When Dr. Maxine Williams penned these words for the Alma Mater of Northwest College, she understood the mission. Through the years, Northwest College has grown and changed, but the mission remains the same! NORTHWEST COLLEGE IS WORKING TO SPREAD THE GLORY OF THE LORD THROUGHOUT THE EARTH. Through many different majors and educational programs, students are exalting the Lord Jesus.

Northwest College students are active in ministry, sharing their faith in churches, the community, and parachurch ministries. Graduates are currently practicing as pastors, counselors, school teachers, missionaries, physicians, business executives, and in other fields. The mission of Northwest continues.

The Target 2000 Annual Fund facilitates the mission of Northwest College. Since its beginning in 1990, Target 2000 funds have been used to provide a new grand piano, carpet, and pew Bibles for the chapel; to fund the start up of the Secondary Education program; to build a new outdoor basketball and volleyball court; to equip the Science lab; and various other projects. In addition, the fund has provided much needed scholarships for students. Your participation enables NC to meet the needs of students and faculty as they work to show the world the glory of our Lord.

This year the college is celebrating a milestone. The 100,000th volume will be added to the D.V. Hurst Library. This achievement presents a challenge. The sheer volume of holdings now makes library automation necessary. A portion of your 1996/97 Annual Fund Contribution will be designated towards this project.

For sixty-three years, Northwest College has remained true to its mission. Though much has been accomplished, the mission is not yet complete. THE WORLD STILL NEEDS TO SEE THE GLORY OF THE LORD. Won't you join us?

"SEE YOUR GLORY"

our glory be over all the earth. Psalms 57:11
