Dedicated To Dr. Ming

Reaching Up To God . . .
Reaching Into His Word . . .
Reaching Out To Others . . .

Born on August 8, 1947, In Lynwood, California, J. Melvyn Ming was raised in a Pastor's home in the Southern California District.

He attended Southern California College and graduated in 1969 with credentials in Secondary Education.

His ministry prior to coming to Northwest included serving as Campus Pastor and teaching history at Monte Vista Christian High School in Watsonville, California; Youth Pastor at First Assembly of God Fairbanks, Alaska; Youth Pastor at Walnut Hill Assembly of God in Dallas, Texas; Associate Pastor at Capital Hill Assembly of God in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; and Associate Pastor at First Assembly of God in Grand Junction, Colorado.

He and his wife, Martha, were married in June of 1971 and now have two daughters, Hannah Marie, born in September of 1977, and Rebekah Ann, born in November of 1979.

Dr. Ming came to Northwest in 1976 as a teacher of Evangelism and Christian Education. He later developed the Youth Ministries Program. In 1981 he received his Doctorate of Ministries. His Thesis was on Time Management for Assemblies of God Ministers.

Campus Days 1985

For three days, March 28, 29, and 30, approximately 700 high school students from all over the Northwest lived in the dorms and experienced life at Northwest College.

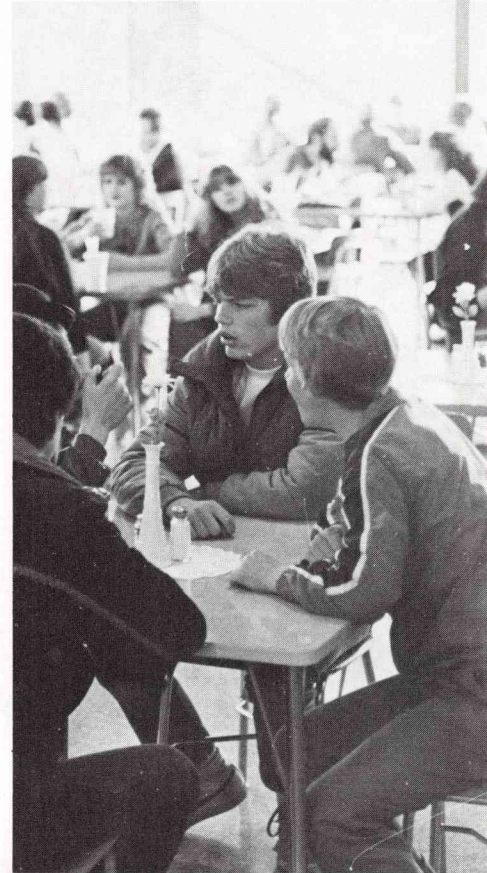

Visiting students attended our classes and a special chapel and praise time, and then participated in a gym night.

NC students had a chance to join in by directing traffic, giving tours of the school facilities, and opening their dorm rooms for visitors to stay in.

Although cold showers, long lines, and hard floors were in abundance for those three days, the excitement and thrill of Campus Days remained.

School Play

MORNING STAR—The Story of Esther

Morning Star, the annual school play, was an epic drama presenting the Bible story of Esther. The play carried a conviction to follow God's plan for our lives — life or death — as Esther did.

As the story came to life under the direction of Clinton Byrd, Esther (Lisa Peretti) was truly challenged to live the scriptures Mordecai (Arthur deVictoria) had taught her. Taken to King Ahasuerus' palace (Gary Mariegard), her life was a witness of her love for God to all in the King's palace. Haman (Dennis Cox), the courtiers (Rick Beins, Dareld Chittim, Eric True), Hegai (Nathan Sieler), Esther's fairmaidens (Karen Harvey, Debbie Robinson, Teresa Girton, Heidi Notter, Cindy Nancarrow), the gatekeeper (James Dorn), the king's wiseman and emissary (Yohan Fernando), Esther's maid and page to the king (Karen Heuser), servants (Renee Nelson, Victoria Nelson, Cynthia Resendez), and the soldiers (Henry Thomas and Junior Futi) made up the rest of the cast.

Last, but in no way least, those who ministered behind-the-scenes with lighting, make-up, costumes, stage design and setting, etc., helped immensely to produce a tremendous ministry through theatre. A very special thanks to Glenn Harris for all his input, time, and effort.

Spring Banquet

"The Sky is the Limit" - An appropriate theme for the 1985 Spring Banquet held at the Sea-Tac Red Lion Inn on April 27th. The evening began with dinner served in a romantic atmosphere created by the background music of a harpist. Professor Hobson and Professor Johnson then carried on with their lines "That'll be the day" and "There's no truth to the rumor . . ."
" President Hurst announced wedding engagements which were followed by the Senior and ASB appreciation awards, which were given to Dwaine Braddy and to the faculty as a whole respectively. Special guest Roby Duke concluded the evening with both fun-filled and serious music.

All School Picnic

Tim: "Hey, Whatcha Guys Looking At?"

"CHEESE"

Steve Watches The Game.

Kim: "Is This Really Necessary?"

It was a hot sunny spring day, May 15, 1985, as all of us gathered together at Marymoor Park for the annual Northwest College All School Picnic. The activities planned for the day included the tennis championship games, softball, volleyball and relay races. Unplanned activities included football, frisbee, and water fights!

We had a great turnout of students, families, and faculty. The Juniors were the over-all winners in softball. The relay races gave us a chance to acquire a taste of flour-covered jelly beans while dizziness resulted from running around a baseball bat ten times. Our coordination was tested in the chain gang and sit-on-my-lap-please circle.

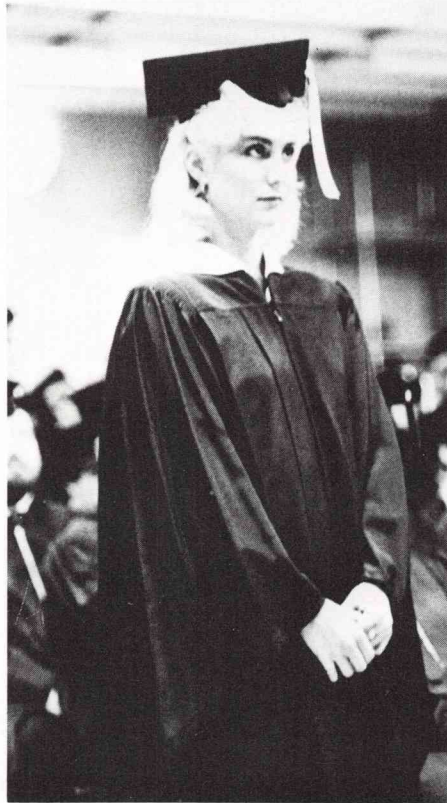

There was 100% participation by the hungry picnickers as the first N.C. open grill chow line opened for business. With much appreciation to the cooks and to the delight of everyone's tummies, the food was devoured! Because of Dwayne French's coordinating efforts and those of his helpers, the Northwest College "85" All School Picnic turned out to be #1!

So it was with weary bodies,
sunburned skin,
we all went home,
knowing that next year,
we would return,
to picnic once again!

Graduation

Let The Glory Be God's

Four years of toil, good memories, close friendships and feeling our way now culminates at graduation. The time of preparation is past. Now we must pick up our cross and join the ranks of the Lord's army, moving like a wave. Together we will heed the command to go into all the world and preach the gospel. And we know we don't go alone, for God is ever with us, leading and guiding, reaching through us as we allow ourselves to be His tools. As the Spirit develops in us those qualities that will allow us to accomplish God's will, a burden and love for the lost and determination to spread the word, we will see the victory over our enemy. And all the while we shall give our Lord praise, for in the midst of trials and joy we will remember to "Let The Glory Be God's."

Bonfire

According to many upper classmen, this year's bonfire ranks among the best. Foot stompin' country western-gone-Christian music played by Mel Steinmeyer, Darryl Johnson, and Gary Cox kicked it all off. The group, "Vision," with their God-given talent for music, inspired us with songs of worship and praise. Hearts were warmed by worship, but nearby a different kind of heartwarming awaited us. The sudden burst of flames from the bonfire was accompanied by screams from the new freshmen and sighs of relief from the women who were cold. All in all it was great fellowship with God and His people — an excellent way to start the '85-86 school year.

New Student Picnic

Fun and excitement were in the air at the New Student Picnic. Keith Knutson and Randy Hunt headed up an afternoon filled with volleyball, softball and the unforgettable pull-apart.

The afternoon was topped off with hamburgers, hot dogs, strawberry shortcake and other delicious food served by the faculty.

The picnic proved to be a great way for everyone to get to know each other and gave the '85-86 school year a great start.

Harvest Time Social

This Program Was Sponsored In Part. By Your Friendly Neighborhood Mafia.

The Harvest Time Social was a "Hee Hawin'" time. Organized by the Sophomore Class, the theme of the social was Western.

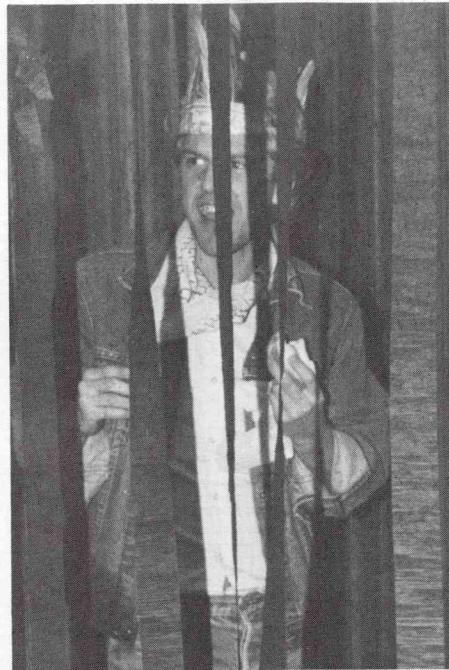

The many exciting booths included the Junior Class pie contest, the Sophomore Class jail, the Freshmen Class pie and cake auction (with Troy Jones as Auctioneer), Bessie McMullen's Job Search booth (with free pizza and candy), and the Married Students' bee-bee shoot.

The fun increased as the evening moved on. Alexander Solomon, with his unique head shaking method, won the apple bobbing contest. In the yodeling contest, Doc Swaffield really took the cake. The balance beam, blindfolded pillow fight was a smashing success with John Wilson coming out on top. Even Valerie Jenkins gave it her best shot, but John showed no mercy. Tina Myers came out on top for the women after an exhilarating round with Kandi Cotton.

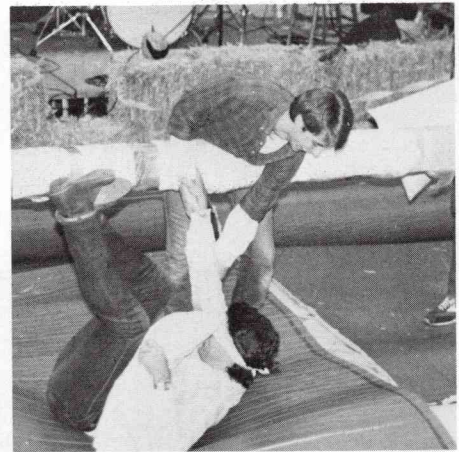

The evening ended with some good 'ole foot stomping, hand clapping music by Dean Tex and the Potato Family Singers.

Foreign Student Banquet

"A Heart for Missions" was the theme for this year's foreign students and missionary kids banquet. The evening began with an opening prayer by Dr. D.V. Hurst.

Delicious food was served to the guests by members of the Campus MIG, headed by Mel Steinmeyer, Joani Brothers, Eva Helimaki, Maria Simons, and Yohan Fernando. A welcome was given by Rev. Duane Dorsing, followed by the song, "My Brother's Keeper", sung by Mike Ness, Sandy Dorsing, and Brent Foreman. The wonderful evening ended with a closing prayer from Dean "Tex" Rutledge.

Bruises, twisted ankles, and sprained fingers were all a part of the exciting school skating party, Tuesday night, October 22.

Between Linda Brooks yelling "three, three, three . . ." and Mel Steinmeyer chasing his dog, Spot, the skating party was quite a "Smashing Hit."

There were many exciting events: men and women speed skating, couples, and threes, accompanied by exhilarating music, all hosted by our one and only D.J., Russ Dickhoff.

Open Dorms

Northwest College's annual Open Dorms was marked by high excitement and enthusiasm this year as floors were decorated with a variety of creative themes.

A tour of the Women's Residence started the traditional Christmas festivities. The winning door, which was "Caesar's Taxes" by Kandi Cotton and Michele Bowdre, was found on the award winning floor: Guy 100 Mainstreet, with the theme "Christmas in Bethlehem." Honorable mention went to Crowder 300 Neighborhood with "Christmas in Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood."

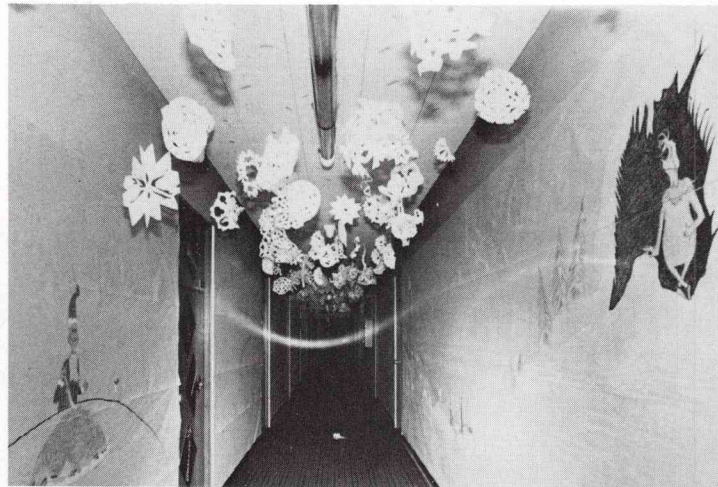

The excited "tourists" then turned their attention to the Men's Residence where the award winning Beatty 100 "Azusa Street" displayed the theme "The Grinch Who Stole Christmas." Honorable mention went to Gray 400 "The Boys" with "Christmas in California." The winning floor, found on the winning floor, was by Rick Parsons.

The aroma of foreign foods filled the air, as you entered the gym. Tasting foreign foods was a new experience for many NC students. Representatives from countries such as Sri Lanka, Jamaica, Japan, Norway, and Pakistan tantalized our tastebuds. The American hot-dog was nowhere to be found, but foods from curry to rice were served by NC foreign students and missionary kids. Students left the food fair with a little taste of the mission field.

Homecoming/Parents's Weekend

This year's Parent's Weekend was a resounding success as the campus of Northwest College prepared for a weekend of revelry. Homecoming festivities were produced and directed by Russell Dickhoff and Kathy White with special hosts, Dr. Randy Barton and his wife Bobbie.

Freshman Princess Kandi Cotton escorted by Jed Minton, Sophomore Princess Colleen Sorenson escorted by Dave Strepka, and Junior Princess Karen Hendrix escorted by Dareld Chittim were introduced, to the theme of "My Heart's Desire," during the Friday chapel. The Senior court consisted of Maria Simon escorted by Allan Fox, Stacy Wells escorted by Mike Teixeira, and Kelli Pace escorted by Kevin Sample.

Slides from the Senior court's past allowed us to see a more personal side of their characters. A cameo appearance of a portrait of Dean Diana gave us a laugh.

Kelli and Kevin were crowned Homecoming Queen and King amidst a cascading shower of red, white, and black balloons during the half-time of the basketball game.

Saturday brought a change of pace in entertainment as parents and students were treated to performances by Maranatha Sounds and King's Choralons in the chapel after an elaborate brunch in the cafeteria.

Volleyball

A seasoned team bedazzled NC with their excellence this year on the volleyball court. The quick enthusiasm of the rookies mixed with the experienced moves of the returning players combined to produce a team that tied for first place in the league. Exceptional character and unity among the team members, as well as the much appreciated support and enthusiasm of fans, produced a winning team in every respect, both on and off the court. Weekly devotions in the book, "Pursuit of Godliness," were led by Kari Brodin, assistant coach, along with Rachel Elenbaas and coach Kristi Brodin. These helped the team work on development of important attributes necessary to character success, not only in the sport itself, but in all aspects of life.

Expectations are high for another winning team next year. Seasoned players are looking forward to returning and are excited about the rookies who have expressed interest so far. "If God be for us, who can be against us?"

Soccer

A Display Of Team Work

Kamakazi Soccer

Setting Up For A Goal

The '85 soccer team played well, had fun, and kept a good attitude, but just could not put the ball in the net enough to claim a winning season. Problems such as a slow start, coaching changes, and injuries plagued the players, but in spite of their struggles they played with intensity. Under the direction of coaches Doug Clark and Ricardo Quintana and the frequent scoring of Yong Yi the team played some good control ball and built a solid foundation for future years.

Basketball

The men's basketball team opened the season on a positive note with the return of seven of last year's top players. High expectations of "going all the way" to take the national title helped to inspire determination in the players and made for an exciting season. John Brown's coaching provided the foundation for a solid team.

The girl's basketball team possessed powerful potential as the strongest team yet in the 1985-86 season. Their team goals were to represent the Lord and Northwest College; to achieve the potential they hold; to play as a team; to win games; and to head for Georgia where the National Tournament was held!

Intramural Football

A loud roar awakened the sleeping students. Listening closer, one could hear grunts and groans and a few cheers.

For most of Fall Quarter this was the scene on the football field on Saturday mornings. These determined football players would not let rain, snow, or sleet stop them from their games. Fierce competition between the teams ended up with a championship game between 500 floor and 400 floor with 400 "The Boys" coming out victorious.

5-K Run

The 1985 5-K Run was held on Saturday, March 2. Three hundred thirty-five people finished the run. Of these, some came from as far as Anchorage, Alaska. Others came from all over Western Washington.

The first place runner, Tom Smith, from Mill Creek, Wa, finished the run in 15 minutes, 20.1 seconds. Gary Gustafson, professor Phil Gustafson's son, came in second at 15 minutes, 50.1 seconds. The first NC student to finish the run was Mark Aho.

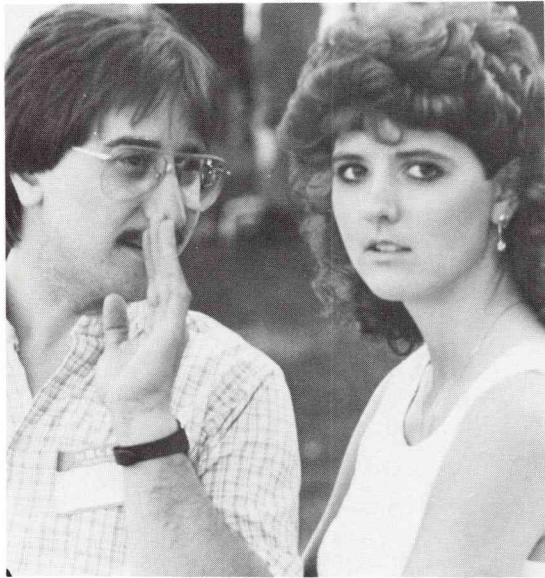

Every person to finish the run received a T-Shirt, first place trophies were given in 12 categories, and over $500 in gift certificates were given away by random drawings. The presentation of trophies was done by special guest, Dave Brown, All-Pro Seahawk cornerback.

Forensics/KCNC

A new coach has taken the helm of the Forensic Team this year — Mr. Gary Gillespie. Under his leadership, Jan and Eric Thompson, Lydon Glassow, Rob Frazer, Pam Pulley, Gina Frigeri, Valery Jenkins, and Arnie Lidnin have put our team in 2nd place in our division. A goal at Northwest is to train students to become better communicators in public speaking. Mr. Gillespie feels a way to accomplish this is through speech competition. His goal is for an enlarged forensic program of 20-30 students and the addition of a debate team.

Traveling to far away places, meeting new friends, and growing in confidence are the rewards of joining and working with the Forensic Team.

Along with coaching the Forensic Team, Gary Gillespie is the advisor of our own KCNC radio station. Working hard to repair the damage that had kept KCNC from operating, the radio team had managed to put KCNC back on the air, broadcasting live from the SUB.

Associated Women Students

1985-86 has been a "Year of Change" in AWS. The Associated Women Students sponsored many new events such as the Olympics, Carol Lip-Syncing (an added twist to Open Dorms); and they brought a whole new meaning to Roomies Night Out (Come Fly the Friendly Skies With Me-Airport 86). However, the main priority of AWS was to provide opportunities for the women students of NC to grow together in Christ, building relationships that would last long past graduation. This year was very successful due to the bond in leadership and the help and constant support of our advisor, Dean Diana.

Associated Men Students

Dean Mick Applies The Biblical Concept Of Being A Servant.

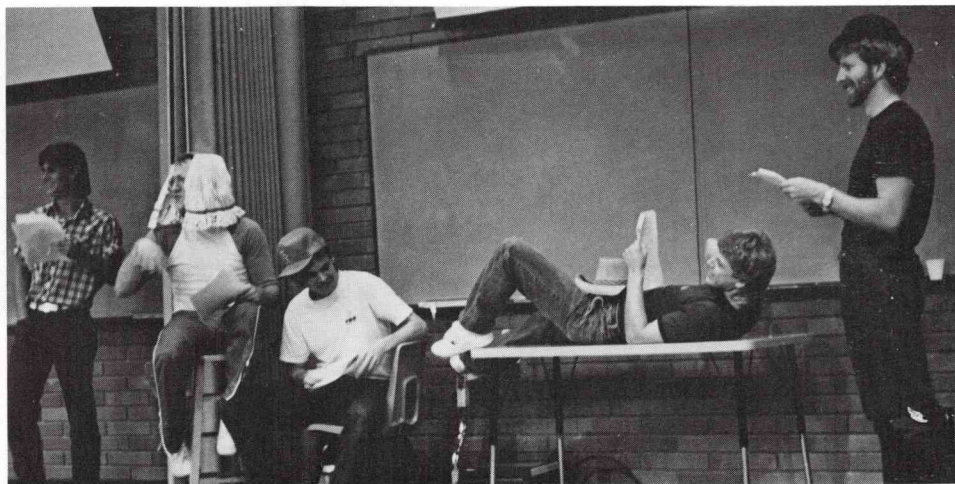

The goal of the Associated Men Students this year was to promote unity and spiritual growth. Activities planned throughout the year were aimed at drawing men students together for fellowship by drawing us closer to God and to each other.

Highlights of the year began with the Fall Quarter Prayer Breakfast with Tom Hinton. Seahawks night was a great time of "football fellowship," watching the highlights film and giving away a pair of Hawks tickets. Open dorms on December 6 was combined with AWS to put together a memorable evening topped off with the Christmas Lip Sync.

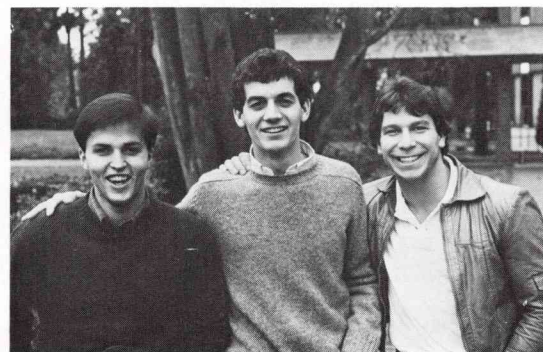

Weekly Tuesday Night Prayer Meetings were an opportunity to come together for prayer and worship with other guys. It was the leader's goal that overall the year could be termed "A Year of Growth" in every one of our lives here at Northwest.

Seahawks

"Timber," was the call as another long team resident gave way to the development of twelve acres of land on our college campus. The land was being developed by the Seattle Seahawks to become their new headquarters and training facility.

The finished site will consist of three football fields, a 40,000 sq. ft. training and office facility, streets, parking, and sidewalks. Two of the fields will be of natural turf and one will be astroturf, bubble covering. The college will have use of the astroturf, bubble-covered field for its soccer and intramural programs during certain times of the year. The Seahawks are leasing the property for twenty years with two five-year renewal options. They are spending four to five million dollars towards this development, which will revert to the college at the end of the lease period.

The impact of the addition of the Seahawks to our college campus is immense, both in financial help and in the interaction we will have with the team. Just think, the entering in of this relationship started with a casual conversation between our coach John Brown and Jim Witsel, a Seahawk trainer.

Library

Li • brar • y (Lí'brer'é) n.

1. A room or building where a collection of books, etc., is kept for reading or reference. 2. A place students go to "study to show thyself approved unto God ..."; do homework assignments, read books, watch the library staff working, glance through newspapers, observe people outside the library and, of course, each other.

The library is a quiet place to spend time studying and to find resource materials, as well as resourceful people eager to help.

Dan Paulson, Murray Kemper, William Flisram, Jim Wilson, Leonard Haarstad, Arvel and Clara Shipley, Sherrill Shipley, Marian Wortham, Shirley Kemper, Kenneth Nollette, Laura Bennett, Richard and Carol Koefod, Melody Goetz, Clara Haarstad, and Gloria Van Dyne. These are the people who make up the ranks of the maintenance, custodial, and kitchen crews. They have served as an example to all of us by exemplifying the Christ-like character of "service to others" in the performance of their duties. Truly they are greatly appreciated for their work which has helped to further the body of Christ here at Northwest College.

Bookstore And Snack Shack

In every college you will find a need for classrooms, a bookstore and a snack shack. Our college campus is fortunate enough to have all three. We already know about the first one so let's take a look at the last two, the bookstore, and the snack shack, and the people who work there.

The bookstore is managed by Esther Pecota, assisted by Jackie Randolph. Esther Pecota, wife of Dr. D. B. Pecota, has twenty-two years of faithful service in the bookstore. She enjoys the personal contact with the students, also the ever-present opportunity for learning. Mrs. Pecota enjoys the Fall Quarter of each year the best. She likes the fresh start, the new students to get acquainted with, and being able to help them in a positive way. Mrs. Randolph, wife of Mr. William Randolph, has ten years of faithful service in the bookstore, also six years in the library and two years now as a part-time professor. She enjoys the contact with the students and working with books. The first couple of weeks of each quarter with students and books constantly coming and going, is her favorite time of the school year.

In the snack shack Diane Thomlinson (four year assistant manager), attends to student needs. She is assisted by Rhoda Miller and by Kelly McClennahan. Each of these ladies enjoys meeting the students on campus and getting to know them a little better.

To each of these ladies our deepest thanks for a job well done!

Jackie Randolph and Esther Pecota

There's a popular phrase recently used by the more radical vivacious people. „Why Be Normal Be Why. This says it all for our Student leaders. Above average, beyond weirdness, on top of ideas, and most importantly they are excited about serving God.

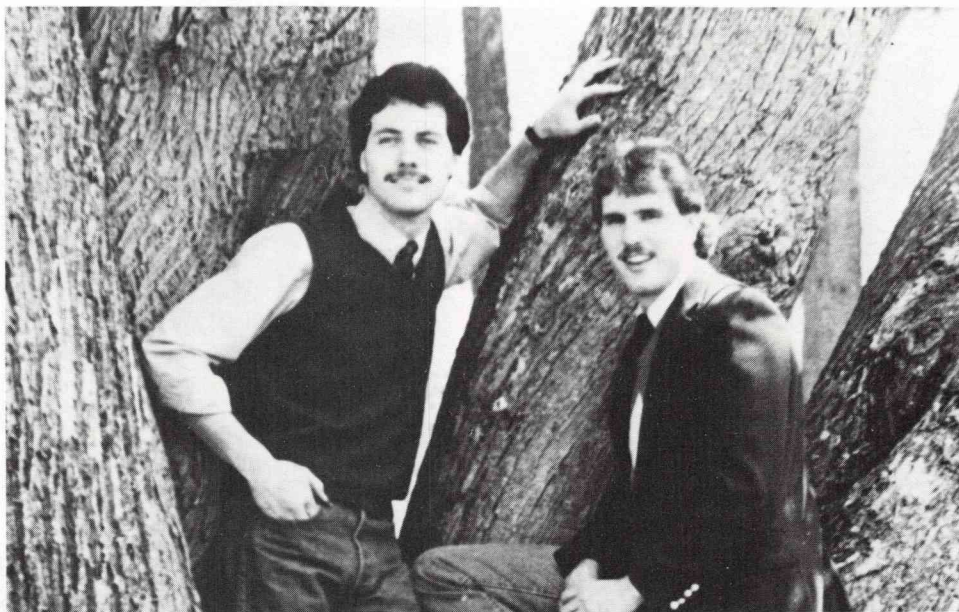

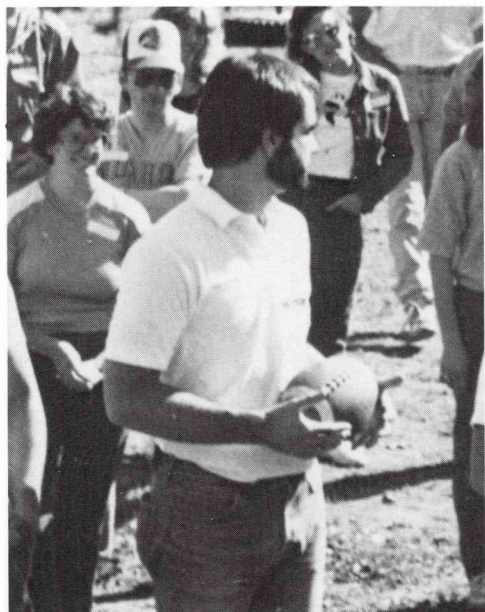

Dwayne French with the help of John Wilson, Tami Folsom, and Marilyn White, has led W.O.M. into greater outreaches than ever before. Allan Fox, Linda Brooks and Pat Ungles, have been responsible for the great success of our major activities, including the Bonfire, and the Spring Banquet. Both the AWS officers, (Karen Hendrix, Dolores Shulz, Stacy Wells, Anna Marie Holm) and the AMS officers, (Glen Johnsen, Jeff Spesock, Eddie Kish) have done an incredible job in their activities such as "The Olympics" and "Seahawk Night with the men."

The individual class leaders have also contributed a great deal to our successful year. Russ Dickhoff, Andy Crateau, and Kathy White have been very instrumental in the planning of homecoming and other dunk-tanking ideas. What Class! Also I've very much appreciated our Junior Class officers (Mark Aho, Dareld Chittim, Kristi Young), Sophomore Class officers (Henry Thomas, Randy Hunt, Jeanne Scott), and the Freshmen Class officers (Dave Hancock, Tami Bennett, Kandi Cotton). Also, a "Job Well Done" especially in the area of chapel services by MSA officers (Joe Overly, Eric Thompson, and Colleen Overly).

Thank you everyone for an Awesome Year. I'm Jazzed to see where each of you will find yourself a year from now. I love you all very much.

Resident Assistants

The job of a Resident Assistant is multi-faceted. Responsibility for assisting in the administration of programs and services is just one aspect. Developing a sensitivity to and rapport with the residents on their floor is their major concern. Whether it be to comfort or counsel someone struggling with personal or academic problems, or just to be a friend with an encouraging and listening ear, they strive to provide the support and proper setting of a true family relationship. It's a challenging job, accepted with a great deal of pride and love.

Evangelism MIG

The Evangelism MIG under the leadership of John Mavin, experienced a year of growth in outreach, discipleship, and many other areas of ministry. Students viewed the MIG as both a training ground for witnessing and a vital opportunity for ministry. Through outreaches such as street witnessing, boat ministry, concert outreaches and the follow-up program, which was headed up by Beth Haney, many people were won to the Lord and eventually became founded in local churches. Important lessons learned this year were that God uses availability, not always ability; God is concerned with our attitude, not our aptitude; people that are fully yielded are fully used; and God needs people who are willing to go and work in his fields.

Community Service MIG

"Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of mine, even the least of them, you did it to me."

The goal of the Community Service MIG has been to touch the community with the love of Christ our Lord. Our ministry has been extended to the elderly and to the fatherless boys - people who need to be touched with Jesus' love.

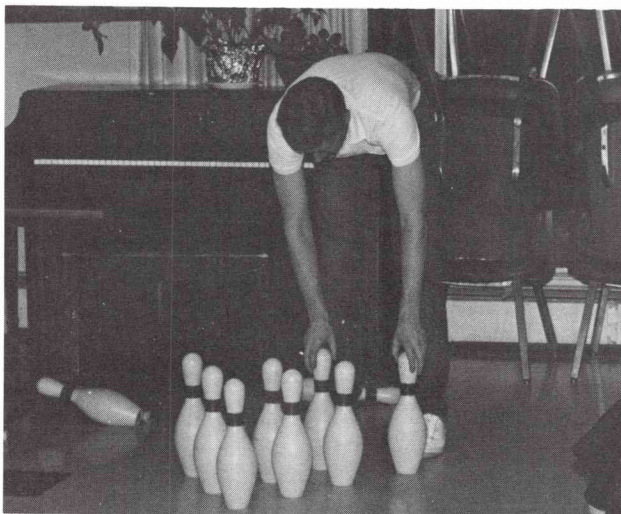

Holding the hand of an elderly woman or playing soccer with a fatherless boy seem like meaningless tasks, but through these actions the Community Service MIG has expressed love and concern for the community.

David Lindquister, Co-Leader Jerry McCarn, Scott Cherry, Co-Leader Mark Chamberlain, And Naomi Sanderson.

Campus MIG

The Campus MIG was reconstructed this year to better accomplish its purpose and to serve the student body in a greater measure. The role of floor chaplains was taken over by the RAs while Eva Helimaki, Maria Simon, and Yohan Fernando were selected as overseers of their respective halls and to support co-leaders Joani Brothers and Mel Steinmeyer. Through hall prayers, singspirations, and specially planned activities such as the Foreign Student and MKs banquet, the Campus MIG provided avenues for spiritual growth.

Gospel Teams

Ministering throughout the State of Washington in churches, retreats, missions, and prisons; students participating in Gospel Teams, not only learned a lot about the various aspects of ministry but saw God touch peoples' lives in many ways.

Much effort on the part of the teams went into preparing for these services. Through ministry such as drama, music, preaching and testimonies; Gospel Team provided opportunities for students to develop and share their talents with others. A special thanks is given to individuals who helped fill in and hold services as needed.

Drama Club

Drama Club experienced a year of expansion. They became a division of WOM, created DIG's (Drama Interest Groups) and Acts 29 (which wrote new skits), held drama workshops, and put on a Dinner Drama — The Tall Stranger. ACTS continued to travel to churches and youth functions throughout the area, presenting the Gospel through skits.

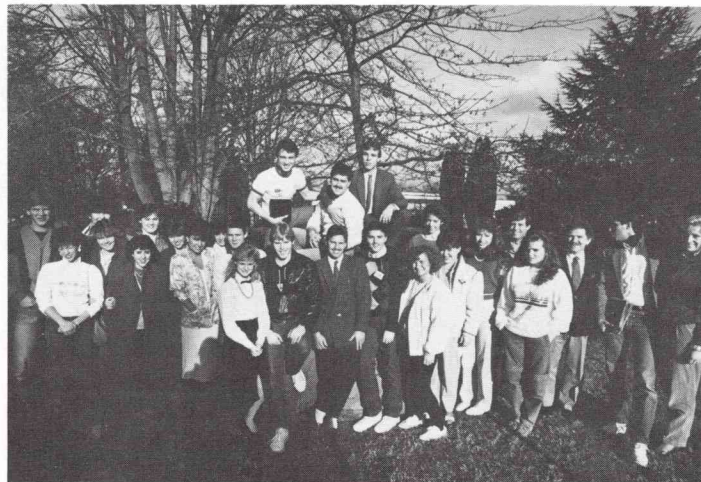

Gary Mariegard and Dareld Chittim shared the office of President, with Dareld specifically leading ACTS. Lisa Etulain was Vice-President and Julie Dickhoff was Secretary-Treasurer.

Missions MIG

The Missions MIG has the purpose of keeping the student informed and involved in missions. Home missions was emphasized through "Operation Turkey", a very successful activity over the last several years. Operation Turkey went to Quilcene, Washington, this year, where they helped the pastor with a new building.

Foreign missions was emphasized through group prayer. This prayer is specifically aimed at missionaries, foreign countries, and world concerns. The MIG also promotes missions through chapel speakers and other informative literature.

Youth MIG

Getting students involved in ministry with youth was the goal of the Youth MIG this year.

Under the leadership of Lalonda Musil, the main area of involvement was Echo Glen Children's Center. Eighteen NC students volunteered four to five hours a week to work with delinquent youth. Other areas of involvement were Campus Life and Young Life; organizations that work with youth in the high schools and neighborhoods in the Kirkland area. A youth rally, for the churches on the Eastside was planned for Spring Quarter, under the direction of Kim Lydy, where NC students worked as organizers, ushers, and counsellors.

Spring Spiritual Emphasis Week

President Hurst And Dr. Dobbins Sharing Scripture Before Chapel.

"Anger Is Unexpressed Energy."

God Is More Interested In Your Walk Than In Your Work.

Dr. Richard Dobbins was the Guest Speaker during Spiritual Emphasis Week, April 1-5, 1985. His series on the Believer and: Self-concept, Fear, Anger, and Depression helped to bring students to a greater understanding of their mental and spiritual health.

Self Concept: Your best friend or your worst enemy is yourself, God wants us to feel unworthy but not worthless. Ask yourself how you feel when you're alone.

Fear: I John 4:18, "No fear in love . . .", II Timothy 1:7, "God has not given us a spirit of fear . . ." All people fear, some fears are healthy, God doesn't want us to be bound to him by fear and anxiety but by joy and peace.

Anger: 1) Accept anger as a fact of life, 2) Become aware of your anger, 3) Control your anger.

Depression: The "common cold" of emotional illness today. People suffer from depression because: 1) They're human, 2) Of physical disorders, 3) Of grief, 4) Of chemical disorders.

God Works In The Hearts Of Those That Will Come To Him.

Fall Spiritual Emphasis

Fall quarter spiritual emphasis week featured the dynamic speaker, Tom Hinton, a man with a burden for lost souls. Pastor Hinton has pioneered a church in downtown Boston, Massachusetts. He emphasized the importance of ministering to the inner-city population. He encouraged our souls with a deeper burden for the people of America. He shared his own experiences with the AMS and AWS in separate early morning prayer breakfasts.

Winter Spiritual Emphasis

NC Students Seek God's Will For Their Lives.

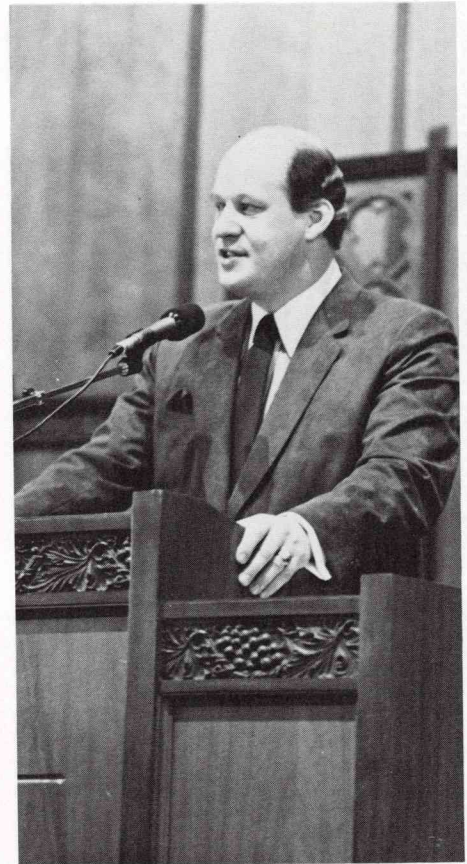

The theme for Winter Quarter Spiritual Emphasis Week was Missions. Speakers like Wayne Francis, Ken Benintendi, Darrell Elliot, and Del Kingsriter, challenged us to pray for missions. Statements like "You can measure your commitment to Christ by your reaction to Missionaries" and Matthew 9:37, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few . . ." changed lives and challenged hearts. The prayer of everyone's heart was found in Matthew 9:38, "Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest field."

SLAM!

A familiar and beloved person around campus the last couple of years has been Valerie Jenkins. Accompanying Valerie this year is Steffi, her seeing eye dog.

Valerie was born blind and has overcome many obstacles most of us have never encountered. Going to class, finding a professor's office or entering the noisy, crowded cafeteria is no problem for us with our eyesight, but for Valerie these have been challenges she has met cheerfully.

Majoring in Behavioral Sciences with a minor in Communications, her goal is to be a counselor for handicapped kids in the public school system.

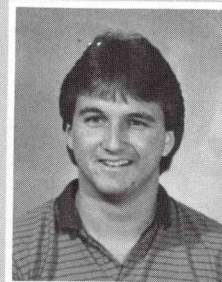

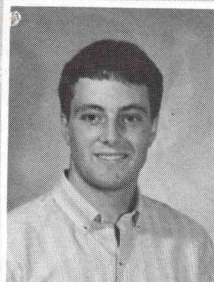

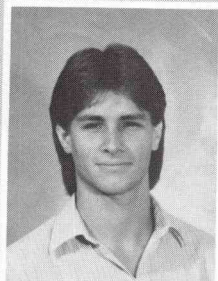

She attends Kenmore Assembly while at NC, and lives with her family in Wyoming when not in school. She accepted Christ at a youth convention when she was 16.

Good luck Val. Our prayers and love go with you. You have touched our lives and hearts here at NC.

1986 A/G Emphasis

We believe in tomorrow

'Living like there's no tomorrow' is a phrase that characterizes our time. Shaped by fear of the future, many are guided by an inner determination to grasp every experience, every reward now, whatever the cost.

Graduates, we believe in the future. Not a future to be anxious about, or hoard for. Rather we believe in a future held secure in God's hand. A future both here and hereafter that will challenge us and use us. A future in which personal sacrifice and selflessness are virtues.

The sun is not setting on mankind nor on God's plans for us. Nor on His plans for you. Go. Do God's work today, and tomorrow, and tomorrow.
