

STUDENT BULLETIN

May 28, 1963

Remember the student prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8:00 p.m.

* * *

There will be no classes Thursday, May 30. This is Memorial Day. Absences on Wednesday and Friday are subject to "double cuts".

* * *

The annual Baccalaureate service will be held this Sunday at 3:00 p.m. at the Westminster Assembly of God Church in Seattle. The church is located at 145th and Westminster.

* * *

Students who have not given a summer mailing address to the office should do so this week.

Those who do not plan to return to school next fall and who do not leave their summer address at the administration office will not receive their 1962-1963 yearbook, for they will be mailed from the yearbook company to those students who will not be returning.

* * *

All students having infirmery supplies (hot water bottles, plastic bandages) please return them to the infirmery by Wednesday, May 29, 1963.

* * *

Please remember that all library fines must be paid and all books in before commencement. Unpaid fines will be payable at the administration building, rather than in the library, beginning Friday, May 31.

All books will be due two days before commencement (Wednesday, June 5) and may be renewed one day at a time until commencement.

* * *

Graduates are reminded that all transcripts must be on file with the Registrar and accounts paid with the Business Office as of the day of graduation in order to graduate.

* * *

The following graduates are asked to see Mr. Millard as soon as possible concerning their cap and gown specifications.

Phyllis Hamm
Pat Kelley
Marjorie Kisser
Darlene Miller
Everett McKinney

George Smith
Trinidad Esperanza
Iona Biehl
Nancy Boyd
Lois Enyeart

Gwen Friesen
Dianne Jackson
Anna-Belle Kissr
Sandra Searcy
Janice Wingett