The following library books have been lost during this school year and will have to be paid for unless they are found by June 1. If you should know the whereabouts of any of them, the students involved would undoubtedly appreciate your arranging for their prompt return to the library.

How to teach obedience (pamphlet)
Cooper - The term paper, copy 2.
Barnes - Home sweet zoo
Wells - God, the invisible king
Nimkoff - Marriage and the family
Wallin - Personality maladjustments and mental hygiene
Rogers - On becoming a person
Irwin - Servant of slaves
Finegan - Light from the ancient past, copy 5

The library would also appreciate the return of the May 1964 Readers' Digest.
