

STUDENT BULLETIN

Tuesday, December 10, 1968

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"Some people are always complaining because roses have thorns, but I am glad thorns have roses."

ATTENTION, MARRIED MEN!

Please make sure your wife reads this!! Co-weds will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Cafeteria. Bring two small Christmas decorations from home. Also bring a little personally wrapped gift for Sulamena if you didn't last time.

AWS MEETING

The Annual AWS Christmas Meeting will be Wednesday, December 11, at 8 p.m. Don't forget your secret pal's gift! It's planned especially for YOU!

PEP BAND

The mandatory practice will be tonight at 7 p.m. We have some games SOON!

WEST SEATTLE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

...SHOULD REMEMBER the Home From College Day on December 20, being sponsored by your school. West Seattle graduates that would like to participate are asked to see the Dean of Students.

REMEMBER THE FUL SHOTS?

Those who received their first flu shot in October should get their second in the series on Wednesday or Friday, December 11 or 13, between 2-4 p.m.

SOPHOMORES...

Don't forget that needy family. Give to the class Christmas basket or put some money on the tree in the Bookstore.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

- (1) Students not continuing in college next quarter are to file a notice of discontinuance at the Registrar's window.
- (2) Students who may have registered for next quarter but who may have had a change of plans must file a cancellation notice on their winter quarter registration.
- (3) Students who have not registered but intend to do so will be considered out of enrollment unless they notify the Registrar's office of intent to enroll on January 6.

BASKETBALL GAME THIS WEEKEND

Northwest College Eagles will play the Bible Standard Deacons at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights. Your student body card is good for admission.

NC TO PARTICIPATE IN EVERETT TOURNAMENT

NC Eagles are invited to participate in the Everett Community College holiday tournament December 26-28. Northwest's first game will be at 9 p.m. December 26 against Olympic Junior College. Games will be played in the ECC Gym. Admission with Student Body card is 75¢.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT AND OPEN HOUSE

The College Choir will present the Christmas portion of Handel's Messiah Thursday at 7:30, following which will be an open house in Perk's Hall. All are invited to attend both events.

DORMITORY CHECK OUT

Students may stay in the dormitories through Saturday, December 21 without extra charge. The last cafeteria meal will be served Saturday noon.

Students who wish to live in the dorms during the Christmas Interim should notify their supervisors or the Dean of Students office immediately.

WINTER QUARTER REGISTRATION DATES

January 4 - Dormitories open. January 5 - The first meal will be served in the Cafeteria. January 6 - Registration for new students. January 7 - Class instruction begins.