Dedication

Phil Gustafson

What makes a person deserving of the yearbook dedication? Can it be attributed to one single characteristic that makes that person seem outstanding? If so, it would be impossible to reach a decision because each person has at least one such characteristic.

The person chosen for the yearbook dedication has many qualities that make them deserving of it. He is a leader, an advisor, a friend, a patient teacher, and a shining example. The person chosen for the 1977 dedication has all these qualities and more.

Two people were chosen to receive special honor this year. They are Mr. Phil Gustafson and Mr. Jack Dorwart.

Jack Dorwart

Mr. "G" has always given that extra portion that goes beyond what is expected to be given. He has always shown a willingness to take extra time to help his students understand a particularly difficult subject. He has shared his time and his talents with us.

Mr. Dorwart has always been willing to help each student who has shown initiative and desire to help themselves. He has treated us as adults, respecting our opinions and our ideas. There has always been open communication; we, as students, can talk WITH him. He has a calming influence and the ability to put things into proper perspective in a time of crisis.

We on the Karisma staff have considered you more than just advisors, we think of you as our friends.

Reaching Arms

We reach out to our brothers and sisters, to our loved ones, to our families. We reach out to people we meet from day to day. Perhaps we do so unconsciously, and we touch them, whether it be positively or negatively. Let us reach out with our very heart and soul, with every part of us that can, Let us reach out — consciously.

Reach out my friend and touch the world around you. Let whatever spark of hope you have flow out through your finger tips and touch those sick of heart, and weary of soul. Let them see and feel the hope the God's love can bring, through you, as you touch their soul with yours.

Reaching out to them is like a rich man standing at poverty's door and crying, "Food for the hungry, health for the sick, wealth for the poor."

Hope! Hope is what you as a messenger have to offer. So reach out to those souls around you.
Reach out — Consciously!

Joan Christensen

Psalm 8

O Lord, our Lord,
how majestic is thy name
in all the earth!

When I look at the heavens
the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou has established;

What is man that thou art
mindful of him, and the son of man that thou dost care for him?

Yet thou hast made him little less than God, and dost crown him with glory and honor.

Thou hast given him dominion
over the works of thy hands; Thou hast put all things under his feet.

O Lord, our Lord,
how majestic is thy name
in all the earth!

contributed by Paul Remark

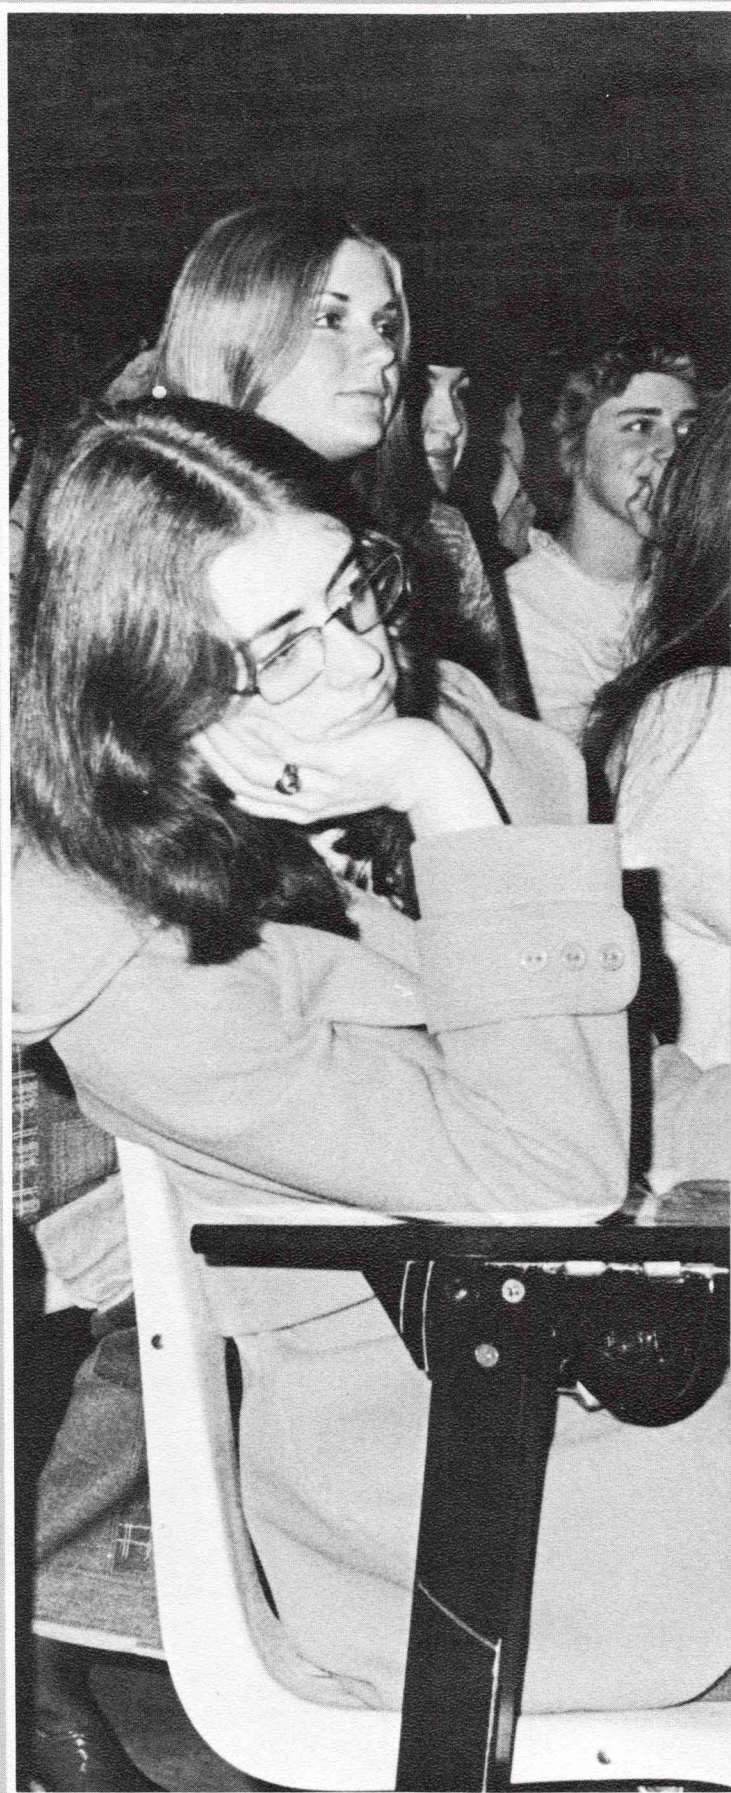

Hey Lord,
I've got to admit sometimes I just don't care to listen, while some dreary-voiced professor expounds his theological, philosophical,
hypothetical,
interpretations of . . . anything.
Sometimes Lord, I want to ask you what difference does it make whether I stare out the window, draw football plays on paper,
or race my mind an hour or two ahead of the clock that hangs motionless on the wall?

I glance around the room, and half the class has gone . . .
to mystical playgrounds,
tide washed beaches,
or back to problems that can't be solved
by an hour's lecture.
And yet Lord, I know I'm wrong-

I SHOULD be paying attention.
I'm here to listen,
and learn, and understand.
But still . . . I'm lost and I can't forge my way through thoughts of loneliness,
touchdowns,
and cafeteria jello
to understand the reality of a boring lecture.

Can you help me, Lord?
Can you create in me an awareness of the importance of this class?
I'm being honest, Lord-
I need your help.
Awaken me to the beauty of listening . . .
even when I don't want to.

Dan Hickman

Today is Thanksgiving Day and I wish I were home or with a very special young lady.
Home, well that's almost two thousand miles away,
and my special lady, she's visiting some friends
because I have to work today.
I guess it's you and me God!
sometimes when I get lonely
I try to console myself with the knowledge that you are here.
I'm sorry, but sometimes it doesn't work,
and I go on feeling lonely.
I stopped to ponder this; Jesus, when you were here on earth weren't you lonely?
(Even though you had a super-special purpose for being here?)
Boy! I'm sure I would've been super lonely for that special place that you called home had I been in your shoes.
I love my Mom and Dad very much and it's very hard sometimes to be so far away.
It's a comfort to me to realize that you can understand my feelings, and by understanding you're more able to help.
I love you, Lord, and thanks for sharing with me
something that I've never realized before.
Well, it's time to go to work, Lord.
I pray that everybody (especially those I love) will have a precious day of thanksgiving realizing that ALL we have is through your grace and love.
Amen
Larry Hohn

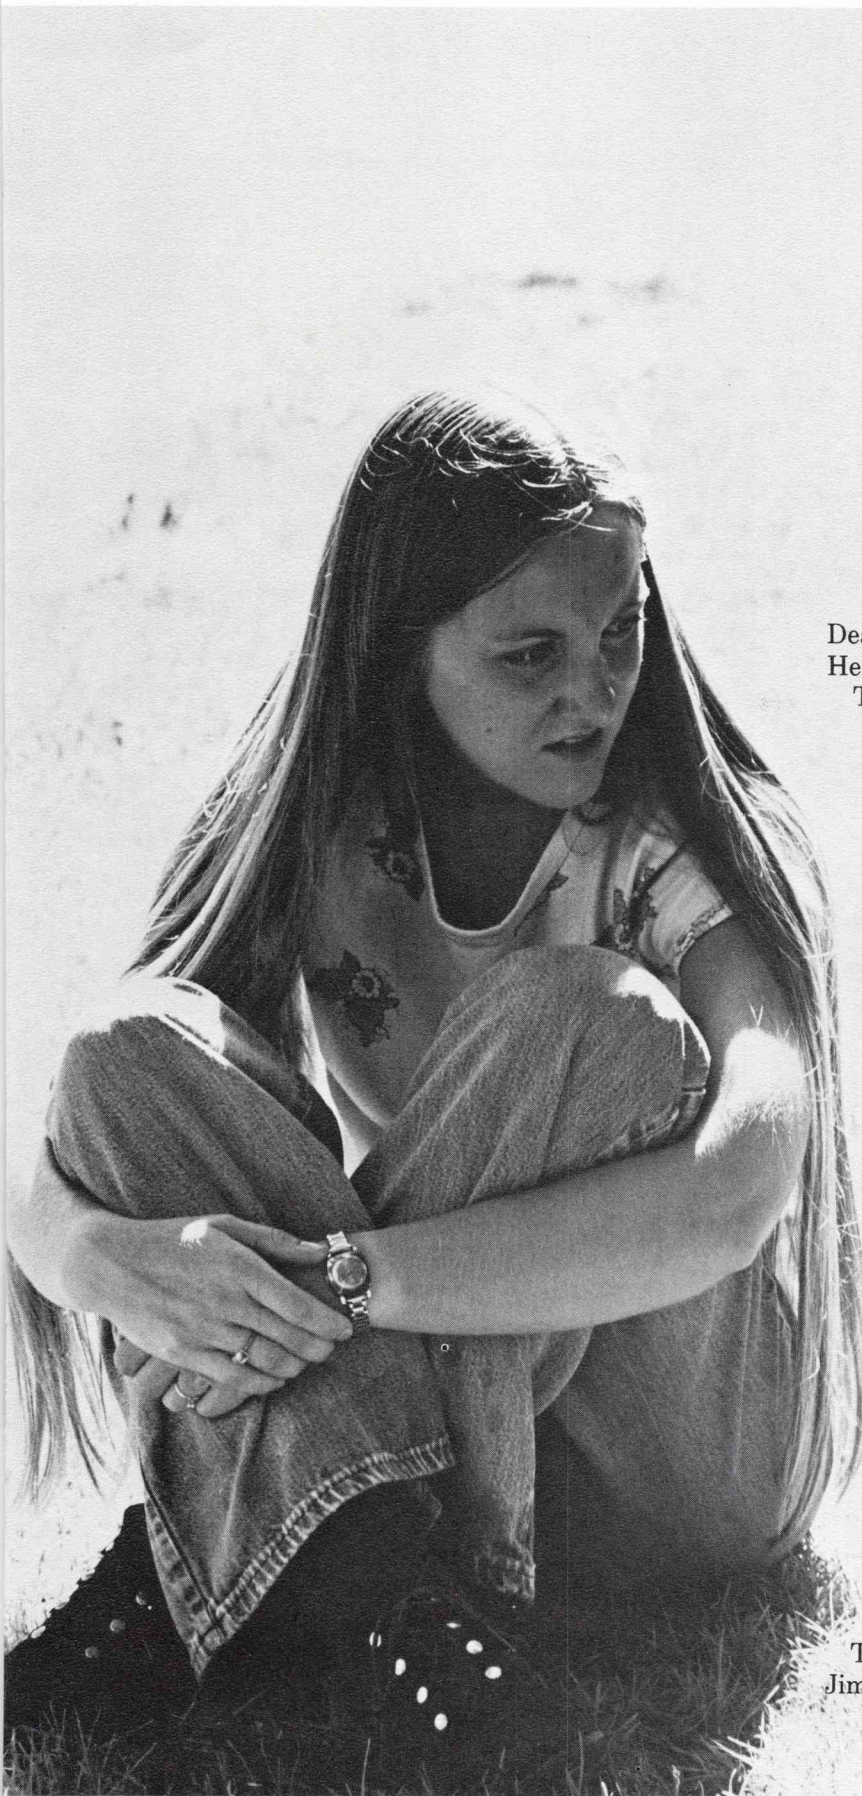

Quand pour vous Dieu
Je chante avec la joie de mon coeur
Je sais que je suis ton garçon.

Et quand les mauvaises choses
Sont sur ma vie complètement
Je regarde le Seigneur qui m'aide éternellement.

Clayton Barnes

Dear Lord,
Help me to walk this way of life,
To leave an impression
Like footprints in stone
In the Lives of the people
I touch
Each day I live.

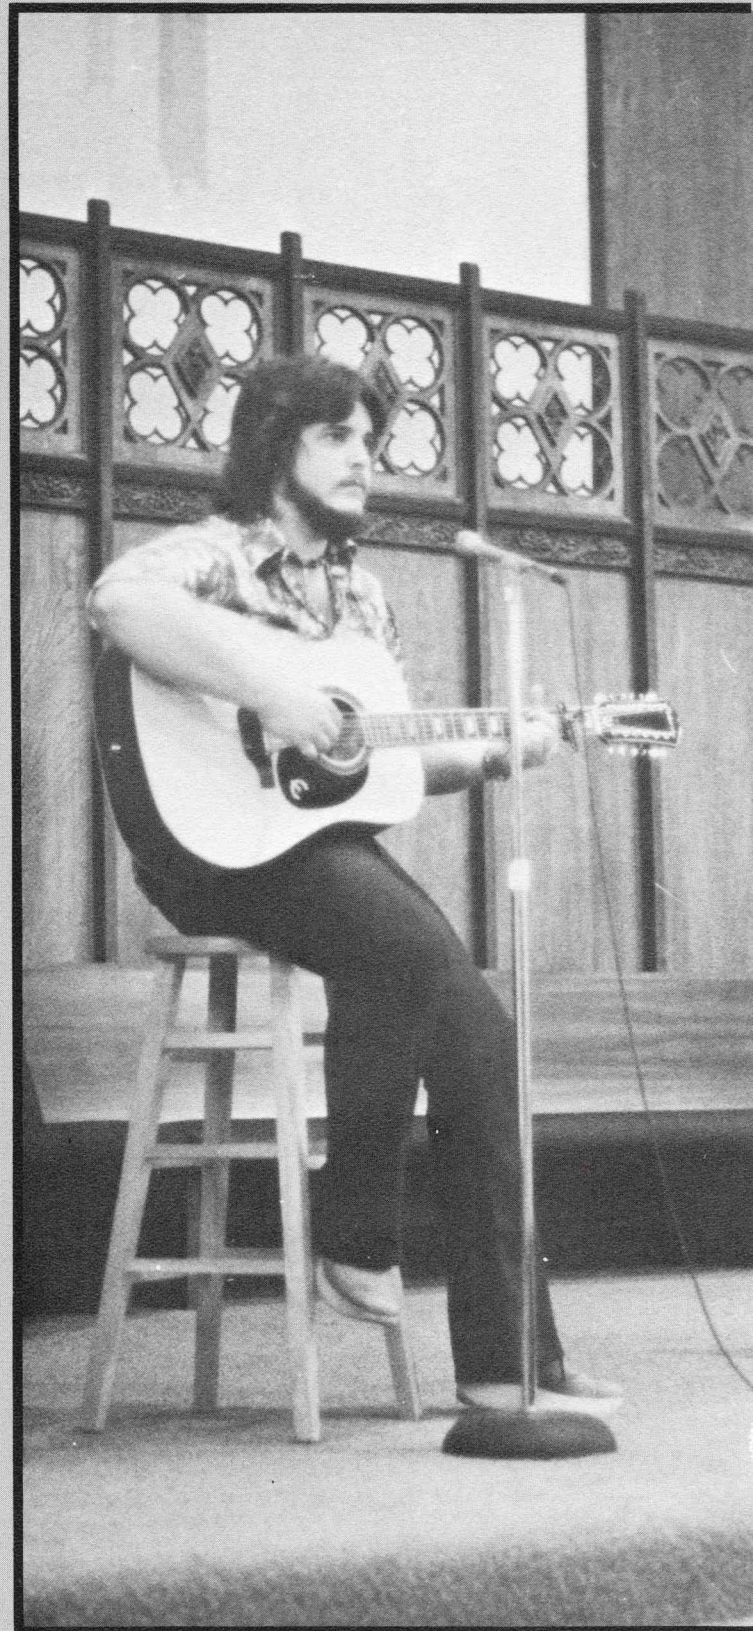

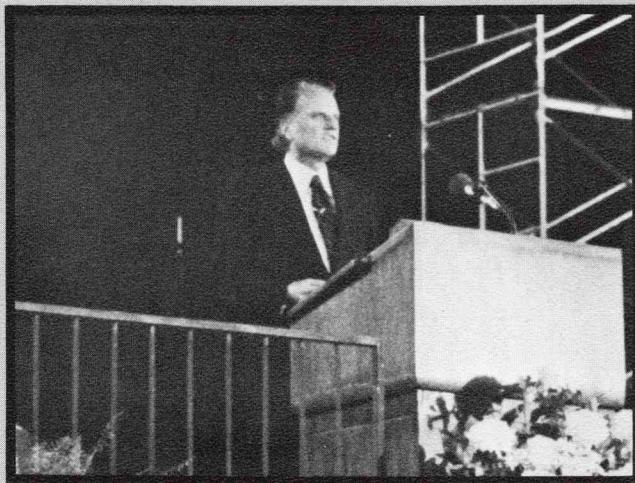

For it is
My desire to make my life Patterned after You.

May I Remember how
You
Left a Permanent mark in the lives of people
As you walked thru
Their hearts.

Amen
Larry Dunlap

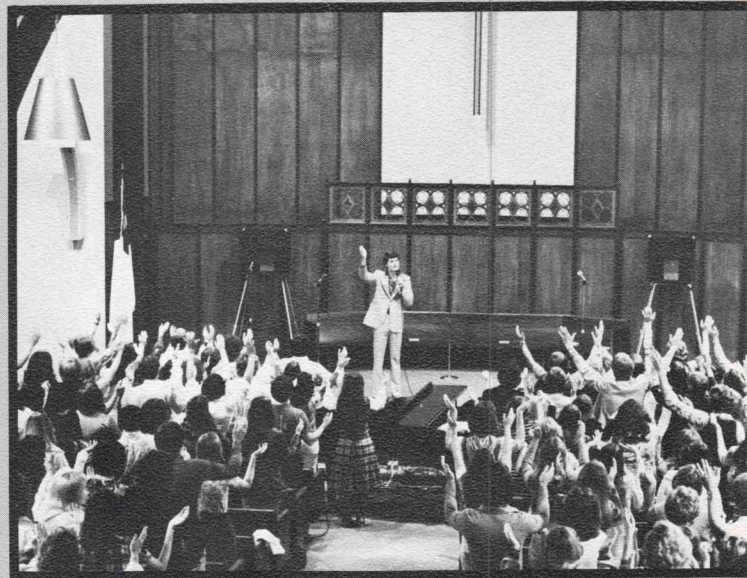

If we could only see the people we see.
We see their faces, but why don't we look deeper?
Could it be we're afraid of what we'll find?
God, help me to see my neighbor
as You see him.
Then move me to help him.
Jim Pecota

Spiritual Life

You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God; that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

J. Edwin Orr: Intellectual and Revivalist

Reverend J. Edwin Orr ministered to us during the spring spiritual emphasis week. He challenged us with his insights into campus revival. But he reminded us that revival must start in our own hearts. It was a great awakening for all of us.

Bill Popejoy - we called him Dad

He came into our chapel as a stranger. But by sharing with us, challenging us, inspiring us, he entered our hearts as a dear and lasting friend.

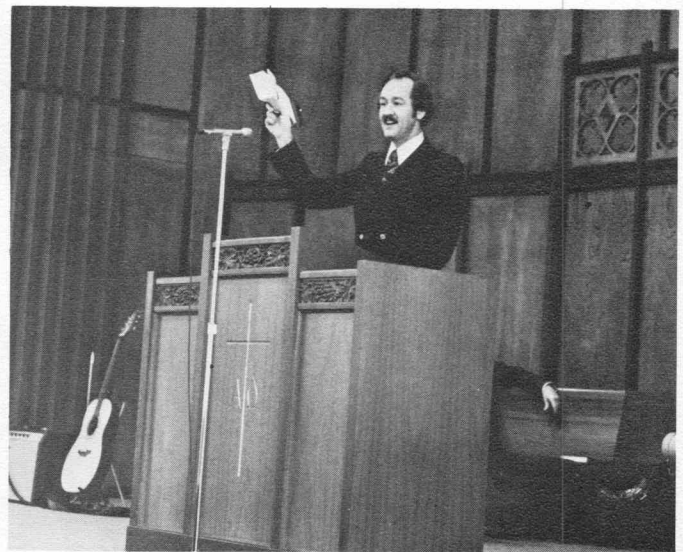

Rev. Bill Popejoy taught us so much in one short week. He taught us how to be overcomers in all situations by being one himself. He taught us about love as he shared his love for his family and friends, including us in that love.

We will lovingly remember Rev. Popejoy. Our thoughts and prayers will be with him always as he continues to go about the Father's business.

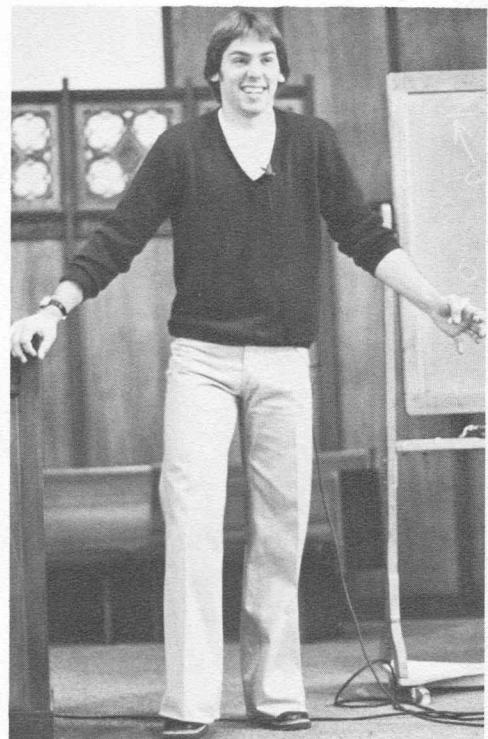

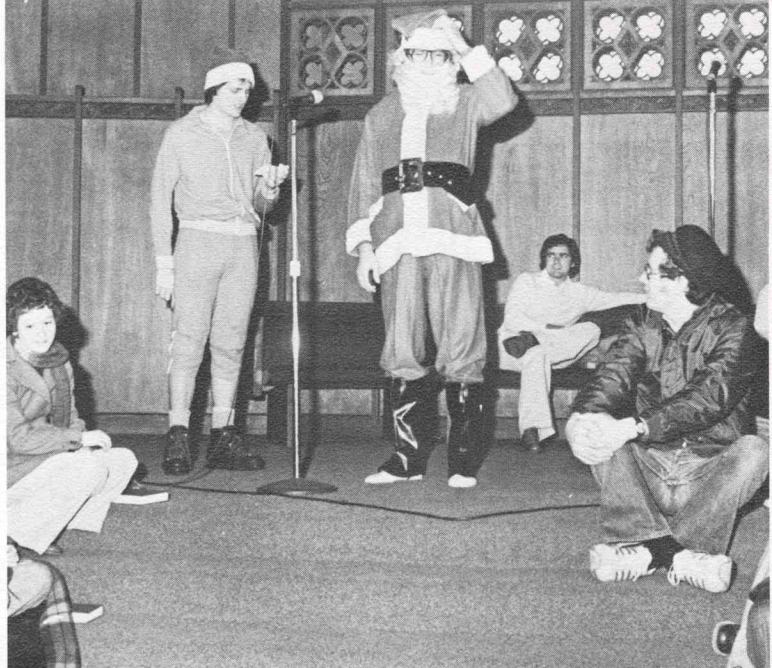

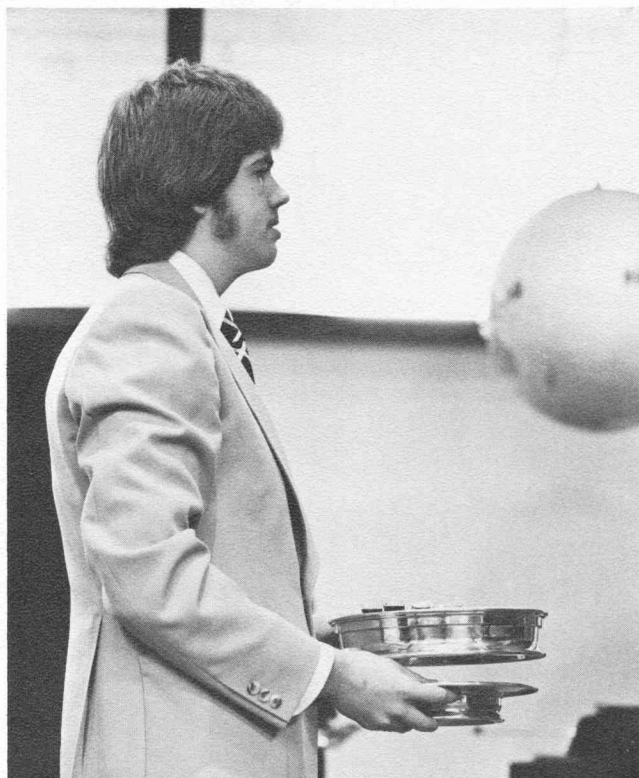

*Bob Hoskins:

Bob Hoskins, missionary from Lebanon, shared with us his vision for missions throughout the Winter Spiritual Emphasis Week. However, rather than dwelling on an individual calling, Rev. Hoskins stressed the importance of fulfilling our position in the Body of Christ where we are, whether it be on a foreign field or here at home. He also talked to us about the power of God, encouraging us with the fact that no doors are closed to the Spirit of God.

Campus Day

They Came, They Saw, They Conquered.

Hordes of inquiring minds and searching hearts came to us on Campus Day 1976. They saw the academic, social, and spiritual life on our campus.

They conquered with their bright smiles and friendliness. And then they were gone. We will never be the same again! No!! No!!

A Tribute: The D.V. Hurst Library

The dream which came true was given a name—the D.V. Hurst Library. Board members, faculty, students, and parents unanimously agreed that the honor was bestowed well.

“The entrance of Thy words giveth light.”

Graduation

We're rough, tough, and hard to bluff
'cuz God gives us
the stuff.

This was the motto of the graduating class of 1976.

Those of us left here at N.C.
Miss their unique personality.
The "I made it!" cheers
And the goodbye tears,
Still echo through the vicinity.

Celebrate, Celebrate...

“Share in Celebration,” this was the theme of the All-School Banquet. That’ll be the day when we hold a banquet on April 24th, at the Bellevue Holiday Inn. And that’ll be the day when we have Paul Petersen for master of ceremonies. And that’ll be the day when we have one great time together. which we did!!

Sharing the Secrets of Fall Fashion

“Sharing Secrets” was the theme of the AWS fall fashion show. Many participated in modeling the latest fall styles, and a skit shared the “secret” of real beauty with all who were in attendance. Brides, grooms, and maids of honor highlighted the evening in their wedding attire.

Kartoon Karnival

Where could you find Mickey Mouse, Big Bird, Charlie Brown, and a wide variety of other assorted cartoon characters? Where else but the "Kartoon Karnival." The '76 Harvest Time Social, sponsored by the Sophomore class, provided a great time of fun and relaxation as students and faculty members entered that wonderful world of animated fantasy.

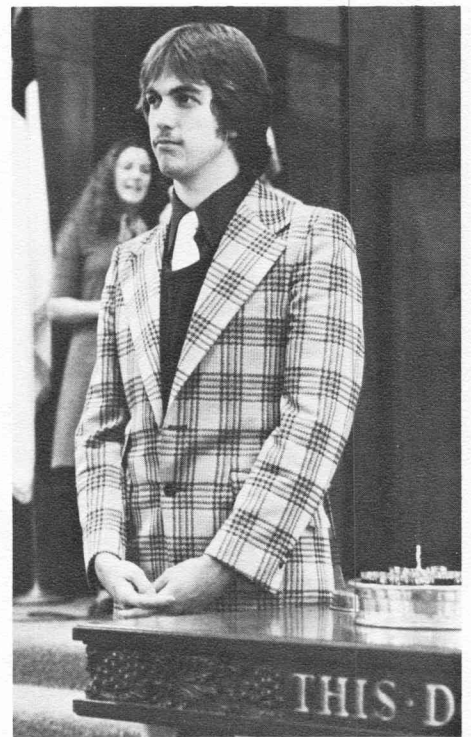

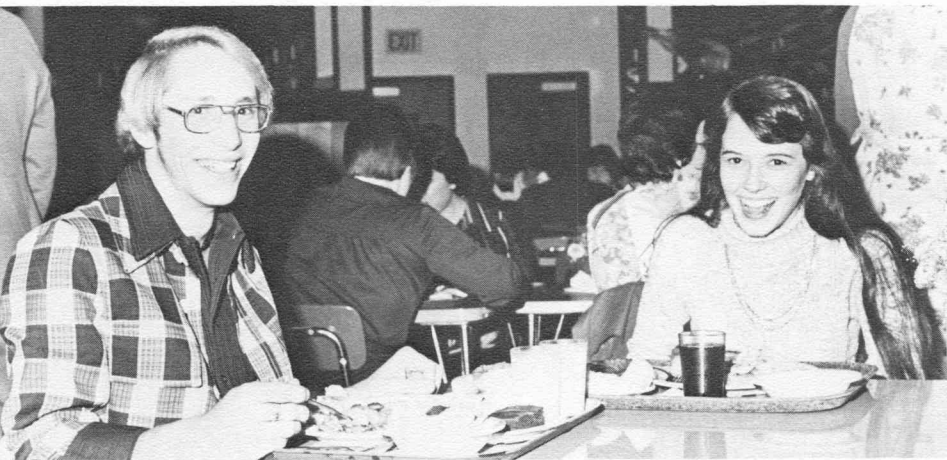

"Living Water"—Greg Hickman, "Hickie," Duane Kirkwood, "Bobo," and Craig Tanksley, "D.D.,"—added a spiritual note to the evening as they shared with us in a skit and music.

A Time of Thanksgiving and Praise

The 1977 Freshmen class altered the traditional Thanksgiving Banquet. The Thanksgiving dinner was served cafeteria style. The meal was followed by a Thanksgiving service held in the Chapel. Historical skits were presented dealing with the pilgrims and the first Thanksgiving. All who attended shared their Thanksgiving to Christ by partaking in a Communion service.

Whale Blubber—Food for Thought?

GO SO THEY MAY KNOW
GIVE SO THEY MAY LIVE!

“Go so they may know. Give so they may live!” was the theme of the annual W.O.M. Food Fair. Under the direction of Bruce Morris, the evening included an international meal, with whale blubber for the surprise dessert, a “dramatic” presentation of the W.O.M. budget, and a short message by William Farrand on Hannah and faith promises. The Food Fair came to an abrupt halt when Bruce Morris was carried away by a tall, dark, foreign woman.

Box Social

The annual box social, sponsored by A.W.S., is a fund raising project for missions. This year approximately three hundred dollars was raised for Mildred Tangon, missionary to China. Rev. Paul Landy, from Shoreline Community Church, led in the bidding.

Homecoming 1977:

Royalty, Parents, and Basketball

Homecoming '77 was bigger and better than ever before. Students and Faculty alike actively and enthusiastically participated in the festivities which began with a dress day. The Senior class reverted to the fifties, while the Junior class dressed in blue jeans and wild socks. Sophomores were semi-formal. The Freshmen mixed and matched, with the emphasis on mixing.

A new tradition began as students welcomed visiting parents for the week-end. Of course, no homecoming could be complete without royalty, and for most of us the high point of the week-end was the coronation of Queen Debbie Holland during half-time of the basketball game.

Public Relations Teams

This year five Summer Public Relations teams were selected through an auditions program provided by the Public Relations Department of the College. Traveling throughout the northwestern United States for ten weeks, they will minister in Camp Meetings, Teen Camps, and local churches. They will have the privilege of personally contacting hundreds of potential N.C. students.

The 1977 Choralons' program, divided into two sections, began with a presentation highlighting Christ's most striking and exciting name, "King of Kings." The second part of the program, "The Singer," took the form of a dramatic allegory in which the chief character, Duane Kirkwood, travels around the world singing a special song to those who will listen. Of course, the singer is Christ, and the song is the message of salvation. This song is accepted by some, for example His mother, a crippled girl, and a prostitute; but rejected by others including the religious leaders of the day who actually have Him put to death. In spite of this tragedy, the song continues to be sung because the Lord Jesus rose from the grave and lives today as the great Saviour of all men.

*Following Jesus—
“For the Rest of My Life!”*

The Maranatha Sounds spent many hours working and on the road THAT THE WORLD MAY KNOW of Jesus and His love. They ministered to the hearts of many with their message of FOLLOWING JESUS. Their invitation to LET THIS BE THE DAY was accepted by many FACES IN A CROWD. In all, it was an exciting year for the Maranatha Sounds.

President D.V. Hurst

There are many men who are outstanding in a single area, who are influential because of their shining example. But it is a rare man indeed whose entire life is illuminated by the love and Spirit of God.

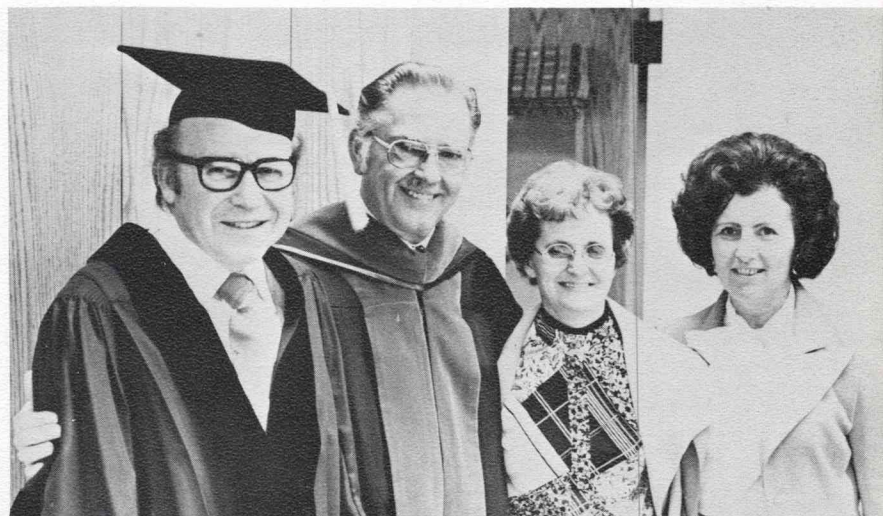

You, President Hurst, are such a man.

Serving us for nearly eleven years, you have faithfully and consistently poured your time, your energy, your self into Northwest College. It is this kind of dedication that makes a school great.

We love and appreciate you, D.V., because in all situations the light of your life points us to the light of the Father, who dispels all darkness.

EPHESIANS 4:1

Our church's 1977 theme scripture says it all. We use it as both inspiration and challenge to wish each of you in this graduating class a rich and fulfilled life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

GENERAL COUNCIL * ASSEMBLIES of GOD

The end of the school year is finally here
And for some of us, we leave Northwest with a tear.
Coming to college has been a time of making new friends and having fun.
But most important—we've learned more about God's Son.

Summer brings three long months of rest,
September to May brings a lot of tests.
To Northwest, some will return,
But for others, our path takes a new turn!

The AMS-AWS "execs" want to wish the class of 1977 the best of God's blessing on their lives as they go out into the world to minister for His kingdom.

Proverbs 3:5,6

THIRD EDITION
Addison E. Lee
Demond P. Breland

Lord, make me worthy of my friends.

I feel so unworthy of the people you have given me to be my friends. Each one is so special and so important, and I owe so much to each one. They have helped to make my year as editor one of the best years of my life.

Some of you will never know how much the little things meant to me.

A word of encouragement like, "You can do it, Marge. I've got confidence in you," gave me back self-confidence when I felt I had none left. Thank you, Keith.

Words of advise and a voice of experience seemed like an anchor in a very stormy sea. Thank you, Carolyn.

You gave me new hope when you reassured me of your prayers. Thank, you, Bonnie.

There were times when it seemed that I had a sparring partner, but God's love would always shine through. An uplifting word was always given just when I needed it most. Thank you, Dale.

Three people who I can never even begin to express my appreciation to and for are Debbie, Paul, and Jim. We worked together, prayed together, laughed together, and sometimes we cried together. We became more than just co-workers on a book called Karisma. We grew to love each other as friends, good friends.

It was a year of challenge, growth, and excitement. The challenges, the growth, the excitement, none of them would have happened without my friends.

Again I say, Lord, make me worthy of my friends.

Marge Ely,
Editor

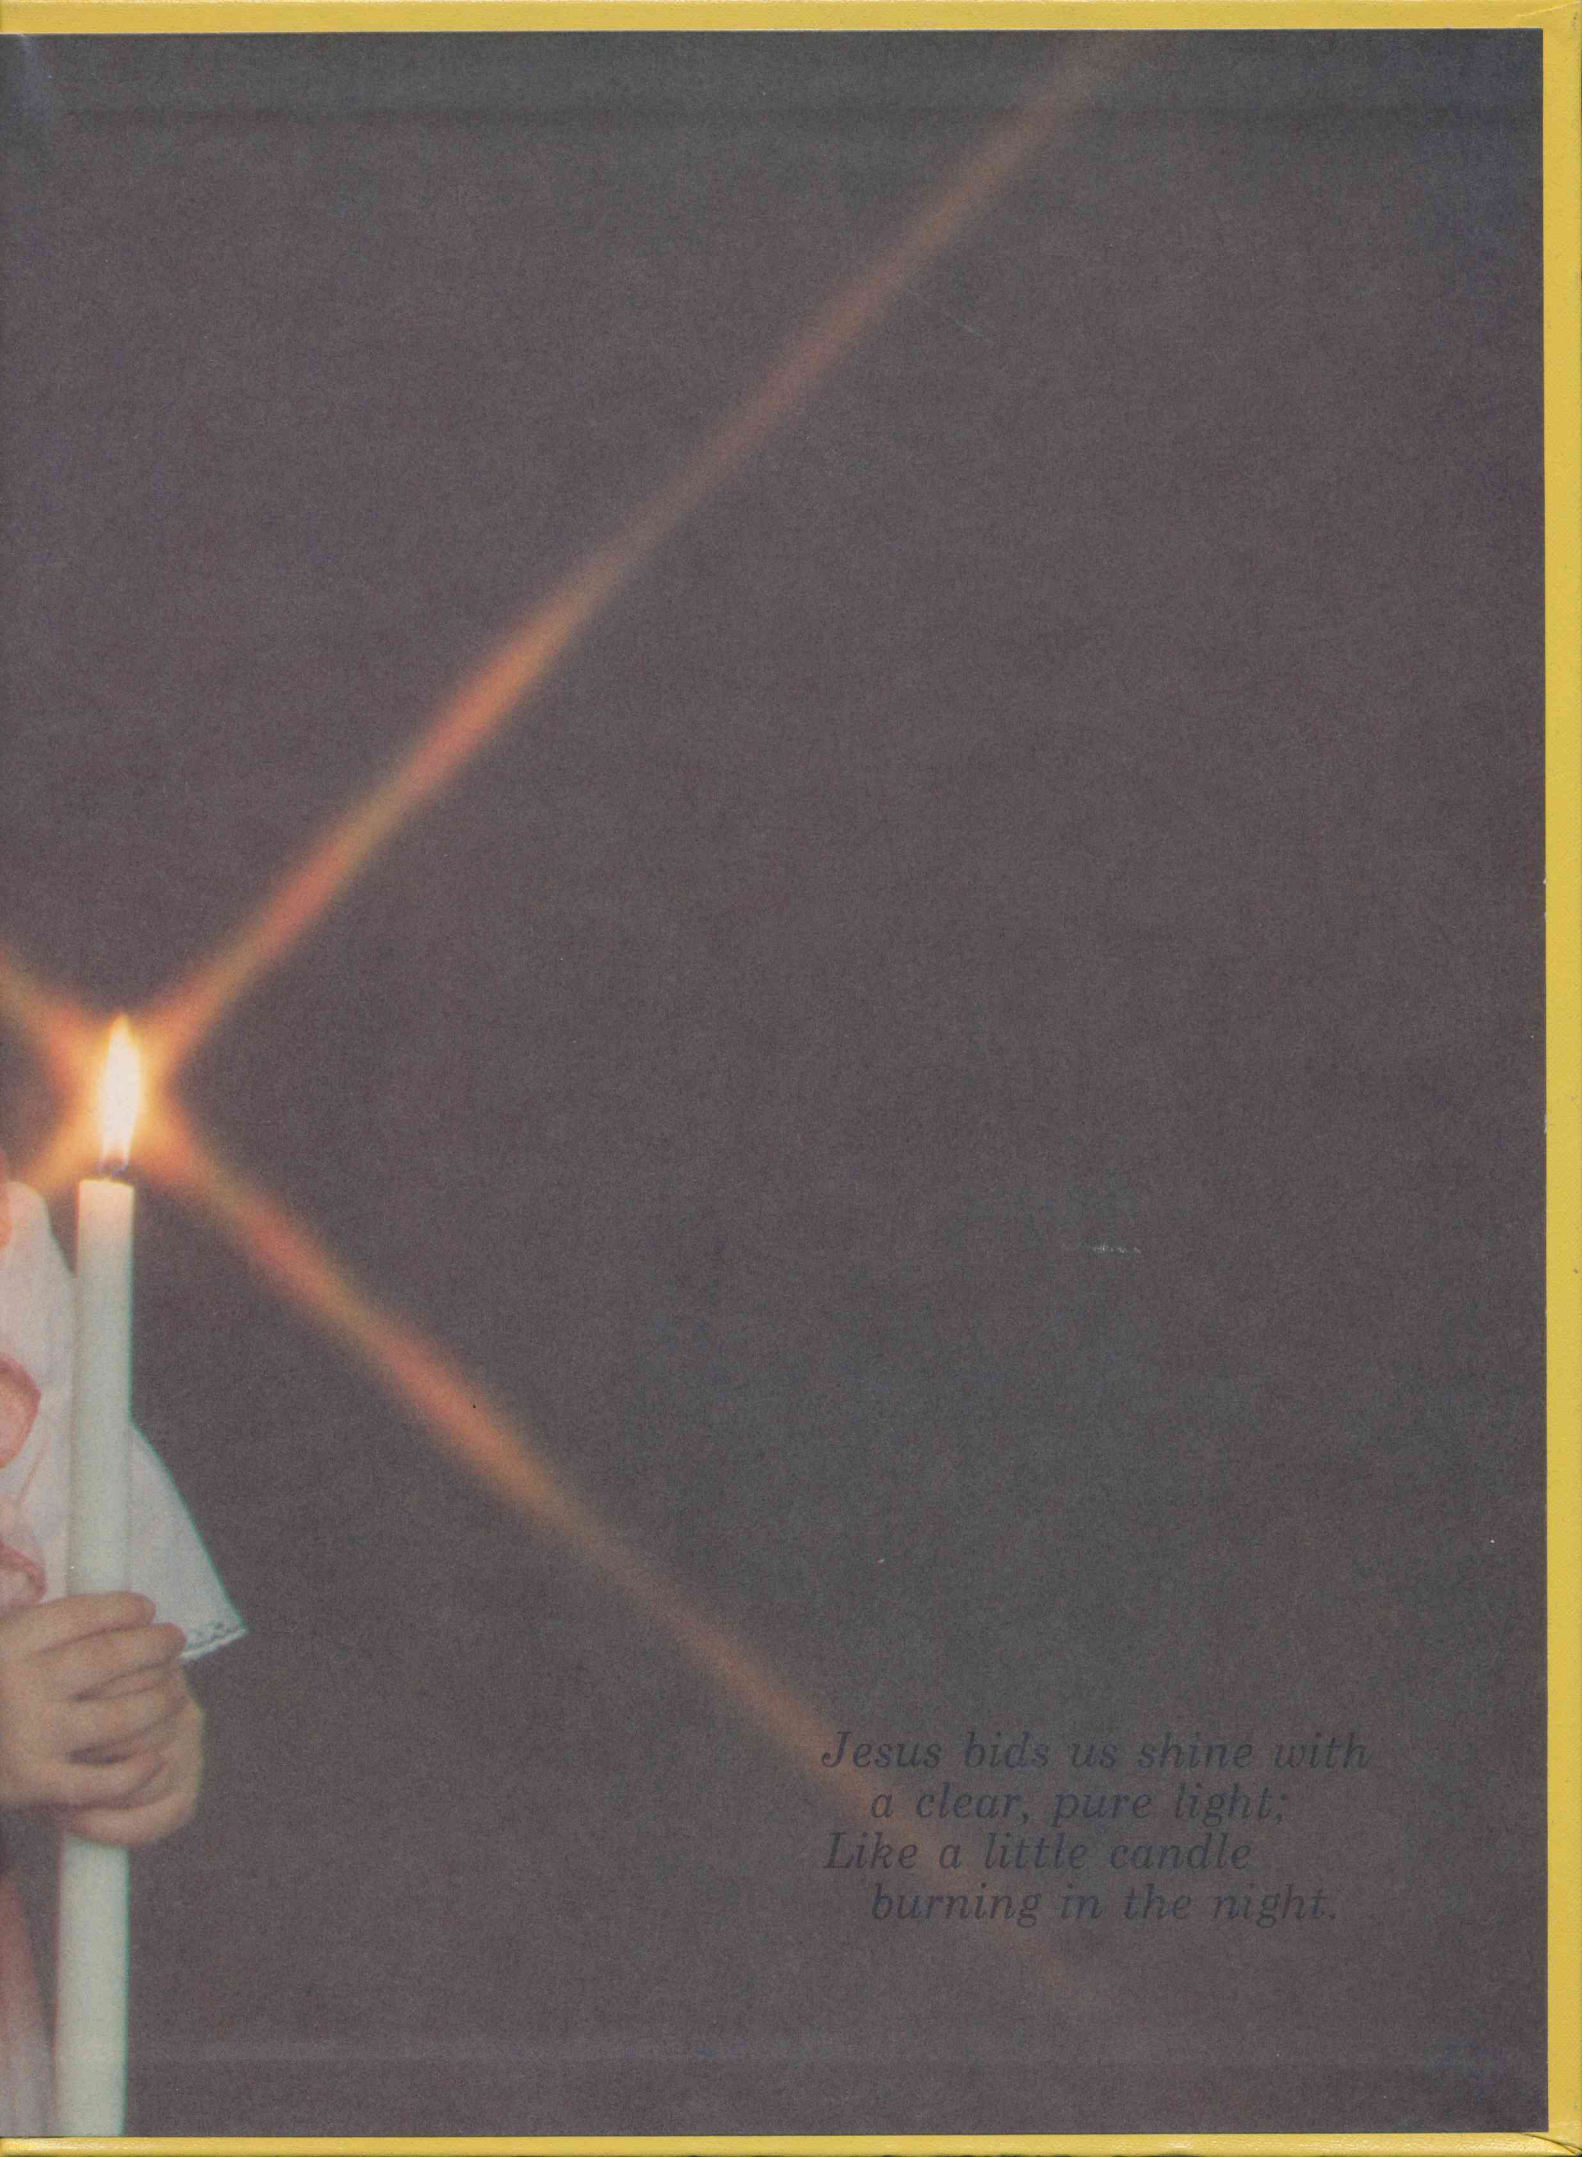

... And so there ain't nothing more to write about, and I am rotten glad of it, because if I'd knowed what a trouble it was to make a book I wouldn't atackled it, and ain't agoing to no more.

—Samuel Langhorne Clemens
