

STUDENT BULLETIN

Tuesday, March 1, 1966

FROM THE REGISTRAR: All students who did NOT register for the Spring quarter are expected to file a discontinuance notice with the Registrar as soon as possible. Those who will be registering late should plan to do so on MARCH 28th, the day before the new quarter commences.

FROM DEAN LACKEY: The dates for the spring vacation have been changed from those listed in the catalog. There will be one week interim between quarters instead of a week's vacation in April.

The last official day of activities for the winter quarter will be Thursday, March 17. The Spring quarter will resume with registration on Monday, March 28 and classes begin Tuesday, March 29.

FROM THE LIBRARY: Library fines which have not been paid by Wednesday, March 2nd, will be sent to the business office and added to accounts.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY: Miss Pearl Estep and Miss Florence Schaffer, missionaries to Bolivia will be the speakers on Friday, March 4.

BASKETBALL: Thursday, March 3, 8:30 p.m. against Mountlake College. Friday, March 4, 7:00 p.m. against either L.B.I. or P.S.C.B., whichever of the two wins their game (that is, if we beat Mountlake we will play the winner. We will win, won't we!)
