Katie McLoughlin, Mezzo Amarilli, Mia Bella Giulio Caccini (1546-1618)

*Amarilli, my beauty, Believest thee not, oh my heart's sweet desire tis thou, my beloved?
Believe, tis true: yet should a dread besiege thee doubt not, tis vain.
Open my chest, and there inscribed you'll see Amarilli is my beloved.*

Dani Dick, Soprano Per la Gloria d'adorarvi Giovanni Bononcini (1670-1747)

*For the sheer delight of loving, O my dear one, I adore you
Though love bring pain to me, free of love I ne'er will be.
Yes, yes, I kneel before you. Love and pain, tho' in vain, I adore you.
Gone all hope of bliss or pleasure, vain hope forever to implore you.*

Faithful and dauntless, faithful and dauntless is my love in turn.
Savage and heartless is your cruel scorn, faithful and dauntless is my love in turn.
Your slave forever, each wish I'd serve, forswearing never, forswearing never.
Give me your love, forswearing never, give me your love.
Savage and heartless is your cruel scorn, faithful and dauntless,
Faithful and dauntless is my love in turn.*

My, how long I've walked with your name in my soul, with your name on these lips!
