

STUDENT BULLETIN
Thursday, February 27, 1969

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"When you stretch the truth, people usually see through it."

FROM THE BUSINESS OFFICE

Students with delinquent accounts are reminded that these must be cleared before finals can be taken.

JOB OPENING

There is an opening for a part-time salesman (door to door) for household and industrial products. The beginning wage is 30% of your sales, AND you can set up your own schedule. If YOU are interested, call Mr. Terry Anderson VA 2-7983 during the evening.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE OPPORTUNITY

We are looking for a college graduate of better than average ability. He should be able to communicate with both Christian and non-Christian young people, with adults, and have the ability to do a certain amount of administrative work. Some experience in a church would be preferred. If this sounds like what you would like to do, write today to: Mr. David Coleman, Executive Director, Voice of Christian Youth, P. O. Box 834, Tacoma, Washington, 98401. This is a branch of Youth For Christ.

INTRAMURAL SCHEDULE

Tonight at 7:00 Newby's Nothings play EB2, and WB2 plays the Inmates. AND at 8:00 the Fifth Dimensions play the Marrieds, and the Stuffed Animals play the Annex.

FILM AND LECTURE

Henry Portin, professional photographer and world traveller, a member of the Board of Trustees, will present a film and lecture in the Learning Center Auditorium on Tuesday, March 4, at 8 p.m. His theme will be "Peoples, Cultures, and Religions of the Orient." Don't miss this one!!