BISHOP JOINS FACULTY

Doctor Crawford Bishop, father of Richard Bishop, will be a part-time member of our faculty next quarter. He comes to us as one who has studied and traveled widely.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland, he attended Randolph Macon Academy in Virginia. He received his B.A. degree summa cum laude from Dartmouth College. He has an L.L.B. (law) from the University of Maryland, an M.A. and a Ph.D. from Columbia University in New York City. He is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Honorary Society.

Doctor Bishop has been very active in government work. He was in the consular service in China for seven years, served with the Mexican Claims Commission of the Department of State for 15 years, toured the Latin American countries for the Library of Congress, and represented the government in legal work during the U.S. occupation of Japan at General MacArthur's Headquarters.

THANKSGIVING THANKFULNESS

When the New England colonies were first planted, the settlers endured many privations and difficulties. Being piously disposed, they laid their distress before God in frequent days of fasting and prayer.

At length when it was again proposed to appoint a day of fasting and prayer, a plain common-sense-old colonist rose in the meeting and remarked that he thought they had brooded long enough over their difficulties, and it seemed that they should amend their resolution for a fast and proposed in its stead a day of thanksgiving. This advice was taken from that day to this.

As we think of the mercies of God that enrich our lives at this Thanksgiving season, we find that our supreme reason for thankfulness centers in the Lord Jesus Christ.

In addition to our many temporal blessings and mercies we can add spiritual blessings to the list of things for which we can be thankful.

SCRIPTURAL INTERPRETATION

"A NEW commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another." John 13:34

Jesus spoke this commandment to those who were most devoted to Him. Why? Jesus knew that all human troubles in church and their relation to others stemmed from the elevation of self.

"Let no man think of himself more highly than he ought to think." Love is the standard we use to value our gifts and service to God and man. "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples if ye have love one to another." Without love, eloquence, prophecy, knowledge, faith, gifts to the poor, and even giving our bodies to be burned, are NOTHING without love.

We must affirm to ourselves our obligation to obey the law of the intellect rather than the impulses of the sensibility; to act virtuously we must act rationally, or intelligently, and not give ourselves up to the blind impulse. (Cont. on Col. 2) ses of our feelings.

Love does not operate for selfish end, but brings good to God and our fellowmen. Paul in his epistle to the Corinthians wrote; "Love suffereth long, is kind, envieth not, vaunteth not itself and is not puffed up."

What a paradox Jesus gave to the Greeks at the feast at Bethany "---He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal." There is no excuse for animosity toward another,--for we have been planted together in the likeness of his death and resurrection: and he that is dead is free from sin. And this new commandment I give unto you, "That ye love one another; As I have loved you, that ye also love one another."

JUNIORS TOUR WORLD IN ONE NIGHT!

Hats, leis, menus, tickets, shamrock, and Chinese umbrellas encumbered the Juniors as they traveled "from Mexico to France." In Mexico (Willie and Doris Richards' home) a hot cocktail began the dinner. Mexican hats, Spanish music and singing from Dave Womack added to the atmosphere of Old Mexico. Hawaii (Sue Rydblom's home) greeted us with leis, which were worn on the wrists, ankles and some even on ears. Sue served them a beautifully colored, tasty salad which satisfied the hungry stomachs.

From Hawaii they traveled to Ireland for hot Shamrock soup. While in Ireland they were introduced to a Shillelagh by the name of Brother Fee, our advisor, (who is a good sport.)

Mrs. John Cline received them at China in a Chinese costume. Lights were low and the odor of Chinese cookery and incense permeated the room. A clarinet solo, by John Cline and a game of proverbs was the entertainment. When the Chinese lady served the rice and shrimp dish, a scream was heard and then someone yelled, "Pass the bug juice (soy sauce)! Sue's got a worm!" Sue had found a plastic angle worm on her plate.

France, with its parfait, put a 'tops' topping on the dinner. The devotions were opened with Barbara Voltz singing and playing on the accordian. "Wishbones, jawbones and backbones in a Class" was the topic of the message which John Crowder delivered to end an enjoyable evening of fun, food and fellowship for the Juniors.

CONSTITUTIONAL CORNER

"Hi! Remember your promise?"

"What promise?"

"You promised to tell me how to make a need known to the Student Council?"

"Oh, yes. Let's pretend you have a project that you'd like the Student Body to undertake. You must first write it out and give it to one of your class officers."

"You mean the president, vice-president, or the secretary-treasurer?"

"That's right. And then he presents it to the Student Council in the form of a motion at their next regular business meeting."

"What would I do if I thought that the Constitution or the By-Laws needed amending?"

"Well, to amend the Constitution, you must first present the suggested amendment to the Student Council. It must be approved by a two-thirds vote of the Council, provided that notice has been given at the regular meeting before the meeting at which the amendment is to be voted upon."

"Sort of complicated, isn't it? Do you amend the By-Laws the same way?"

"No, it's much easier. The By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting by a majority vote of the active membership."

"If I see that there is something to be done, there's no excuse for me now not to take it to the Council."

"No, I guess not!"

biding presence of the Holy Spirit and have the relationship as children of God, and if children of God then heirs to God and joint heirs with Christ. We can be thankful for the privileges of worship, and service with the enjoyment of of Christian fellowship, but most of all for the glorious hope of His return. Being enriched in everything which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. II Co. 9:11

ATHLETES ADOPT NAME

By a vote of 3 to 1 the students voted on Nov. 13 to adopt the name EAGLES for their athletic teams. The name is appropriate because the eagle is a highly symbolic bird, showing majesty and grace in flight, and speed to over-take foes. The Scripture gives reference to the eagle in Isaiah 40:31 "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." The symbol of the eagle is easily recognized. It is our national symbol, and we give allegiance to our national government. If we sponsor junior-varsity teams they could be called the Eaglets. In the future a snack bar or "Campus Hub" could be called the "Eagle's Nest."

The Athletic Department thanks each student who responded to the contest.

PRAISE (Thanksgiving Prayer)

O Thou, whose bounty fills my cup,
With every blessing meet!
I give Thee thanks for every drop,
The bitter and the sweet.

I praise Thee for the desert road,
And for the riverside;
For all thy goodness hath bestowed,
And all Thy grace denied.

I thank Thee for both smile and frown,
And for the gain and loss;
I praise Thee for the future crown,
And for the present cross.

I thank thee for the wings of love
Which stirred my worldly nest;
And for the stormy clouds which drove
Me, trembling, to thy breast.

I bless Thee for the glad increase,
And for the waning joy;
And for this strange, this settled
peace,
Which nothing can destroy.
