Narration

*In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God.
All things were made by Him; and without Him was not any thing made that was made. In Him was life; and the life was the light of men.
And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.
He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father), full of grace and truth.*

Narration

*The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light:
they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder:
and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, the Mighty God,
the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.*

Narration

*We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary, and was made man, and crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
He suffered and was buried, and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of the Father; And He shall come again with glory to judge both quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end.*

"O Nata Lux"

Morten Lauridsen

Translation: O born light of light, Jesus, Redeemer of the world, Mercifully deem worthy and accept praise and prayers of your supplicants.
Thou who once deigned to be clothed in flesh, for the sake of the lost ones.
Grant us to be made members of your holy body.

"Long, Long Ago"

Narration

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant!
Come ye to Bethlehem. Come and behold Him, born the king of angels.
O come, let us adore Him.

Narration

It is proper and right that we should laud you, bless you, praise you give thanks to you, and adore you in all places of your dominion: for you are God ineffable, incomprehensible, inconceivable; you are from everlasting and are changeless, you, and your only-begotten Son, and your Holy Spirit.

You have called us into being from nothingness; and when we had fallen away from you, you raised us up again; and you did not cease to do all things until you brought us back to heaven, and endowed us with your kingdom which is to come. For all these things we give thanks to you, and your only-begotten Son, and your Holy Spirit; for all the things we know about and the things about which we do not know; for all benefits bestowed upon us, both manifest and unseen.

Northwest University Christmas Concert

Narration Continued

And we give thanks to you for this ministry which you deign to accept at our hands, although there stand before you thousands of archangels and myriads of angels, with the cherubim, and seraphim, six-winged, many-eyed, who soar aloft, borne on their wings, singing the triumphant song, crying aloud, and saying:

"Holy, holy, holy, Lord of Sabaoth; heaven and earth are full of your glory."

Please join us following the concert for an Art Show and Reception next door in the Dickey Plaza/Rice Hall. Refreshments will be served on Friday, December 2 at 9:00 P.M. and on Saturday, Dec 3 at 5:00 P.M.

Scholarship auditions for all vocalists and instrumentalists are on Saturday, January 28 and Saturday, February 18, 2006, from 9:00 A.M. until 4:00 P.M. Students must call or email to receive an audition time and requirements. Please contact Kara, the music department secretary at kara.meissner@northwestu.edu or 425-889-5255.

The Northwest University Music Department has over 65 music majors and 21 music minors. There are four full time professors, three part time professors, ten adjuncts, one media director and one secretary. Students can major in Music, Music Education, Music Ministry, or Contemporary Music Industry. The department also offers private lessons to all students. This year 125 students are taking lessons. Most types of lessons are available.

There are six music ensembles in the music department. New this year is the select chamber choir lead by Bill Owen. Mr. Owen also directs the concert choir which is open to all students. They will be at Doxa Church in Seattle on December 11, at UPC in Seattle on March 26 and at Bellevue Christian Reformed Church on April 30. Brenda Rasmussen directs the Northwest Choralons, the largest choir on campus. This year they will be at Westminster, Sound Life, Yelm Assembly of God, Calvary Christian, New Life at Renton, Eastside Foursquare, Marysville Assembly of God, Mountainview Christian, Fellowship, Eastridge Assembly of God and the Oregon District Council. Ken Prettyman directs the wind ensemble, jazz band, and vocal jazz ensembles. Auditions for the ensembles happen the first week of classes. Wind Ensemble and jazz band do not require auditions. We also offer a string class for those play violin, viola, cello or bass and opportunities to perform at concerts.

Northwest College became Northwest University as of January 1, 2005. The university is accredited by the Northwest Commission of Colleges and Universities and is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities.

Thank you for coming and have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
