Students!

On Monday morning at the usual chapel hour, go immediately to your class meetings. The Freshman class will not meet in the chapel as usual, but they will meet in the library. This is done so that pictures can be taken in the chapel for the annual. Your Monday morning offering will be taken in the class meetings.

All late-entrants, foreign students, chapel pianists and organists, gospel teams (including ensemble groups in choir), Sunday School teachers and assistant pastors will have their pictures taken Monday morning in the chapel from 10:05-11:55. Late entrants go immediately to the chapel at this time; others wait until called from class meeting.
