THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"If I sympathize weakly with weakness, and say to one who is turning back from the Cross, Pity thyself; if I refuse such a one the sympathy that braces and the brave and heartening word of comradeship, then I know nothing of Calvary love." --Amy Carmichael

BIBLE CLUBS

There will be a meeting tonight at 8:00 p.m. in the SUB for all those interested in leading home Bible Clubs. This is another rewarding Christian service opportunity for those who love children and who want to win them for Christ.

SOPHOMORES

There will be an orientation meeting with George Johnson on witnessing at the University of Washington on Friday at 6:30 a.m. in the Cafeteria. This meeting is essential if you plan to participate in the outreach on Sunday, November 12. We will be meeting at the Prayer Chapel, Sunday at 2:15 p.m.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE

Whoooo-whoooo! STOP!! Check our new supply of tracts. Pick up a good supply. ANOTHER NEW BOOK: Baker's Pictorial Introduction to the Bible. Brother Millard states, "This is a promising volume; the pictorial content is excellent, not overly technical. The book is comprehensive and understandable.

STRIKE UP THE BAND?!?!

ALL Students who are interested in starting a full-time band, please meet in the SUB (S-2) Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. This meeting is important because there are many things to be discussed.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Students should check the intramural bulletin board often for information and coming events. The intramural bulletin board is the bulletin board just inside the West entrance of the Pavilion (boys' side).

THE KEY

The following people have been approved by Reverend Henley and the Dean's Office to work at the Key. They are allowed to return to the Campus at 1:00 a.m. on Saturday nights if they have been working at the Key. If your name is not on the list, you should contact Reverend Henley at the Key.
