NORTHEAST COLLEGE
of the Assemblies of God
Kirkland, Washington
1987-88 Yearbook Dedicated To

Dr. Amos D. Millard
He's almost synonymous with Northwest College — Dr. A.D. Millard, member of the NC faculty since 1949, the year he received his B.A. degree from the College. As he retires this year from his position as Registrar and Dean of Admissions, he will be remembered as many things: Bible teacher of unusual depth; resident specialist on Israel and director of NC’s Flying Seminar to the Holy Land each year; teacher of Parliamentary Law and parliamentarian to district councils and church business meetings; encourager of students and continuing contact with alumni; committee expeditor, statistician and profiler of College enrollments; memory whiz who could recite the graduation roster without notes; tender-hearted man of God who prayed through his tears. He will be remembered as long as alumni gather! To him our thanks and congratulations!
Special Honor

to

Dr. D.V. Hurst
Born on October 31, in Annadale, Minnesota, D.V. Hurst was raised in a pastor’s home in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

He attended North Central Bible College, Sioux Falls College, Tulsa University, Drury College and was awarded a Doctor of Divinity Degree by Southwestern Assemblies of God College in 1972.

He was ordained in 1946 by the South Dakota District Council. He has held pastorates in South Dakota, Minnesota, and Oklahoma.

For 15 years, Dr. Hurst held positions in the Sunday School and Radio Departments of the A/G General Headquarters.

His preaching and teaching ministry has taken him across the nation and around the world.

Dr. Hurst came to Northwest in 1966 to assume the position of President. Under his strong administration, the college has made several improvements in its curriculum, received full accreditation, and added several new buildings.

Dr. Hurst, we appreciate your 22 years of dedicated service. Thank you for being our president, our pastor, our friend.

SPRING SEMESTER '87

I "Love" My Roommate
A Change of Heart was about the struggle of a young woman trying to choose between the world and Christianity. Though pressure was placed upon her by both sides, she remained neutral until a tragedy shook her life and all that she believed in. Finally she realized that all she could do was reach out and take Jesus by the hand.

The play had a tremendous impact on the audiences as well as the cast members each night. Each of us worked hard and gave 110%, especially our director, Lisa Peretti. Lisa was the one who pulled us all together and kept us going. The thing that was so special about the play, besides the message it put across, was that Lisa wrote it.

Even though all that the audiences saw were the actors, the Lord was the one behind the scenes who gave us the gift and the energy to make it happen. It was for His glory. The cast and crew believed that we weren't presenting the play for Northwest College, but we were presenting it for our Lord and King.

Commencement Ceremonies - 1987
The College's fifty-first commencement held on campus on May 2nd, was a milestone event in a number of ways. It was the first "Saturday" commencement in the history of the College. It was also the first commencement under the College's new semester calendar, concluding the school year about one month earlier than the quarter calendar, making it the earliest ever in the history of NC.

Of more importance was the highlight event in the college careers of the 121 graduates in the class of 1987. Of these graduates, 89 were awarded B.A. degrees; 26, A.A. degrees, 1 diploma, and five with the new one-year certificate.

2) "He can't ask that, it wasn't in my notes!"
3) Paul and Wayne - "Let us out of here."

This year's Fall Revival coincided with the Youth Conference and benefited everyone who participated. This was an eventful occasion for students as well as visitors. Rich Wilkerson, Glen Bertheau, Tony Cervervo, and Cal Carpenter were only a few of the many speakers who spoke to the youth leaders and students.
"Attention!" 2) "Isn't this great!" 4) "Welcome to Northwest College." 5) "And this brings me to my third point …"

Campus Days were fun-filled time even for NC students. The excitement and anticipation were enjoyed by all. High school students and their youth pastors from all over the Northwest showed up on campus Thursday, October 12, to register for an experience never to be forgotten. Nightly rallies, games, and tours of the campus were some of the highlights. An opportunity fair in which the school organizations shared about their ministries and answered questions. ACTS performed a special presentation for these future students. Rich Wilkerson, Vice President-at-Large, and Michelle Pillar, vocal performer, were some of the special guests. Thanks to all for the successful weekend and a great time of fellowship.
Harvest Social-Famous People!

On November 21, the Sophomore class sponsored a fun filled evening at the Harvest Time Social. The famous guests included: Mr. & Mrs. Marcos, The Fruit of the Loom Girls, Phyllis Diller, Raggedy Ann and Andy, Santa Claus, Aunt Jemima, and Mac Tonight. The Price is Right hosted by Bob Barker was taping in the Senior class booth. ACTS presented a skit as the cast from Gilligan's Island. Betty, Bertha, and Bobby-Sue Bag judged the most famous person contest and other activities. The guests participated in a game of class pictionary, and a story writing contest between classes. The evening closed with a time of singing and worship. Thanks to the Sophomores class for an enjoyable evening.

"What is the most exciting way to spend a summer vacation? I came to my conclusion when four other NC students and I committed ourselves to two weeks of campus ministry in West Germany. We shared the gospel by performing pantomimes, preaching, distributing literature and sharing one-on-one with the many English speaking students to whom God directed us.

During those two weeks, I learned to put my trust solely in Christ, I deepened my awareness of missions, and I experienced the most exciting summer of my life — my life was changed. And I encourage you to let a missions experience change yours, too."

N.C. ATHLETICS

The agony of defeat vs. the thrill of victory
This year's soccer team has had its inspiring moments from the 1st home game, a 2-1 (come from behind) victory over Columbia Bible Institute, which highlighted a Pele style goal from Jim Beirne and a last-minute winning goal by captain Mike Ness. The team this year was fortunate to have a great coach in Alex Salus, a man dedicated to making us train hard, which involved eating right on the road at Sizzler or McDonalds and running up 52nd street (Suicide Hill).

Special thanks to Prof. Malcolm for his leadership and commitment to Christ in keeping with the Eagles' good name in soccer competition.

Bringing out their motto — "Play for Jesus, Go let's win, Yeah Eagles, All right!" — this year's volleyball team voiced who they really played for. Striving for team togetherness through rigorous practices, prayer, and once-a-week devotions, this year's team walked away with lots of team spirit. Even though there were only two returning players, the team was inexperienced but skilled. "We put things together on the court often; we're a tough team to beat," exclaimed graduating senior Rena Balzer.

Putting Our Faith In Action
Looking through this yearbook will remind me of the best year of my life, so far. This has also been a difficult year; just when I think God has stretched me, He stretches me more. I'd encourage you to find something you're afraid of, and ask God to help you, and He will, with lots of work on your part too. You've made this year GREAT for Mike, Russ, Kandi, Lalonda, Brenda, and me. A prayer I would have for you would be that you ask God to do "whatever it takes" in your life.

Angie Kavanaugh
Another year has made its mark at NC and many new faces have appeared at The Firs. Newlyweds abound, and new students are welcomed. Most of all, it seems new lives are the focus this year in The Firs. Infants remind of new life in Jesus. Newborns cry with zeal. They are innocent, and separate from the harsh life surrounding them. They bring light and laughter even to those who don’t have their own kids, prompting even the most “macho” of men to care.

As they develop and mature, they are eager to serve and to please. They trust you, believing with all their heart in you. Somehow, they only see the best in things. No wonder Jesus wants each of us to change and become like little children!

The children of The Firs have taught me a lot about the Kingdom of God this year. Amid all the bottles, diapers and strained carrots, I’ve caught a glimpse of new life in Jesus revealed by tiny teachers.
The Associated Women Students were very actively involved ministering to the students this year. AWS is an organization supported by the women students here at N.C. This year's officers enjoyed working together with Dean Diana on the projects they undertook. Some of the events sponsored this year included the Olympics, Christmas open dorms, lipsync, and roomies night out. Over all, the AWS felt it was a great year because of the wonderful women here at N.C.

The true responsibility of the AMS is to intercede for the men. It is to pray that God will continually challenge us to deeper commitments to Him. We are part of the body of Christ, and, to live as such, we must make sacrifices for one another. When we do, we are ready to experience true harmony amongst us, and we welcome God's presence and power into our lives. We as a community of men have a standard to uphold, one which creates an environment Jesus would be happy to inhabit. It is the standard of saints. Phil. 3:7-10
Evangelism

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Matt.28:19.

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them.

"Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; Yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness."

Isaiah 41:10
It seemed at first that all we ever did was practice, practice and more practice. It was during that time that we grew close to each other and the skits came together. With such unity we went out to minister in youth services. It made all the hours spent in preparation seem priceless when we looked out at the youth and saw a new understanding in their eyes. It was the greatest feeling to see the youth respond to a message we believe in. Announcing Christ Through Skits and seeing lives changed, that is our goal.

—By Kelly Kuest

Drama Club

Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

Philippians 3:15

Drama club is an exciting way to fulfill the dramatic side in all of us. There are many opportunities for ministry through drama. The club works with the ministry teams and churches, does small skits, and produces the spring play each year. We encourage anyone who is interested to join us next year! It's a blast! — By Tanda Greenwood and Jenny Sherlock
"To me KCNC has had the best year ever. This was made possible by a great staff and a great advisor. I would like to publicly thank Curt Hubbell (program director), Mike Hallberg (sec. tres.), and Clayton Hall (sales manager) for all of the hard work and dedication. Also a special thanks to Cory Dalton for without Cory we would not be half as good. Again thanks to everyone involved and have a good life, even if it hurts."

"Life in the Karisma office is a hard one to explain. It is a life that is full of laughs, as well as stressful days. But I would not trade these stressful days for all the laughter in the world, these were the days that taught me to lean on Christ for my strength. I also learned to appreciate my co-workers, and knew that I could rely on these friends.

I would like to thank my many friends in the Karisma office for all they have done for me. You all have played an important role in my life, and I will always remember each of you. You are the greatest!"

College seemed like such a good thing, I thought that I would try and do it right. So I sent Northwest my money And I started the adventure of my life. My classes seemed to get the best of me. Seven-thirty is a sin I think, Especially when it's U.S. History. And now English Comp., it hurts my fingers and Bible Survey keeps my notebook full. Music Theory is a killer And Christian Doctrine keeps me from the bull. Yes, and how I love my college classes, I feel like such a THE-O-LO-GI-UN. Readings, papers, tests and lectures, Northwest really keeps me on the run. In Biology, what a very pleasant place to be Chasing lab-mates with a frog leg in my hand. Oh what fun to be in Biology Sociology, what a class, Sociology Definitions till my brain no longer works. What a class this Sociology. Then we're off to Greek, Conjugating, memorizing till I cannot think. Will it ever end? Let me out of here so I can go down to the lake, and really take a BREAK! Back in class again, preaching sermons, getting ripped again. Homiletics, how it makes me sweat and shake, I can't wait to get out of class again. I thought Basic Math would be the class to take. Arrange those numbers oh so easily. But sitting at my desk and vegging all the time, I wound up with a very easy "D." Sitting in the Academic Dean's room, Scared to death am I! O please, Lord let me die! I guess I'll have to study that much harder, O please Dean Ming, just give me one more try. I'm finally at the end, I'm in my senior year. Two months and I will leave with my degrees. I think of all those classes, all the sweat and toil, Ole' D.V. he will be so proud of me. I'm looking forward to my graduation. My bill is almost paid, I think I've got it made. I'll walk the line with so much jubilation. A twinkle on the globe I now will be!

"As Alumni Association President, it is my personal hope that the Class of '88 will add a substantial representation to the growing ranks of NC Alumni who are dedicated to the promotion and support of our school. With each passing year I feel an increased responsibility to help NC draw from the valuable pool of alumni resources. As students, we needed NC's support — as graduates, we return that support!"

"My time spent at Northwest College preparing for the ministry has proven to be a strong foundation for continued growth. The relationships built as students in the classroom, as well as on the dorm floor, have become life-long friendships. In fact... I work with a few of them right here at SCC. Thanks NC!"

"From the perspective of a minister of music, my four years at NC were invaluable. Becoming involved in such an excellent music program, including three years with King's Choralons and four years traveling with a public relations team, has had a great influence on my ministry at Shoreline Community Church. I highly recommend Northwest College and say 'thank you' to NC for some of the best years of my life!"

"My time as Men's Dean of students living in the dorms at Northwest College made me realize that our young people have great potential for Christian service. Northwest College is doing a tremendous job in preparing these young people for service in the local church and around the world. Pastors can add much value to their ministry by giving special attention to their young people."

"Looking back over my years at Northwest College reminds me of the warm, friendly atmosphere with people who were genuinely concerned about my future plans. My ministry now at Shoreline Community Church has been greatly enhanced by Northwest College and all of the benefits offered to students. Traveling with the King's Choralons and summer ministry teams, studying under dynamic professors, and experiencing great relationships created the kind of experiences needed here at SCC. Thanks N.C."

"I have been privileged to associate with NC over several decades as a student, PR Director, and Alumni Association President. As you will find, any contributions we make to our school are amply rewarded by our school's contributions to us."

You don’t have to say Good-bye!

Graduation is always a bittersweet occasion. The exultation of accomplishment. Relief. And sadness at parting. But one of the lifetime benefits of attending an Assemblies of God college is that you have plugged into a vast, around-the-world network of churches where you’ll always be welcome. Mention the name of your college and someone will say, “Oh, did you know...”

So wherever you go from here—home, to a new job, to grad school—we’ll be there, waiting to share fellowship and talk about how it was in ’88!
