Looking for a great college?

You can actually see us
from the Space Needle:
We're on the eastside of Seattle, just a few blocks from Lake Washington.

Northwest
COLLEGE

Here's (some of) what

Well-Dressed Professors

Our professors can wear special academic caps and robes, because they have worked hard to earn the top degrees. For example, Dr. Jack Wisemore, an Assistant Professor of Philosophy, has a Ph.D. from the University of St. Andrews in Scotland.

An Array of Majors

We have more than 50 academic programs, with accreditation from the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges as well as the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education. We're also a member of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.

we offer...

Activities 24/7

Campus life includes special clubs and extracurricular activities, going on almost around the clock.

Northwest College is a member of the Cascade Collegiate Conference of the NAIA, and the NCCAA.

Men's Sports include basketball, cross country, soccer, and track & field. Women's Sports include basketball, cross country, track & field, and volleyball.

I.M. Anywhere

Our 56-acre campus is beautiful to the eye. But what you can't see is just as impressive. The entire campus is wired. Actually, it's wireless, so you can I.M. anywhere.

(Even sitting outside, while you do your homework.)

A Great Place to Live...

Northwest College is located in Kirkland, on Seattle's eastside, just a few blocks from Lake Washington. From key vantage points, you can see Mt. Rainier and the Space Needle. There are bike paths, boat landings, coffee shops and ice cream shops (right), as well as numerous opportunities for part-time employment.

...and Learn to Minister

Great churches and opportunities for ministry are all around. You will grow spiritually!

We're here to help!

You probably have questions about majors, accommodations, extracurricular activities, finances, and ministry. We have the answers, or we will help you find them! Call us today!
