BIOGRAPHY

It is difficult writing your biography, attempting to sum up where you came from and where you have been and who you really are. These 4 years at Northwest College have definitely been a very important part of the person I am becoming, but there were other beginnings and many growing experiences along the way too. I could easily just list dates and times, places of birth, and places lived... that would tell something of who I am; but rather, I wish to praise God for the following blessings He placed in my life...

My Mom, who sang to me, with me and prays continually for me. Mom, you know will have always been and will always be my best friend, confidant, supporter; I love you so much. When I cry you are there to comfort me and when I celebrate you always celebrate with and for me.

And Dad, we are so much alike it scares me (and him sometimes, I'm sure!) You are always there, holding down the fort, strong and steady – believing in me. I love you Daddy.

And my Friends, way too numerous to mention by name, you know who you are, and I pray all know how much you have meant and continue to mean to me. When I have been difficult, crazy, scared, and joyous you have been there with me and for me. God has always known what I needed and brought you all to me. Most of you have helped me with this performance. Without you I would have been lost, you made it wonderful! I love you, and will always be grateful for the privilege of knowing you. I only hope I can be half the friend and support to you, you all have been for me.
