THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"I have loved you even as the Father has loved Me. Live within my love."
--John 15:9, Living Gospels

FOR SALE

Blue and white Maro Ha accordian, 120 base, 9 change...see Dean Rozell.

ATTENTION SENIORS!

Investments, insurance, wills, trusts--H. W. Crowder will be speaking to the Seniors, May 1, in room C-3 during the Chapel period.

FROM THE BUSINESS OFFICE

Remember the policy states that only students who have cleared their accounts are eligible to graduate or receive a diploma or degree.

There are National Defense Student Loan funds available for those who qualify. Any who are interested and have a financial need should apply immediately--there is still time to service your request. Accounts must be cared for before final test week.

A promisory note must be taken out by any student whose account will not be settled in full before finals. This note must be serviced before that date; and if the student is under 21 years of age, the note must be co-signed by the parent. Avoid last minute embarrassment and rush...care for this early. The deadline is May 15.

BAKE SALE

Wednesday, May 1, in the Snack Shack, home-baked goodies will be on sale by the Ladies' Auxiliary of NC. The times are: 9 a.m.-1 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.-10 p.m. The proceeds go to a scholarship fund.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

The last day to withdraw from a course for this quarter is May 3.

Students who are planning to return next fall may pick up a copy of the new 1968-69 catalogue at the Registrar's Office.

Because of enrollment growth on the campus in relation to available space, students now on campus must file an Enrollment Confirmation Form in order to reserve enrollment and housing space for next fall. All students will receive shortly in their mail boxes a letter together with the confirmation form from the Registrar's Office. Write them carefully and return them to the Registrar's Office as soon as possible.
