

STUDENT BULLETIN

Tuesday, December 3, 1968

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"Some people seem able to bring happiness wherever they go; others, whenever they go."

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Whoever removed the suede hat from the men's locker room, please return it to Mel French or the office.

PEP BAND

Pop band practice will be tonight at 7:00 in the SUB. Be sure to come!

FOR SALE

Do you need a stove? A party will sell YOU an electric stove for just $5. Even though it is 12 years old, it works! Call VA 2-6930.

A NOTE OF INTEREST

There will be a Wycliffe Prayer Meeting in the Prayer Chapel today from 4-5 p.m. This meeting is to pray for needs of Bible Translators around the world.

POP FEE

We have recently been notified that our case price for pop has been increased by 20¢. Therefore, the joint Student-Administration Snack Shack Committee has authorized a 5¢ per bottle increase for pop on campus. The beverage company told us that this increase is nation-wide.

CHAPEL SCHEDULE

Remember the schedule changes for tomorrow and Thursday. It is as follows: 1st period, 7:30-8:15; 2nd period, 8:20-9:05; and Chapel 9:10-10:10. There will be an opportunity for you to ask questions in these special Chapels.

CULTURAL LECTURE

Mr. Raphael Green will present a cultural lecture on the topic of "Russia vs. China" to be held in the Learning Center Auditorium, Thursday, December 5.

BASKETBALL THIS WEEK

The basketball team will be traveling to Portland to play Multnomah School of the Bible Friday and Saturday.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE

It's time to do your Christmas shopping. Why not shop at the Bookstore and save! December 4-6 are the Big Sale Days. Fifteen percent off on anything in the store except text books.

RIDE NEEDED

Jane Fowler needs a ride to Mercer Island Monday-Friday at 2:30. Remuneration is available. Contact her at VA 2-9945 or room 217 in Perks Hall.

MUSICAL PRESENTATION

The Seattle Chorale will perform the most complete presentation of Handel's Messiah in the Seattle area on December 8, at 7:30 PM in the Opera House. See the Bulletin Board poster in the SUB for full details.