THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"If I cannot in honest happiness take the second place (or the twentieth), if I cannot take the first without making a fuss about my unworthiness, then I know nothing of Calvary love." --Amy Carmichael

SOPHOMORE CLASS MEMBERS

The Sophomore class will meet again this Sunday at 3:00 p.m. in the Prayer Chapel. From there they will go to the University district for their outreach program.

YOUTH ACTION CRUSADE

Are you interested? Secure the proper forms..fill them out...make an appointment to be interviewed. Ward Tanneberg, the District C. A. President, is interviewing at the District Office on Thursday, November 30 from 1:30-4:30, and on Friday, December 1 from 9:00-12:00 and 1:30-4:30. Sign up with the President's secretary, Juanita Belcher.

CHRISTMAS CONTATA TO BE PRESENTED

The Christmas Cantata, Born A King, by John W. Peterson, will be presented by the College Choir, December 8 at 8:00 p.m. in the College Chapel. A cordial invitation to all.

ATTENTION DORMITORY STUDENTS

Dormitory students leaving campus are required to sign out and in. This is necessary so you can be contacted in emergencies. The only authorized people to open the dormitory after in hours are the proctors and the supervisors.

NEEDS A RIDE

Charlotte Steigers needs a ride to downtown Seattle about 1:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Please reply to Box 804.

ATTENTION: ALL WOMEN RESIDENTS OF PERKS HALL

The annual Christmas door decorating contest is just around the corner. Prizes will be awarded in three divisions: (1) Secular, (2) Religious, (3) Novelty. The date of the judging will be announced at a later time...So put on your thinking caps and decorate a winning door!

BASKETBALL GAMES

Hey Fans! The first league basketball games are coming up this weekend. On Friday, we have a game before the PSBC-Multnomah with the University Law School, and on Saturday we will be playing the Multnomah Ambassadors. Show your school spirit and support the Eagles. They need YOU! Come Friday at 6:00 p.m. and Saturday at 9:00 p.m.

CALLING ALL SONGLEADERS

If interested in taking a class in Conducting in the Spring Quarter, please put your request in writing and turn it in to Dean Rice. It would be helpful if you could indicate favorable times for the class, or times when you could not take it.

DON'T ASK

Final examinations will be given at the scheduled times. Do not ask you instructor to give the test early for you.

NOTE ON CHAPEL

Students are to sit in assigned seats for Chapel. When you sign and then sit in another persons seat, it inconveniences them and tends to confuse seating.

JOB FOR MARRIED COUPLE

Wanted: A married student to work as hotel clerk, hours 4 p.m. to 12 midnight and employment full time for the wife also. See Miss Guy.

PANEL DISCUSSION

A panel discussion and open forum on Creation and Science will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, December 1, at the First Evangelical Presbyterian Church, 6318 Linden Avenue N. (east of Green Lake), Seattle.

RE: The Weekend Basketball Games

They say that confession is good for the soul; therefore, I confess. I goofed!

The student bulletin published on Thursday, November 30, is incorrect. Friday night Northwest College will be playing Multnomah School of the Bible at 8:00 p.m. Saturday night, Northwest College will be playing the University of Washington Law School at 6:00 p.m. Multnomah School of the Bible and Puget Sound College of the Bible will be playing in our Gym at 8:00 p.m.

I urge you to come and support your team! Do not forget the afterglow in Perks Hall Lounge following the Friday night game.

P.S. We need people who are willing to work at ball games (selling tickets, etc.). If you're interested, contact myself or Miss Guy.
