THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"If I am soft to myself and slide comfortably into the vice of self-pity and self-sympathy; if I do not by the grace of God practice fortitude, then I know nothing of Calvary love." --Amy Carmichael

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

What to do if you are tardy--write out a note stating your name and seat number and turn it in at the receptionist's desk. (1) Three tardies equal one absence. (2) You are allowed seven unexcused absences. (3) If you are sick, you can be excused if you get a note from the Supervisor, Nurse, Dean of Women, or Dean of Students.

CO-WEDS

The Co-Weds will meet Tuesday, November 14 at 7:30 in the Cafeteria. Don't forget your apple and candle.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE

Whooooo-whooo! Something new will soon be arriving at the Bookstore. You will all want one, can use one, and can afford one!! Please watch for further announcements! Something new--desk pads and matching pencil cups. Stop and take a look--better yet, buy a set.

CALLING ALL NORTHWEST GIRLS

For all Northwest girls: Be sure to come and join us Wednesday night at 9:30 p.m. in our Preparation of Service. We meet in Perk's lounge and there is something planned for you.

FOR MEN ONLY

Mr. David Avolio, Field Director for the Boy Scouts of America for the Seattle Council, will be on the campus November 21 at 10:00 a.m. to interview men interested in working with the Boy Scouts. If you are interested and would like an interview, make an appointment with President Hurst's secretary, Juanita Belcher.

A WORD ABOUT THANKSGIVING HOLIDAYS

If you will be here over the Thanksgiving Holidays, please sign the lists at the Dormitory desks. Meals will be served every day with the exception of Thanksgiving Day.

FOR MEN--JOBS

There are two jobs open for men: (1) Helping on construction, Saturdays and two afternoons weekly. (2) Newspaper office from 7:00 p.m. to midnight on Tuesdays only. If you're interested, please see Miss Guy right away.
