“THIS TIME”

by David Meece

*The past is behind us, what has been now is gone
But right now is with us and we must carry on
And when regret closes in
I don't see what might have been
I see grace and I know whatever comes He'll make a way*

*This time
This is what counts
This is what our life is about
This time
No backward glance
Now is the time
This is our chance
To make this time, this time, this time
All that God wants it to be*

*Our sins lie behind us, all the weeds we have sown
How well they remind us what we are on our own
But we are not on our own
God never leaves us alone
All our sins are forgiven
Every day we get to choose*

*This time
This is what counts
This is what our life is about
This time
No backward glance
Now is the time
This is our chance
To make this time, this time, this time
All that God wants it to be*

*Take time to think — it is the source of power.
Take time to read —
it is the foundation of wisdom.
Take time to play —
it is the secret
of staying young.
Take time to be quiet —
to listen to your heart.*

*Take time to be aware — it is the opportunity to help others.
Take time to love and be loved — it is God's greatest gift.
Take time to laugh —
it is the music of the soul.
Take time to be friendly —
it is the road to happiness.*

*Take time to dream —
it is what the future is made of.
— Author Unknown*

*For the structure that we raise,
Time is with materials filled;
Our todays and yesterdays
Are the blocks with which we build.*

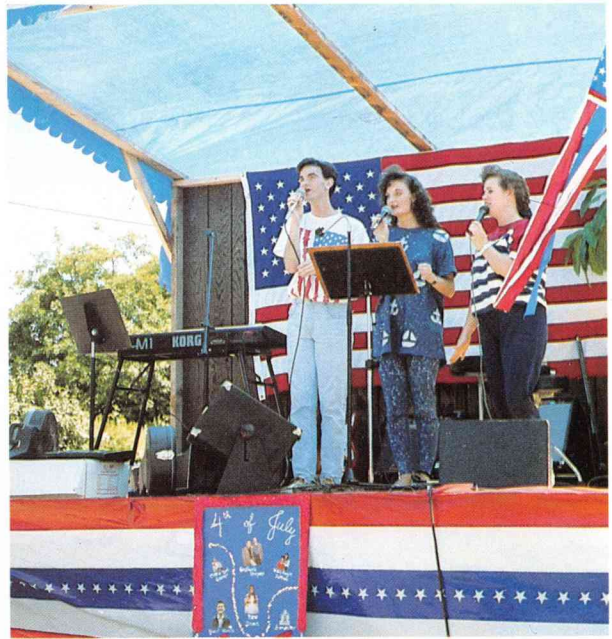

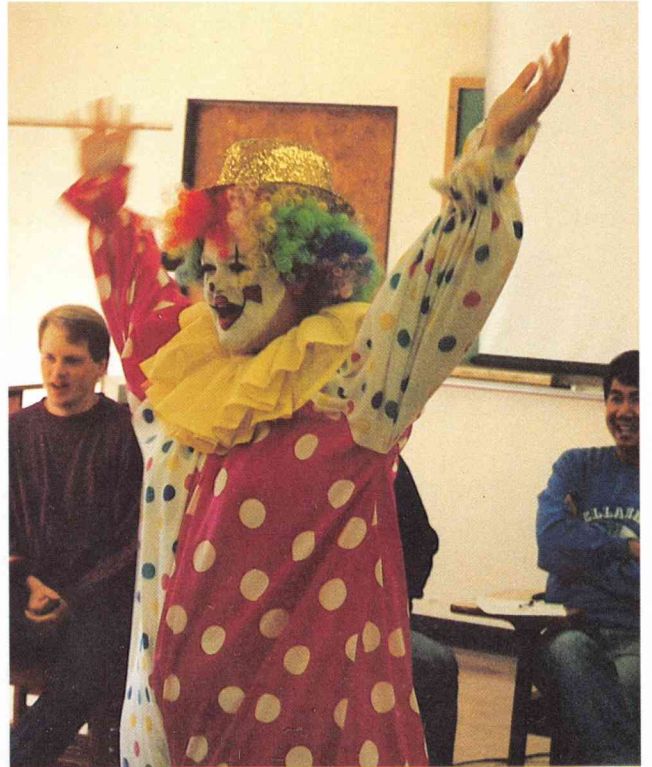

*Truly shape and fashion these;
Leave no yawning gaps between;
Think not, because no man sees,
Such things will remain unseen.*

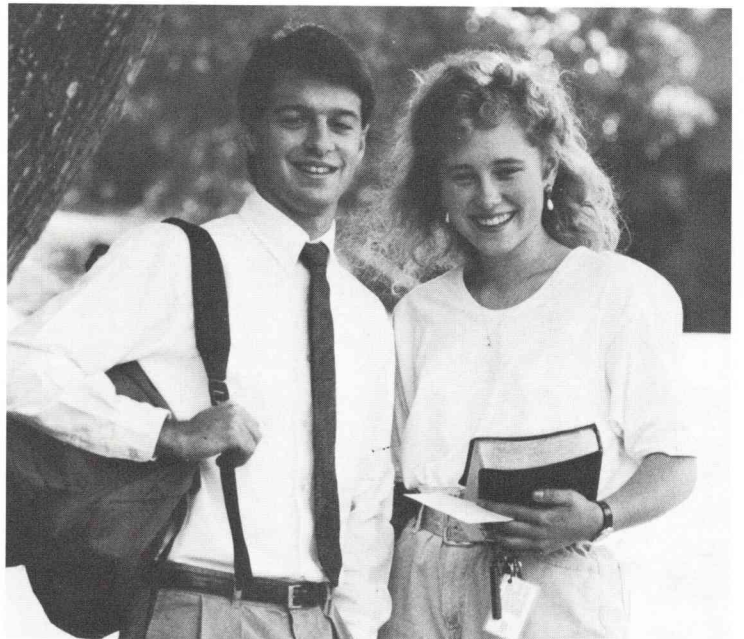

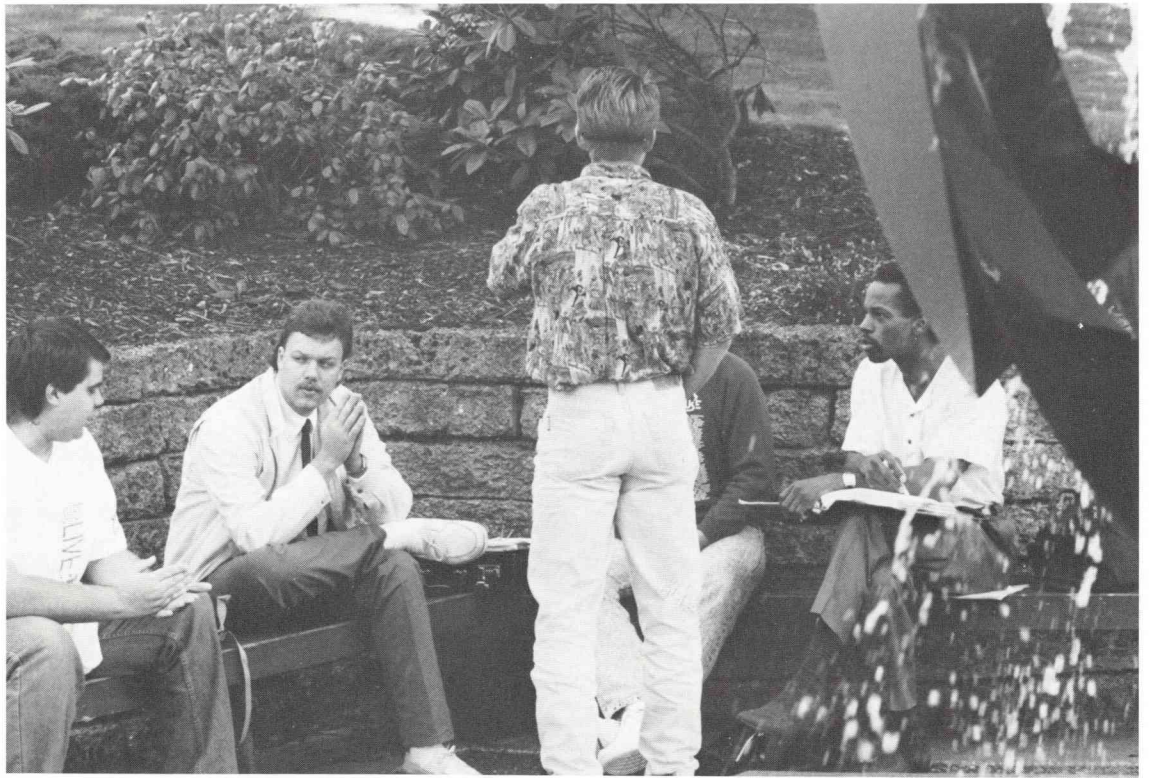

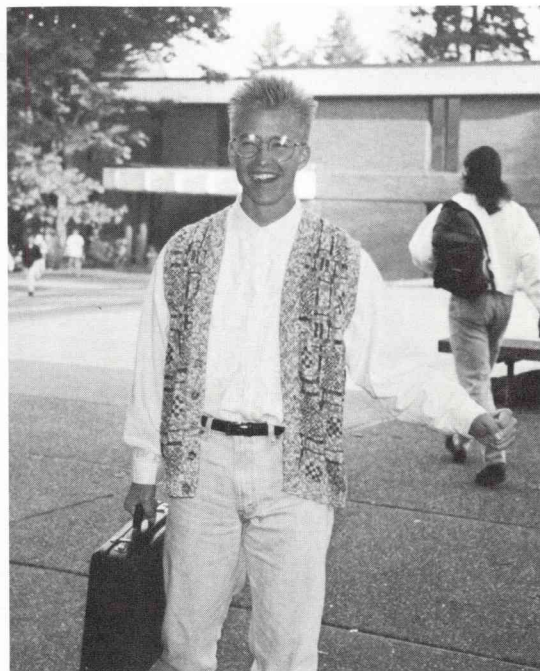

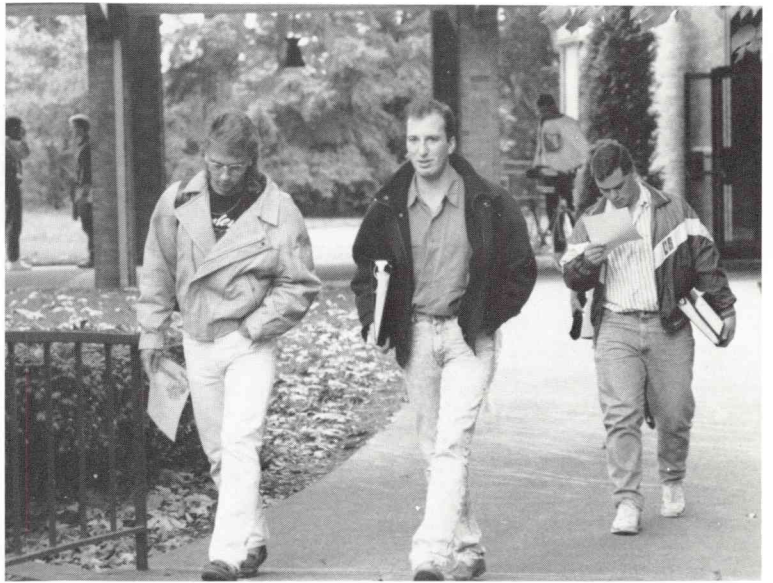

*Build today, then, strong and sure,
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure Shall tomorrow find its place.*

*from "The Builders"
by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow*

*“Sow for yourselves righteousness, reap
the fruit of unfailing love, and break up
your unplowed ground;
for it is time to seek the Lord, until he comes and showers righteousness on you.”*

Hosea 10:12 (NIV)

"There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven."

Ecclesiastes 3:1 (NIV)

Honoring Kristi Brodin

Coach Kristi Brodin came to the NC campus in the fall of 1971 to teach women's physical education. Kristi soon added volleyball and basketball to the activities for women at Northwest College. She has coached both of those sports for many years and has done so with great distinction. In both sports, her teams have gone to national tournaments and have won conference titles, district championships and regional championships. From the years 1988 to 1991 Coach Brodin's basketball teams appeared in four National Christian College Athletic Association Division II national tournaments, winning second place once and taking the national championship three times. In 1989, Coach Brodin was named the National Christian College Athletic Association Division II Coach of the Year.

There are scores of women athletes scattered all over the world who have had the privilege of playing under the tutelage of Coach Brodin. She counts her former players among her best friends, and when they return to campus, they always seek out Kristi to update her on their lives.

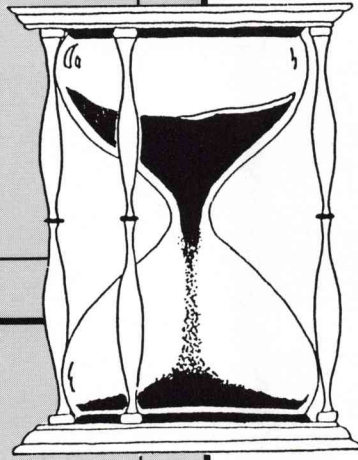

In addition to her coaching responsibilities, Kristi also teaches courses in psychology and education, and carries part of the counseling assignment on campus.

For her dedication to God and to the students at Northwest College and for adding so much excitement to life on campus, we the students of Northwest College dedicate this 1991-92 KARISMA to Professor and Coach Kristi Brodin.

“Many are the plans in a man’s heart, but it is the Lord’s purpose that prevails.”

Student Life

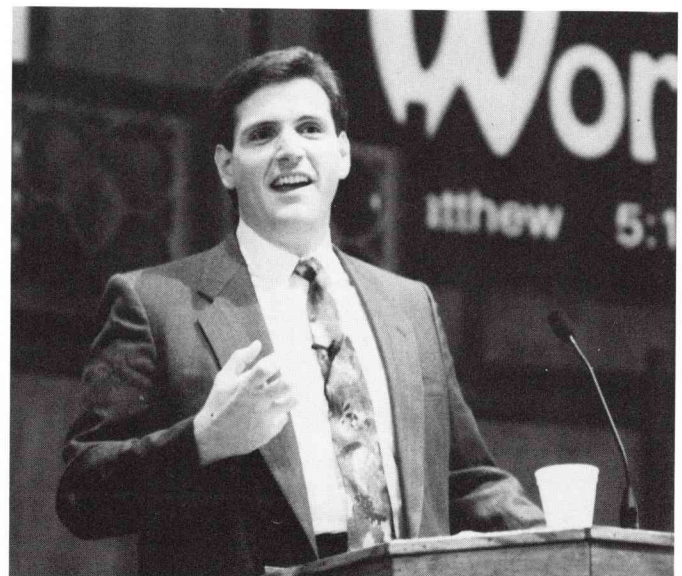

Godliness In Action

Spiritual Emphasis Week, September 10-13, was a wonderful time of growth and worship among the students and faculty of Northwest College. Rev. Tony Cervero started out the week with his testimony of God's healing touch on his life. An injury left him without the use of his legs and crushed his dreams of becoming a professional football player. When he finally surrendered to God's will, he experienced miraculous healing physically and emotionally. Some of the subjects addressed during the meetings involved listening to God's call, wholeness in Christ, and holiness. He pointed out that Godliness is not God likeness but the action of God working in us. His messages had practical application and were illustrated with situations from his own life. Many lives have been touched by his ministry and dedication to God's service.

Spiritual Emphasis Week

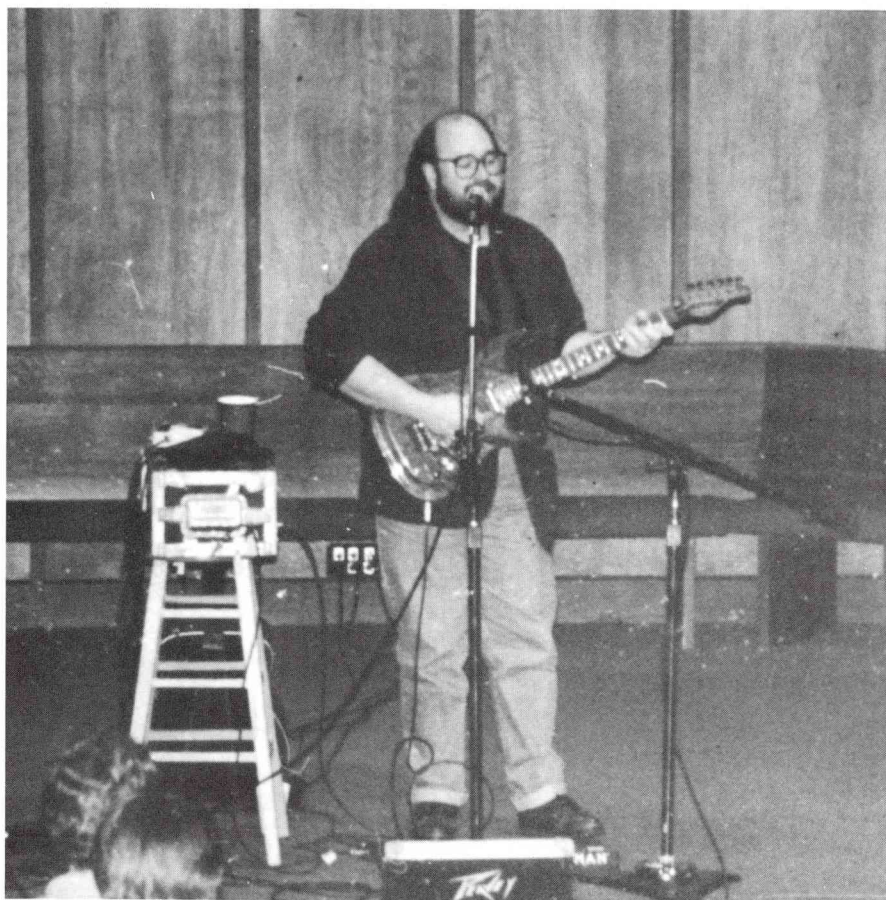

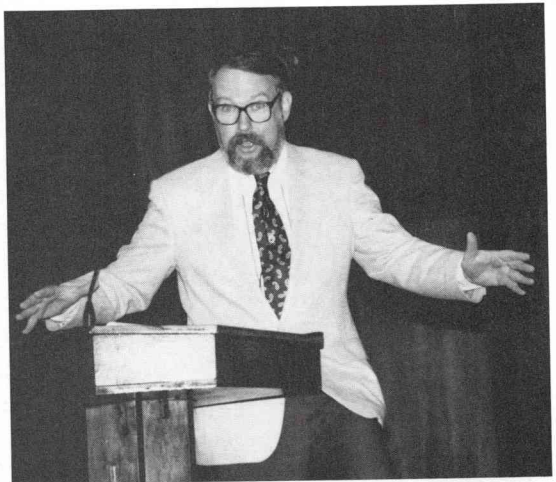

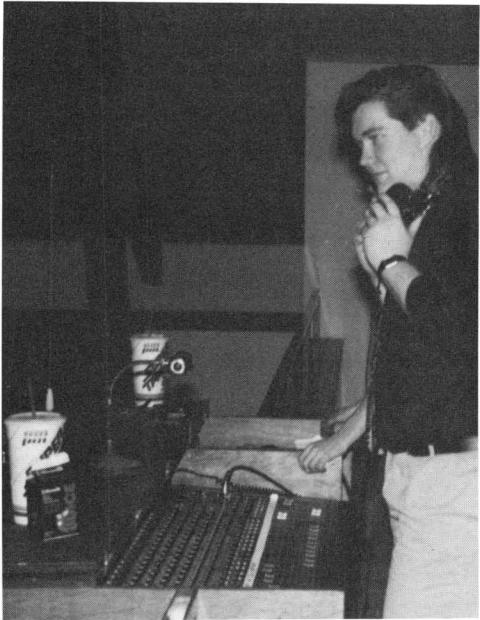

Spiritual Life

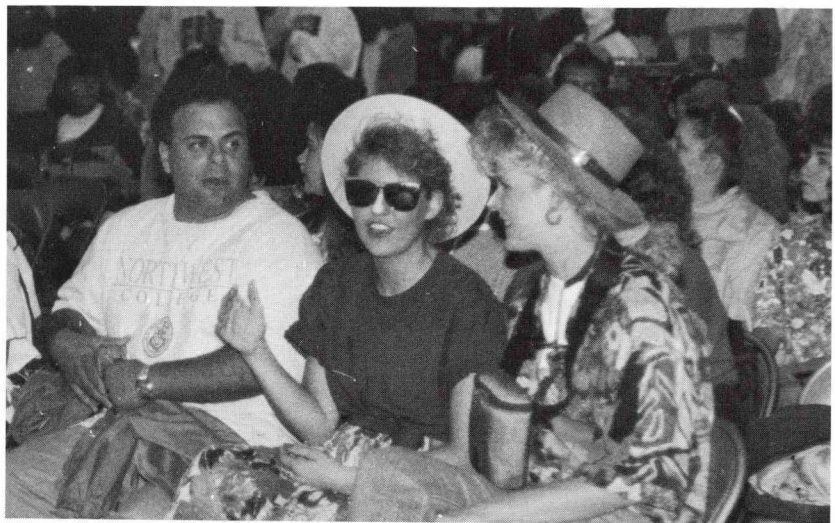

“Keep It Alive!”

At times, one forgets about the great importance of his or her spiritual life. When attending a Christian college and even living on campus, the monotony of one's life may dim his or her vision. However, the Lord has a beautiful way of speaking to each person's heart in His own way. During the first few weeks of school, there was a great moving of the Holy Spirit. Many alumni said they never remembered experiencing such a powerful time of prayer and worship during their days at NC. God has definitely begun a good work in everyone's life. Keep it alive!

Harvest Social

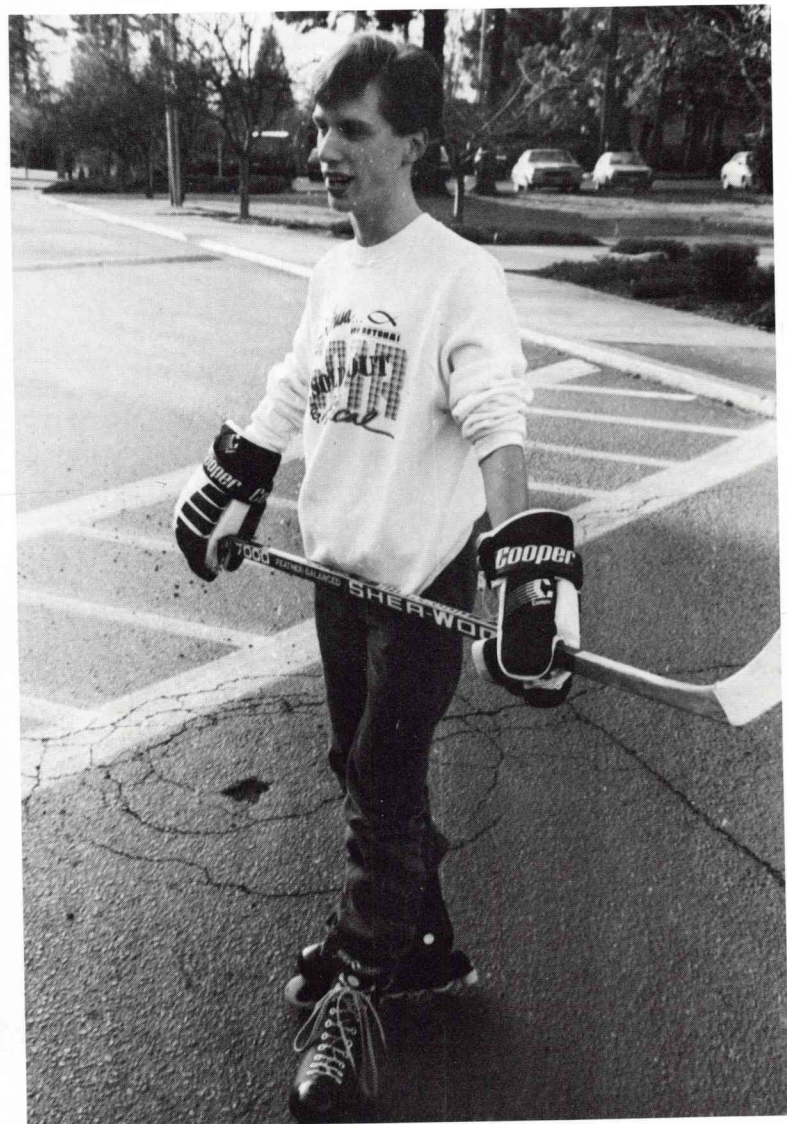

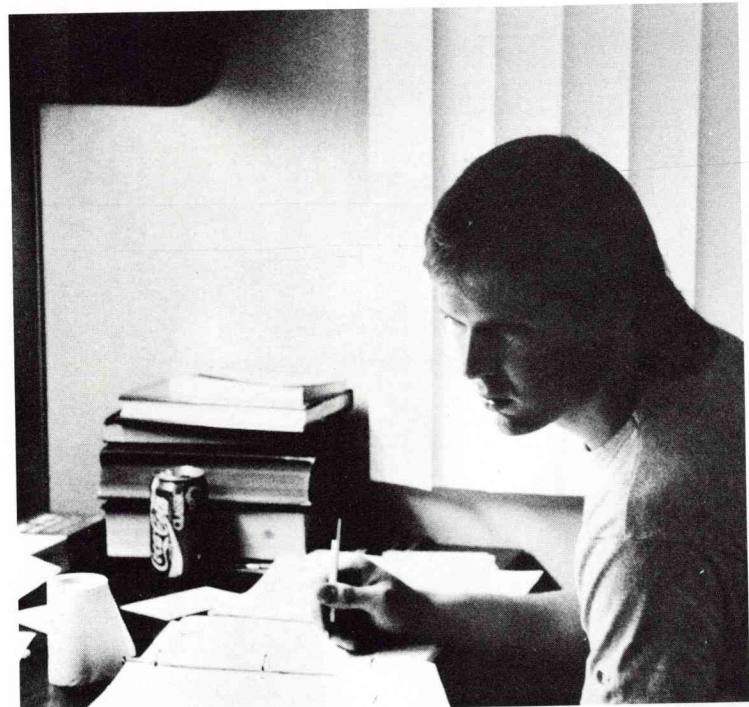

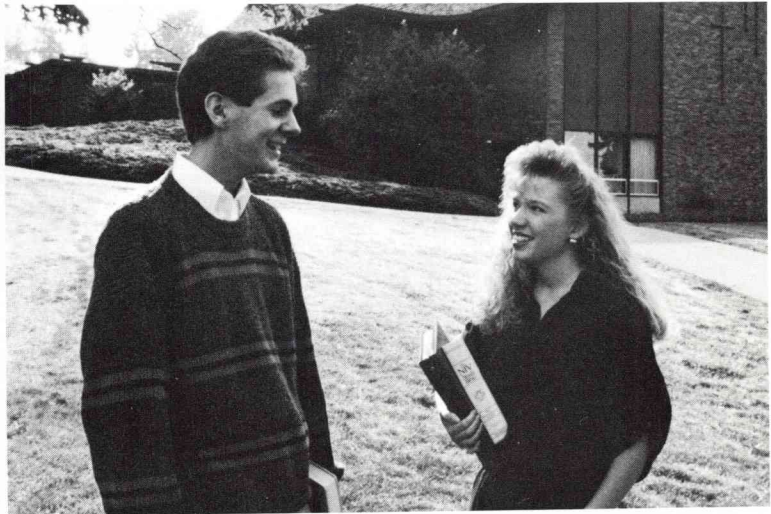

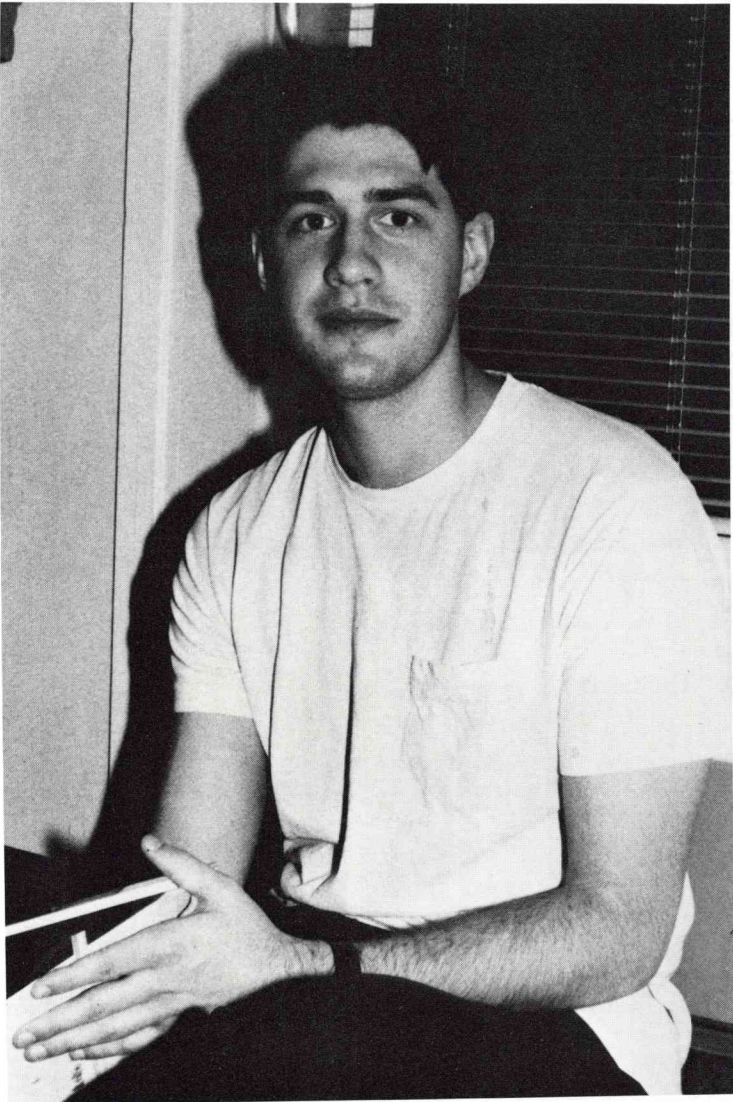

"Tourist Trap"

The annual Harvest Social transformed the NC Pavilion into a "Tourist Trap." A variety of activities were planned by the Sophomore Class, official sponsors of the social. The evening's events and entertainment were coordinated by Sophomore Class Officers Warren Gray and Julie Jensen. Kristi Landis directed the decoration's committee. Individual classes and organizations promoted activity booths such as the Football Toss, the Coconut Bowl, a Jello Jungle, and a Kissing Booth. Three short martians won first place in the "Tourist Trap" costume contest. Other costumes included Hawaiian travelers, walking cameras, and a sunshine and sunglasses duo. The evening concluded with a time of worship led by "Joy of Praise," a Samoan choir.

Resident Life Staff

Selfless Service and Sacrifice

Learning to live with twenty-five people is a unique experience. The Resident Life Staff, made up of Resident Deans, Resident Counselors, and Resident Assistants, helps dorm residents make the adjustment to college life. They sacrifice a great deal of time and energy making the experience a positive one. When asked what qualities were appreciated most in their RA's, students replied: "I appreciate her caring attitude and her willingness to share her life with us." "He is a good guy. I enjoy talking with him and doing things with him." "Definitely fun and great to talk to." "He is very helpful and kind; very down to earth." Each member of the Resident Life Staff is an example of a person truly living a servant's life.

“For I know the plans I have for you,’ declares the Lord, ‘plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a hope and a future. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.’”

Jeremiah 29:12-13

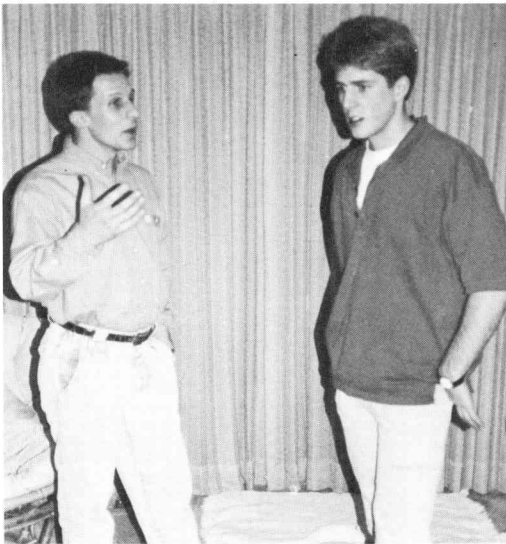

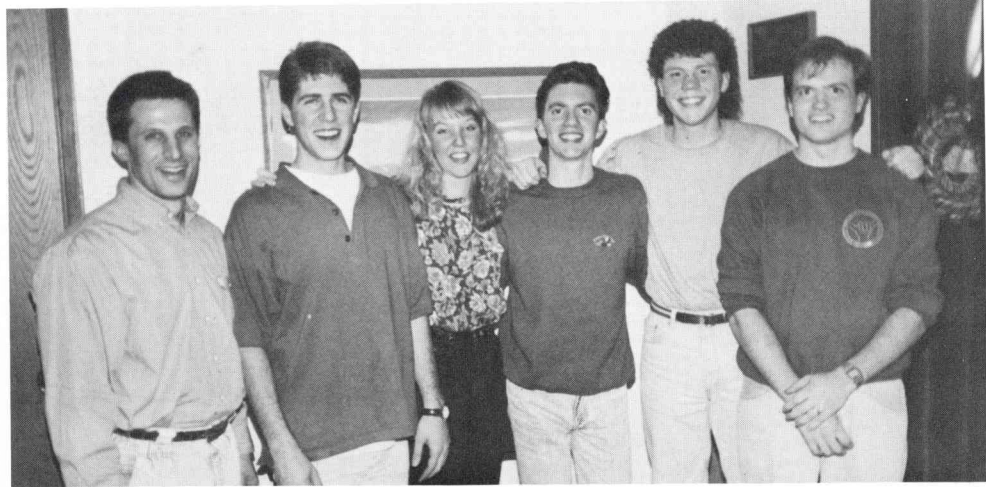

Activities

ASB

The Northwest College Student Body functions effectively due to the dedication and hard work of the Associated Student Body officers. ASB strives to make a difference throughout the college and among every student group. The ASB officers determined to bring about a change in attitude, create an atmosphere of worship and also have a lot of fun. A highlight was the ASB children's church chapel featuring an offering contest and a variety of activities for students to participate in. They started off the Spring semester with a Roby Duke concert. The dedication of the ASB officers has been appreciated.

MSA officers: Dale Harris, Secretary/Treasurer, Jerry Brady, President, Cathy Gerhard, Vice President.

Married Students Association

Married students enrolled in college face very unique challenges. MSA focuses on creating fellowship among them while forming cohesive support groups. These support groups lift up the special needs of each person. Many adjustments need to be made when trying to balance personal and educational priorities.

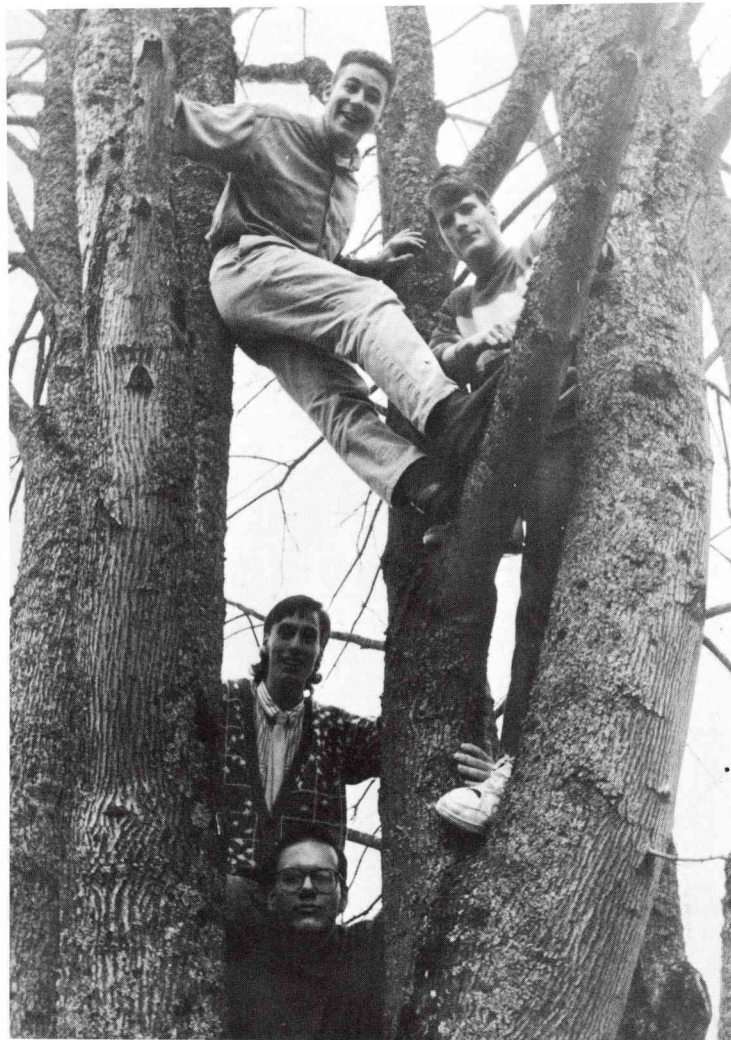

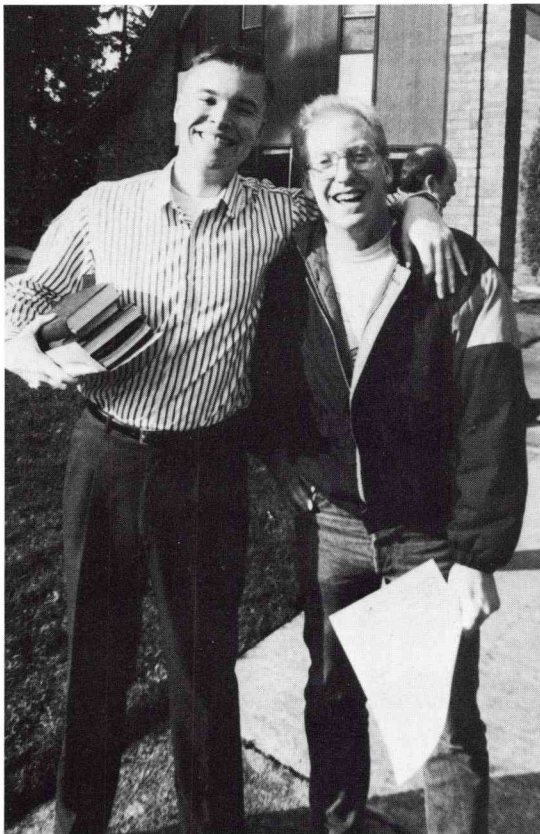

MSA sponsors activities such as the block party held at the cul de sac of the Firs complex. A dessert potluck was held for a mid-semester break, for a time of fellowship. The children enjoyed games prepared by the MSA officers. Small group prayer fellowships met during the year to provide spiritual enrichment and support.

Associated Men Students

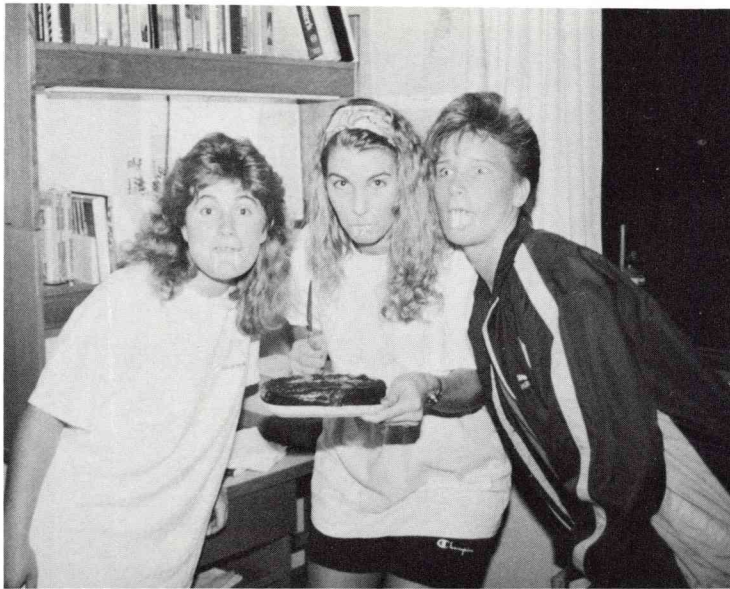

AMS (Associated Men Students) focuses on developing Christ-like fellowship among the men of Northwest College. They sponsor evenings of spiritual insight with special guests such as President Denny Davis and Pastor Al Munger. Other activities include praise and worship meetings and fellowship nights featuring NFL highlights, food, and fun. The AMS officers are committed to reinforcing positive interaction and spiritual growth throughout the year.

AMS officers: Neil King, President; Mike Marsh, Secretary/Treasurer; Jerry Bergquist, Vice President for activities; Mike Krause, Vice President.

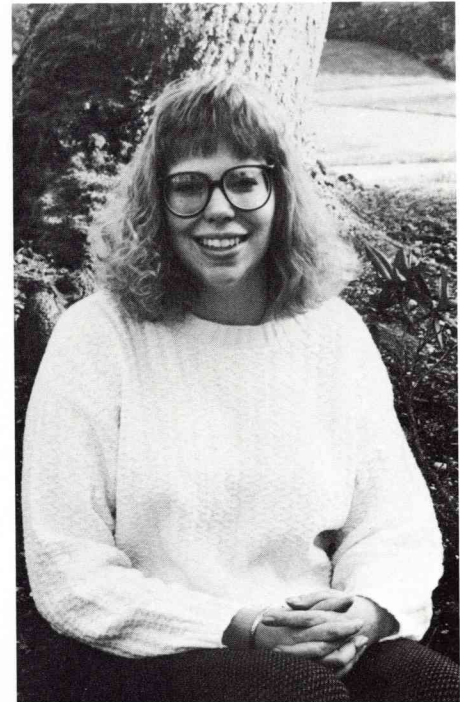

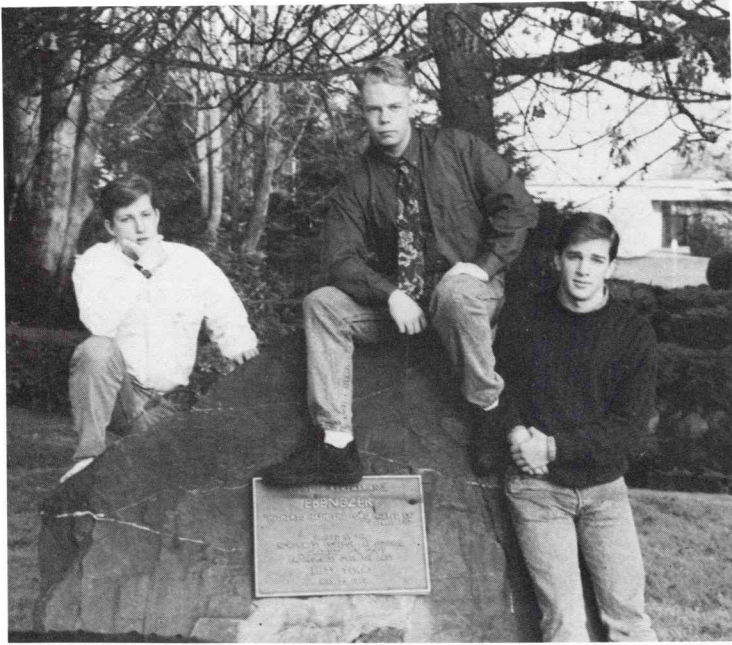

Associated Women Students

The Associated Women Students desire to foster a spirit of encouragement and personal growth among the women of Northwest College. Activities sponsored by AWS, such as an all-nighter full of food, games, and fellowship, helped the ladies build new friendships and strengthen old ones. One of the special features was a seminar with special guest Barb Ziemke. She shared personal experiences and insights on building meaningful and lasting relationships.

AWS officers: Robin Elms, President; Carrie Conklin, Vice President; Tiffany King, Secretary/Treasurer.

KNCR

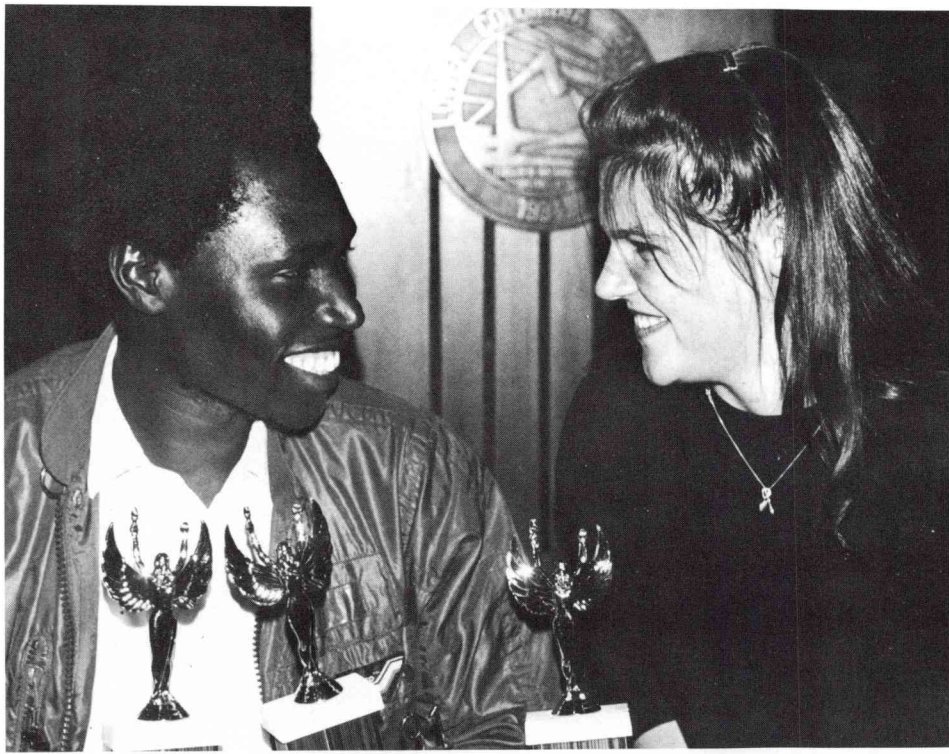

Back On The Air

KNCR, the Northwest College radio station, underwent some changes during the 1991-92 school year. Due to the remodeling of the Pecota Student Center, the radio station went off the air until spring of 1992. One of the most noticeable changes is the new station identification. Formerly KCNC, Northwest College Radio will now be known as KNCR.

After moving into their new station, adjacent to the game room, KNCR sponsored a radio workshop and trained new classmembers for a season of entertainment and fun. KNCR offers a variety of music and programming. Elmer Hill and Tavivus Otis, station managers, put in many long hours in preparation for putting KNCR back on the air.

Forensics/Speech Team

Forensics

"They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God with boldness." Acts 4:31
 The Eagle's Speech Team had a memorable year attending speech competitions held at area schools in Washington and Oregon. Gaining courage and developing skills were prime goals for the team to work on during the year. Members competed in impromptu, informative, persuasive, editorial, commentary and interpretive reading of literature. Kristi Landis was named "Best Speaker of the Year." "Most Improved" went to Ron Wells. Professor Gary Gillespie, Forensics Coach and Speech Professor, said "I saw a year of growth for the team as the students represented the college with distinction." Great friendships and strong bonds were formed as well.

Professor Gary Gillespie, Speech Coach and Communications Advisor.

Ministry Groups

NC students attend a christian college for much more than just a "book" education. Many come with expectation in their hearts and a willingness to serve the people in the various communities. There are several teams that go out into the surrounding cities to reach many different yet needy people. These ministry groups reach out to children and youth in the inner city of Seattle, to children on the Eastside, troubled youth in detention centers, and street kids in downtown Kirkland. Visits to Senior Centers also provide older people with much needed companionship. A ministry to the prisons reaches another group of lonely, needy people. Each group spends time in prayer before ministry opportunities so their efforts are always in God's hands.

Missions

Reaching the World

The Missions Program is headed up by Dr. Turner and the Missions Committee. Many events are scheduled during the year to emphasize the great need faced by missionaries and the unsaved people of the world. Friday morning missions chapels help to bring specific areas to the attention of the student body. One of the main focuses of the missions committee is to support the People in the mission fields through prayer. Regional Prayer fellowships meet weekly and spend time interceding for areas such as the Muslim world and Asian countries.

The Pacific Rim Centre was completed during the summer of 1991. They have sponsored several Pacific Rim workshops and seminars. The China Awareness on site seminar took place last summer and will be repeated in 1992. Fifteen students participated in the outreach to China and Hong Kong. During the Fall semester, students, faculty, and pastors from the area attended the China Ministry Exploration workshop for a one day study of Chinese customs and areas of need. The Pacific Rim Centre has also been involved in a summer TESL instruction for Asian countries that they plan to repeat again next summer.

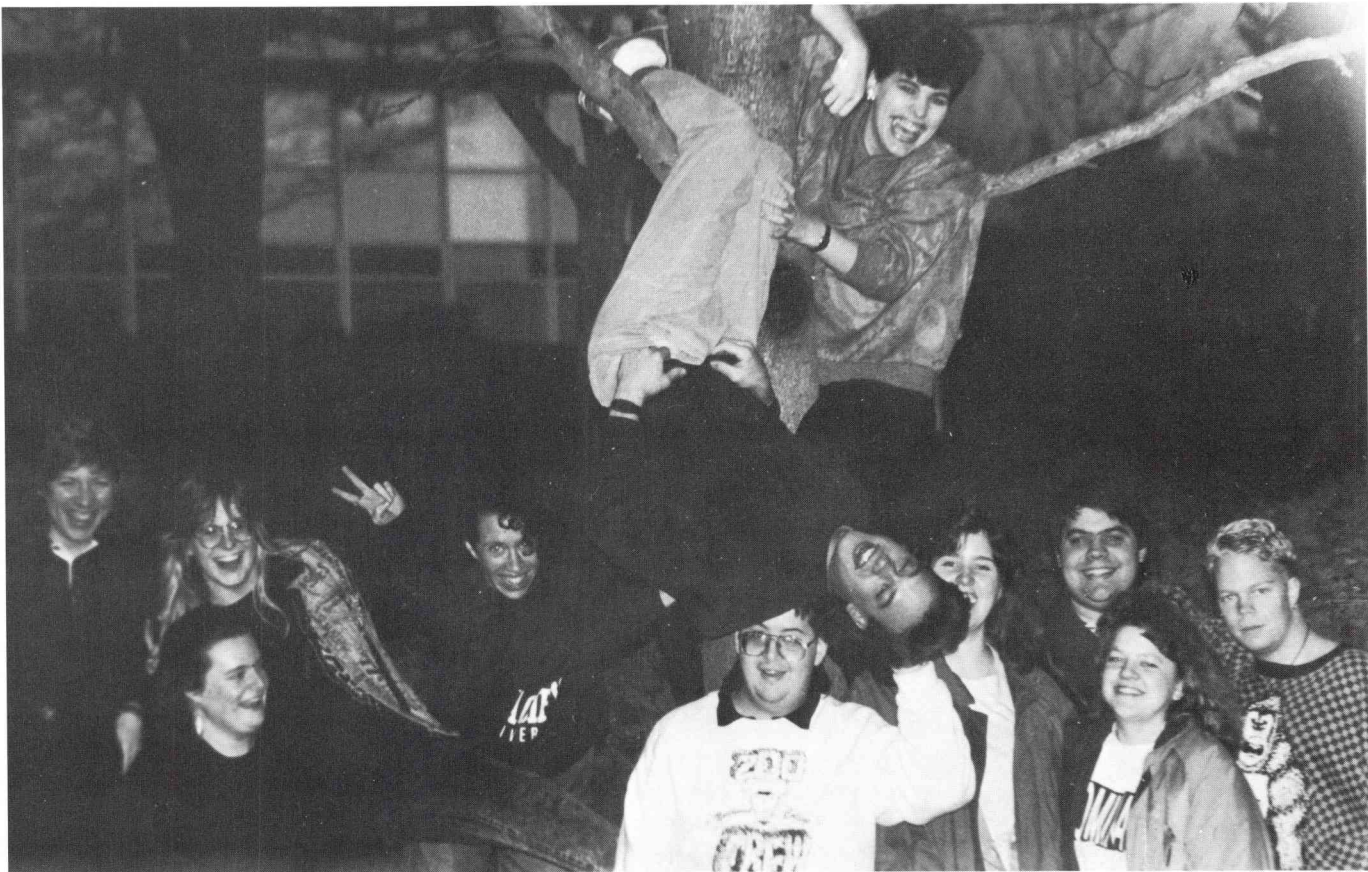

The main emphasis of the Missions Program is to assist Northwest College students in ministry during the year, including scholarships for AIM trips, and summer MAPS assignments. They were able to help send Dr. Pecota and Mike Krause to the Asian side of Russia during spring break this past year. In addition to the scholarships, they send contributions to China Radio, support international students prepare for ministry in various parts of the world, and provide honoraria for visiting missionaries. All of the programs are supported by student missions offerings and faith promises. Without the participation of the entire student body, the Missions Committee would not be able to follow through on the burden that God has placed on their hearts to reach out to the unsaved people of the world.

Missions Committee: Dr. Turner, Pat Lathers, Kathy Balts, John Worm, Yuko Worm, Judy Peters, Jon Lathers, George Kafwimbi.

Drama Club: Heidi Malgren, Lisa Marten, Elaine Sutton, Martha Day, John O'Malley, Kyle Sage, Denelle Downs, Geri Butz, Kent Elder, Erin Figg, Isaac Irvine.

A.W.O.L.: Heidi Malgren, Sandra Sundin, Kent Elder, Steve Gustafson, Michelle Vanderlinda.

Drama Club

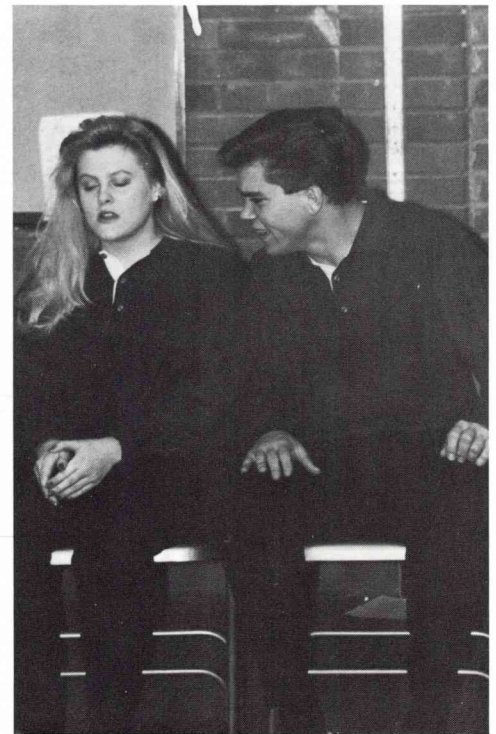

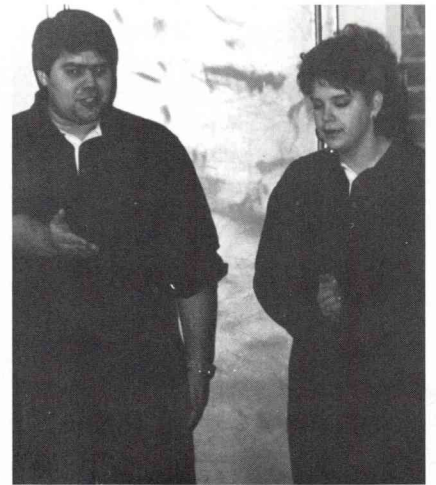

The Drama Club meets regularly during the year to provide entertainment, fun, and relaxation for its members. Activities such as drama games and drills give members a chance to practice the skills that are demonstrated during the instruction times. They also work on improvisation, learning how to think and act without having a chance to practice for the situation. A smaller drama team, A.W.O.L. (A Work Of Love), travelled to churches and camps during the year performing skits and leading in worship.

Providing an atmosphere where people can meet and interact with others who share common interests is one of the main goals of the Drama Club. Members are able to build friendships during the many hours of practice, as well as learning new skills and strengthening old ones.

Drama Club officers: Denelle Downs, Secretary/Treasurer, Kent Elder, President, Geri Butz, Vice President.

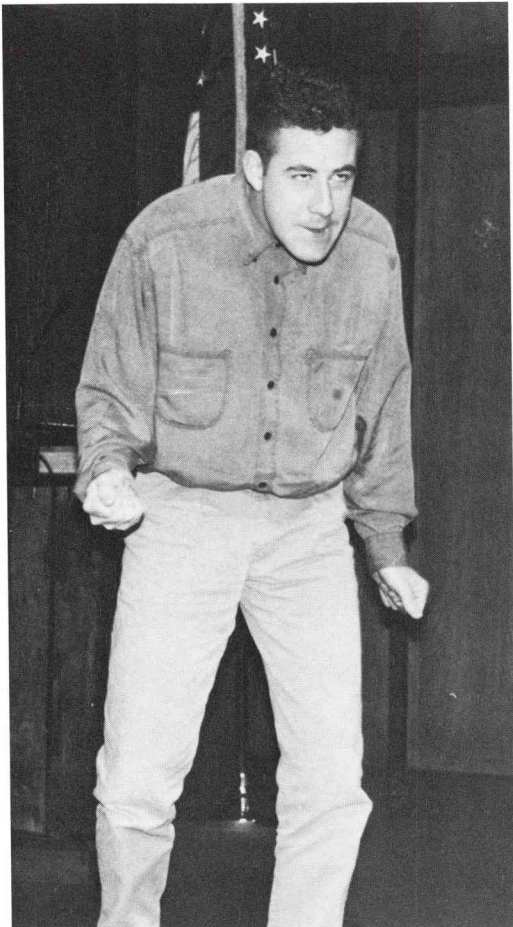

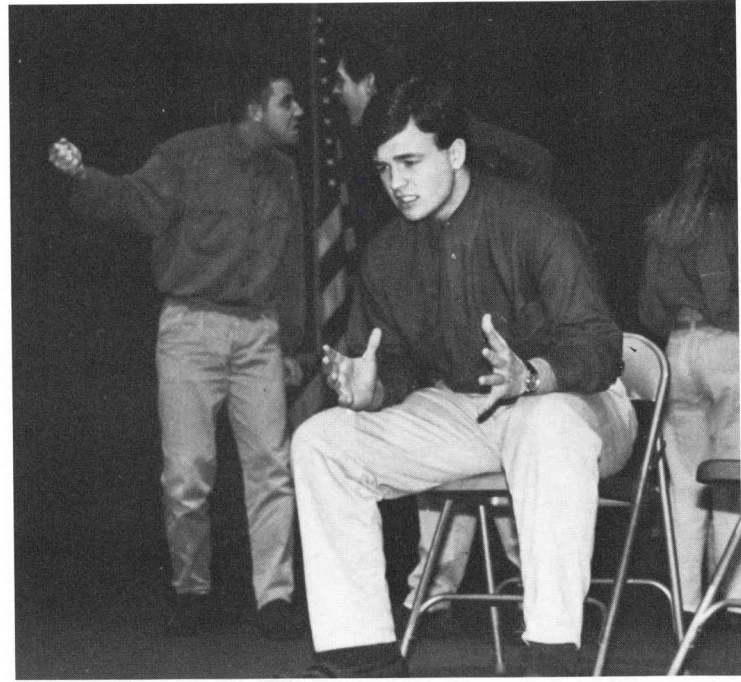

ACTS

Announcing Christ Through Skits

The ACTS team travelled throughout western Washington during the year bringing the message of Christ to young people. The skits focused on the theme "Light Your World." Encouraging youth to be a light to their world and to their friends was the main goal that the team worked towards. This goal was presented through demonstrations of how to be a "doer of the word," being children of God, and battling against mediocrity. The important part of acting for ACTS was that it provided them with an opportunity to minister to hurting young people and remind them of God's love as they actively determined to "Light Their World."

King's Choralons

We Will Rejoice

"Lord I Want To Know You More." The King's Choralons strove to develop a deeper relationship with God and each other in their music ministry. The forty-two member choir travelled throughout Washington and Oregon representing the Lord and aiding in recruitment for Northwest College. During the school year, they travelled to various churches for Sunday morning and evening services. Spring break tours and a short tour at the beginning of the Summer are also a part of the programmed events. Choir members benefit from the musical experience and also from the ministry aspect. Not only do they learn how to minister to people from the platform, they also develop one-on-one relationships with the people in whose homes they stay while on tour. Scheduled prayer meetings and pre-service prayer helps to keep the choir focused on being true representatives of the Lord.

Northwest Sounds

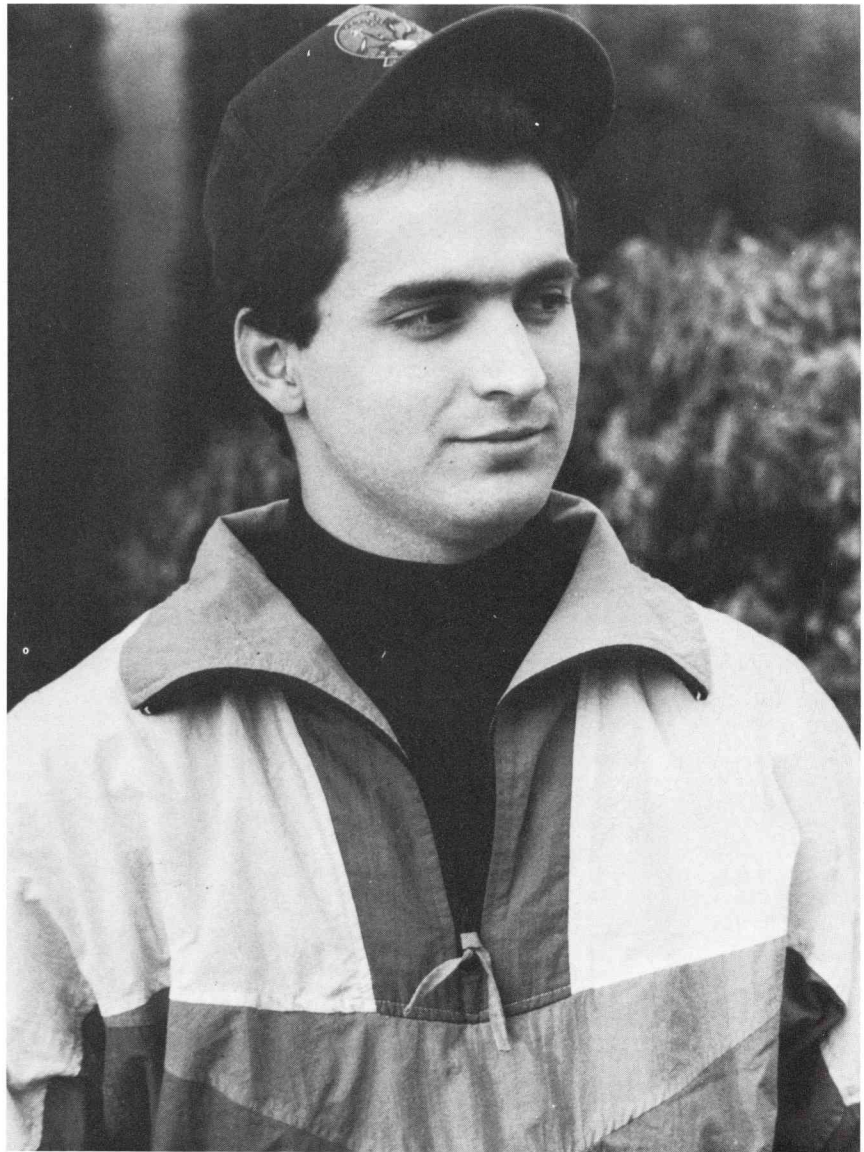

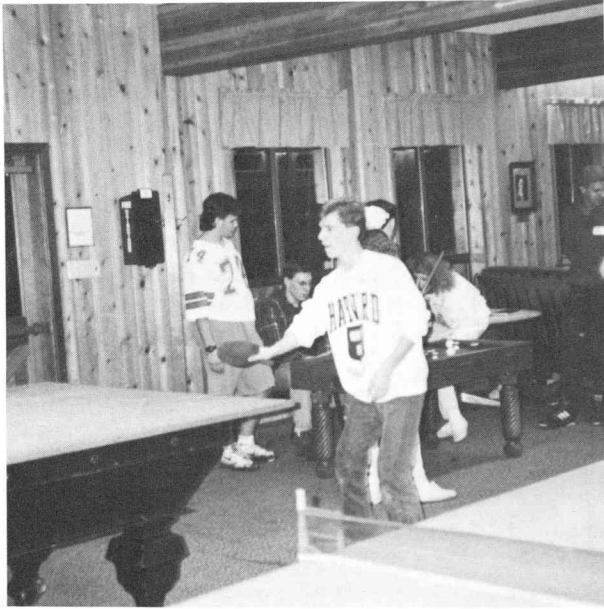

“Celebrate”

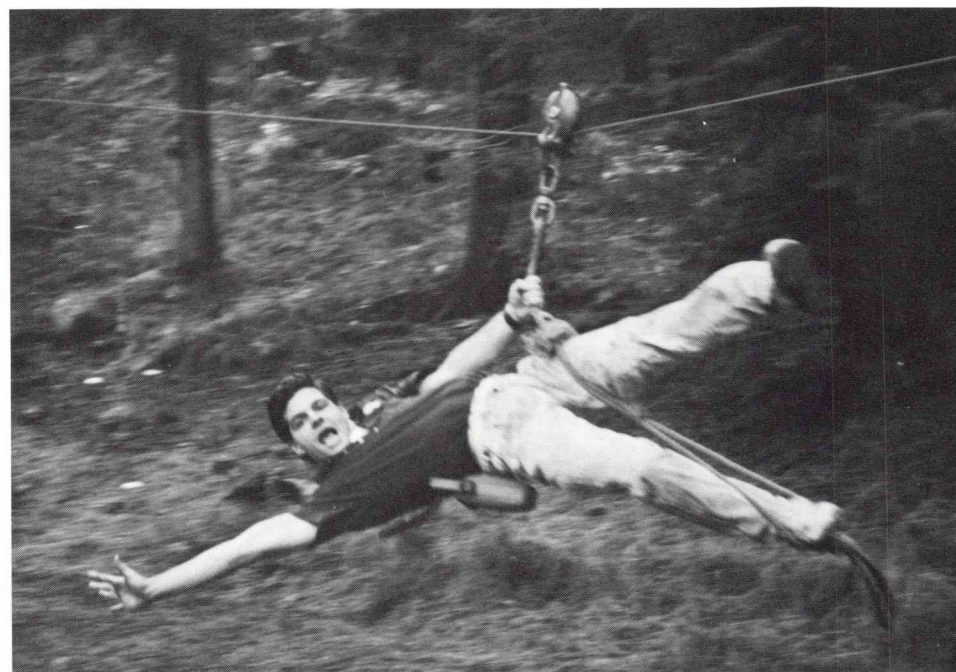

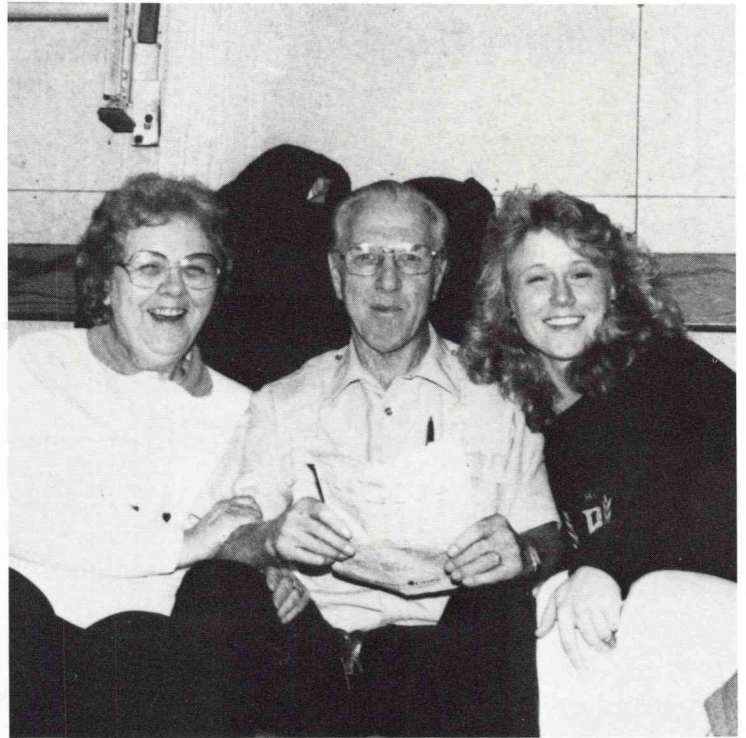

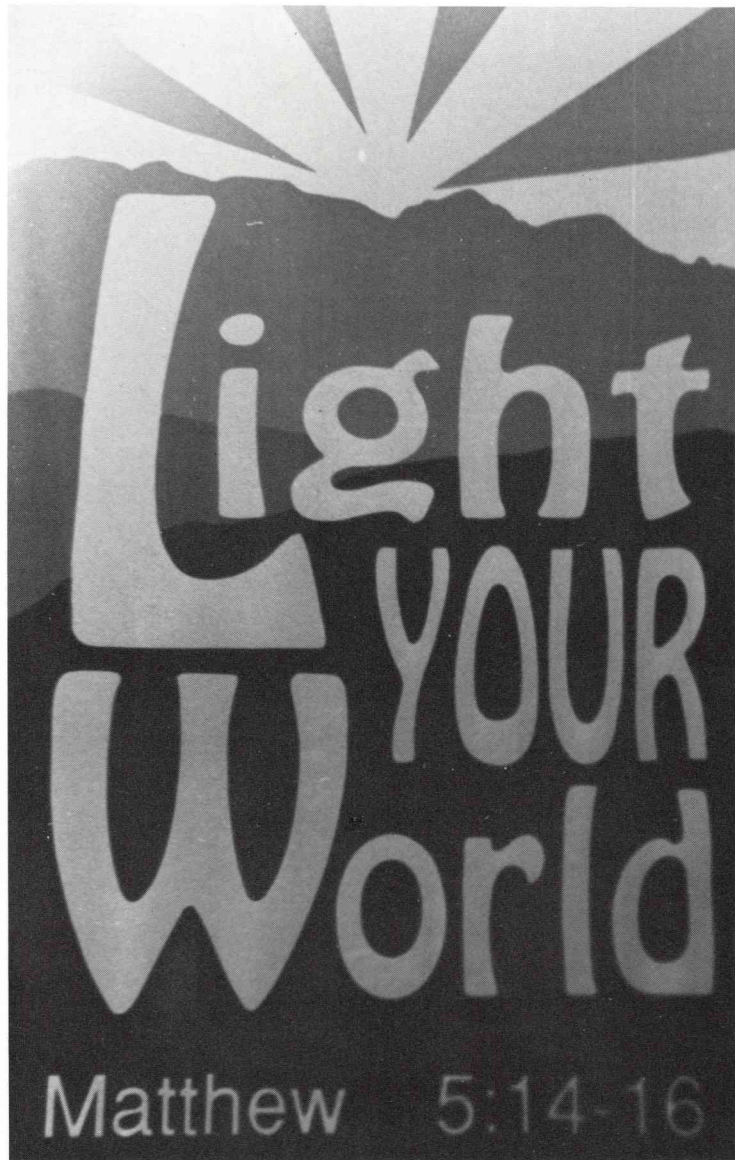

The Northwest Sounds, conducted by Paul Melidona, spend many hours in preparation, musically and spiritually, for their programs. Beyond just touching lives, the Sounds' members really desire to see lives changed through their music ministry. The prevalent themes portrayed in their songs are rejoicing and celebrating. “I Will Celebrate,” “Hosanna Our Lord Liveth,” and “Jesus We’re Depending On You” are a few of the songs featured.

Ministry always remains the primary purpose of their efforts. The members of Sounds spend a great deal of time down at the altars ministering to hurting people. The Sounds' members also appreciate time spent building memories and relationships with each other.

Soccer

Northwest Men's Soccer team worked hard year round in anticipation of the 1991 Fall season. The men played tough and succeeded in working as a team. Although several injuries occurred, morale was high and an atmosphere of determination was apparent. A strong defense and an increase in goals scored were key elements in this year's program. The Northwest Invitational Tournament was the highlight of the season. The Northwest Eagles won decisively against participating teams from Canada, Washington, Oregon, and California. Coach Doug Clark has been a real leader, motivator, and encourager. He worked right along side the team and became a friend to the team members. The team continues to train for future seasons.

Volleyball

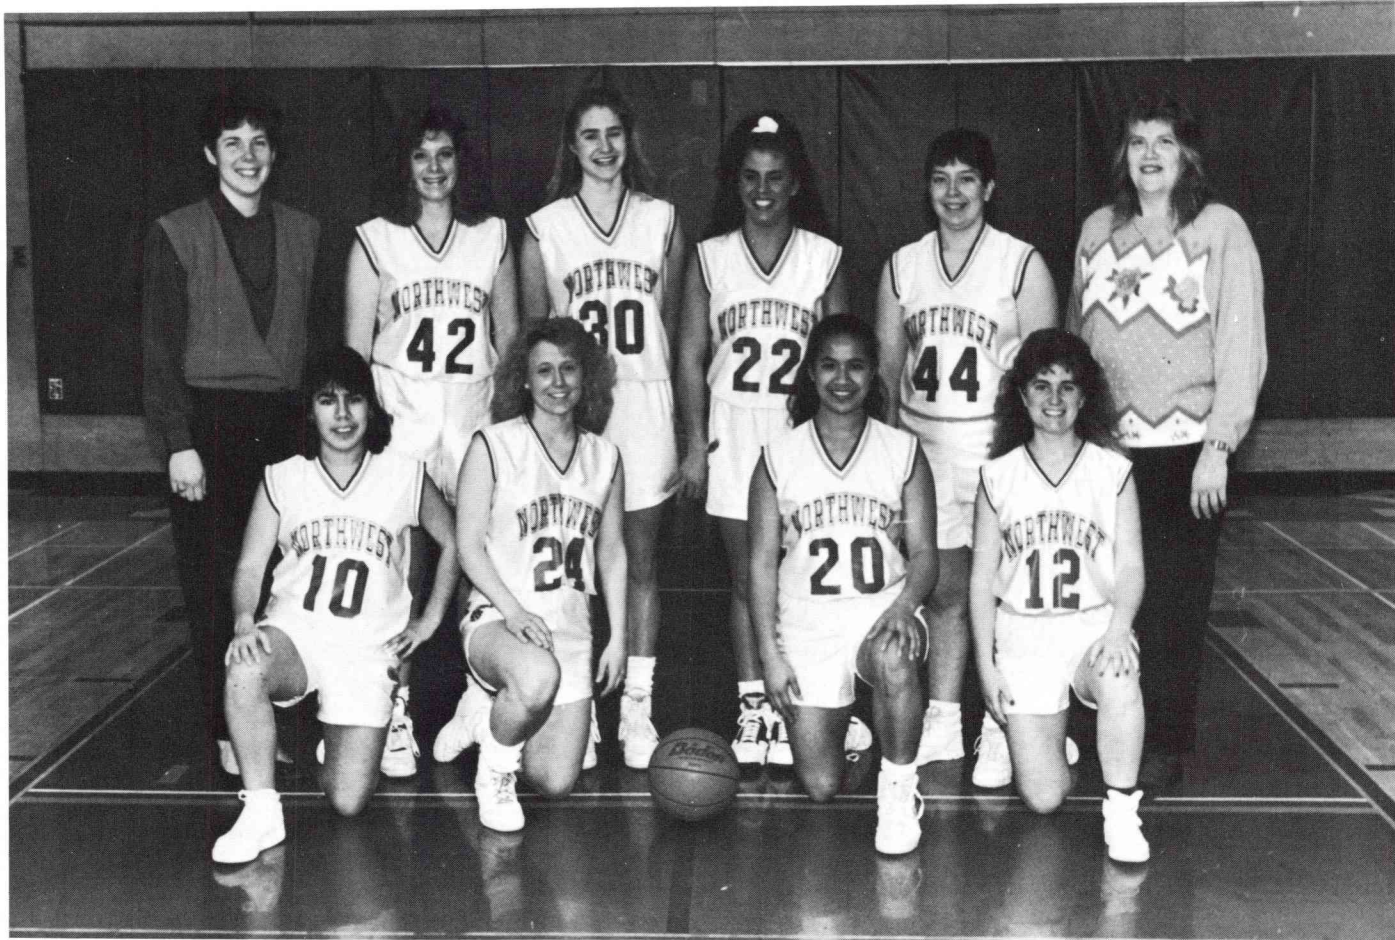

Enthusiasm and stamina were the trademarks of the Northwest College Volleyball team this season. Team spirit and hard work paid off in the Puget Sound Tournament.

The NC Eagles took first place. In spite of several injuries, these dedicated women continued to play strong and support each other during the year.

Women's Basketball

As the 1991 champs of the NCCAA National Tournament, the Northwest College women's basketball team started their new season with strength and determination. Several new students joined the team and helped to begin building a foundation for continued success. The games have been challenging and the Eagles have represented the college in a positive manner. Coach Kristi Brodin maintains an encouraging and productive atmosphere, compelling the members to work together as a team and strive for success.

Men's Basketball

Moving Ahead

The men's basketball team has done a fine job representing Northwest College in skill and in spirit. The Eagles had a strong start to the 1991-92 season with five straight wins. Many new players joined the team and together with the returning members formed a strong unit. Improvements in the team consisted of creating a solid defense and accuracy in scoring to form a good balance.

Reverend Orville Clark

In Remembrance A Tribute to Orville Clark

Reverend Orville Clark dedicated twenty years of his life to Northwest College. His service in 1971 and continued until his death in July of 1991. He was a humble man committed to God, his family, his colleagues, and his students. Orville Clark lived as a servant and, in everything, gave praise and glory to God. In his classes, he strove to instruct his students in the way God would have them live and interact with others. His thoughtfulness and loving spirit was present in all he did. Many days people passing by his office doors could hear him quietly singing or quoting scripture quietly to himself. He always had a kind word or gentle smile for all who came across his path. Orville Clark was a committed person who gave his all in everything he did. Thank you, Reverend Clark. You have impacted many lives for the glory of God, and for this we are truly grateful.

For nearly 100 years we've been helping the people of this state. First, as PeoplesBank and Old National Bank. And now that we've joined forces, under a new name—U.S. Bank of Washington. Together, we are continuing that tradition of commitment in your community.

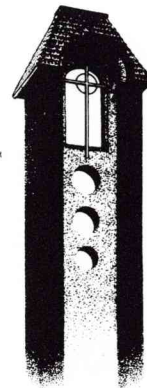

Working for Washington.

Dear 1992 Graduates,

Northwest College has made great contributions to my life and ministry. With each passing year I become more aware of that fact. That is one of main reasons I support our school so consistently. I am reinvesting myself in the future of Northwest College making certain that our school will continue to affect lives until Jesus comes! I urge you to do the same!

AUTOGRAPHS

*"Our lives are here and now.
Backs to the wheel!
A wilderness is waiting for the plough.
The song of birds,
the wind through forest trees
Are heard alike by king and worker.
The golden corn springs up where we have sown,
And rest rewards our labor when we've done."
— Sverre Halbo, "Our Lives are here and now."*

Missions Convention

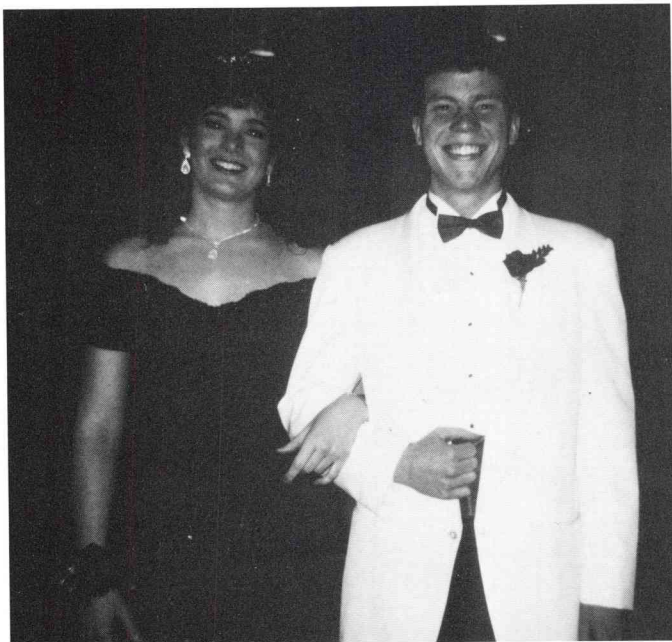

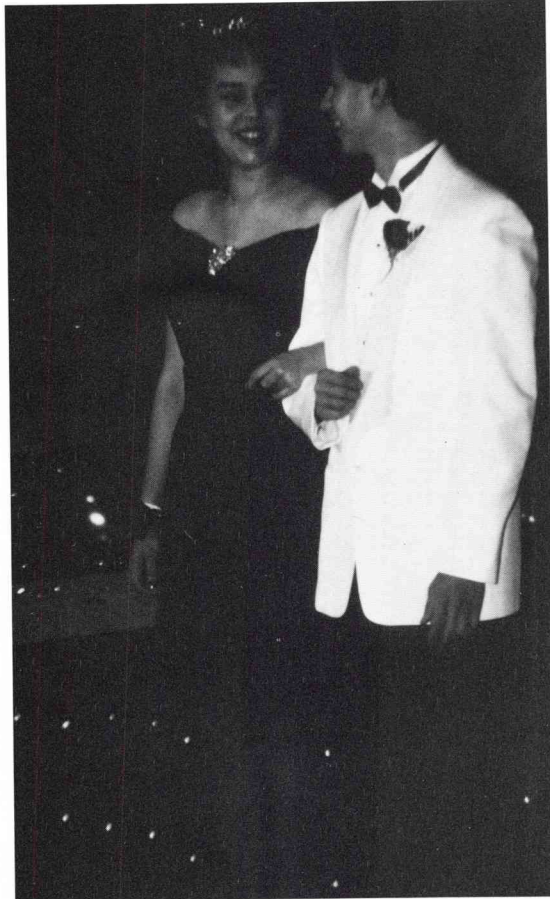

Rev. Otis Keener of Belgium

Rev. Otis Keener, presently pastoring at International Christian Fellowship in Brussels, Belgium, was the special guest speaker for the 1992 Missions Convention January 21-24. Rev. Keener has travelled all over the world as a missionary and has also served as a pastor in many churches in the area including Life Center in Tacoma. In 1973, he pioneered the International Christian Assembly in Hong Kong which has grown into a thriving church. Missions Convention highlights included missionaries in every service who shared their burdens and reported on their work in the field. The Missions Committee also brought in an international student daily to pray in his or her native dialect. Annual faith promises were filled out to support the projected goals for the next year's giving. During the Thursday evening global prayer meeting, every nation was brought before God in prayer. Students and faculty interceded for the national crisis and international relationships that have been so prevalent during the past year. All Assembly of God missionaries were mentioned by name and personal requests were prayed for. A commitment service on Friday morning was a fitting conclusion to the week's events. Students were given the opportunity to respond to the call of God on their lives and seal their commitment to missions.

“This time
This is what counts
This is what our life is about
This time
No backward glance
Now is the time
This is our chance
To make this time, this time,
This time
All that God wants it to be”

The Future begins now!
