This fall concert is the second concert performed this year. The fall instrumental recital is Tuesday, November 25 at 7 PM in the chapel. The vocal recital is Tuesday, December 2 at 7 PM in M-1. The Christmas concert is on Saturday, December 6 at 7 PM in the chapel.

The Northwest Music Department, a Division of Humanities, offers four degree programs (B.A. or B.F.A.)-music, music education, music industry, and music ministry. Students may also minor in music. The department has four full-time professors, eight adjunct professors, and fifty-eight music majors. The music education program is certified through the State of Washington.

Performance groups include the Concert Choir, Jazz Band, Northwest Choralons, Vocal Jazz, and Wind Ensemble. Auditions are held the first week of the semester and membership in the groups is open to all students, regardless of major. All groups perform in at least one major concert per semester and perform in other venues throughout the year.

Auditions for music scholarships are held during the Northwest Fridays. Please contact Kara Meissner, Music Secretary, if interested in setting up an appointment at 425-889-5255 or kara.meissner@ncag.edu.

The mission of Northwest College is to provide, in a distinctly evangelical Christian environment, a quality education that will prepare students for service and leadership. This college experience should: develop the whole person though general studies integrated with biblical knowledge; develop professional and vocational skills in the student's preparation for service in the world; and help to fulfill the Great Commission and to propagate the historical faith of the sponsoring church.

Since 1934, Northwest College has successfully prepared students for service and leadership in Kirkland, Washington. Over 1,110 students choose from more than 50 academic programs including- but not limited to-ministry, business, nursing, and education. Students are offered creative challenges involving debate, drama, music, ministry, and sports. The college is accredited by the National Association of Schools and Colleges and is a member of the Council of Christian Colleges and Universities.
