

STUDENT BULLETIN

Thursday, December 8, 1966

GRADUATES: All graduates may examine their graduate photos this Friday, December 9th from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

This will be your only chance, so please make a special effort.

BUSINESS OFFICE: If you still owe money on your fall quarter account and have not made special arrangements with the Business Office be sure to see Mrs. Hayman before examination or they cannot be taken.

CHURCH BASKETBALL LEAGUE: As many of you know, there is an Assembly of God Church Basketball League here in Seattle. But did you know that Northwest College has a team in that league? There is a group of married men that has entered in the league, these married men are selling season tickets. These tickets are being sold in order to help pay the entrance fee to get into the league and to help pay for the uniforms. They cost only $.50 for students and $1.00 for adults.

If you would like to support your married men's basketball team and help them win the championship buy your tickets from one of the following people:

Jim Brenn	Jay Littlefield
Gary Clark	Larry Meissner
Forrest Curtis	Larry Nelson
Byron Ditty	Lynn Runnion
Wayne Hathaway	Dennis Trout
Bill King	Doug Wessel

LIBRARY: The library will close at 6 p.m. this Thursday evening due to the Christmas Concert. It will remain open until 8 p.m. Friday evening.

BASKETBALL GAMES: There are two games for this coming week-end. Friday, December 9, at 9:00, we will be playing the Bible Standard College; and on Saturday, December 10th at 7:00, Northwest Christian College. All students are encouraged to be there to cheer the team on to a double victory. Please be sure to have your student body card handy when you come to the games on Friday and Saturday.
