PICNIC - MAY 15TH

DATE WITH A DEADLINE

Four cars left the school on May second at six-thirty carrying the members of the Courier Staff and their guests to the Hilltop Cafe for the annual banquet.

As they entered the dining room they took their places around a T-shaped table. The color scheme for the evening was black, white and pink. In the center of the cross of the T was a large flower arrangement of white stocks and estherreid daisies and pink snap dragons, set off by black ribbon. Black and white candles furnished light for the tables. A sign bearing the theme of the banquet read, "Date with a Deadline." At the end of the table on a counter was the Courier Inspirational Trophy under a white

MISSIONARY ELECTION RESULTS

Bruce Mercer was elected as the new president of the Missionary Society. Bruce is from Wenatchee. Prior to his arrival at school he was a fireman in the Navy for more than two years. While in school he has helped in the work at Lago Vista and at present is young people's advisor there.

Bruce suggested that an appropriate theme for next year's missionary program is "What the world needs is Jesus," with the emphasis on the world-need rather than on the needs of the individual fields.

Our Vice-president-elect is Richard Treise. Before coming to NBC Dick attended Yakima Valley Junior College and Central Washington College of Education. He has been leader of the European Band for two years. This year he and LaVerne Clute have charge of the Tuesday night services at Weller Street Mission.

Dick has expressed the desire that Christ might guide each student into service where souls may be pointed to Him.

Dorene Fink will assume the secretary-treasurership. Dorene attended high school in Selah where she was secretary to her Spring has sprung, and the Karisma staff has taken advantage of it. Saturday evening an excited group of staff members went picnicing at Golden Gardens. They enjoyed a luscious picnic lunch along with their burned weiners. They were almost through eating when huge waves began rolling in and almost drenched the fire. However, the picnickers were not daunted and moved to another spot and built another fire.

The group sang a few chorsuses and Brother Millard brought a few encouraging and inspiring words about "Still Waters," using the 23rd Psalm as his text. The message seemed suited for the setting, for they could hear and see the waves as they dashed against the rocks.

Maurice Cline then introduced the 1953-54 Karisma Staff. Phyllis Shannon has been elected Editor. Evelyn Kalles was really (Continued on Page Four Col. 1)

GOSPEL TEAMS'

The Quartet recently traveled with the Mungers to Davenport. There they sang for both Sunday school and the morning worship service. After a delicious roast beef dinner at Pastor Frank Schneider's they traveled on to Quincy for the evening service. Brother Munger spoke at that service. One man was reconciled to God.

The fellows were amazed at Bob Martin's ability to rock the Pastor's baby to sleep with a fatherly touch!

The presence of the Lord was wonderfully witnessed as the team administered at Spanaway Sunday evening, May 3rd. Don Strong brought a message on the Bride of Christ, which encouraged everyone (Continued on Page Five Col 1)

scriptural interpretation

"THAT I MAY KNOW HIM"

"That I may know him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto death."

There are three aspects of Christ that Paul wanted to know: to know Christ, to know His power, and to know His sufferings. In the preceding verses he tells how he counted all things lost and that he had left everything in the way of natural abilities and desires so that he might grasp the excellency of the knowledge of Christ.

Next, Paul goes beyond the experience of just knowing Christ to that of knowing Him in the power of His resurrection. He desired to know and see the same power manifested in his life that quickened and raised up our victorious Lord over death and the grave.

Now Paul presses on still further to a deeper experience of knowing and having the fellowship of Christ's sufferings. He wanted to be a partaker with Jesus in all the physical and spiritual sufferings that He endured while in human flesh.

Why all this? That Paul might be made conformable unto Christ's death; that as a dead seed spring forth into the beauty of Christ's holiness.

This was Paul's desire; that through the knowledge of Christ, the knowledge of His power and the knowledge of His sufferings, he might be found resurrected in the image of Christ. May this be our desire too as we grow in the knowledge of Him.

For next year Dorene desires that each student have a greater openness to the call of the Lord that more of our students might be called to serve Him in various mission fields.

Those who went to Toledo Sunday can testify of the joy of the Lord in their soul. Dick Evans brought a timely message in the Morning service on "Water." Special music was furnished by Likio Fukui and an instrumental trio composed of Paul Bennett, Don Beam and Dick Evans.

Christian fellowship and a delicious meal of fried chicken, and strawberry shortcake, was thoroughly enjoyed by the students at the Pastor's home.

In the evening another inspiring message was brought by Francis Beardsly.

Richard Treise led the group that went to Goldbar. Ross Senff assisted at the piano and dramatized "The Healing of Naaman." John Simpson spoke for the morning service. Shirl Turner played a trumpet solo and Dorothea Thompson sang a solo. The trip to Godlbar was beautiful, and the Lord's presence made it most rewarding.

FRESHMEN ANTICIPATE DAY OF FUN

Members of the freshman class will gather at 9:30 on Saturday morning, May 9th, to drive to Pine Lake for a day of fun. Come with a big smile and be prepared for a good time.

Fried chicken, French fried potatoes and peas and carrots were served family style--thus permitting those who really indulge to become taxidermists.

During the dinner there was background music, made possible by a tape-recorder. Chatter and laughter, pranks and palaver helped to make the dinner very enjoyable. Don Ostrom led the group in singing a few choruses while Ross played the accordin.

Sam Smith, this year's editor, gave a few words concerning the success of this year, and a personal thanks to all that had a part on the staff. One of his remarks was that the success of the year is not counted by greatness, but rather by faithfulness. At the climax of his talk he awarded the Courier Inspirational Trophy to Yvonne Easterly.

Then Harry Leid, the man with all the answers, introduced the

In the interlude between the announcement of the Courier Staff and the Karisma Staff Charlotte Selig sang for the group.

Harry Leid then made the announcement of the members of the Karisma staff for next year. All the staff was glad for our Evelyn Kalles, who was named Assistant Editor of the Annual.

As a climax to an eventful evening, Sister Johnson gave a few words on the theme of the banquet, "Date with a Deadline!" Her words struck home in the hearts of the group.

The banquet closed with the chorus, "Without Him I Can Do Nothing."

MAY--A MONTH OF ACTIVITY

"Thirty days hath September,
April, June and November."
To really do what must be done,
May's days should number sixty-one.

The month of May is just full of activities for the NBC students. Everything in the way of social activities will take place within these crowded thirty days.

The month got off to a good start with the Courier Banquet and the Karisma Picnic. This was followed in a few days by the Senior Sneak to Lake Wilderness.

Close behind the Seniors are the Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen who will take their class outings on Saturday, the ninth.

The week of the eleventh will be busy with reading due collateral, working on work books and other general forms of relaxation! The climax of the week will be the All-School Picnic, May 15th. The All-School Picnic will be a day for fun and frolic...a day of baseball champions and sunburns--that is if the sun shines!

Appetites will undoubtedly be huge and a second call for lunch should be unnecessary. The outdoor life will blossom forth from our wintered listless forms. The next week will find intensified study, for just ahead loom those dark finals. Thought of the time you should have studied in the quarter becomes as fingers of accusation.

HOW SHOULD I COME TO THE ALL-SCHOOL PICNIC?

WELL RESTED AND READY TO HAVE A GOOD TIME.

Editor's Note

The articles entitled "What NBC means to me" are articles written especially for this and the next editions of the Courier, by some of the Freshmen having almost completed one year at NBC.

WHAT NBC MEANS TO ME

As this year swiftly draws to a close, I stop for a moment to think of what this year at NBC has really meant to me and what I have gained from it.

One thing that has meant particularly much to me is the fact that I have been able to get a richer and fuller knowledge of the Word of God, and in so doing I have been drawn much closer to Christ.

Another thing which has meant a great deal to me is the fellowship of other Christian young people in a Christian atmosphere where we have many common interests in serving Christ.

until the live coal was put upon his lips. He then was ready to go as a missionary. Linfield reminded us "We sit at home while millions are dying in sin and starvation--we need a touch from off the altar." The message stirred us to change our values from material to spiritual values that are lasting.

CHOIR EXCHANGE ENJOYED

Exchange Choir Concerts began when Simpson Bible Institute's Renanah Choir, under the direction of Russell Marshall, had charge of our Wednesday Chapel Service. Their quartet and trumpet trio each presented a lively number. The Choir sang unusual arrangements of several well-known songs: Christ The Lord Is Risen Today; The Holy City; Onward Christian (Continued Next Column.)

CHOIR MINISTERS TO DISTRICT

Calvary Temple was host to our college choir on NBC night, April 19th. The choir introduced one of their new numbers, an arrangement of "Showers of Blessing." Another hi-lite of this meeting was an NBC offering. Our president spoke on the theme, "Hope."

Our choir was on hand for the opening meeting of the Northwest District Convention on Tuesday evening, the 21st. There were numbers by the choir, the trumpet trio and a solo by Cal Robertson. Brother Neely, former Superintendent of the Wyoming District spoke on "The value of Broadcasting for Christ." His central thought was that since many doors are being closed to missionaries the gospel must be sent out over the air waves which know no national boundaries.

Choir members had charge of the C. A. Service at Bethany Baptist Church last Sunday evening. Participants were Carl Douglas, leader; Gerald Clifton, song leader; the Quartet; Dorothea Thompson, soloist; Barbara Voltz, accompanist; and Dave Womack, speaker. The theme of the message was "Walking in the Light."

For the evangelistic service that followed the choir sang several numbers and brought testimonies, followed by a message from Bud Actipus. Pastor Richard Bishop received an offering for the school. This was the last Sunday night appearance of the choir this season.

Soldiers; and Holy, Holy, Holy. One of their numbers was based on only the word "Alleluia". After the service students greeted the choir members and expressed their appreciation of the music. Thursday the NBC Choir had charge of Simpson's Chapel period as our part of the exchange services.
