SNAPSHOT CONTEST EXTENDED

Few times in life do we get an extension of time to do a job, but here is once we do.

The Karisma Editor announced that the Snapshot Contest would be extended for one week, making the deadline of the snapshot contest March 12.

Here is additional time to get those snaps that you've been going to get out, and put them in the contest.

KOREANS NEED CLOTHING

Fun, fellowship and helpfulness will be the essence of the Oriental Band project which is to be underway by March 16th and completed March 21. Though the Korean need is far too great for us to meet alone, we will do our part during this week when we plan to gather hundreds of pounds of clothing. The clothing will be collected from those within the school and from canvassing the surrounding areas.

Assemble and sort out your old clothing and ask those with whom you live to do so also. CLEAN clothing with SIX months wear in it is acceptable.

Starting Monday the 16th, you may place your clothing in the white basket in the main hall. If you have a box of clothing, please see John Simpson, Kay Leid or Yvonne Easterly who will tell you where to put it.

WHERE WILL YOU BE MARCH 13TH?

Out side the University Christian Church at 4759 15th Ave. N. E., young people were happily talking. As they talked, others appeared, greeted the young people, and went into the building.

Both hands on the clock inside the church pointed straight down-six-thirty o'clock. Teachers and students were finding places at the long table so beautifully decorated for this occasion.

The occasion? Oh, yes, it has not taken place yet but will be the big event on Friday, March 13. Students and their friends and faculty members and their wives will be seated in the banquet room shortly after 6:30 P. M. After a delicious Swiss Steak dinner there will be special music and a skit presented by some of the students.

That is not all. Have you ever heard of Christian Hild? He is a well known youth speaker, and will be the speaker of the evening. You will not want to miss his inspiring message.

STUDENT ATTENDS SEMINAR

Ronald DeBock will leave for Springfield, Missouri today, to attend the Annual Deaf Seminar.

In Springfield, he will be a member of the panel that will discuss the subject "Pioneering New Works Among the Deaf." Ronald is a qualified speaker on this subject having pioneered the work in Tacoma, Seattle, and contemplates starting a work in Everett.

"Singing I go, on Life's way; praising my Lord, praising the Lord."

Choir members have been literally singing their way to each place during their week of conventions. On the bus they have been singing their numbers a capella with the aid of a pitch pipe, of course.

The choir has been in C. A. Rallies at Kelso, Olympia, Kingstons, Sedro-Wooley and White Center. From 200 to 600 people were in attendance each evening, Rev. John McCullough brought messages which were primarily geared to those of C. A. age.

On Monday the choir had to leave early in the afternoon thus creating a program in regard to the slight matter of eating supper. While the bus stopped for gas in Rainier, they invaded a nearby grocery store en masse and brought back apples, cookies, crackers, pop, and even cracked wheat bread and bologna for sandwiches! After their Olympia engagement, they stopped for a snack at a drive in. Here they had a chance to witness for the Lord by singing "O Happy Day" for the waitresses. Coming home from the Kingston meeting (they had to run to catch the ferry),

LEADER PROVES EFFICIENT

Dick Ackerman has been a fine leader in the African Missionary Band. The meetings have not dragged nor has there been a lack of interest.

During one meeting he gave out slips of paper and asked each student to write something on the slip. They were to write their names and whether or not they were planning to go to Africa or if they had a call to that field.

The results were very good and Dick read most of them back to the Band in the next meeting. Several were definitely called to Africa and knew where they were going. Others express their willingness to go if the Lord should call, while some stated that they had no definite call but wanted to pray for the missionaries and to give financial aid.

We thank the Lord for Dick, and also the African Missionary Band and the need it represents. The last meeting was spent in prayer for the missionaries and their needs and for the lost in Africa.

COURIER STAFF GOES PROGRESSIVE

On February 14th, the Courier Staff "piled" into four cars and proceeded to have dinner at the home of six different people. Six dinners? No, just one this was a progressive dinner.

The first course was served at Elaine Spady's apartment. It was "Love Apple Juice." In reality it was tomatoe juice, but the results were amazing!

The group then drove to Harry and Kay Leid's for Soup de pommes de terre (potato soup to the uncultured). While everyone was spooning their soup, from nowhere came the remark, "These smell just like the dorm bowls." After Mrs. Leid's face returned to her normal shade, she confessed that a young married couple just doesn't have enough dishes for 21 people.

FRESHMAN RETAIN STRONG

At their class meeting on February 12, the Freshman class voted unanimously to retain Don Strong as their president. This vote was necessary because Don became a sophomore, due to receiving more transfer credit than he had expected. Because Don has done such a good job as president, the class desired that he should remain in office for the rest of this school year.

GOOD REPORT FROM MANILA

God's power was greatly manifested in the A. C. Valdez Jr. campaign held in Manila, Philippines. The Islands of the Sea band received a report from Lester Sumrall, Manila, containing the report. Following is a portion of the letter:

"The A. C. Valdez Jr. revival was a wonderful success, being the largest protracted meetings in the nation's history. I secured the Manila race track for two weeks. Ten thousand sick and suffering came through the prayer line to receive help. Twenty thousand souls stood at the invitation for soul salvation. Three hundred and fifty-nine were baptized in water, being the largest baptismal service in the nation's history."

It is thrilling to hear such good reports of the moving of God's Spirit in the other lands.

Disaster struck Brother Sumrall's home at Christmas time. A thief broke into his home and stole a number of things. Among them were several hundred pesos and his watch. Our other missionaries may go through similar trials that we may never hear about. Therefore, it is vitally important that we hold them up in prayer in all things---spiritually, physically and materially for the arm of God is also extended to them in far flung battle lines.

SPORTCAST

It was fun while it lasted! The NBC basketball tournament games will not be finished because the contract for the gymnasium has run out. The games were really enjoyed by all those who attended. Each game was packed with thrills and spills and held the attention of the pepsters. The fellows played some good ball and were fine competition for each other. The losers as well as the winners showed good sportsmanship.

The fellows are looking forward to a thrilling baseball season. As yet no definite plans have been made.

The service at Lake City Tabernacle started out with the note of victory and ended with people weeping, praying, singing, and shouting. Throughout the service there were powerful messages in prophecy exhorting the people to be alive unto God. Previous to the Lord's visitation Harry Leid spoke to the C. A. group.

Next on the menu was "Cupid's Capsules" at the home of Sister Johnson. In the center of molded jello, chucked full of vitamins, were capsules borrowed from the infirmary that contained advice to the love-lorn.

Sam's Saucy Spaghetti was next on the bill of fare. Candy hearts and red and white candles on the loong table carried out the Valentine theme.

Don and Ross played host to the students for the fifth course of ice-cream topped by Ross's La Conner strawberries. A collection of missing coats, pocketbooks, and silverware appeared here. These were an accumulation of "borrowed articles" from each of the four preceding homes.

Dorothy Bender and Clara Kelsey, with the aid of the Bender household, prepared popcorn, punch, candies and coffee, which was served after a short time of games.

Sue Rhydblom received orders to write six stories, due within twenty-four hours, from the editor, when she introduced him to Mrs. Let'er Fly. He was the recipient of a wet wash cloth right in the face.

After minor repairs to Sister Johnson's car, each of the members of the staff left for home. What a time! Dinner in six homes, over a period of three and one-half hours!

Thanks to all that made such a fine time of Christian Fellowship possible.

they enjoyed a "sing" on the non-lit deck.

Even as the Choir members have enjoyed one another's fellowship, spiritual victories have resulted. During the rallies several were brought to Christ through the personal work of the choir members. Also, numerous young people have consecrated or dedicated their lives to the Lord. The Choir is looking for even greater results as they tour in eastern Washing-

IT HAPPENED ON TUESDAY

There was confusion to the nth degree in the halls of NBC Tuesday morning as the choir prepared to board the bus for their Eastern Washington tour of C.A. Conventions. Suitcases, cameras and choir outfits littered the floor, doors and hat racks. Girls with "steel works" still in their hair, and fellows in their cords, moon-tans and fancy hats made a motly crew of the usual impeccable choir.

The student body enjoyed the fine spirit as the choir sang, "A Mighty Fortress is Our God" and "Oh Happy Day."

At the close of chapel the students congregated outside to bid the choir good-by. Large red and black letters on banners at the sides of the bus stated, "Northwest Bible College Choir on tour."

The choir will sing in the spring C. A. rallies in some of the larger towns of Eastern Washington. They plan to return to the coast Saturday to be ready for their engagement in Everett all day Sunday.

Let's back our choir in these activities by devoting some time each day to prayer in their behalf.

ton for the remaining C. A. Rallies.
