THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly; and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." --Proverbs 18:24.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The Snack Shack will be closed during the evenings of this week due to Spiritual Emphasis.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS PLANNING TO GRADUATE

Applications for graduation must be filed with the Registrar by October 31, for graduation at the close of the current academic year. Pick up forms and complete them at the Registrar's window in the Faculty Building.

KEY WORKERS

Before late-ins can be approved, you must be approved by the Key manager, Mel Nortune. He in turn will contact the College and your late-in will go into effect automatically.

POSTERS

All posters must be approved at the Dean of Students Office before posting.

LOCAL AND LONG DISTANCE CALLS

It will be helpful to the College switchboard if personal calls were received on floor phones rather than through the main switchboard. This will not only reduce the load on the main line, but it will also enable the person calling to contact you more quickly.

FLU SHOTS

Flu shots will be given this week from 2-4:00 Wednesday and Friday in the Infirmary.

ATTENTION EXSERVICEMEN!

All veterans will be excused from Chapel October 24 to meet with Robert Way in C-3 concerning ministry to the servicemen. Mr. Way is the Director of the Servicemen's Division of the Assemblies of God. This is being sponsored by the Children and Youth MIG.

YOUTH ACTION CRUSADE

Those who plan to participate in the YAC this weekend in West Seattle are asked to sign up in the SUB by Wednesday, October 16.

OFFERINGS TO DATE

Associated Student Body - $383.60. World Outreach Ministries - $713.52.
