Together... We Can!

"We are workers together." The Scripture makes this clear! The Bible talks of a linkage between God and us and assumes a linkage amongst us. The "we" implies a co-laborship between believers!

The strength of togetherness cannot be over-estimated. This is demonstrated all around us. But nowhere has it been more clearly shown than in the history of the Church — martyrs, dying together, have shown it so!

I'm thinking, however, that working together and serving together as co-laborers with God is even a greater demonstration of this power. The Church and the College working together, amounts to you and me, each in his place of God-given service, doing what he can to help in a positive manner in the building of the Kingdom. God gives each a calling...an opportunity... an enablement. He places in each one's hands the ability to respond to challenges which come to him and says, "We are doing it together!"

Now, Northwest College is training young people for the ministry and for Christian service. But we need your help! We need to know the names and addresses of potential students whom you know and whom we should contact.

Will you take a moment to fill in the form included at the right and return it to us?

Let's do it together!

KING'S CHORALONS T

The Northwest College King's Choralons 40-voice concert choir recently toured throughout Denmark, Sweden and Finland in a special goodwill series of sacred concerts. The group spent two days in Copenhagen and then traveled by bus and ferry to Gothenberg, Sweden to participate in a city-wide tent crusade. The choir then traveled to Stockholm by rail and ministered in the Philadelphia Church city-wide tent crusade. A flight to Finland took the group to Hameenlinna for appearance at the Mid-Summer Pentecostal conference of Finland. Attendance at this conference totaled 20,000 persons. After the conference and a free day for sight seeing, the choir continued to tour through Finland and visited the cities of Turku, Jyvaskyla, Kuopio, Kotka, and Helsinki. Some one to three appearances were made by the choir in each of these cities.

The response to the ministry of the King's Choralons far exceeded original expectations. Every night there were those who responded to the invitation and accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior.

The Scandinavian Christians were warm and extended a hearty welcome to the young people from America. Finnish Pentecostal leaders were lavish with their compliments concerning both the choir's ministry and the conduct of the members of the group.

The choir returned to America on July 5 tired, ... but thrilled with the opportunity for ministry that had been afforded them.

OUR SCANDINAVIA DURING SUMMER INTERIM

Lots of muscle needed for over 75 pieces of checked luggage—plus all carry-on items!

Rita McClarty was a tour favorite on her violin.

The King's Choralons presented a concert at the city-wide tent crusade sponsored by Philadelphia Church in Stockholm, Sweden.

Finnish public address equipment technicians provided excellent sound system for all indoor and outdoor concerts.

President Hurst addressed Hammenlinna Conference and spoke each evening on tour. Here he is seen with brethren from Finnish and Russian churches, the Finnish Bible school director, and Reverend Ahonen, leader of Finnish Pentecostal movement.

The bus became "home away from home" for tour members in Finland.

L. to R. Pekka Ahonen, an alumnus of NC, served as tour guide and interpreter. With him are Miss Eila Kolu, an interpreter, and Finnish bus driver.

The program involves extending our Bible School to villages with special programmed materials. There would be extension centers where a teacher from the school would go once a week to teach those who cannot come to the school in the city. This could multiply our student bodies from 5 to 10 times the present size."

Linfield Crowder is Autumn Spiritual Emphasis Week Speaker

Reverend Linfield Crowder is scheduled to be the guest speaker during the autumn quarter of Spiritual Emphasis Week at Northwest College. Reverend Crowder is an alumnus of Northwest College and was guest speaker during a Spiritual Emphasis Week in 1965. His popularity among the students on college and university campuses is well known throughout the nation.

Reverend Crowder graduated from Northwest College in 1953. He pioneered a new church in Kuna, Idaho and pastored there for four years. During the past fifteen years he has served as an evangelist within the Assemblies of God movement. He has preached many youth camps, adult Bible camps, missionary conventions and youth conventions. He traveled extensively in ministry overseas and has recently been a guest lecturer on a number of university campuses such as Portland State and the University of Arizona.
