

STUDENT BULLETIN

Wednesday, May 31, 1967

ATTENTION: Remember the Awards Day Assembly which will be held during the chapel time tomorrow, June 1st. All students are especially encouraged to be there on that day, even those who have been excused because of some work obligation. Who knows, you may be the one to receive an award.

- GRADUATES:
- (1) If you have not come in to be measured for cap-size, do so immediately. There are ten who have not done so to date. We can not issue a cap with an accurate measurement without your cooperation.
 - (2) If your accounts with the College are not paid in full you will not be presented for public graduation. You should get in touch with the Business Office immediately if your accounts are not paid to date.
 - (3) Be prepared for instructions on academic ceremonies in the chapel on Thursday, June 1st immediately after chapel. Your presence and cooperation is expected.

FROM THE BUSINESS OFFICE: If your account is not paid in full, and you have not signed a note and you plan to talk to Brother Crowder about your arrangements for taking exams DO NOT WAIT until Monday morning at 7:00 a.m. because he will not be in at that early hour. Remember, if your account is not paid or you have not made other satisfactory arrangements the faculty will not allow you to take exams. HURRY! HURRY! HURRY!

ATTENTION LADIES: "A Note of Praise" is the theme for the All-Girls Honors Night Program TONITE at 7:30 o'clock in the Cafeteria. All N.C. girls are urged to be present. Honors Roll members, Little Sisters, Engaged girls and Graduates will be honored. Refreshments will be served. Program sponsored by Associated Women Students Organization. Please plan to come.

P.S. Wear what you would for a Friday night dress-up dinner on-campus.

IMPORTANT: The petition forms requesting the State Liquor Control Board to continue the long-standing policy banning the Sunday sale of alcoholic beverages in the state of Washington are on the counter of the Administration Office. The signees must be residents of Washington and the home address given. Must be 16 years of age or older. Please do not sign again if you have already signed some place else. All faculty and students are encouraged to sign this petition.

T.V. APPEARANCE: Miss Sharon Rose Portin will be featured on KOMO TV's "Northwest Traveler" when she does the film narration of her recent trip to Helsinki, Finland. In Seattle the program is scheduled for today, May 31st, 7:00 p.m. over channel 4 in color.

The film feature will appear on other dates in other parts of the United States. Miss Portin will be an N.C. student next year.
