LIBRARY: Do you know how critical the country's shortage of trained librarians is becoming? How many varieties of librarians there are? Why more men are entering library work? Why library salaries have doubled in the last dozen years? NOBODY KNOWS EVERYTHING. But you're invited to find out what librarianship offers this Wednesday night at 7:30 in C-3, When Dr. Irving Lieberman of the University's Library School will be with us, showing a film and answering questions. Let's have a good turnout.

PLAY NIGHT: Remember the evening of intermural recreation this Friday, April 15.

MEETINGS:

1. Will all those who indicated an interest in working in ALASKA this summer see Dean Pecota immediately after chapel on Wednesday. Meet by the piano.
2. Will all Oregon students meet with Dean Pecota right after chapel on Thursday. Please occupy the front rows by the piano.
3. Don't forget the Junior class meeting tonight at 7:00 in prayer chapel.
4. Spiritual Emphasis Week will begin next Monday, April 18, with Rev. Wesley Hurst. The first meeting will be Monday evening at 7:30. After that we are on the abbreviated class schedule. Let us pray and prepare for the meetings.

ASB ELECTIONS: They will be held next Monday during the ASB chapel hour. Please note the eligibility list on the SUB bulletin board.

CHAPEL SPEAKERS:

Wednesday: Rev. & Mrs. Cochrane, British missionaries to the Congo.

Thursday: Rev. Frank Rice.

Friday: Rev. Bob Pagett. Oregon District CA-SS Director.
