OREGON PASTOR TO SPEAK

EVANGELIST KROGSTAD COMING

"What did you think of our fall quarter's Spiritual Emphasis week?"

"I thought it was excellent," replied one student. "I couldn't put my finger on it, but something happened to me spiritually."

This is only one of many such testimonials given as a result of the meetings with Brother Buntain. Next week we are again looking forward to "Spiritual Emphasis Week" with Brother Krogstad as our speaker. He has done pastoral work in Minnesota and North Dakota. He was Associate Pastor with Dr. Henry H. Ness at Hollywood Temple, now Calvary Temple, for 8 months. Since then he has pastored in Oakland, California and is presently at Eugene, Oregon. He has also been Camp Meeting speaker two years for the Montana District.

Another item of interest: the Student Council and Missionary Society members will be taking part in the services.

PREACHERS' KIDS WIN

A high wave of tenseness filled the air at the Roosevelt Gym as the "Preachers' Kids" and the "Laymen's Sons" took to the floor for what proved to be a real battle.

ALUMNI ANNALS

(Ed. Note--Through a series of articles the Courier plans to introduce members of the Alumni association to the student body.)

May we present to you Harris Lidstrand, president of the Alumni Association of NBC. His election to this office at the spring District Council meeting in Everett is only one step on the ladder of Harris' service for God.

Entering NBC from NCBI as a Junior in the fall of 1946 Harris began to learn of the student-alumni relationship. After his graduation with the Harvesters, class of 1947, he returned to NBC for his fourth year.

Evangelism was the first step after school for Harris into the work of the Lord. For three years he labored in the Mid-west and in the California area. Then he returned to the Pacific Northwest and accepted the position of Director of the Youth for Christ in the Seattle area. Since May of 1952 until just a few weeks ago, he has worked fervently to promote Christianity in the high school Bible clubs, and in the

SCRIPTURAL INTERPRETATION

The Lord is with you while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. II Chronicles 15:3

The message of this verse is both a promise of the presence of God with us and a warning that God's presence can be withdrawn from our lives. Both are conditional and based on the attitude of our hearts toward him.

This message was spoken to Asa the ruler of Judah. It was spoken to him immediately after a mighty victory which he achieved over impossible odds because he put his full trust in God. God brought this solemn warning to Asa in the hour of triumph because he knew that Asa would later come to a place in his life when he would need help. He would forget his faith in God and turn to man and natural resources for his help. In so doing Asa would find his defeat and downfall even though he had once known a vital and victorious faith in God.

How urgent that we recognize every day that if we desire the presence of the Lord Jesus in our lives we must seek him today. If we desire the victory that comes through Him alone we must be willing to put our faith in Him for that victory. Yesterday's experiences do not suffice for today. To know victory in the present we must know Jesus Christ afresh everyday.

FRIENDS IN TIME OF NEED

While Mrs. Butterfield is away the bookroom is in the capable hands of Mrs. Spradley and her daughter, Mrs. Vath. They are sharing their duties.

Mrs. Vath has a great deal of excitement in store, for in about three weeks she will be joining her husband, Lt. Ray Vath, who is stationed in Germany with the Air Force. They will make their home there for the next three years.

We, of NBC wish to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Spradley and Mrs. Vath for their assistance at this time.

When asked, "What is the purpose of the Alumni Association?" he stated, "The association is for the direct benefit of the school, and to provide fellowship among the former students." NEXT ISSUE: Miss Doris Johnson.

WHAT'S THE RUSH???

You turned the alarm clock off but didn't get right up. Then you jumped out of bed a short while later and hurried to get ready for school and grab a bite to eat. Rushing into school you slipped into your seat as the bell rang.

Classes went as usual, maybe one study period and the rest of the time was spent in classes. At 12:30 you hurriedly found your coat and dashed out to catch that bus for work. There was plenty to do at the job and by evening time you felt a little tired.

That wasn't all. After getting a quick supper you kept your nose in a book or outline for a couple hours. Then your friend stopped in and you chatted for a considerably longer time than you had expected. All of a sudden it was bed time and your eyes would hardly stay open long enough to get in bed.-----Oh!, there goes the alarm again!!//-----

The circumstances described may be the somewhat varied but the scene is one of repetition. Hurry, Hurry, Hurry.... In fact, it is so true that it is alarming because it is the wrong formula for obtaining that which we desire. The song writer said, "Take time to be holy, speak oft with thy Lord", and well might we take heed and slow down to a walk that includes time out with Jesus. What's the rush?

ahead with the first basket of the game, and, shortly after, Denny Davis added another two-Pointer. Then the L.S.'s started hitting and they tied the game with two successive buckets by Bud Lyden.

From there on it was a see-saw battle and the P.K.'s managed to pull away to a 6 point lead with only 4 minutes to go. But the L.S.'s were not to be denied as they kept shooting and closed the gap to 2 points, but time ran out for them and the P.K.'s walked away with a 25 to 23 victory.

An interesting and hard-fought game between the Jr.-Sr. team and the Freshmen team began the intramural season for the boys of NBC. The Jr.-Sr. team, which consisted of all married men, gave the younger and hustling freshmen team a good battle and the score throughout was close. However, the married men proved too powerful for their younger foes and they came off the floor with a 48 to 41 victory.
