrance arch,
Potted ferns,
Red table-napkins,
Food.

Entertainment,
Students and faculty laughed together.
The student Master of Ceremonies, Skits, and guest singing group interlaced the evening with amusement and inspiration.
The newly engaged couples were announced, Each stood with embarrassed delight.
All of those present went with GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
None were disappointed.

All School Picnic

Due to bad weather, the 1977 All School Picnic was held here on the campus grounds, rather than at Woodland Park.

However, spirits remained undaunted as students and faculty joined in the cafeteria for a picnic lunch, and then moved on to the gym for "Super Class Competition."

Excitement ran especially high as Dean Clark, Keith Robertson, and Bruce Morris kept their promises, each one dutifully swallowing a goldfish. Not to be outdone, Dr. Pecota, Miss Guy, and Jan Dahlberg also got into the act.

Even though it rained, and plans had to be changed at the last moment, the All School Picnic was definately a success.

A.W.S. Fashion Show

"Discover the New You" was the theme of this years annual fashion show. Lorna Alcorn and Jon Hagebusch were Masters of Ceremonies. The special guest was Joan Wallace, who spoke on inner beauty and a positive personality.

Professionally presented, the show featured members of the student body modeling clothes ranging from casual to formal wear.

Following tradition, the evening ended with a special presentation of N.C.'s most recent brides, who modeled their wedding gowns.

A Harvestime Hoedown

Sponsored by the Sophomore class, the 1977 Harvest Time Social was an old fashioned, knee slapping, foot stomping, food time. Students and faculty, all dressed in appropriate hillbilly attire, mingled together, enjoying a relaxing evening of fun and fellowship. Featuring a fishin hole, a vittles booth, a family protrait studio, a hillbilly theatre, and a kissing booth, the evening truly offered some form of entertainment for everyone. Musical entertainment was provided by Wally Kowalski, who serenaded us on his accordian, and the Alleluia Band, who were reunited for the evening.

The W.O.M. Food Fair featured many events this year. Each Mig was in charge of a booth from a foreign country. During the food fair a skit was put on of the typical American misconception of the Mission Field. The movie Peace Child was shown. A prize of one-hundred dollars was given to the best booth so they could present it to the missionary of their choice. The Malaysia, Peru, Lebanon Booth received first place.

“...or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have of God, and that you are not your own?”

It is most apparent that our bodies are the most frail part of the whole man. Yet it simply is a temple, not for desecration, nor for self gain or approval, but that which you have from God. So to speak a jacket that covers the real you. At Northwest College students have the opportunity to be slightly involved physically in picnics and outings combining the social with the physical, or to participate in interscholastic activities. Over ten-percent of the student body is involved with Athletics. Over one-third of the student population participate in some type of intramural activity.

Although we have borrowed the jacket for a moment in time our responsibility is great... “for you have been bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.”

Let's hear it for our Volleyball team! A lot of hard work and practice! practice! practice! has been put into the team this year. We give our thanks to all the girls and Kristi Brodin (coach) for their hard work and dedication to make a successful volleyball team that the Northwest Eagles can be proud of. The team placed second in the Pacific Northwest College Conference with a league record of 10 wins and 4 losses. The highpoint for the team, this year was that they were the only team to defeat N.C.C., who placed first in the league. The girls voted Gwen Bryant Most Valuable Player, who was also the Captain of the team; Pam Crabtree-inspirational; Sharon Skolrud and Laurie Liberty-Ms. Hustle.

The Northwest College Men's Basketball Eagles ended the 1977-78 campaign with a 7-24 record. Their season began with the annual Turkey Day Tournament in the Northwest Pavilion. During the course of the year the team traveled to Salem, Eugene and Portland, Oregon as well as playing three games in Sitka, Alaska.

Coach Carl Kinney will have quite a number of returning lettermen with a lot of game experience and hopes for better things next year.

Eagles Win P.N.C.C. Tournament

This year Northwest College added another team to its roster. Coached by Kris Brodin, the Girl's Varsity Basketball Team was very successful, ending the season with an eleven-three win-loss record. Cheryl Lundvall, the team captain, led in rebounds while Carol Carlisle led the team in scoring. Cheryl Lundvall was second in scoring. Both Cheryl and Carol were chosen as members of the Northwest College Conference Tournament All Star Team.

Come down and fight like a man!

In Memory

Randy Clark
9/24/56-11/18/77

On January 26, 1977 Randy Clark wrote the following to his fiancée, Linda Kinney:

Today the Lord really dealt with my life. He asked me to give up all things to Him. Was I willing? I hesitated for a long time. Again and again the Lord impressed me with that question, "Will you, Randy Clark, give up all things to Me?" I didn't know how to answer at first. Then I feebly acknowledged His presence and said to God, "Lord, I don't know what good I am sometimes, but if You will take this meek child, I will go where You want me to go and do what You want me to do."

These were much more than mere words. As an infant Randy had been dedicated to God, and these words express the consistent Christian life Randy had elected to live. All those who knew him recognized the presence of God within his life, and were influenced by the testimony that he lived. Subsequently, when God chose to take Randy home, his testimony remained, and continued to draw those he left behind closer to God.

We will miss Randy. He was greatly loved. "As his parents," Randy's father, Orville Clark relates, "we are proud that God allowed us a son Randy, who blessed our home for twenty-one years." As his friends, we are thankful for the privilege of having known him.
