NONA HANSON WINS CONTEST

Thank you for the wonderful response to the Karisma Snapshot Contest! The editor of the Karisma, with a note of praise in her voice, expressed that she was indeed satisfied with the response to the snapshot contest.

The winner of the contest, selected by the Karisma Staff, will receive a prize equivalent to one quarter's books. Nona is a fortunate person!

The runners up in the contest were Earlien Reamy, Shirley Wheeler and Elaine Spady.

MISSIONARY PROGRAM INSPIRATIONAL

The Thursday morning missionary chapel of March 12 was conducted by Leland Goheen. Richard Triese read from the Scripture and led in prayer.

Many of the students have answered "Here am I Lord send me," when the Macedonian call was presented to them. From these students, six were chosen, one to represent each mission band, to relate their particular experience.

Barbara Jewell related that when she was a child of ten she was called to Africa. Since that time she has lived for the day when she could go to school and prepare for that field.

Loyd Hinkle's call to India resulted in a consecrated yes. Since then he has found great joy

CLOTHING NEEDED KOREANS

Many Koreans will soon receive the clothing which the students of NBC have collected, cleaned, and mended. As the students canvassed this area for clothing Tuesday evening, they knew that God was with them.

The night was perfect--no rain and it was not cold! The comments afterward were varied. Many homes had given clothing to other organizations. The purpose of this drive was not to compete with them, but to see that all clothing was collected and used. The students enjoyed canvassing and agreed that "It was fun!" People in more than one hundred homes told them to come back the following Saturday for their clothing contributions.

We are very grateful to the Sunshine Cleaners, who are cleaning all the woolen clothing free of charge. Several of the N B C girls are washing and ironing the cotton clothing and doing any necessary mending. Our goal is to have all the clothing reach

SPEAKERS PROVE INTERESTING

Recent talks by Brother and Sister Peck within the African Band have stirred added interest. Brother Peck told of some of the native workers and their experiences; and also of his own duties in the Belgian Congo.

Last Friday, Sister Peck told more about the schooling and personal aspects of the natives in the Congo. The natives are very slow and unreliable when it comes to work and they need much "pushing" if anything is to be accomplished.

Sister Peck also told of her own consecration to God to go to the mission field and of her preparation for that field.

The members of the band have certainly appreciated these talks and are hoping the Pecks can come again and show them some of their pictures.

ANNUAL BANQUET SUCCESS

Candle lighted tables greeted the group of merry banqueters as they entered the lower auditorium of the University Christian Church. After each one had deposited his receipt with an usherette, he took his place at one of the tables. Ahead of him were food, fun and fellowship.

The tables, decorated by Yvonne Easterly's Decoration Committee, carried a spring motif. Daffodils and driftwood highlighted the centerpiece of each table, while at the head table there was a large bouquet of daffodils and forsythias.

The bill of fare consisted of Swiss steak, mashed potatoes with gravy, string beans, molded fruit salad, apple pie and coffee, tea or milk.

The theme of the banquet, "Not my will, but thine," was carried out in the skit, "The Dream of Daniel Parks." This play was written by Maurice Cline, Vivienne Linder and Ted Rihaneck. Dan Parks (Don Ostrom), an average Bible School student, was in a spiritual slump. But with the aid of Humility, Love, Obedience and Faith, he was brought out of the valley into victory.

That in the ages to come He might shew the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. Ephesians 2:7

Who can comprehend the love of God toward His children? Think of the great wealth of kindness He has already showered upon us: salvation for the soul, healing for the body, and peace for the mind. Think of the privileges He has already granted, of continual access to the Father and continual union with the Son through His Spirit. Think of His promise that all things which we have need of shall be added unto us; and then realize that all of this is but a foretaste of what He has reserved for those who love Him. We must await the "ages to come," for one age alone could not begin to unfold the riches of His grace.

COUNCIL WORK CONTINUES

During a recent Student Council meeting, the policy for the recorders and the projectors was accepted in its final form. This policy should eliminate misuse of this equipment. Harry Leid also appointed Linfield Crowder a s Chairman of a committee to begin plans for the All-School Picnic in May.

Other business consisted of a financial report by Jean Shah and a report of the "Week of Sharing" from Bob Bashor.

It is the duty of man to love even those who injure them.

Marcus Antoninus

(Continued from Page 2 Col. 2) registered on the faces of the students as the speaker, Christian Hild, announced that he had lost his notes. However, further search turned up the lost notes which happened to be a hammer! Brother Hild used the hammer to illustrate by parallel how the good points of a hammer should be in every student.

"Roses" go to Maurice Cline, overall Banquet chairman, and those that worked to make the banquet a success.

"Onions" go to all those that didn't come!

Three years ago Sue Rydblom began to work towards her goal of working for God in the Islands of the Sea.

Carl Fuller would desire no better place than to be in Europe telling of the love and grace of Jesus Christ.

The Homeland and Alaska need workers as well as the other nations of the world. Sam Smith, representative of the band, is seeking to be in God's will concerning a definite place of work for the Lord. He stated that God

GOSPEL TEAMS ACTIVE

The team that went to Weller Street Mission March 4th met a young Chinese who claimed Christ was incarnate in him. When Irvin Fate talked with the man, the man asked, "Whom do men say that I am?" He rebuked Irvin for not being in the Spirit for the Spirit would reveal to him that he was Christ! "But," said Irvin, "It was not difficult to discern by God's word that he was just another man with a twisted philosophy." Al Riden brought the evening message on the subject "God's Time Table."

Those going to Zion Mission conducted a street service which drew the attention of several. Three of them later went to the mission. Don Ostrom delivered the evening message. Leon Baublitz led the gospel singing.

Some experience in teaching was afforded those who went on the Goldbar assignment Sunday, the 8th. Richard Evans taught the adult class. Likio Fukio taught the teen-agers and Jeannie Horton told a Bible story to the primaries. Sam Smith was the speaker in the morning service and directed the message to the young people. "The Nature of Sin" was the subject of Richard Evan's message in the evening. Music was provided by Paul Bennett and Don Beam on their trumpets.

Leona Thomas brought a good message on "Worship" at the Aven-dale Assembly. Sister Williams accompanied the group and also taught a Sunday School class. A duet was sung by Anita Hagglund and Bob Basher.

Gospel tracts will be pinned to each garment. West Coast East Freight is shipping the clothing free of charge to Oakland, Calif.

Don't miss having a part in this project that has cost no more than time and effort, but means so much to the Koreans.

FRESHMAN HAVE REVIEW

Those freshman who did not attend the "Winter Wonderland" social in January, were given a small view of what they missed when a movie of the social was shown during the class meeting March 12. Also shown were some slides which were taken at Golden Gardens during Orientation week by Elaine Molvar.

JAPANESE DINNER PLANNED

During the regular class meeting the Sophomores had agreed they would have a social March 28. A committee was chosen to bring up ideas as to the type of social. In a special class meeting held Wednesday they discussed the ideas presented. They decided to have a Japanese dinner-- in true Japanese style!

If you don't come fellow Sophomore, we know that you will miss a real time of fun and fellowship.

SORRY!

Due to favorable circumstances to the student body the COURIER is late.

On Thurs. a number of the COURIER staff went to Portland, resulting in a one-day delay.

SINGING THEY WENT

(Second in a series covering the activities of our choir)

Tuesday morning the Choir sang two farewell numbers before they departed on their five-day C. A. Rally tour in Eastern Washington. After chapel the entire student body gathered around the bus to give them a good send-off. And send them off they did--- with the bus full of choir members, choir outfits, luggage, risers, instruments, and a miscellaneous assortment of pillows, blankets, cameras, food, et cetera.

The choir, along with Brother Oss, appeared in C. A. Rallies at Wenatchee, Yakima, Walla Walla, and Spokane. Each one of these meetings proved a blessing to both the district constituency and the choir members. The choir also rejoices that their goal of seeing thirty-two souls saved on the tour was reached.

While traveling, the choir also did some sight-seeing, stopping at Stevens Pass, the Aplet factory in Cashmere, the Alcoa Aluminum plant in Wenatchee, Spokane Falls and along the Columbia and Yakima Rivers.

The hospitality was wonderful! Several reported a noticeable increase in avoirdupois!

Choir members all report a successful time and are looking forward to next year. Who knows what can happen?

David Womack has been taking languages for several years preparing himself for the Latin American field.

June Farstad and Shirley Detling climaxed the program by singing, "Drifting."

This is the first of three Missionary Society programs to be presented to the students.

EUROPEANS NEEDY

Wanted-Old Clothes! The European Mission Band is having a clothing drive.

Plans in a recent meeting, were completed for this drive. After the clothes are collected and mended, the soiled ones will be cleaned free of charge by the Sunshine Cleaners. The clothing will then be sent to Germany for distribution.

The highlight of the meeting March 13 was a report given by Del McLaughlin on the trip to Germany his father made 3 years ago. The conditions found there were appalling-hungry, starving, naked children and emaciated, starving displaced persons. The response of the refugees in these camps to the "old gospel story" was amazing. On one occasion the refugees wept and cried, deeply moved to hear that God still loves them.

Prayer requests can be shared by all. Please pray that God will continue to give courage and faith to the refugees, for a spiritual revival among the pastors; and for those in the Eastern (Russian) zone of Germany.
